PEOPLE'S CHURCH DEDICATION TO OPEN TONIGHT

"Victory Banquet" Starts Services Tonight; Chicago Symphony Orchestra to End Week.

Today marks the opening of dedication week for the formal presentation of the new People's church of East Lansing to the people of this vicinity. Dedication services are scheduled to take place from today until Tuesday, May 18. Dr. N. A. McCreche, pastor of the church, has announced this as the formal opening week and according to his plans, several prominent church officials of the state and section of the country will be on hand to aid in the dedication. Also a number of parties interested in organization of community churches will be on hand to render their assistance.

Hold Victory Banquet

To close off the week of dedication, a "Victory Banquet" will take place tonight at the church to celebrate the opening of the East Lansing church project. It is believed that the new $175,000 structure is the largest of its kind in America. It is situated in the jurisdiction of the Methodist, Baptist, Congregational and Presbyterian denominations. The new church in this vicinity has an auditorium with a capacity of 1,400, a chapel with seating arrangements for 100, and a number of student use, class worship and banquet functions.

At tonight's banquet, Prof. Thomas J. Jeffrey of Slippery Rock Normal college in Connecticut will be the principal speaker. Prof. Jeffrey was formerly head of the foreign language department of this college and was at one time president of Alma college. Other speakers will be Dr. W. H. Phelps of Detroit, who is editor of the Michigan Christian Advocate, and Mrs. J. A. Sneyd, president of the East Lansing Women's society.

Thursday "Anniversary Day"

Tomorrow night will see the dedication of the church class rooms. Dr. James J. Jeffrey of Detroit, pastor of the Presbyterian church in the metropolitan area, will deliver the main address at this second part of the week's program.

Friday will be "Anniversary day" for the church and college cooperation to commemorate the 69th anniversary of Michigan State. President John L. Butterfield will act as master of ceremonies upon this occasion. Presidents of the state normal schools and colleges will be present. Dr. Thomas E. Johnson, superintendent of public instruction in Michigan, will represent the state.

WKAR to Broadcast

Tonight all of the dinner program will meet in the new church. The program has been scheduled for Saturday, while Sunday has been reserved as the climax of dedication week, according to Dr. McCreche. Each morning and evening services will be broadcast by WKAR radio station. The formal dedication of the church will officially take place at this time, with representatives of the four denominations concerned in the project cooperating.

South of Lansing, directors of the Michigan Baptist convention represent the Baptists; the Congregationalists will be represented by Dr. W. Sutherland of Lansing; the Methodists by Dr. C. E. Johnson of Lansing; and the Presbyterians by Dr. J. J. DeKraker of East Lansing. Dr. N. A. McCreche, pastor of the new church, will represent the organization. He has been influential in the organization and construction of the new People's church, having come here from Grand Haven nine years ago. He was pastor at the Grand Haven congregational church for seven years.

Concert Tuesday

The dedication address for the church auditorium will be delivered by Dr. Ozora S. Davis, president of the Chicago Theological Seminary. The chapel will also be dedicated Sunday, by four Lansing pastors: R. W. Hobbs, Dr. E. W. Phelps, Frank Kingdon and Dr. W. H. Phelps, and by the representatives of the four co-operating denominations.

The Sunday evening services will be held by the presence of Bishop Thomas Nicholson of Detroit, of the Methodist Episcopal church. Music will be given over to student musical concerts, and Tuesday evening the dedication week will be culminated by the appearance of the Chicago Symphony orchestra, which will present a concert in the new building.

The banquet will be under the sponsorship of the new People's church of East Lansing, as a part of their dedication week program and will take place in the new structure on Grand River avenue.

The main objective of the banquet will be to gain more extensive co-operation and association between the church and student body. Five hundred tickets will be placed on sale today, with one percentage for same being reserved for students. Members of the church's governing council will have charge of the banquet sale, and no tickets will be sold to outsiders or society members until Friday. The banquet is principally for students.

Both groups will be helped by the church in the period, decorations, rugs and furniture, a total of $2,000 for the student section of the building.

