

The Beasts against y<sup>e</sup> birds in league combine
Cause they disleyn'd theyr Aerys to resigne
Whilst y<sup>e</sup> dull Batt did his owne right develt.
And made a tame Surrender of his Nest.

A fatall fight's comment t with various toyle
The winged Army gayne both feild & spoyle
The Batt is Captive made whom all detest
Cause he forsooke his Country when Oprest.

All should wth hate resent y<sup>e</sup> traitors looke.

Who hath his Prince & his own side forsooke.

FAB. XXX. De Avibus & Quadrupedibus.

Avibus, cum Bestiis asperissima pugna erat, utrinque spes, utrinque ingens Metus, utrinque periculum, quum Vespertilio, relictis sociis ad hostem defecit; Ad postremum vincunt aves, duce & auspice Aquila; Transfugam vero Vespertilionem damnant, ut nunquam iterum inter Aves numeretur, nec amplius in luce videatur; Et hæc Causa est, cur Vespertilio nunquam nisi nocte volat.

MORALE.

QUI cum sociis, Infortunii, & periculi particeps esse renuit, prosperitatem & salutis expers erit.