

Rana Creek Habitat Restoration and Farmload Distributing

Would like to invite you to attend an Open House and Field Day for the Golf Industry

“Let’s Go Native”

“An opportunity for the Golf Community to learn more about available environmental products and services, native grasses and plants and how their utilization can help reduce maintenance costs, promote more efficient water usage, enhance beauty, and further environmental stewardship.”

Saturday / June 15, 2002 / 9:00 AM
Lunch Included / Facility Tours to Follow

The Open House /Field Day is being held at the Rana Creek Habitat Restoration Research And Development Facility located at:

Rana Creek Ranch
35351 E. Carmel Valley Road
Carmel Valley, CA 93924
(831)659-3820

- Rana Creek Ranch is located in the beautiful Carmel Valley, 7 miles east of Carmel Valley Village. The entrance gate for the Open House / Field day is on the South side of East Carmel Valley Road at milepost 19.2.

Guest Speakers include:

- Mr. Mike McCullough, N.C.G.A. Agronomist and Superintendent Intern Director
- Mr. John Greenlee, Greenlee Nursery, Author of Encyclopedia of Ornamental Grasses
- Mr. Ryan Heacock, GPS / GIS Specialist Rana Creek Habitat Restoration
- Mr. Tom Orzoff, Principal Designer for Fazio Design Group

Speaker Topics include:

“Water quality and use issues.” “Environmental Strategies from Groundbreaking through Operational Sustainability.” “Ornamentals and Natives on the Golf Course.” “How can GPS / GIS be an asset from Design through Operations.” And many others.

For Reservations Please Phone or E-Mail:

Robert Cobb Jr. or Steve Canepa at Rana Creek Habitat Restoration
(831)659-3820 / www.seedbarn@ranacreek.com / www.rcobb@ranacreek.com

Quick Quote

“The highest reward for a man’s toil is not what he gets for it, but what he becomes by it.”
— John Ruskin —

- Lodging recommendations available upon request