ARTILLERY IS TO STAGE SHAM WAR

A demonstration by the artillery unit will take place Wednesday afternoon following the week's dedication and review of the unit. As the weapons owned by the unit will be used in the exhibition, including the 127 millimeter anti-aircraft outfit which is very intricate in the details of discovering, positioning and tracing enemy planes.

Three planes from Zeppelin field at Mt. Clemens will be imported for the exhibition, according to Captain Warren, and a problem in land maneuvering will be run through by the artillery.

The artillery demonstration will be the last exhibition of the year by any one of the local units. Everything now points to the annual inspection on May 24 and 25, for which the corps are preparing with all sorts of confidence that Michigan State will again be rated as a "distinguished" college.

The following promotions of officers and non-commissioned officers in the cavalry unit have been ordered by Colonel Sherburne: To be captain, R. C. Hall, to be first lieutenant, M. R. Collins, G. H. Cowles and W. W. Carpenter, to be sergeant major, G. B. Peterson, to be first sergeant, M. S. Grander, M. C. Hopley, C. A. Parrish and F. L. Daniels.

Students will be advised by showing their athletic team. Arrangements for the lecture will be made to have the pictures included in the books. Faculty and students may purchase tickets for single admission in the lobby of the gymnasium on the evening of May 12, for 30 cents.

DR. MALLMAN TELLS OF SANITATION WORK IN M. S. C. RECORD

In a special article written for the M. S. C. Record, Dr. W. F. Mallman of the bacteriology department tells of the work being done along lines of sanitation by the local department. One of the most important phases of this work, according to Dr. Mallman, is the survey of rural water supplies of the state which was carried out by the bacteriology department in co-operation with the department of civil engineering. It was found that 69 per cent of the wells in rural communities were polluted. These were mostly dug wells, the deep driven wells being, as a general rule, free from pollution. The department at tests several hundred samples of water every year which are sent in by people owning wells.

Another phase of sanitary engineering is sewage disposal. Although satisfactory methods for disposing of municipal waters have been found, there is still a real problem in the disposal of industrial wastes. Studies are also conducted on the bacteriology of disposal plants for municipal wastes by the department of bacteriology in connection with the state department of health.

Departments of civil engineering, farm mechanics and bacteriology are cooperating in the disposal of dairy wastes.

These various branches of investigation are carried on by regular members of the faculty, students, graduate students and research workers in connection with their regular work. Dr. Mallman, the author of the article, is one of the foremost authorities on disposal of sewage in the United States. He has only been special investigator in this subject along lines which have not been touched before.

STATE ALUMNI TO BE REPRESENTED

Union Contemplates Adding Two Alumni to List of Directors; To Vote May 19.

Michigan State college alumni are desirous of being represented on the college Union board, it was made known last Saturday at a joint meeting of the present board and the executive committee of the M. S. C. Alumni association.

A resolution was introduced at that time to add two members to the present quota of student directors of the Union. The motion provided that these two additional members would be chosen from the alumni association, in order to stimulate a closer co-operation between alumni and students.

This resolution will be passed upon at the next meeting of the Union board, which will probably be on Wednesday, May 19. It could not be acted upon Saturday, at the time of its introduction, due to the fact that there were not sufficient members of the board present.

Dean Phelan has been living at 538 Park Lane and intends to move into his new residence in about a week.

ALUMNUS TO GIVE FOUNDERS' DAY ADDRESS THURS.

Charles W. Garfield of Class of '70 Will Address Student Body; Societies to Parade.

Charles W. Garfield, class of '70, of Grand Rapids, one of the oldest living alumni of Michigan State, will address the student body at the Founders' Day program, May 13. Mr. Garfield will speak on "Looking Both Ways" and will devote the greater portion of his speech to reminiscences of past experiences in this institution.

Many college, university, and normal presidents of the state are expected to be present for the day, with the exception of President Little of the University of Michigan, while many of the most prominent alumni will return for the big event. One of the college presidents, Gerrit Maselink of Ferris Institute, holds double distinction as he is also an alumnus of the old M. A. C.

