OLDEST SORORITY TAKES SORORIANS AT INSTALLATION

Kappa Alpha Theta Installs Chapter Here This Week.

Kappa Alpha Theta, the oldest and one of the leading fraternities for women in America opened its thirty-fourth formal installation of Beta Pi chapter at Michigan State yesterday.

The erstwhile Sororian society is no more, for after exactly twenty-five years as a local, it has now become a national organization, and future reference to it must be in the term Kappa Alpha Theta.

Theta was established at Asbury college, which is now DePauw University, at Greencastle, Indiana, in 1870. The total present membership is about 17,000, of which over 2,500 are active in the 53 chapters of the country. The local Beta Pi chapter is the 55th in this country, the preceding one being installed this week at Iowa State college, at Ames. About 1,500 Thetas are members of alumnae chapters, now which total 47.

Installation at this college opened yesterday evening at seven o'clock with pledge services at the home of Mrs. J. A. Persons, a Lansing Theta. This afternoon the second part of the ceremonies will take place with formal initiation in vogue at the Sororian house on Evergreen avenue.

Tomorrow will mark the climax of the installation with a luncheon being scheduled at the new Hotel Olds in Lansing, followed by the public reception in the evening at the new People's church in East Lansing.

The reception tomorrow night will be attended by other State campus fraternity men and women, and will open at eight o'clock.

National officers of K. A. T. who will be on hand to conduct the installation proper are: Mrs. C. A. Bonnis of Spokane, Wash., grand vice president; Miss I. Pearl Green of Hines, N. Y., grand secretary.

Representatives are expected from the chapters of the University of Michigan, University of Pittsburgh, University of Cincinnati, and Allegheny university. In addition several alumni chapter delegates are expected. Mrs. James A. Persons of Lansing is the resident Theta in charge of the general arrangements for the event.

Those who will become charter members of the Beta Pi of Kappa Alpha Theta are as follows: Mabel Mosher, Lenora VanKulturn, Philo Pratt, Helen Weston, Margarite McCarty, Helen Berlin, Margaret Yates, Helen Washburn, Maize, Giselle Emma Dorothy Leland, Lucille Gardner, Lenora Thomas, Frances Ayres, Mildred Kaye, Leah Jensen, Ella Hoek, Marjorie Mitchell, Nina Nybø, Helen Taylor, Ruth Featherly, Edna Brown, Ruth Marsh, Margaret Shaddock, Margaret Hager, Marjorie Clegg, Marjorie Davies, Myrtle Moore, Dorothy McWood, Margaret Foote, Ruth Keckham, Edith Costcock, Olga Bird, Corinne Backus, Bessie Hulbeck, Helen Crane, Ruth Sawyer, Helen Richey, Wilma Macdonald, Alice McWood, Magdalene Hager, Frances Harvey, Margaret Matthews, Emma Hyde, Helen Hart, Margaret Parry, Margaret Strong, Irene Johnston, Vivian Cass, Helen Anderson, Marjorie Reed, Jane Dean.

Those who are eligible to receive these pins are: Marguerite Kirker, Ruth Maxine Moon, Battle Creek, Ruby Newman, Alice Hunter, Thelma Howes, all Lansing; Marjorie Ashley, Battle Creek; Donna Bassett, Farmington; Ellene Downer, Inlay, Okla.; Dorothy Fulton, Detroit; Josephine Flinn, Battle Creek; Margaret Hubbard, Detroit; Ruby Kinend, Grant; Margaret Stanton, Bath; Phyllis Trautman, Perrinton; Clare Walbridge, Detroit.

Professor Duncan Visits New Monroe Corn Borer Station

Prof. J. R. Duncan went to Monroe last Wednesday to supervise the experimental work at the new corn borer sub-station which is located three miles west of Monroe. A. R. Marston, who has been a graduate assistant in farm crops for the past two years, will be permanently in charge of this station.

"Day's News" is Picturesquely Presented in Series of Floats at Fourth Annual Senior Water Carnival

"The Day's News" as presented by the various societies of the State college campus brought fourth many brilliant ideas and feature material at the fourth annual senior water carnival last night.

