

Naumann's NorCal News

Rich Scholes has left Rancho Murietta CC to become the superintendent at Corral de Tierra CC in Salinas. He says he is looking forward to the challenge of maintaining 18 holes again after years of 36 holes at R.M.C.C. . . . Doug Holcomb is the new superintendent at Delta View GC in Pittsburg. Doug was the assistant superintendent prior to his promotion. Doug is replacing Carl King who has moved on to other challenges.

The recent wind storm in the bay area has caused unbelievable damage, widespread power outages and short tempers. Palo Alto Muni G.C. seems to win the dubious prize of the most amount of tipped over trees at 40. Many other courses have experienced range netting down, fallen branches and flooding.

Ten Ways (Cont'd)

- 9. Be cheerful — Be sure to smile and say hello to your co-workers and staff. Your cheerfulness and enthusiasm can be contagious.
- 10. Keep things in perspective — Remind yourself and your colleagues that things aren't as bad as they sometimes seem during the stress of the moment.