Societies to Decorate

All societies are asked to decorate their houses in a way that will be appropriate for the occasion, something in the manner of a home-coming day, as the Hope State baseball game will be the feature of a banner sports program. The gymnasium will be decorated with pennants, society banners, and various flags by delegates from the respective houses.

Founders' day will be the occasion for the first block grouping of the independents. Their position in marching in the parade will be between the Timouras and Hesperians and it is hoped that there will be a representation out. The order of marching of the different organizations will be as follows: McThorn, Sherman, Delphi, Phi Chi, Alpha, Sorority, Phi Beta, Elysian, Phi Delta, Thetis, Epsilon, Alpha Phi, Union Lat, Alpha Gamma Rho, Olympia, Lambda Chi, Phi Kappa Tau, Lambda Chi Alpha, Alpha Gamma Delta, Sigma, Delta Sigma Phi, Kappa Delta.

"PEPPERMINT GROWING" IS SUBJECT OF BULLETIN

Duncan Classes Crop As Profitable When Grown in Muck Lands of Michigan.

The new bulletin entitled "Peppermint Growing in Michigan" has just been issued by the local experiment station. The bulletin, which was prepared as the result of a widespread demand on the part of owners of muck lands throughout the south central part of the state, was written by J. R. Duncan, crops specialist of the college.

According to Mr. Duncan, peppermint can be made a very profitable crop for muck lands. There are only two other states in the union which grow anywhere near to Michigan in the successful production of this crop, according to Mr. Duncan. These are Oregon and northern Indiana.

A GREATER MICHIGAN STATE

Another year has rolled around and Michigan State college students, faculty and alumni are preparing to celebrate the 69th anniversary of the founding of the college and the first anniversary of the new Michigan State. The past year has been full of opportunity and, to no small degree, achievement. As is always the case, accomplishment has not kept pace with possibility, but we are justified in looking back over the past year with a certain degree of satisfaction.

It is wholly desirable to occasionally stop and look back over the past. Looking to the future is typical of Americans and it makes for progress, but progress becomes a reality only with a well developed foundation. We must understand something of the ideals and the struggles that have made it possible for Michigan State college to hold the place which it does today in order to go on.

We are students of an institution that is the oldest of its kind in the United States. Starting with a small building in what was then a virgin forest, it has gradually grown and expanded until now it takes its place among the foremost with what is perhaps the most beautiful campus in America.

With expansion came a broader appeal and possibilities for more types of students. Agitation was started in the eighties for a change in name that would give more equal recognition to all graduates. Originally the institution was simply called The Agricultural College. In 1909 the name Michigan Agricultural College received official recognition. In 1911-12 the movement was started to gain a name for the college that would include all courses of study. This movement culminated last year in the legislative enactment which gave us Michigan State. But the new name means nothing more in the way of progress than the student body and those who are in charge of the institution are willing to make it mean.

It should be a matter of pride for every student to feel that he belongs to this college and is an integral part of it. Much of its development in the future depends upon the students. The way may be prepared by others but a college can be no greater than its student body. Let us all take part in the commemoration of the 69th anniversary and of the first anniversary of the new Michigan State and unite in a resolve for a greater Michigan State.

SPRING FEVER

We all get tired of so many counsels against our succumbing to spring fever. To just plainly succumb is not a pleasant thing to think about, but to succumb to spring fever, ah, that is different. It is easy, and full of untold pleasures. It has its price, but the payment always seems far away, until the fever has passed and nothing but stern reality remains.

Nature is bound to express her good feelings in May and June by sending warm breezes, sunny days, and cool, moonlit nights. She has seniority rights and the young folks are bound to heed her first. It was intended that way.

So now that the warm days are really here, when the sun booms up in the morning, when the college robin starts warbling, and the lure of the Red Cedar is too strong to be resisted, don't resist. Don't let books bother you. Take your paddles in one hand and your books in the other, and make for the river. And when you are comfortably arranged in your canoe, and the last bubbles from your sinking books are far behind, head straight for Pine-tum.

