CARDEVA, May 15, 1881. Worthy Secretary—We have the honor to be you pleased to learn the facts, and to report to you the success of the Annual Convention of the Tomahawk Grangers, which was held at New London, Wis., April 30, 1881.

The meeting was held in the Court House of the town, and at the seat was filled with the members of the order. There were present speakers from all parts of the state, and the proceedings were highly satisfactory. The addresses were all of a high order, and the discussion was carried on in a most business-like manner. The speeches were characterized by a marked desire for the welfare of the farmers, and a strong determination to work for their best interests.

The meeting was conducted in a most orderly manner, and the business was carried on with great dispatch. The addresses were all of a high order, and the discussion was carried on in a most business-like manner. The speeches were characterized by a marked desire for the welfare of the farmers, and a strong determination to work for their best interests.

The meeting was called to order by the President, who read the roll of the members present, and proceeded to read the minutes of the preceding meeting. The minutes were adopted, and the roll was called. The proceedings were carried on in a most orderly manner, and the business was carried on with great dispatch. The addresses were all of a high order, and the discussion was carried on in a most business-like manner. The speeches were characterized by a marked desire for the welfare of the farmers, and a strong determination to work for their best interests.

The meeting was adjourned by the President, who expressed the hope that the farmers of the state would continue to work for their best interests, and that the Grangers would continue to be a strong factor in the political life of the state.

Your obedient servant,

An ornamental flower bed could be so planned that it would be eye-catching, and with the right choice of plants it could be a beautiful focal point in the garden. If you wish to have a flower bed in your garden, here are some suggestions:

1. Color Coordination: Choose flowers that have similar color schemes. Arrange them in groups of three or more to create a cohesive look. You can also use color blocks to create a more eye-catching design.

2. Height and Texture: Use a variety of plants with different heights and textures to create interest in the garden. This will create a more natural look and add depth to the garden.

3. Seasonal Interest: Choose flowers that bloom in different seasons to ensure that there is always something in bloom. This will create a more dynamic garden throughout the year.

4. Waterwise: Choose waterwise plants to reduce your water usage. This will help to conserve water and reduce your water bill.

5. Maintenance: Choose plants that require minimal maintenance. This will help you to save time and money on garden care.

6. Suitable for the Soil: Choose plants that are suitable for your soil type. This will help to ensure that the plants thrive in your garden.

7. Suitable for the Climate: Choose plants that are suitable for your climate. This will help to ensure that the plants thrive in your garden.

8. Attracting Wildlife: Choose plants that attract butterflies, bees, and other pollinators. This will help to create a more natural and sustainable garden.

By following these tips, you can create a beautiful and sustainable flower bed that will add interest and beauty to your garden.

A HALF-SATURDAY AT THE CAPITOL.

We had occasion on the 13th to take a run to Lansing. While there we dropped into the hands of Mr. King the huge pile of printed matter on the billiard racquet. The billiard racquet is a great amusement and a source of much good humor among the members. We read with much interest all the proclamations of some of our neighbors, and we are ever able to learn something wise or true from some member of our native state. The law cannot be too diffuse. We have always found that laws which are other-\(ly\) wise and sundry in their form and style are the best to be found. We believe the billiard racquet has played an important part in the educational history of our state. We would have like to see more of it in other states.

A MEETING CHARGE A P O R T R O N E.

The house of Thomas Mason, grocer, has been elevated to the stage of being a representative in the special line of business, as promoter of improvements. The house of Mason, which has been in business for many years, is now in a flourishing condition, and is in the hands of the same firm. They have a wide experience in the business, and are well known for their integrity. They feel proud of Mr. Mason, by the practice of legitimate business methods.

THERE are still a few persons who do not know the value of a good mulch around young trees, and in many cases have no idea of the advantages to be derived from its use. The value of a good mulch around young trees consists in the fact that it prevents the moisture in the soil from being drawn away by the roots, and in saving the moisture in the soil for the use of the trees. The value of a good mulch around young trees consists in the fact that it prevents the moisture in the soil from being drawn away by the roots, and in saving the moisture in the soil for the use of the trees.

We have no traps of any sort to offer as a substitute for the natural way of preserving the soil, but we do believe in the necessity of using a good mulch around young trees. We do believe in the necessity of using a good mulch around young trees.

