ELECTION INTEREST HIGH AS CLIMAX NEARS

CAMPUS AFFAIRS LOSING HOLD AS TERM NEARS END

Dull Point Reached In Athletics;
Few Social Events Remain for Next Two Weeks.

CONVOCATION WEDNESDAY

Final All-College Convocation to Precede Election; Gov. Green to Talk.

With the winter term fast approaching its close, campus activities are on the downward scale. After this week's athletic interest will center around the basketball squad now in full swing, and the Michigan A. A. U. meeting next week, and the Central Conference week carnival. Social activities have been virtually ceased at the end of the week.

It is thought many students will be attracted to the appearance of the Prud'homme and Fritze-Kreiser, and other famous ballplayers while the convocation will again be marked by the faculty and Blade initiatives.

Convocation will mark two important events in their respective groups. The honor key ceremony of the Union will be held, and the Blue Key fraternity will install its new officers. A banquet dinner and installation is on Wednesday morning with an evening of social activities and an all-college convocation for election purposes. Gov. Green is booked to appear in the evening at the final Michigan State News cafeteria dinner in the present staff will be held at the convocation.

The evening will see the interest of the campus centered around the annual all-college elections. Virtually all social events are to be held on the evening. The men's debating team will have their final meeting for the year.

The seniors will hold sway Friday night with their winter formal at the University Club hall in Lansing. This evening the social activity of the classes for the term. The day will also find the M. S. C. band appearing before the faculty and students at Bay Ave and Dean Ryder will address the Convocation club in the evening on "Institutional Progress."

Friday will bring the swim song and athletic for the term. Many sports sends its great track team here for a final meet. The Alpha Gamma Delta benefit ball will take place that evening. The morning will mark the annual of the girls winter sports.

Activities will be reviewed the coming week for the first annual convocation. Saturday night, March 12, will be the track contingent of South Michigan for the first annual Central Convocation relay carnival, while the best of the winter sports will vie for honors in the same night at Flint Michigan A. A. U. meet. The convocation party of the term with special features is announced for that night.

The Alpha Phi will present its final convocation before the term ends. The date has not been set, but the convocation will be a comedy hit. The convocation will be held at the Union building.

The convocation will officially terminate on Monday, March 25, examinations having been placed in order on Monday, March 21.

In Race for Editor

LEVON HORTON

Levon Horton, candidate for Michigan State News editor, holds a record that few candidates for editor of the News have held. He started working on the paper the second edition in the fall of 1924. His freshman year and his senior year he worked on the paper. This is a record of faithful work that has probably never been equaled here. He held the position of sports editor for two years and was made managing editor in the spring of 1926.

Horton is a member of Theta Alpha Phi and handles the publicity for the club. For the past year he has been in charge of section and reporter of the paper. He has also taken part in a number of plays. He is an assistant editor on the staff of the Wolverine this year and worked on the athletic edition of the Wolverine last year.

He has some other interesting work he has done. He has handled newspaper publicity for the Union Review. That was the chairman of the publicity committee for the I. O. P. this year. He handled the publicity for the Union, Delta, Phi, Military, Ball and the Variety party.

His editorial career started when he was in the eighth grade when he was editor of a school periodical. Later he became editor of his high school paper. Journalistic activities outside of school include reporting for three years for the Lansing State Journal and two years for the Lansing Capital News.

Quite aside from his chosen field is an interesting avocation, which is little known about the campus. He was a member of the Freshman track team in 1924 and until recently held the freshman 100-mile indoor record.

When asked about his future plans, he said he would like to continue in his present paper position and at the same time make it serve the student body as a college newspaper.

BENEFIT PARTY SATURDAY NIGHT

Annual Alpha Gamma Delta Charity Affair to Be Semi-Formal.

Saturday night marks the occasion of the annual Alpha Gamma Delta benefit party which will be held in the hall of the Union building. The affair will be semi-formal and the proceeds are to be devoted to the Alpha Gamma Delta summer camp for children.

The summer camp is located at Jackson and is maintained through support of such undergraduate and alumni chapters of the sorority. The benefit dance sponsored last year by the state chapter was well attended and highly successful. This year plans have been made to make Saturday night a fair one of equal merit.

The patrons who have been chosen are Miss Anna Hinkins, Miss Ruth Pickle and Miss Dorothy Supple. Walter Bennett and the party is scheduled to open at eight thirty o'clock and continue until midnight. Tickets are one dollar and may be secured at the Union desk or from any member of the Alpha Gamma Delta fraternity. They will also be sold at the affair.

TWO SOCIAL AFFAIRS MARK CLOSE OF TERM

Two of the important social events of the year on the campus of Michigan State College, are the Pan-Hellenic ball, for which the date has not yet been set, and the annual benefit party given by the Alpha Gamma Delta sorority, on March 12.