In June, when you receive your marks, and the disapproving scowls of paper, look back and remember that, after all, forethought is the best

What Is A Life Underwriter?

One who executes and delivers a life insurance policy. In other words, a person whose business it is to offer the known benefits of life insurance to individuals, to corporations, to partnerships, etc.

But further, the life underwriter is one who must convince those clients of the benefits offered. This means stimulating contact with human character, and with large affairs. Some underwriters prefer the game of character and deal mainly with individuals. Others prefer affairs; to them is open the great field of business insurance.

Furthermore, the business of life underwriting pays highly for initiative and ability.

And still more, the life underwriter offers to his client a commodity which has no risk in it, does not deteriorate, and adds no burden of mental worry. The life underwriter sells absolute security, the foundation of serenity of mind.

It is worth while to think these things over now and to remember them when, perhaps, you find yourself wrongly placed in whatever business you may have chosen.

BEFORE you even look for the jack or tire-tools, tuck a neat wad of Prince Albert into the muzzle of your jimmy-pipe. Light up . . . and get yourself in the frame of mind where a flat tire is "all in the day's work." Talk about a gloom-chaser!

P. A. simply knocks troubles for a row of planished-steel mudguards. Its cool, soothing smoke percolates into your system, the sun crashes through the clouds, and everything is hotso-totsy. Yes indeed, Fellows, Prince Albert is great tobacco.

And paste this in the fly-leaf of your thesaurus: P. A. can't bite your tongue or parch your throat, no matter how hard you hit it up. The Prince Albert process flunked Bite and Parch on their first examination. Get a tidy red tin of P. A. now and see.

PRINGE ALBERT
—no other tobacco is like it!

P. A. is sold everywhere in tidy red tins, pound and half-pound tin, humidors, and pound crystal glass humidors with sponge moisture tip. And always with every bit of bite and parch removed by the Prince Albert process.

STATE LOSES TO BUTLER UNIVERSITY IN THIRTEENTH INNING, SEVEN-FOUR

Butler Scores Three in Final Chapter With Bases Full, Two Out And Count Three and Two On Woalgro.

With the bases packed in the 13th inning of the baseball game between Butler university and Michigan State college Saturday, Woalgro smashed a single over second base which Don Fleser allowed to roll between his legs, allowing three Butler men to score what proved to be too large a margin for the State sluggers to overcome. The hit broke a 4 to 4 tie that had existed since the eighth inning and allowed the visitors to break the State winning streak for the first time since Michigan won over the Spartans April 21. The final score was 7-4.

George Kuhn, who had relieved Harry Wakefield in the ninth inning, had the count three and two on Woalgro with two men away and the chances looked good for the teams to go into the 14th inning with all things even, but Dame Fortune grew tired of the drawn out affair and decided to end things in the 13th in favor of the Hoosiers.

State had several chances to pack away the ball game before Butler finally did it, but the Spartans lacked the punch to deliver the bingle when the hassocks were occupied. In the tenth, Fremont opened with a safe bingle and was advanced on Kiebler's sacrifice, but Rowley and Baynes did not produce the hit needed to win the game. Again in the eleventh Macier walked with no one away and was sacrificed to second by Kuhn, but Zimmerman and Haskins saw him wither away while they offered themselves as easy outs to the visitors. The twelfth saw Fleser open with a single and was sacrificed to the midway by Fremont, and although Don did reach third on Kiebler's sacrifice fly to right, he was left when Rowley struck out.

In the first of the thirteenth Kuhn got Richel on strikes, but A. Queisser, Ewing and Floyd singled in succession, filling the bases. Kuhn struck out Nipper and had Woalgro in the hole with the count three and two on him. Kuhn grooved one and Woalgro did what has already been told. The best the Spartans could do in the last half of the chapter was Baynes' lift to Ewing, Macier's smack at Queisser and Kuhn's hoist to Floyd in center.