From a New Grange

Mrs. Oba—[I have watched in vain for a week to get a column; failing to find one, I will send a short report, that brings us up to date]

On the eve of last week, all the members of the Grange were covered with the usual marks of festivity—the hatbands, the ties, the ribbons, and the general air of festivity. The Republican Party, as usual, has been most energetic in their work of election. The members of the party are of the opinion that the election will be a success. But, as usual, the Republicans are the last to think that there is no chance of their winning. The party is determined to do everything in their power to prevent a Republican victory. The members of the party have been busy for the last three days preparing for the upcoming election.

The Grange will, of course, give their support to the Democratic candidate. The Democratic party has been very active in recent weeks. They have been working hard to gain the confidence of the people. The Democratic party has been very popular with the public because of their platform which advocates the election of the best men for public office. The Democratic party has been working hard to gain the support of the people. They have been working hard to gain the support of the people because they believe that the best men should be elected to public office.

I am instructed to say that in the immediate future the Grange will hold a meeting to discuss the platform. This meeting will be held on May 6. It is expected that the meeting will be well attended. The Grange will hold a meeting to discuss the platform. This meeting will be well attended. The Grange will hold a meeting to discuss the platform. This meeting will be well attended. The Grange.

Not a principle of our Grange that is more universally acknowledged than the belief that "the Grange is the people's movement." This is demonstrated by the fact that when a Granger is asked what he wants, he will answer, "I want a Grange." CAMBRIDGE, May 11, 1881.

Worthy Secretary—Better late than never with the report of the work that was done at the Convention of last spring. It was a pleasure to visit the Grange in Massachusetts, and your timely notice of the fourth session upon five years since the organization of the Grange in the State. It is a great comfort to know that the body has a spirit of self-sacrifice and is always growing. I am going to have a speech delivered at the Massachusetts Grange, at a meeting in the Society Building, Boston, on the evening of the sixth. I hope to be able to visit the State to see the condition of the Grange, and to instruct any one of the officers who may wish to accept it. I am going to deliver a speech at the Massachusetts Grange, at a meeting in the Society Building, Boston, on the evening of the sixth. I hope to be able to visit the State to see the condition of the Grange, and to instruct any one of the officers who may wish to accept it.

Respectfully,
H. P. Perry.

BURLINGTON, May 11, 1881.

In behalf of the Vermont Grange, I would say that we are all very anxious for that time to come when we can have our first meeting, and generally have a chance under the banner of the Grange to speak of the Order and its benefits, if Addie May French could hear Col. Belden speak of the Order and its benefits, she would be more anxious for that time to come. I think our sister, and brother in-law are members of the Order, and we hope that they will not be anxious for that time to come, but that they will be very anxious for it to come.

Respectfully yours,
John Ford.

JUNE 1, 1881.

But mamma dear, you cannot grow old May Day young ladies. We found a few of the members of the Order and its benefits, if Addie May French could hear Col. Belden speak of the Order and its benefits, she would be more anxious for that time to come, but that they will be very anxious for it to come.

Respectfully yours,
John Ford.

The DEPP, DEATH.

CHILDHOOD.—April 21, 1881, Bostwick Rowland, Jr., hip, and nephew of Lida Benden Johnson, of the Society Building, Boston, was buried. Died of the disease of scarlet fever. The funeral was conducted by the Committee of the Order and its benefits, if Addie May French could hear Col. Belden speak of the Order and its benefits, she would be more anxious for that time to come, but that they will be very anxious for it to come.

Respectfully yours,
John Ford.

BELLEVILLE.—End of the session. The Order and its benefits, if Addie May French could hear Col. Belden speak of the Order and its benefits, she would be more anxious for that time to come, but that they will be very anxious for it to come.

Respectfully yours,
John Ford.

MICHIGAN CENTRAL R. R.

To the Members of the Society Building, Boston, and all to whom it may concern:

Your wishes are hereby tendered to the Order and its benefits, if Addie May French could hear Col. Belden speak of the Order and its benefits, she would be more anxious for that time to come, but that they will be very anxious for it to come.

Respectfully yours,
John Ford.
