In response to discussions with the Michigan greenhouse industry, MSU Extension has compiled a sample greenhouse lease form and information on owner and operator considerations in leasing greenhouse space.

The sample lease format is designed to be flexible and to address issues related to leasing a facility for an entire year, for a single crop such as poinsettias, or for a season such as the spring crop cycle.

An additional document that can be used alongside the lease, if applicable, is the Subordination, Non-disturbance and Attornment Agreement. This agreement, between the operator and the owner's mortgagee, ensures that the operator will remain in possession of the leased premises throughout the term of the lease and in ownership of all of the operator's products present on the leased premises despite any foreclosure action against the greenhouse owner, as long as the operator is not in default of the lease.

It is strongly advised that you obtain legal assistance to better understand the provisions presented in the sample lease form. This form is not a substitute for obtaining legal counsel regarding the lease – it is intended to help focus discussions between landowner (owner), the lessee (operator) and qualified legal counsel.

Some Owner and Operator Considerations in Leasing Greenhouse Space

There are a number of factors to consider when considering a lease of greenhouse:

- What are the purpose and duration of the lease? Will it be for one calendar year and allow the production of more than one crop?
- What facilities and equipment is the owner providing? These should be clearly stated, as well as their condition.
- Will the operator receive any advance notice of lease expiration, or will he waive any termination notification?
- Will there be a "failure to pay" clause? For example, will the operator pay late fees and, if so, at what rate? Will the operator reimburse the owner for any legal and collection fees the owner incurs to collect late rent?

- Will the rent be paid in advance or in installments? Will security be required from the operator to secure the unpaid installments? If so, what type?
- Will the owner or the operator maintain the facilities? If the operator is required to maintain them, what types of repairs or maintenance is the operator expected to perform?
- To maintain the facilities, can the operator purchase materials, and, if so, should there be a defined dollar limit before obtaining owner approval to purchase more?
- Who is providing the insurance on the facilities? Will insurance that either party obtains name the other as an additional insured?
- Will the operator be required to obtain crop insurance?
- Is auxiliary electricity generation equipment necessary, and, if so, which party will provide it?
- Is the owner required to replace any or all portions of the facility if it is damaged by fire?
- If the operator is to provide his labor for facility maintenance, at what point can an outside professional be hired if the operator feels the repair is beyond his/her qualifications? Does the operator seek owner approval, or is approval already granted if the repair is less than a predetermined maximum cost?
- Will water be furnished by the owner? If well water is used, who will pay the costs to repair or replace pumps, electric motors, electric panels, etc.?
- How will conflicts between owner and operator be settled? Will conflict resolution be limited to mediation, arbitration or some other method?
- Will the operator be allowed to construct or add improvements? Section D, Capital Improvements, provides a method to reimburse the operator for improvements made to the facilities. It establishes in advance the timetable for reimbursement. For example, if operator and owner agree that the operator will install a new water well in year 1 at a cost of $10,000 and the well is physically depreciated in 10 years, in year 5, the operator would be paid $5,000.

Sample Subordination, Non-disturbance and Attornment Agreement

THIS SUBORDINATION, NON-DISTURBANCE AND ATTORNMENT AGREEMENT ("Agreement") is made and entered into on _____, 20____, by and between _____ (financial institution name), of _____, Michigan ("Mortgagee"), and _____ of _____ Street, _____, MI _____ ("Tenant").

BACKGROUND

_____ ("Landlord") and Tenant have entered into a certain lease agreement dated _____, 20____. Tenant occupies a portion of the Property located at _____ in _____, Michigan. Mortgagee holds a mortgage (the "Mortgage") against the leasehold interest of Landlord in the Property to secure the indebtedness described therein. Mortgagee and Tenant desire to enter into certain agreements set forth herein respecting Tenant's estate, rights and privileges under the Lease and Mortgagee's estate, rights and privileges under the Mortgage.

