At Last.

What a world we do live in—so changeable.

And is the life of the storm changed when the
tide comes down, as the tide of the day wanes?

I have to permit myself to admit that there is some truth in the assertion that the world is not what it was, but what it will be.

In the past, when all was as it should be,
the world was a place of order, of stability,
of peace, and of progress.

But now, when all is as it is not, the world is a place of confusion, of chaos,
of war, and of decline.

The Social and Intellectual Revolutions

Any organization with a well-defined
centre and a clear-cut purpose will turn
its members toward the same goal.

The Grange was founded as a military organization to serve the needs of the frontier farmers, but it has evolved
to include a wide range of interests.

Fortunately for the Grange, it is not like the name of the organization. The Grange is a military organization, which is a step
above the mere name of the organization.

The Grange, as a social institution, is vastly different from the military organization. The Grange is a place where people can come together to swap ideas and talk about the things they care about.

The Social and Intellectual Revolutions

The Grange's influence is felt far and wide, from the small towns to the large cities. The principles it embodies are universal and timeless, and they will continue to shape the course of our society
for generations to come.

The Social and Intellectual Revolutions

The Grange's impact is felt in every walk of life. From education to politics,
from economics to sports, the Grange's
effects are evident.

The Social and Intellectual Revolutions

The Grange was founded to serve the needs of the rural communities, but its impact is felt across the board. It is a symbol of the American spirit, and it will continue to inspire and guide us in the difficult years ahead.

The Social and Intellectual Revolutions

The Grange's legacy is one of hope and progress. It is a reminder that, even in times of turmoil, there is always a brighter future just around the corner.

THE CHANCELLORSVILLE...THE PEOPLE AND THEIR CATTLE.

Under this head we find a very interesting account of the great battle of Chancellorsville, fought in the neighborhood of Fredericksburg, Virginia, in the latter part of April, 1863. The battle was fought by the forces of the Confederate States of America, under the command of General Lee, against the troops of the United States, under the command of General Hooker. The battle was a severe one, and resulted in the defeat of the Federal forces. The Federal loss was estimated at 20,000 men, and the Confederate loss at 15,000. The battle is remembered as one of the great battles of the Civil War.

NATURAL AND ORNOTHIZED FEED OF ANIMALS.

Brother Cee--Having been absent from the Grange for several weeks, I have been looking over the records of our last meeting. The subject of natural and organic feed of animals was presented by Mr. Ray, of Berrien, and was handled by Brother L. E. Brake, of St. Joseph, for the purpose of proving the inefficiency of the artificial mixture of cattle feed. Mr. Ray and Mr. Brake are generally considered two of the best authorities on this subject.

There are some who believe that the use of artificial feed is necessary, but I am inclined to believe that the natural and organic feed is the best. The natural feed consists of corn, wheat, oats, and other grains, such as are grown in the vicinity. The organic feed consists of green feed, such as clover, alfalfa, and other leguminous plants. The natural feed is cheaper, and the organic feed is more productive.

In conclusion, I would say that the use of natural and organic feed is the best for animals, and that artificial feed is not necessary.

JULIA C. E. BORE.

Fraternally yours,

MRS. NELL H. GIDDINGS.

MEMBERSHIP IN THE GRANGE.

We were greatly pleased to see a number of new members enrolled in the last meeting of the Grange. The new members were well received, and the old members were glad to see them.

There are many advantages to be gained by membership in the Grange. For example, the Grange provides a forum for the discussion of agricultural and rural issues. It also provides a means of socialization and camaraderie. In addition, the Grange offers opportunities for political participation, such as the right to vote for candidates and to participate in political action.

In conclusion, I would say that membership in the Grange is beneficial and worth pursuing.

Agricultural Notes.

It is impossible to estimate the value of the various influences which are carried on by the Grange. It is not possible to say when a particular influence will be felt, but it is certain that it will be felt at some time. For example, the Grange has been able to influence the election of many farmers to public office, and in this way has been able to advocate policies that are beneficial to agriculture.

In conclusion, I would say that the Grange is an organization that is beneficial to agriculture, and that its influence is difficult to estimate.