Floats ranging from the sublime to the ridiculous moved slowly past the judges stand by farm lane bridge, and to the accompaniment of soft music from the orchestra on the shore the entertainers did their stunts in realistic and prize-winning style. In fact, there were so many really excellent ideas that it was rather hard for the judges to decide on just which one was the cleverest, funniest and most original.

"Fun-zesters", supreme for the evening were "Shady" Lane and "Bill" Schilgen. One never tires of seeing these two perform, whether they are fishing the Red Cedar with a hatchet or climbing ladders without using the rungs. "Bill" seemed to take a liking to Millicent Clark, queen of the carnival.

NEW TRADITION IN LANTERN NIGHT

Lantern Night Ushered in By Co-eds As a New Tradition.

With a vivid flash of color provided by the contrast of the brilliantly lighted lanterns against the solemn black of the gowns of the senior girls, who led the procession of co-eds, Lantern Night was ushered in as one of the traditions of this college. Tuesday night is a decidedly picturesque fashion.

By this custom, which is destined to take its place among the other time-honored customs of Michigan State, the freshman girls are recognized as sophomores, the sophomores as juniors, the juniors as seniors, and the seniors as alumnae.

Following the long procession which wended its way around the outskirts of Sleepy Hollow through the paths of the botanical gardens, and finally ending in the Forest of Arden, the lanterns of the three upper classes were exchanged, those of the seniors going into the hands of the freshmen who had previously been empty handed, as a symbol of the youngest group assuming the responsibilities of senior and year girls while the seniors were relieved of their burdens in college life.

CLASSES ELECT NEW OFFICERS

Juniors and Sophomores Elect: Freshmen Eliminate, Elect Today.

Paul Engle, of Lansing was chosen by the juniors to head next year's senior class. George Macler was selected by the sophomores to lead next year's Junior Hop.

Elections were held Tuesday night, sophomores and juniors electing officers and freshmen making eliminations of candidates.

Officers of the junior class, for next year are: Paul Engle, Lansing, president; Elizabeth Woodworth, Detroit, vice president; Margaret Louder, Coldwater, secretary; and H. Johnston, treasurer.

Sophomores chose the following to lead the class in its most active year in college: George Macler, Richmond, president; Margaret Matthews, Lansing, vice president; Marian Green, secretary; Walter Neller, Lansing, treasurer.

Freshman class eliminations leave the following candidates for election for president, William Moelzer and Hugo Kanitz; for vice president, Marion Eddy and Helen Francis; for secretary, Adeline Wing and Henriette Seovell; for treasurer, Gordon Witter and Warren Shook.

Prizes for the floats were awarded as follows: Funniest, "Gold Dust Twins," by Alpha Gamma Rho; honorable mention to "Biggs" by Aethon. Most original, "Camels" by Hesperians; honorable mention to "Stocks and Bonds" by Elysian and "Everready Razors" by Phi Chi Alpha.

Most beautiful, Kappa Delta with "Fairy Soap"; honorable mention to "Song Shop" by Sigma Phi and "Weddings" by Sigma Phi. In addition to the floats entertainment was furnished by Mary Dwyer, who made a beautiful picture as she danced alone before the throne of the queen while the piano tinkled melodiously across the water.

The events this year proved to be thrilling in the extreme. Jean Hornig entered in three contests and won three first prizes, a truly exceptional record. Miss Hornig's victories are those, first in women's singles, first in women's doubles, together with G. Powers, her teammate, first in mixed doubles, at which time she was assisted by Les Fouts, a lanky paddler who also won second place in the men's singles.

PLAN COUNTY DAYS FOR SUMMER SESSIONS

Several Counties Already Signed Up for Special Days.

Special county days are again being planned by the college for the coming summer, according to an announcement made last week. Allegan, Barry, Newaygo, and Potawatomi have already signed up to special days.

The people of the county leave their homes early in the morning and return the same evening, spending the day at the college. The delegation from each county is composed of the county agent and team folk who are interested in extension work and wish to learn more about the work of the college.

From 100 to 250 people usually come from the various counties. It is expected that there will be even greater numbers in attendance this year.

