

Winter is finally here and hopefully everyone's schedule has slowed down to a comfortable pace. The shorter days, and with any luck, wet weather forces us to breath easier and work a normal 40-hour workweek. This is the time of the year when we get caught up on reading those articles that got tossed aside in the chaotic summer months, enjoy some well deserved R&R, and best of all reacquaint ourselves with our families.

Don't hang up the golf clubs just yet. November 11th – 13th is the CGCSA Annual Conference, Trade Show and Golf Championship in Monterey. Also, this December, GCSANC will be hosting four regional Holiday Gathering events. These casual events proved very successful last year and this year should be no different.

As this year comes to an end, I can't help but reflect back on all of the great events this year. From Sandy Tatum's speech at the Annual Meeting in January, hearing Jim Tunney's stories at the Superintendent Pro tournament, to our grand 75th Anniversary Celebration at Sequoyah Country Club this past October. What an impressive year it has been and there is still more to come. A huge Thank You to all the volunteers and sponsors involved contributing to the success of these events!

I look forward to seeing everyone in Monterey and at the Regional Holiday Gatherings.
