

TO THE READER

I conceive it necessary to say concerning the Present Edition of this Work; That it exceeds the Former by a careful Correction of the Latin Copy, and by a more Exact Translation from the Latin and Best French Edition. The Life of Akop likewise is illustrated with Thirty one new Copper Plates.

The Ingenious Mrs. A. Behn has been so obliging as to perform the English Part; which in short comprehends the Sense of the Fable and Moral; Wherof to say more were needless, since it may sufficiently recommend it self to all Persons of Understanding.