STUDENT OFFICERS TO BE IN CAMPS

State to Send Full Quota to Two R. O. T. C. Summer Training Camps.

Michigan State college will send a full quota of R. O. T. C. students to the summer training camps this year. The military camp is to be held at Fort Stearns, near Vicksburg, and the infantry and cavalry camps are to be held at Fort Sheridan, Ill. Capt. R. E. Larsen, left Wednesday for Fort Sheridan to make advance arrangements for the coming of the students.

The camp which takes place, the last six weeks after school is out, has a larger enrollment this year than it did last year, according to Capt. Larsen. John of the military department.

Those who are to attend the camp are: J. Brundage, M. Byrne, F. Cornett, R. Dudley, L. Johnson, F. Killy, R. Lutz, A. Lynch, N. O'Brien, J. Luther, K. Wenzel, M. Erdmann, W. Debes, G. Turner, G. OPEN BID FOR NEW CHEMISTRY BUILDING

Construction to Start Soon; New $600,000 Building Much Needed.

Bids for work on the new chemistry building were opened Wednesday according to an announcement made by Sax H. H. Halliday. A new $600,000 building will relieve the very crowded conditions in the old one. Actual construction of the building will begin soon. It is to be located directly south of the agricultural building. It is expected that the building will be ready for occupancy a year from next fall.

The chemistry department enrolls a great many students. Most freshmen are required to take the work and there are many upperclassmen and graduate assistants also enrolled in the department. New and up-to-date quarters will induce many others to take up speed work in this department.

Other winners are Harold Peters, who placed first in the men's singles and M. Frank, who was assigned third position in that event. H. Bartlett and J. Jankowski, who won first in the men's doubles, with Fouts and Kane running a close second. G. Powers, second in women's singles. H. Peters and G. Powers second in mixed doubles. R. F. Hatchler and R. W. Malpass first in the canoe tilt.

Results of the filling contest are Goodwin and Russell.

Prizes for the events were awarded by the king of the carnival, David Stouffer. Music was furnished by the Amphion Revelers and a pinatrophe. Beautiful lighting effects were created by Gordon Hagdon, working with equipment from G. W. Craig of Detroit.

The installation of a chapter of Chi Omega national sorority at Michigan State was made last night in the parlors of the People's church by the representatives of the national sorority, after the announcement which came Wednesday of the granting of a charter to a group of independent girls who have been petitioning. A banquet was held in the new Hotel Olds here last night.

INSTALL CHAPTER OF CHI OMEGA

Group of Co-eds Granted Chapter of National Sorority.

The following girls were made members of the national sorority last night: Mabel Gittel, Lois Harwood and Martha Griswold, seniors; Dorothy Burnett, Lorraine Eitch, Gertrude Keesee, and Demarius Wilson, juniors; Olive Beck, Esther Sisson, Elizabeth Taylor, and Ruth Andrews, freshmen; Marie Lucas, Lily Woodall, Marjorie Frances, Lily Korman, Mary Hallock, and Sarah Korman.

Next fall the Michigan State chapter of Chi Omega will take its place among the other sororities of Michigan State. A home has been procured at the corner of Charles and Ann streets. Immediately upon entrance to school next fall, it will be occupied by the members.

ANNUAL SENIOR PLAY READY

"Francesca da Rimini" furnishes colorful picture of Italian Renaissance life. With but three days left before the date of the presentation, the finishing touches are being given the annual senior play, "Francesca da Rimini", five act Italian tragedy, which will be produced next Tuesday night, June 15 in the outdoor amphitheatre of Michigan State, the Forest of Arden.

AT THE UNION

Michigan Union fees have just been increased from $5.00 to $10.00 per year. Half of the total is to be applied to paying off indebtedness on the building.

The University will send to the Union enough on its power bills to make up for the dollar, which will be lost from fees on this plan.

None of the Michigan State Union funds are used for improvements in the building or the completion of more rooms.

Purdue students pay $8.00 per year and the Purdue building is not so nearly complete as is the Union Memorial building.