EXPECT RECORD VOTE IN CAMPUS ELECTION RACE

Intense Interest Shown Over Issues
at Stake In Thursday's Scrap.

EDITORSHIP HEADS LIST

Merry Battle Seen In Publications
Field; Three Important Questions
On Ballot.

An intense interest marks the annual all-college elections to be held Thursday and expectations of the student council point toward another record vote being cast. Last year all previous marks were shattered, and this year should return an even greater tallying in view of the many issues concerned.

Expectation of a new editor-in-chief and his trust manager of the Michigan State News to succeed Keith Hinningson and Gordon Whitton, heads the ballot of all-college officers to be held Thursday.

Next on the ballot will be the candidates for the athletic board of control and one man is to be elected from the nominees.

To Vote On Council Expansion

Three general questions, one involving an amendment to the constitution of the student council, features that portion of the all-college ballot. The amendment which reads to Amend Article II of the Constitution of the Michigan State College Student Council is relative to expanding the membership of the council to permit a re-organization within that body allowing for more associate and ex-officio members. If this amendment passes the student vote the active membership will be composed of three members from the senior class, two members from the junior class and one member from the sophomore class. Each of the candidates would possess the power of vote and the right to hold office, such as president and secretary-treasurer of the council. This arrangement is believed to be a fair one. The amendment would be a re-organization within that body allowing for more associate and ex-officio members. NOTICE TO STAFF MEMBERS

The final cafeteria dinner for members of the Michigan State News staff under the present editor and business manager, will be held tomorrow (Wednesday) night at 5:30 o'clock in the room opposite the Union cafeteria. It is desired that every member of the staff be present for the last meeting with the editor and business manager.

At the Union

In addition to paying out the entire sum of student fees for student loans, the Union spends almost that amount in providing service for students entirely aside from the operation of the commercial parts of the building.

Membership on the board of directors is an important position. Those to be elected this week should be chosen with care that they be energetic, of an inquiring mind, and representative.

Blue books for the forthcoming examinations are available in sufficient quantity at the desk, and all other necessary supplies are also in stock, and may be purchased with coupons.

In 1926 twenty-four parties were held in the hall during the spring term. Make your reservations early.

GUEDELLA TALKS TO LARGE CROWD

Famous Historian Presented Interesting Address Last Night
At Church.

Philip Gueddella, English historian and author of several widely known books, addressed the present and past members of the Peoples Church in the hall of the Union building last night. He was the first member of the Michigan State College Athletic course last night to address the students.

The orator's address and new theories of Mr. Gueddella, reading the writing of historians were presented before a large student audience in the auditorium of the Peoples Church.

Defines Meaning of History
In defining history, the English author said that it was a process by which historians reconstruct the past of the most times and reconstruct the people and their problems. He derived the writing of history by the most retired statesmen, who have previously given no thought or attention to it. Mr. Gueddella declared that the voluntary readers of history have very largely dwindle during recent years. The reason for this he gave is the heavy style and lack of imagination and wit which have become the traditional manner in which histories are written.

History Has Its Story
History should be written not as a foregone conclusion but as it seemed to the people who were living in the midst of it, said Mr. Gueddella. Events should be taken as they come and treated somewhat as though they were part of a story which is being worked up by a witness. In order to portray a clear picture of ancient or modern happenings, details of the humbler sort should be described that they may characterize the people concerned and the events themselves.

SUBSCRIPTION—$1.50 THE SCHOOL YEAR

J. DALE MEDILL, Editor of This Issue

"EVERYBODY OUT TO VOTE"

Students of Michigan State, Thursday is all college election day. It should be one of the most important occasions of the year. The men and women who are returned the victors when the polls close Thursday night will have charge of all campus affairs for the coming year. They will be your officers. It is your election and no one will be to blame but you if they fail to meet your expectations. If you did not vote. Vote intelligently, do not haphazardly cast your mark in front of so many mere letters which comprise a name, but judge that person who bears it, weigh his worth, and pass judgment upon what you know of his ability. You should know your candidates before attempting to vote for any nominee. Practical experience counts in every field for which you must choose the student leaders. Pass judgment upon the extent of practical experience a man has had, cast aside any petty dislike, and forget the element of social popularity. Elect the man best fitted for the job you seek to fill. Vote, Vote, Michigan State men and women. It is your election, your college, your candidates and your activities.

WHAT THE STATE NEWS FEE HAS ACCOMPLISHED

There is no one who knows better than the student who has paid his $1.50 for the State News, whether or not the general fee is a success. But, there are some things which the student cannot judge from external appearances of the paper.

