The junior class has started work on the big party which it intends to hold Dec. 5. The social committee has been appointed and consists of the following: Ruth Ketcham, Ruth Martin, Wayne Barkwell, Gerald Peterson, and Silvia Schimmel.

A party is scheduled for Wednesday evening at the Women's building for the new co-eds of the college, under the auspices of the W. S. G. A.

A theater party furnished entertainment for the Delphics Thursday evening.

The Delphic fall term party will be held in the fraternity ballroom Oct. 30.

The Delta Sigma Phi fall term party will be given in the Masonic temple Nov. 7. Professor and Mrs.

H. H. Halladay and Professor and Mrs. A. J. Clark will act as patrons for the affair. The officers of Delta Sigma Phi are John Breor, president; Martin Rummel, vice-president; Ellsworth Pieson, treasurer; Harold Falk, secretary; Warren Wilcox, sergeant-at-arms, and B. Marx, steward.

Misses Lois Gates, Maxine Moon, Mabel Kelly, and Elsie Boon of Hillcrest dormitory visited Ionia, Grand Rapids and Detroit over the weekend. Miss Mabel Kelly was the guest of Maxine Boon during the past week.

A Sunday night lunch was given in honor of Miss Elizabeth Eisen of Detroit, who was the week-end guest of her sister, Marguerite Eisen, of Vassar house.

Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Brown of the animal husbandry department were the guests at a dinner given at the practice house Wednesday evening.

Monday noon Miss M. R. Whitaker, principal of the domestic science training school of Gloucester, England, Miss Nicholson, inspector for His Majesty's board of education, England, and Dean Kreuger were guests at a luncheon served by the girls at Practice house.

Gordon Morrison, who graduated with the class of 1923, majoring in horticulture, was a campus visitor last week. Mr. Morrison is in the employ of the laboratory for experimental evolution at Cold Spring Harbor, New York. He gave a short talk on the work that he is doing before the Horticultural club on Thursday night, Oct. 8.

Arla Pangborn, w. A. A. representative, spoke to the girls of Abbot hall Monday evening concerning that organization. A tentative outline of the year's program was presented and the girls were urged to earn the necessary number of points for membership.

The past week proved a strenuous one for Alpha Phi. Tuesday evening the rushers were entertained at a bridge. A steak roast took place Wednesday evening at which decorated tin cups were presented as favors. All were guests at the Alpha Phi hotel Thursday evening, enjoying lunch from an improvised grill. Sunday afternoon the chapter entertained with a cozy tea.

The members and patronesses of the local chapter of Alpha Phi will be entertained at a tea to be given by Mrs. Basil Brewer in honor of Mrs. J. L. Turnbull and her mother, Mrs. Winter. Mrs. Turnbull was the former district inspector of the sorority.

Those heading the Alpha Phi sorority for the year are Maribel McKnight, Ruth Parker, Mary Kirk McKinnon, Ruth Norton and Marian Sachs.

Miss Neva Lovewell is acting as house chaperon during the absence of Mrs. Mary S. Dietrich, Kappa Delta house matron, who is visiting in Indiana.

Miss Elizabeth Haskins spent the week-end in Howard City and Mary Stickle visited in Grand Rapids.

Miss Imogene Carlisle had as her guest over the week-end Miss Luella Aldrich of Ypsilanti.

Miss Ellen Nelson is in charge of the Ero Alphan party to be given Nov. 7.

Ero Alphan officers are: Millicent Clark, president; Marguerite Korke, vice-president; and Katherine Trumbull, treasurer.

The Pythian society is now housed in the former Baldwin residence on Albert avenue.

The list of officers for the organization includes Lila Koch, Doris Winslow, Martha Scott, Adelaide Critha, Geraldine Gillette, Evelyn Keyes and Alberta Bates.

Alberta Bates and Martha Scott are at present patients in the college hospital.

Visitors at the Union Lit. house the past week-end were Russell Palmer of Detroit, Bud Ranney of Greenville and Mr. Hood from Ionia.

Those having charge of Union Literary affairs for the term are Delmar Zimmerman, Charles Fredericks, George Wenner and Euchen Hancock.

Pledges of the society are R. Henshaw, Traverse City; R. Ashley, Big Rapids; R. Saunders, Lansing; L. Witherell, Chelsea; K. Chase, Hastings; W. Wilkinson, St. Louis; L. Peterson, Brooklyn; S. Robinson and Van Auker of Detroit.

The pledge list of Lambda Chi Alpha contains the names of Carl Teachout, John Rogers, Big Rapids; Louis C. Hermod, W. Fiberek, Traverse City; Edward E. Elwood, William Porter, Lansing; John D. Lamont, A. M. Dean, Mason, Theodore F. Ehinger, Adrian; James Warren, Flint; Cleo Coles and Paul Purdy of Grand Rapids.

Initiation will be held this week and H. Lundberg, Forest Pierce, J. McCosh, C. Calvin, P. Miller and E. Childs will wear pins of Lambda Chi.