The Michigan State Union is run on one-third of the overhead expense paid out by the Purdue Union, according to the recent financial report printed at the latter place.

THE LIBRARY FOR ALL

One of the institutions at Michigan State of which the students have reason to be proud is the new library which is considered one of the best in the country. This department of the college is fast becoming more complete with the addition of many new volumes.

The work of the reference department which is of great service to the students has been seriously hampered of late by the loss of several volumes from important sets of books. It should not be necessary to point out the fact that reference books are kept in the main reading room of the library in order that all may have an equal chance to use them. A student who appropriates such a book, deprives all other students and faculty members of its use. He is the cause of much embarrassment to the library assistants and diminishes the service which the library can render to its patrons. Moreover, reference books are very expensive and when a set is broken, an entire new set must usually be purchased to replace it because the volumes can rarely be bought separately.

A list of the books which have recently disappeared from the main reading room follows. Anyone having knowledge of the whereabouts of the books on the list has an opportunity to render a real service to the library by aiding in returning them.

The library is for all and the man or woman who takes a book and keeps it is not only dishonest but unfair and unsportsmanlike in his relation to his fellow students.

The list of books recently missing is as follows: Cambridge History of American History, Vol. 2; Dyke—Automobile Engine; Encyclopedia; Larned—History for Ready Reference 1924 edition, Vol. 7 and 8; Monroe—Encyclopedia of Education, Vol. 1; Nelson's Encyclopedia, Vol. 2; Walsh—Prose and Poetical Quotations.

before and to take their place in society.

We wonder as these young men and women leave the college what their part in life will be. A man or woman who does not make the world a little better has failed to attain success. Likewise, the man or woman who leaves college as a graduate and is not equipped to render a greater service to humanity for having attended college is a failure so far as the four college years are concerned.

It is the college trained youth quite largely who must be the door and the leader but the college graduate who expects to stick his sheepskin in his pocket, offer his services, make a flying leap for the top rung of the ladder, and stay there, is not the one, after all, who really succeeds.

Go out into the world, 1929 seniors, with the determination to succeed on your own merits. Forget you have a diploma for a few years, but remember that you owe your best to your college and to society. Meet the problems of life with the best of your ability. Expect success, work for it and success will be yours. Some of your names will be synonymous with achievement throughout the nation, perhaps throughout the world. Some of you will achieve just as much and remain unknown, but success is measured by service. Remember as you leave that Michigan State expects you to succeed and that you carry with you the best wishes of faculty and students.

STATE MEETS NOTRE DAME IN FINAL BASEBALL GAME OF THE SEASON

EIGHT MEN PLAY LAST GAME FOR GREEN AND WHITE; ALUMNI GAME SATURDAY, JUNE 19.

With confidence in their hearts and dynamite in their bats, Coach John Kob's victorious baseball nine left for South Bend, Ind., today to meet Notre Dame in the final scheduled baseball game on the State schedule. State beat the Irish here last Saturday, 5-3 by piling up a four run lead in the first inning. Walsh tamed the Spartan sluggers in the final frames and will probably start against the Kobsmen tomorrow. Harry Wakefield, who has not seen service for some time will probably get the assignment to face the Koegansmen.

This game will find Captain "Baldy" Kiebler, Perry Fremont, Harry Wakefield, George Kuhn, Carl Baynes, Roy Spiekerman, Del Zimmerman and Don Haskins playing their last baseball game for the Green and White. With this combination of stars valiant Coach Kobs will be in sore need of material for replacement. Pop Quindan or John Caruso will undoubtedly be seen behind the plate next year in place of Fremont.

"Slats" Macler will be a certainty at first, "Pat" Rowley will return to take care of the hot corner, "Monty" Hood is available for the short field with Hoy, Davis, Rinehart, Fleser and a host of freshman material to put in a bid for positions. "Lefty" Tolles and Bremer will be available as pitchers.

The alumni-varsity game is on the books for Saturday afternoon at College field on Alumni day. The old timers will return in force to face Kobs outfit and will endeavor to show the boys how baseball used to be played. "Lefty" Brown who used to court around first base will return with "Brownie" Springer, "Rollie" Richards, Sepanek, Bub Kuhn, "Bud" Ranney, Lyman Erhodig are a few of the oldtimers who will perform against the varsity.

