THE OFFICIAL PUBLICATION OF THE GOLF COURSE SUPERINTENDENTS ASSOCIATION OF NORTHERN CALIFORNIA

JANUARY 1994

THE MEETING PLACE

January Meeting Salinas Golf and CC Host Superintendent: Bill Kissick, CGCS

The Course. Set in open pasture land in the hills north of Salinas, Salinas Golf and Country Club is a private members course of just over 5,000 yards and 300 members. It was originally completed as a nine-hole course in the 1940s. Some time in the late fifties the other nine was added.

The course rewards well-placed shots to pars and birdies, but if your tee shot finds the wrong place the score can soar. The course went through some renovations in 1992 with a new driving range, a lake, nine new greens, and a new maxi 5 irrigation system.

The Superintendent.

Superintendent Bill Kissick, CGCS, came to the golf maintenance industry in a round about manner. He started out in the horticulture program at Cal Poly Pomona to become a nurseryman. He went into landscape construction while at school and formed a company after finishing the program that continued for the next four and a half years in the L.A. area.

A career change put Bill in the Palm Springs area for

Leon Snethen (rt) and Tom Jackson check in golfers for the Larry Lloyd Memorial Tournament

Christmas in Monterey

Leon Snethen

The annual Christmas party was held on December 3rd. The festivities started with the Larry Lloyd Memorial Tournament at Old Del Monte Golf Course, and continued with a cocktail hour and dinner at the Doubletree Hotel at Fisherman's Wharf.

Pete Bibber had the golf course in excellent condition