The debt of more than twelve hundred dollars, inherited by the present editor and business manager has been paid off and a small amount of money remains for the next editor and business manager to start on.

The paper has been maintained throughout the year on the large size which would have been an impossibility without the general fee. Advertising has been maintained at the maximum capacity because of the increased circulation. We are reminded at this point that some students have been dissatisfied because of the large amount of advertising, and we take the opportunity to point out the fact that with the usual amount of advertising there is by far more reading matter in the large paper than there would be in the small paper after allowing for sufficient advertising to pay for printing costs.

Graft, under the present system, is an impossibility. While there is usually little grounds for any such suspicion, someone always has the idea that the man, whether it be in college life or in public service, who has access to money, is taking advantage of his position for personal gain. Under the present system, the college handles all money payable to the State News and all bills are paid by order on the college treasurer's office.

Whether or not the general fee should be continued will be one of the questions which will be voted upon at the all college elections Thursday. There are many arguments for and against the fee, and you have heard them many times. There has been ample time to give the system a trial and there is no better way to judge than by the results obtained. Whether or not these results merit your support for the fee for the coming year is for you to decide. The State News editor and business manager take pleasure in presenting for your inspection, some of the facts which the ordinary student is not in a position to know.

THE ELIGIBILITY RULE FOR ACTIVITIES

There has been agitation for some time past on the campus for eligibility rule for campus activities. There has been a feeling that campus activities should be placed on the same basis as athletics—fairness to all. Others have thought that the conditions and purposes of the rule were different and therefore did not apply. This system is now being used in many of the large colleges and universities with evident success and there may be a need for it here.

The question of an eligibility rule for campus activities at State will be placed upon the all college ballot and each individual will have the opportunity to say what he thinks.

There has often been the problem in the past of the individual who gets too many offices, enters too many activities, and is unable to do justice to any of them. The Student Council proposes to remedy this difficulty. The Council believes that if the eligibility rule is established that it will place scholastic work first, and the result will be a higher type of individual holding campus offices.

Efforts were extended to have this issue reach the student body on schedule, since it is the last one preceding the all college elections. Due to extended delays in receiving the numerous ballots, this was an impossibility. Several special meetings were held on the campus Tuesday before the various lists were certified for publication, hence the delay in reaching the student body.

For the second time since the demonstration following the defeat of Michigan by Michigan State in baseball last spring, the police have been called out in Ann Arbor to quell a student

SENIOR NOTICE

A last minute announcement today by Miss June Ranney, chairman of the affair, reveals the fact that the annual senior formal to be held Saturday night will be at the Women's Club House in Lansing, rather than at the Episcopal Guild Hall, as previously announced. This change was made to permit more seniors to attend.

Editor. We cannot help but recall the editorial which appeared in the Michigan Daily at the time stating that such demonstrations were frowned upon in Michigan and that they were glad they did not get the type of students that comes to Michigan State. It behooves one school not to chide another when the future may bring a reversal of conditions.

LAST MINUTE NOMINEES LISTED FOR ELECTIONS

Due to a delay in receiving the nominees of the Women's Self Government Association and candidates for officers of the H. E. club, this issue could not contain the names in the regular ballot printed on the front page. They are given here as follows: Nominees for president of W. S. G. A. Those named for secretary are, Miss Mary Bebbelshammer and Miss Gaywendlyn Parkwood. The treasurer of the club will be either Miss Bernice Parsons or Miss Mildred Laulet.

ADDITIONAL NOMINEES FOR WOMEN'S A.A. BALLOT

In addition to the officers of W. S. G. A. managers and chairmen are to be chosen from the following nominees which will appear on the ballot Thursday.

COLLEGE EXHIBIT TRAIN TO MAKE EXTENSIVE TOUR

A tour of the upper peninsula will be made March 23 to April 20, inclusive, by a special farm crops train. The project will be under the auspices of the Upper Peninsula Development Bureau, with the college farm crops department cooperating.

George E. Bishop, secretary of the Upper Peninsula Development Bureau, G. W. Putnam, director of the Upper Peninsula experiment station, and C. E. Sliver, farm crops experiment specialist of M. S. C., will accompany the exhibit.

I. A. A. football and basketball selections for Detroit Times and Booth papers of the state, in 1923, 24 and 25. He worked on sports publicity for the U. of M. in summer of 1925.