Prof. Chittenden has received applications for men to do tree-trimming work in Wayne county. Mr. Wirtzer, assistant forester in Wayne county, paid a visit to the college a few days ago and employed six freshmen to do this work. An application is also in Prof. Chittenden's office from E. D. Clifford, 22, who is city forester at Flint, for similar work.

FORM NEW TRIANGLE DEBATE ARRANGEMENT

The triangle debate agreement between Michigan State, Purdue, and Iowa State has been dissolved, with the recent withdrawal of Iowa State and a new triangle formed which will consist of Michigan State, Purdue, and Marquette University of Wisconsin. The former arrangement has existed since 1912.

SPARTANS ENTER THREE TRACK TEAMS IN TWO MEETS SATURDAY

ALDERMAN, GRIM, TILLOTSON AND WYLIE GO TO CHICAGO AND FRESH TO GRAND RAPIDS.

Michigan State will have three track teams entered in two separate meets Saturday in what will officially wind up the 1926 track season. Coach Ralph H. Young will take four of his choicest athletes to Chicago with him Saturday to compete in the National Intercollegiate track and field meet in which will be entered the cream of American college stars. Young has entered Freddy Alderman in the 220, 100 and broad jump in which the brilliant Spartan is expected to place high. Alderman is considered an equal of any college athlete in the furlong and although he may not win the event, he is sure to place high. Alderman was third last year in this meet, being beaten out by Gray of Butler and Sweet of Montana. The time was 21.9 sec.

Captain Behn Grim is entered in the century and 440-yard dash which is his favorite event. The time made last year was 49.1 sec. Grim has never made this time but is capable of a place. "Ho" Tillotson of State will be competing against the country's best in the discus Saturday. Hanser of Southern California is just about the best in the country in this event and is expected to win. The distance made last year was 418 feet 4 inches, which is somewhat better than the Spartan can do but he may be in the first five for a place. Wylie is the fourth State entry and will compete in the mile. Wylie has developed this year into a formidable mile and is a strong possibility for a place. The time last year was 4:18.8.

Entered at Grand Rapids.
The remainder of the varsity and the freshman team will be competing at Grand Rapids in the West Michigan A. A. U. meet. State will not be as strong here as under normal conditions because a large majority of the sure point men will be at Chicago. Van Noppen will be good for points in the high and low timber and Harris and Thomas will count in the quarter mile. Smith will be strong in the pole vault, shot and discus and Kiebler may place in the high jump. The fresh will probably gather more points than the varsity with a well balanced team in the field. They will place Kenyon in the 100 yard, Williams in the half mile, McInnis in the pole vault with Olson a strong possibility in this event. Kiebler is good for points in the quarter mile, Honson and Peterson should do well in the dashes. Diller is a dependable high jumper and may place.

This will bring to a close the season for 1926.

FINE CELEBRATORS ACTUAL REPAIR COST

City Engineer to Make Report Of Cost On Repairing Lansing Pavement.

The final decision of the Lansing judge who dealt with the men arrested after the baseball victory celebration is to regulate the fine according to the actual cost of reconstructing the pavement damaged by the bonfire according to report received yesterday. It is expected that the repair work will be done soon and one of the city engineers will make a report of the cost.

The Lansing city council recently passed a resolution to submit a bill of $80 for damage done to police uniforms. The student council has also received a bill for $125 from the Michigan Railway company for damages done to street cars by the celebrating students. It is estimated that the cost which will be paid by the student council will amount to approximately $100.

ADDRESSES ELECTRIC PLATERS ASSOCIATION

Dr. D. T. Ewing Presents Paper On New Process of Chromium Plating.

Dr. D. T. Ewing of the chemistry department presented a paper before the Detroit section of Electric Platers association last week on chromium plating.

A new process of electro-plating has been developed in the college laboratories by Dr. Ewing during the last two years. It produces a coating of especially bright luster. The process will prove of great value in replacing nickel plating. The new plating is much harder and less corrosive as well as less expensive.