The following have been pledged to Alpha Theta: Don Williams, Donald Lowell, Allegan; Carl Doyle, Cameron, Hix, Marlette; Eddie Reuling, East Lansing; Claude Berk, Calumet; Melvin Robinson, Saginaw; George M. Superlatives

"This was the most unkindest cut of all," cried Mark Anthony over the dead body of Julius Caesar.

Shakespeare didn't hesitate to use a superlative here—he doubled it.

But the fact remains that superlatives are in bad repute. They have been overdone—particularly in advertising. Enthusiasm has overstepped itself a little. There has been too much emphasis of

Best--Greatest--Most Popular

Nevertheless, we are inclined to believe that superlatives are justified when they are true.

And when we say that our ice cream is the best, we back it up with a report from Michigan State College which shows that it contains 10% more real cream than is required by State Law.

Barron's "toasted sandwiches" have achieved a success without parallel in Lansing, and our luncheons and "after-theater bites" are the talk of the town.

A good string of fish was never carried down a side street

Well Folks, here's me spending the day as usual reared up on my hind legs yelling "Buck's" at the passers by, so what more natural, it being Friday, than for the talk to be of fish.

You don't think the fellow with the big catch is a braggart because he tells the world by parading down the main drag— you even stop and look 'em over, and so

Why not look at Buck's too? Here we are with the finest string of furniture in the community, and we're parading it on the main drag. Won't you come in and admire it?

Staters Tackle Centre's 'Praying Colonels' Saturday

FAMOUS 'PRAYING COLONELS' BILLED AS ATTRACTION ON STATE GRID

STATERS GROOMED BEHIND CLOSED DOORS FOR CENTRE GAME TOMORROW.

Facing the biggest series of inter-sectional games ever commenced for a Michigan State football team, the coaches of the Green and White eleven have conducted practice with the Staters for the past week behind closed doors in an effort to sound the Michigan State team into a fighting trim. It stands as an acknowledged fact that the State eleven has been somewhat of a miserable flop thus far this year and it is to revive the stock of the Youngmen, that secret drills have been held.

Centre college comes to the State camp touted as one of the most powerful eleven of the entire south. Last fall they copped the Southern championship without a great deal of trouble and are rated as serious contenders this fall. The famous old "Praying Colonels" promise to be one of the biggest attractions of the year for State football fans.

The Kentucky team is touted as having a highly diversified passing attack which promises to be the main threat for the green jerseyed pikin' totters. Rabenstein, the pilot of the southern team, is rated as one of the best back-field products of the south this year and will probably be the main individual offensive threat for the Staters. Chez, speedy fullback is also reckoned as being a dangerous man. Captain Walter Skidmore, 168 pound tackle on the Centre eleven will furnish some of the brightlights of the game, according to all indications when he opposes Captain Don Haskins, who will

Co-ed Edna Says:

The girls were all terribly frightened when one of their number was hit with a hockey stick Wednesday morning. The injured girl didn't faint, but most of her teammates did.

Miss Grimes is warning her zealous play-mates to beware of photographers. The drill field is being haunted by them during practice hours. If this continues to be the case, the coaches will probably take their teams into secret practice for fear that scouts from opposing teams may be "catching on" to their signals. Of course, it is hard for the young and beautiful to resist the lure of being photographed in their uniforms, but the rules regarding this are very strict.

The young ladies who have been active participants in "rushing" have returned to the gymnasium in fine form to fight their team battles. Inter-society scraps have kept them in condition.

I adore football games. I like to watch the yell leaders, especially the one who turns somersaults when everybody is supposed to say "Rah." And there is one boy with the dearest curly hair—I wonder why he doesn't turn somersaults too? Of course, I never yell myself. It's an awful strain on the voice, but I like to listen to other people making awful fools of themselves. I never could really get so excited over a game that I'd forget myself and yell like some of those others do, could you? I think it's terribly undignified. Besides, I never can remember the words. There was a man who sat near us at the Lake Forest game who simply turned his voice on and forgot to turn it off. I was awfully annoyed, and I should think it would bother the team to have anybody calling out instructions like that. I didn't notice the game much anyway. There was an awfully good-looking man sitting near us all the last half and I just couldn't keep my eyes off him. I know he was interested in me too. Anyway, I don't think football is very interesting, and I certainly can't understand the things they do.

probably occupy a tackle berth opposite him. Skidmore has been breaking up plays and generally making things uncomfortable for Centre opponents thus far this year and a dandy scrap between the two leaders is anticipated.

Just what the lineup of the Michigan State team will be has not been divulged by the State mentor. Practice behind closed gates has robbed newspapermen of all opportunities to look over the Staters in practice, leaving the starting lineup somewhat in the dark. It is expected that somewhat the same combination which went against Michigan will compose the State eleven. Haskins will be back in the line according to all indications. The State leader showed a high class exhibition of defensive play behind the line last Saturday and gained more ground than any other State back but his presence on the line seems essential. Van Buren will probably be back at fullback.

Fouts, Fremont, and Lyman are all possible selections for the quarterback berth, while Boehringer, McCosh, Kuebler, Bush, and Smith are possible halves. Lyman, Anderson, Edmunds, Drow, Grim, and Hackett are all seeing service at the flanks but just who will be the choice of the tutors is questionable.

