

Editor's Ramblings

The Antisocial Network and the Wussification of America

I'm tired of hash tag this and hash tag that. I'd rather have hash browns, and not the overly buttered soggy ones. Maybe I'm getting even more cantankerous and crabby in my years, but I personally don't care to tell the entire free world where I am, what I think of the dinner I just had, or how that third margarita last night is affecting my job performance. Enough already! There is just way too much mindless chit chat BS out there to take up everyone's time. I don't want to accept that much social media. There is just way too much mindless banter out there that everyone is way too interested in reading. I don't care what Kim Kardashian thinks about the Syrian rebels and what Madonna thinks of Miley Cyrus and what Miley Cyrus thinks about anything. If I want to tell you something, I'll tell you if I feel it's relevant. You don't care about the sandwich I bought which has a mold spot on it. I can appreciate that. Also, I understand that I'm about as subtle as the guy swinging the 18 ounce hammer on the stun line at the slaughterhouse so I prefer to keep my thoughts to myself as opposed to dealing with both the shock and awe of my communication. Call me Phil Robertson. I don't care. I consider myself more like Si.

While on the subject of shock and awe, I saw where a school in New England banned tag from school recess. Whaaatt?? They say it's too dangerous with all the varying amounts of tagging force, which can lead to injury. So let me get this straight, tag is now too dangerous? It's no wonder the younger work force is so clueless and entitled. They never skinned a knee and had to get over it and get back to class.

Speaking of getting over things, can't these congressional buffoons get over themselves and get back to the jobs they were elected to carry out? If we are going to have a wee wee match over the debt, then ALL of you idiots can forgo your pay while I continue to pay taxes without the services my taxes pay for. Can't that money be put to reducing debt? I mean, really, if these people are going to make the entire country and everyone in it look like the stereotypical "dumb Americans" then at least they shouldn't get paid.

Have a nice day.
