His Superintendents jobs have been with Wilcox Oaks GC, Red Bluff in 1969; Claremont CC, Oakland in 1972; and Richmond CC in 1981. The Carquines Golf Club opened in 1925, had original greens made of cottonseed. After water was found on a nearby lot, a complete rebuilding began to turn the course into the championship layout it boasts today. The name changed to Richmond Golf & Country Club and in 1974 the members purchased the land from Bethlehem Steel.