AGREEMENTS

Mortgagee and Tenant therefore agree as follows:

1. Subject to and in accordance with the terms and conditions hereinafter contained, Tenant agrees that its leasehold estate, rights and privileges under or deriving from the Lease and/or any renewals, extensions or modifications of the Lease shall be and are hereby made subject and subordinate to the lien and estate granted by the Mortgage and/or any renewals, extensions or modifications thereof, and the rights and privileges of Mortgagee thereunder; PROVIDED, HOWEVER, that if and for so long as Tenant is not in default under the terms and conditions of the Lease, then, notwithstanding such subordination, Tenant shall have the possession and quiet enjoyment of the Leased Property throughout the term and pursuant to the terms and conditions of the Lease and/or any renewals and extensions thereof, and shall not be affected or disturbed herein by the Mortgagee in the exercise or enforcement of its rights, privileges and remedies under the Mortgage.
2. If the Mortgagee or any other party acquires Landlord's interest in or title to the Property pursuant to the exercise of any remedy provided for in the Mortgage and/or by deed in lieu of foreclosure, the Lease shall not be terminated or affected by said foreclosure, sale, deed or any such proceeding, and the Mortgagee hereby covenants that any sale by it of the Property pursuant to the exercise of any rights and remedies under the Mortgage or otherwise shall be made subject to the Lease and the rights of the Tenant hereunder. The Tenant covenants and agrees to attorn to the Mortgagee or such other party as its new landlord, and the Lease shall continue in full force and effect as a direct lease between Tenant and Mortgagee or such other party upon all the terms, covenants, conditions and agreements set forth in the Lease. In no event, however, shall the Mortgagee or such other party be:

- A. bound by any payment of rent or additional rent made by Tenant to Landlord for more than one (1) month in advance; or
  - B. bound by any amendment or modification of the Lease after the date hereof adversely affecting the interest of the Mortgagee made without the written consent of the Mortgagee; or
  - C. liable for any act or omission of any prior landlord (including Landlord); or
  - D. liable for any offsets, credits or other claims against rentals for any prior periods and/or against any other party or landlord (including Landlord), except for security deposits.
3. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary hereinabove contained, any interest of Tenant in an option to purchase all or any part of the Property contained in the Lease or any other document is specifically subordinated to the rights of the Mortgagee under the terms of the Mortgage, and such option shall not be binding upon the Mortgagee, its successors or assigns or purchaser at a foreclosure sale of the Property.
  4. Notwithstanding anything contained to the contrary hereinabove contained, to the extent the provisions of the Mortgage dealing with application of casualty, fire insurance proceeds and condemnation proceeds may be inconsistent with corresponding provisions of the Lease, the provisions of the Mortgage shall be controlling.
  5. The foregoing provisions shall be self-operative and effective without the execution of any further instruments on the part of either party hereto. However, Tenant agrees to execute and deliver to the Mortgagee or to any other person to whom Tenant herein agrees to attorn such other instrument as either shall reasonably request in order to effectuate said provisions.
  6. Tenant hereby warrants and certifies to Mortgagee that:
    - A. It has accepted and now holds possession of the Leased Property pursuant to the terms of the Lease. A true and correct copy of the Lease, including all modifications and amendments through the date of this Agreement, has been provided to the Mortgagee.
    - B. To the best of Tenant's knowledge, and subject to the exceptions noted on Exhibit A, the Landlord has fulfilled all of its duties of an inducement nature and is not in default in any manner in the performance of any of the terms, covenants or provisions of the Lease.
    - C. The Lease has not been modified, altered or amended.
    - D. There are no offsets or credits against rentals, nor have rentals been prepaid, except as provided by the lease terms, and the Tenant will not make any advance payments of rent other than any single period's rent due at time of payment.
    - E. Tenant has no notice of any security assignment, hypothecation or pledge of rents or the lease, except to Mortgagee.
    - F. Tenant shall promptly notify Mortgagee in writing in the event of any default under the Lease which remains uncured after proper notice to Landlord.
  7. This Agreement may be executed in several counterparts and all so executed shall constitute one agreement binding on all of the parties, notwithstanding that all of the parties have not signed the original or the same counterpart. A facsimile or other reproduction of a signature of a part to this Agreement shall bind such party to the same extent as the manual signature of such party.
