"Seasonless, Districtless,
Used Everlasting;
Sold Everywhere."

"Nobody Ever Overstocks with Hires."

"From ocean to ocean, and over the ocean,
in every land of civilized taste, folks like it."

It Pays To Sell It.

Hires Rootbeer is pure—other extracts may be—Don't let your customers' stomachs
take chances—Sell Hires.

Hires Checker Board.
Drink as Much as You Please. Can you say that of any other than Hires' Rootbeer? 25 Cents buys a package making 5 Gallons—enough to satisfy the thirst of any immoderate drinker. Not intoxicating, of course. The Clergy of all denominations strongly endorse its use. Physicians Recommend it. The Press is in favor of it, and, mind you, Hires' Rootbeer is the only beverage of which that much can be said.
Suppose Niagara’s endless stream—
It might be so arranged—
By magic queer, to Hires Rootbeer
Could suddenly be changed,
Think what a mecca it would be
For pilgrims, day and night,
To stand and drink upon the brink
Its nectarous delight.
