Contingency Use of DDT Granted

The Energy Crisis And The Turf Industry
A new twist in the present energy situation. Dr. James R. Watson of Toro Looks at the beneficial effects of better maintenance and more utilization of turf facilities.

Nematode Control Pays
A study of the effect of nematode control on bentgrass putting greens.

Turfgrass: The People Pleaser

The Navy's Role In Weed Control
The military way to solve weed problems and unique biological problems present a challenge to D. R. Estes, special assistant for Applied Biology, Department of the Navy.

Sprinkler Irrigation Association Report

Rush Hour On The Golf Course
The increase of golfing pressure puts a premium on turf management and the organization of maintenance work.

Target: Railroad Weeds
Trackside vegetation offers many opportunities for the custom applicator. Richard W. Fields explores a number of possibilities of getting onto the business.

Midwest Regional Turf Conference

Netting for Sod: Reality From Imagination
Sod crop turnaround time may be cut in half by using plastic netting to anchor the turf roots. Cal-Turf, California's largest commercial sod producer, researches the practical aspects of this industry innovation.

Editorial

Government News/Business

Book Report

Letters to the Editor

Green Industry Newsmakers

Sod Industry Section

Insect Report

Meeting Dates

New Products

Industry People on the Move

Classifieds

Advertisers Index

Trimmings

The Cover
Spring is the time to initiate spraying programs. Weeds, trees, and turf require care. Our Cover shows tree insect control with a truck-mounted spray rig manufactured by Lockwood.