MAXIMIZING JOB SATISFACTION

Date: Wednesday, May 19, 1999

Time: 8:00 a.m.-5:00 p.m.

Where: Pleasanton, CA; The Pleasanton Hilton at the Club

CEUs: 0.7

Code: 99RS137-02

Why should I attend?

Whether you are comfortable in your present position or suffering from burnout, this one-day seminar helps you evaluate your level of job satisfaction. Through a variety of self-examination techniques, learn to work systematically to become more content and productive. Learn to recognize your needs for job satisfaction, identify job characteristics that provide you with the greatest degree of satisfaction, determine the traits that cause you the most dissatisfaction, and work through gaps in your satisfaction level.

Faculty member:

Gerry Sweda is a former corporate training manager for O.M. Scott & Sons and a former golf course superintendent. He is an independent trainer who specializes in improving the effectiveness of businesses and individuals.
