VEGETABLES

Spaghetti

One-half package spaghetti, $\frac{1}{2}$ lb. grated cheese, 1 sweet pepper, juice of 3 tomatoes, salt, pepper and a dash of red pepper. Cook spaghetti until tender, add other ingredients. Mix and put into a bake dish and cover with five strips of bacon cut into small pieces. You can improve on this by adding one-half pound of chopped beef and a little onion. Cook one hour.

Scalloped Potatoes

Pare eight medium sized potatoes; cut into thin slices and cover bottom of pan with them, then put layer of grated cheese and white sauce; alternate with potatoes, cheese and sauce until pan is full. Bake in a hot oven.

Scalloped Onions

Cut boiled onions in quarters; put in a baking dish, mix with one cup of white sauce. Cover tops with buttered crumbs. Put in oven to reheat and brown crumbs.

White Sauce

One-half cup milk, 2 tablespoons butter, salt to taste, pepper, 3 tablespoons flour. Melt butter, stir slowly in flour and seasoning; mix smoothly, add milk slowly, stirring constantly. When sauce becomes too thick it may be thinned by adding one-quarter cup of hot water.

Scallops

The heart is the only part used. If you buy them in the shell, boil and take out the hearts. Those sold in our markets are generally ready for frying or stewing. Dip them in beaten egg, then in cracker crumbs, and fry in hot lard, or, you may stew them like oysters. The fried scallops are generally preferred.

Baked Spaghetti and Potatoes

One-half lb. spaghetti, 1 quart tomatoes, $\frac{1}{4}$ lb. cheese. Break spaghetti into small pieces; put in boiling salted water; boil until tender and drain. Stew and strain tomatoes, season with salt and pepper to taste and add spaghetti. Sprinkle well with grated cheese and buttered cracker crumbs.

Dressing for Beets

One-third cup vinegar, 1-3 cup water, butter the size of a walnut, 1 tablespoon sugar, pinch of salt, 1 teaspoonful flour. Cook flour in water and add to other ingredients; boil all together. If too thick add a little water. This is especially good for young beets in the spring. Cook beets until tender and slice thin, pour dressing over them.

Rice and Salmon Rolls (A Good Emergency Dish)

Being short of meat one day, and having only one can of salmon in the house my ingenuity was taxed to know what to get for dinner for the men. In this emergency I made the following:

I boiled some rice and mixed equal quantities of the rice and salmon, added a little melted butter, pepper and salt, then molded them into a sausage shape and, having rolled them in egg and cracker crumbs, fried them in a fat like doughnuts. My result was a nice large dish full of crispy rolls fit to set before anyone. Now I keep a can of salmon on hand all the time, and if I am taken unawares I can always get a nice meal with it.

Old-Fashioned Indian Pudding

Bring a quart of fresh milk to a boil, then sprinkle in a cupful and a quarter of fine granulated corn meal, holding it high in the left hand and stirring with the right. When this has thickened and cooled a little stir in three-fourths cupful molasses, half a teaspoonful salt and two teaspoonfuls ginger, beating until the mixture is smooth. Place in a stone pudding dish and bake, after adding a quart of cold milk. Bake in a slow oven and serve with hard sauce or cream.

Shrimps and Peas

Melt two tablespoons butter, add three tablespoons flour and pour on gradually one cup of milk or cream, stir until thickened; then add one cup of shrimps, one cup of peas, one-half teaspoon of salt and a little pepper. Cold cooked chicken may be used in place of shrimps.

Raisin Roll

Cream shortening and sugar, add orange juice, raisins and nuts. Boil sufficient pastry for one pie in a thin sheet, spread with the raisin mixture, roll up like a jelly roll and bake in a hot oven. Serve with rich sauce.

Spaghetti Pudding

Cook four ounces of spaghetti for from 20 to 30 minutes in boiling salted water, drain it and place half of it in a pie dish, grate two ounces of cheese and sprinkle some of it over the spaghetti, slice four or five small tomatoes and place them on the spaghetti, sprinkling them with cheese, pepper and salt, and finish with the remainder of the spaghetti, placing the rest of the cheese on top. Pour over this half a pint of milk and cover the dish with a plate; cook in a moderate oven.

Spiced Cranberries to Serve With Meats

Boil together three and one-half pounds of brown sugar, two cupfuls of good vinegar, two tablespoonfuls each of ground allspice and cinnamon and one tablespoonful of ground cloves. When boiled to a syrup, add five pounds of cranberries (washed and picked over) and simmer slowly for two hours. Turn into a stone jar or small jelly glasses and keep closely covered.

A Fish Garnish

Several large leaves of lettuce rolled tightly and kept cold make an attractive fish garnish. Cut the leaves into half-inch pieces with shears. These make pretty pale green rosettes which, when intermingled with small pieces of parsley and sliced egg, make a very pretty dressing.
