The Chapter's 75th Anniversary Celebration was rich with history thanks to Golf Historians Rick Lund and Sean Tully (Assist. Supt. at the Meadow Club) whose personal golf collections lined numerous tables in the elegant entryway at Sequoyah CC. Joining them for a quick photo (and also an event supporter) was Past President Randy Gai of Claremont CC.

The GCSANC 75th Anniversary Celebration at Sequoyah CC brought together industry leaders, including Cliff Wagoner, Past President for both the GCSANC and GCSAA, and current GCSAA President Ricky Heine.

75TH ANNIVERSARY CELEBRATION

GCSANC history has been well-documented over the years through the dedicated work of former Executive Secretary Myrtle Wagoner and Association Manager Barbara Mikel.

Myrtle and husband Cliff Wagoner (a GCSANC and GCSAA Past President) take a moment to admire a memory table created in their honor in conjunction with the 75th Anniversary of the GCSANC. The table graced fond photos, special awards and memorabilia spanning more than five decades of volunteerism to the organization by the Wagoner Family.

Standing proud at Sequoyah CC is the GCSANC 75th Anniversary Planning Committee. Led through the dedicated efforts of Past President Brian Bagley (back row-center) and Association Manager Barbara Mikel (right thereof), the group worked closely together in the months leading up to the memorable event.