The game produced the best baseball seen on the home lot this season. Fleser brought the stands to its feet in the third when, with men on second and third with one away, he took Woalgro's hit in right center and got Green at the plate trying to score. This play pulled Wakefield out of a tough hole and was one of the few relaxing periods of the game. Floyd gave the crowd another kick in the third with a beautiful running catch of Zimmerman's fly in left center. The smash had the earmarks of a triple, but Floyd cut across the field fast and made a backhand catch of the ball.

State experienced a bit of luck in the eighth. Rinehardt was sent in to pinch hit for Speikerman with the bases full and two away. Fleser had just scored and one run was needed to tie the count. Rinehardt very graciously struck out, the third strike being so low that Queisser had no chance of getting it. Rinehardt reached first, while Rowley scored, but Captain Kiebler was cut off trying to count. Nipper to Queisser.

State will meet Hope college here Thursday afternoon as one of the attractions for Founder's day. The

STATE FRESH HAND ALMA ROUT, 104-27

State's fast traveling freshman track team added another sided victory to its collection Saturday in taking Alma college down the lane, 104-27. Handicapped by the loss of George, versatile Maroon and Cream athlete, the Campbell coached crew never stood a chance of winning, taking only three firsts. McManus won the mile, McGregor the broad jump and Chatman the javelin.

The fresh sprinters looked unusually good in the meet. Lang equalled Alderman's freshman record for the century in 1:04 and Henson won the 220 in 2:26. Barratt won the shot with 10 feet 5 3/4 inches and McAtce cleared 11 feet 6 inches, as well as was done in the State-Iowa meet.

Diller came within an inch of the freshman record in the high jump and also won second in the high hurdles and third in the broad jump. Lang, Hanson, Peterson and Knoll made the mile relay in 3:36.5, a new freshman record. This meet ended the dual competition for the yearlings this season but the fresh will compete at the State Intercollegiate, May 21-22.

Hollanders are experiencing a good season and the game should be one of the best on the home lot this year.

IOWA STATE BEATS STATE RELAY TEAM AND TAKE CLOSE MEET 67-64

Alderman, Grim, Wylie, Smith, Tilletson, Van Neppen, Conger, and Kingery Star.

When it comes to handing out bouquets to any of State's athletes, a goodly portion should go to Captain Bohn Grim and Freddy Alderman for their work in the dual meet with Iowa State Saturday afternoon which the latter won in the last event, the relay, 67-64. Grim had already competed in the century, furlong and quarter mile events and Alderman had done his best in the 100 and 220 yard dashes, broad jump and javelin when the relay came around. With the meet depending upon this last event, the coaches shot the pair into the relay. Alderman had never run the quarter before and Grim was more fit for the rubbing table than he was to carry the baton as anchor man. Farley ran a nice race for the first leg of the relay, giving Wall the stick only a yard or so behind Iowa. When Wall came to pass the baton on to Alderman however there was a matter of thirty yards or so handicap confronting the State flash. Alderman ran the quarter in 48.6 seconds and Captain Grim ran one of the hardest races of his career but the distance was too much. Iowa won the relay and along with it the meet.

Alderman was not pushed either in the 100 or 220 and Grim placed a good second in both events. The time was comparatively slow with the time last week but a slight wind faced the runners from the north. Grim's race in the 440 was close and spectacular. Grim did not and the lead until he was half way over the back stretch and then with a burst of reserve speed, stepped out into the clear.

One of the big surprises of the meet was the battle that Wylie gave Conger in the distance runs. Conger was supposed to have his own way in the half but he gained the verdict only by a last minute spring which gained him only a yard advantage at the tape. They were neck and neck on the back stretch and Wylie got the pole on the last turn but the Iowan had too much reserve for Wylie, sprinting by him in the last thirty feet.

Another upset was the failure of Tilletson to win the discus. This is the first event that the big Potosky boy has lost in a dual meet this year. Alderman, Grim, Smith, Wylie, Van Neppen, Conger and Kingery were easily the stars of the meet, doing the most of the scoring for their respective teams.