On the line, Rummell and Haskins at the tackles, Garver and Hackett at the guards, and either Eberbach or Vogel at the pivot berth will probably be the selection.

The Centre college team arrived at the State camp this morning and will hold a practice drill this afternoon, probably in the State stadium. The invasion of the southern team marks the first big inter-sectional game for the Staters in the past few years and should be hailed by all as a big day in State football history.

W. A. A. GAMES AND RULES ARE SCHEDULED

Will Practice Monday, Tuesday and Thursday.

The W. A. A. Girls will take care of hockey and soccer practices which are on Monday from 5 to 6, and on Tuesday and Thursday from 4 to 5. All girls desiring to make class teams are requested to attend. Girls who wish to make class teams must observe these rules:

1. Have three regular meals each day.
2. Eat nothing but fresh fruit between meals.
3. Drink nothing but milk or water between meals.
4. Drink but one cup of tea, coffee or cocoa.
5. Sleep eight consecutive hours each night.
6. Be in bed by 11 p. m. with the exception of Friday or Saturday or before holidays.
7. Walk briskly for one half hour each day, or have one hour of outdoor exercise.
8. I have taken a shower after each practice and game.
9. Have at least one soap bath every other day.
10. Have not smoked.

Each girl will be given a training card each week and will be asked to check up on these regulations.

There is to be an all-college bike Saturday, Oct. 24, for co-eds which will be sponsored by the W. A. A. They plan on hiking to Park lake, which is a distance of 20 miles. Points will be awarded which will count toward eligibility in W. A. A. Watch the bulletin board for further notice.

Public Letter

To the Students of Michigan State College.

If the opinion of a lowly co-ed is of any value to the student body of this college I should like to express mine. If recent exhibitions of our college spirit at athletic contests is to represent the feeling that is prevalent among the students, what can they expect from their "Alma Mater"? Compared with the spirit of other colleges with whom we have come in contact at games, we come near the bottom of the list. Let a snap out of it and show our real spirit!

As a suggestion, let's try singing all the verses of our "Alma Mater" and the "Fight Song." Let's put some pep into our yells and all yell when it's time. Let a put some spirit behind the team, they can't do it all! Sincerely,
A CO-ED

The annual membership drive for the local Y. W. C. A. will begin Monday, Oct. 19. Miss Martha Griswold heads the committee in charge. Every dormitory and society house will be visited and the various phases of the association will be explained to the co-eds. Each girl will then sign up for the department in which she is most interested.

Following the Centre game, the Union Memorial building will be thrown open for the usual party from 8 to 12. The Red Cedar Ramblers, a newly organized orchestra, will furnish the music. WKAR, college radio station, will broadcast the last two hours of the party.

A large crowd of co-eds turned out for the women's roast Wednesday evening, which was held at the armory because of the rain. It was intended to be a hike and the roast held at Pinetum. Games were played later in the evening and everyone had a good time.

THIRTY-TWO VARSITY MEN HAVE OLD MONOGRAMS CHANGED FOR 'S'

M. A. C. MONOGRAMS WORN SINCE 1857 IS NO MORE.

The change to the "S" from the old "M. A. C." that has been worn by varsity men since the founding of the school in 1857, a matter of sixty-eight years, was necessitated some months ago by the change in the name of the school from the Michigan Agricultural college, whose monogram was the "M. A. C.", to the Michigan State College of Agricultural and Applied Science. The block "S" was chosen as a suitable monogram to signify the new name of the institution.

The change in the varsity award also brought about the change in the varsity hat which now has a small "S" instead of the old "M. A. C." State athletes are strutting about with their new headgear.

The names of the men now wearing the "S" and the sport or sports in which they earned them are: Paul Anderson, Lansing, football; Carl Baynes, Birmingham, baseball; A. T. Edwards, Bedford, football; Perry Fremont, Bad Axe, football and baseball; Paul Hackett, Saginaw, basketball and football; Don Haskins, Saginaw, football; Harold Kiebler, Manchester, football and basketball; Clyde Kittle, Charlotte, basketball; George Kuhn, Vicksburg, baseball; Lloyd Kurtz, Kalamazoo, track; Richard Lyman, East Lansing, football; F. G. McInnis, Royal Oak, baseball; Hugh Robinson, Detroit, football and basketball; Roy Spiekerman, Saginaw, football and baseball; Harry Wakefield, Wellsville, O., track; D. M. VanNoppen, Niles, track; Alfred Vogel, Evanston, Ill., football; H. B. Marx, Monroe, basketball; D. M. Zimmerman, Traverse City, baseball; Donald Fleser, Burnips, baseball and track; W. Fisher, Brooklyn, baseball; Fred Alderman, East Lansing, track; Bob Grim, Sturgis, track; J. P. VanArman, Battle Creek, track; S. H. Woods, Benton, track; Roy Severance, Docket, track; C. C. Fredericks, Saginaw, track; E. C. Eckert, Grand Rapids, football; John Garver, Caro, football; and M. F. Rummell, Saginaw, football. Mark Burlingame of Grand Rapids is wearing the only team monogram's monogram at present, this for his managerial work in baseball.
