A Klansman's Creed

I believe in God and in the tenets of the Christian religion and that a godless nation can not long prosper.

I believe that a church that is not grounded on the principles of morality and justice is a mockery to God and to man.

I believe that a church that does not have the welfare of the common people at heart is unworthy.

I believe in the eternal separation of Church and State.

I hold no allegiance to any foreign government, emperor, king, pope or any other foreign, political or religious power.

I hold my allegiance to the Stars and Stripes next to my allegiance to God alone.

I believe in just laws and liberty.

I believe in the upholding of the Constitution of these United States.

I believe that our Free Public School is the cornerstone of good government and that those who are seeking to destroy it are enemies of our Republic and are unworthy of citizenship.

I believe in freedom of speech.

I believe in free press uncontrolled by political parties or by religious sects.

I believe in law and order.

I believe in the protection of our pure womanhood.

I do not believe in mob violence, but I do believe that laws should be enacted to prevent the causes of mob violence.

I believe in a closer relationship of capital and labor.

I believe in the prevention of unwarranted strikes by foreign labor agitators.

I believe in the limitation of foreign immigration.

I am a native-born American citizen and I believe my rights in this country are superior to those of foreigners.

The Soul of America

I am clothed with wisdom's mantle;
Age and experience are mine,
Yet I am still in the swaddling clothes
Of my existence.

I am strong beyond my years;
My hand typifies strength,
And although untrained in cunning
Its movements mark the quaking
Of the enemies of my country.

My eye, though covered, is all-seeing;
It penetrates the dark recesses of law violation,
Treason, political corruption and injustice,
Causing these cowardly culprits to bare their unholy faces
In the light of my all-seeing revelations.

My vision is so broad
That my daily meditations force upon me new problems,
New situations and new obligations.

My feet are swift to carry the strength of my hand
And the penetrations of my all-seeing eye.

My nature is serious, righteous and just,
And tempered with the love of Christ.

My purpose is noble, far-reaching and age-lasting.

My heart is heavy, but not relenting;

Sorrowful but not hopeless;

Pure but ever able to master the unclean;

Humble but not cowardly;

Strong but not arrogant;

Simple but not foolish;

Ready, without fear.

I am the Spirit of Righteousness.

They call me the Ku Klux Klan.

I am more than the uncouth robe and hood

With which I am clothed.

YEA, I AM THE SOUL OF AMERICA.
