

FEBRUARY, 1913

PRICE, 10 CENTS

THE MASSES

Drawn by H. J. Turner.

—A STORY BY ADRIANA SPADONI—
A SQUARE STATEMENT OF THE DYNAMITE CASE

Copyright by The Masses Publishing Company,
150 Nassau St., New York.

Drawn by Arthur Young.

SERENE ON-LOOKER: (To The Striker) "VERY UNFORTUNATE SITUATION, BUT WHATEVER YOU DO, DON'T USE FORCE."

MARCH, 1913

PRICE, 10 CENTS

The MASSES

Drawn by John Sloan.

The Unemployed

A STORY BY JAMES HOPPER IN THIS NUMBER

Drawn by Charles A. Winter.

Susanna at the Ballot Box

JUNE, 1913

10 CENTS

The MASSES

Drawn by Stuart Davis.

"Gee, Mag, Think of Us Bein' on a Magazine Cover!"

Drawn by Alice Beach Winter.

THE BROOD

The
MASSES

OCTOBER, 1913

10 CENTS

Drawn by Maurice Becker

“Hope Springs Eternal—”

Drawn by Sivert Duncan.

CIVILIZATION

"Ah is Feelin' Mis'able Discomf'table, Phoebe, How is You?"
"Ah is Sufferin'—But it's Sunday."

The MASSES

NOVEMBER, 1913

10 CENTS

Drawn by John Sloan

Innocent Girlish Prattle—Plus Environment

"WHAT! HIM? THE LITTLE — — — — —! HE'S WORSE'N SHE IS, THE — — — — —!"

Drawn by Stuart Davis.

SURE OF A WIDE BERTH NOW

A recent decision of the Supreme Court opens the waterways of the United States to "jim crow" discrimination on steam-boats.