When approached on his policy, if he should become editor, Medill stated he would attempt to have a larger and better Michigan State News, with a staff representative of the entire student body without regard to organization connections. He favors a general sports section with more important news being stressed upon that department of the paper. He would have the sports editor selected by the student body to increase the responsibility of his task. More comprehensive reporting of covered activities, and a general effort made to appeal to every class of students with the stories they are interested in, was another step suggested by Medill.

voted upon will be the continuance of the Michigan State News on a compulsory fee basis. This measure was adopted when the student body passed a blanket publication bill, taxing five dollars upon each student at the time of registration to cover both the State News and the Wolverine. It was passed at that time for a one year trial, but this year it has been decided to place the only State News proposal on the ballot. The measure will read "Are you in favor of continuing the State News general fee of $1.50 to take the place of the subscription fee of $2.50?" An affirmative or negative vote on this question will apply only to the State News, since the Wolverine fee is not mentioned at this time.

Eligibility to Hold Office

The third question for vote concerns eligibility to hold campus offices on the same requirement basis as applies to athletics. This bill if passed, would mean that eligibility rules would be placed in vogue for all campus activities. It would be necessary to maintain a "C" average, would the points and credits in which the student may be deficient, to be the same as in athletics.

In addition to the election of a State News editor and business manager, representative on the athletic board of control, and the three general questions, more than thirty other officers will be elected. All pictures must be ready without fail before the close of the term. This latter office in each instance appears on the ballot is for a two year term. All other officers are elected for one year.

No Contest for Co-ed Editor

No contest will be waged this year for co-ed editor of the State News, since Miss Dorothy Shoemith was declared the only contender.

The Michigan Agriculturist will have a new editor and business manager elected to succeed Donald Kline and George Harma, editor and manager, respectively. Only the ag students will receive this ballot.

The Women's Athletic Association will have its own ballot upon which the co-ed may choose their respective sports managers from the various classes. Each class will vote separately on these offices.

W. S. G. A. To Elect

The Women's Self Government Association also has its own ballot ready for distribution. Each class will elect its representatives to the co-ed student council or W. S. G. A.

Another ballot to be handed out will contain the nominees for officers of the Y. M. C. A. board, and the Peoples church student board.

The polls will open at 8:00 a. m. Thursday morning and remain open to the student body until 5:00 p. m. without closing during the day. The school will be the absolute deadline and the counting of the votes will be immediately after. The returns will be posted in the Eldon lobby Thursday night.

No matter how high-hat a pipe may be . . .

MAYBE you know some old fogey who owns one of these ultra high-hat pipes. . . a blotto bimbo who broadcasts a line of "broad-A" lingo: "cawn't enjoy tobacco that costs less than two bucks the ounce" . . . Well, paste this bit of news in the old boy's stove-pipe:

In picking pipe-tobacco forget price ENTIRELY. . . draw your own conclusions through the stem of your trusty pipe. Draw deep from a bowlful of grand old Granger Rough Cut and learn that there's ONE truly fine tobacco that DOESN'T cost a fortune.

Here's tobacco as fine as any man ever packed in his pipe. . . Granger is made for pipes and cut for pipes—it SMOKES like a million dollars! But the pocket-package is a foil-pouch (instead of a costly tin) and so, it SILLS at just ten cents.

It's tobacco worthy of the "dawgiest" meerschaum or calabash. . . tobacco worthy of any pipe in the world!

GRANGER ROUGH CUT

The half pound vacuum tin is forty five cents, the foil-pouch package, sealed in glassine, is ten cents.

Made for pipes only!

HAVEA CAMEL

Meeting a train in the Union station

You are an experienced smoker and you know your brand!

YOU'RE an experienced smoker. You know good tobaccos. You know taste and fragrance. And you insist on the best—that's Camels. Only the primest tobaccos grown are good enough for you—the experienced smoker. Whatever you do you are going to do right, if you know it. If Camels weren't the best, they would not be far and away the first. If Camels weren't quality supreme, they would not be the overwhelming preference of smokers who have tried every brand. Your taste tells you the tobacco difference in cigarettes and you're going to smoke the best. Your advice to others is—"Have a Camel!"

ANNOUNCE 1927 LAWSON CONTEST

Essays Must Be in English Office by Noon April 27, Subject Unlimited.

The George E. Lawson Essay contest for undergraduate men students of the Michigan State College has been announced for 1927 by Professors Waldo and Nelson of the English department who are in charge of the contest. The prize offered is $25 and the essay may be on any subject. The judges will be three persons of known literary discrimination selected by the president of the college and the head of the English department. The following rules prevail for the contest:

1. Essays must be in the office of the head of the English department by noon April 27.
2. No essay shall exceed 2,500 words in length.
3. No contestant may submit more than one essay.
4. Each contestant shall submit to the local committee three copies of his essay, each of which shall be typewritten upon paper of good quality, approximately 8 1/2 by 11 inches.
5. The name of the author shall not appear on any copy of his essay, but each contestant shall hand to the head of the English department a card bearing the name of the writer and the title of his essay.
6. The college shall have the right to print the winning essay in one or more of the college publications.
7. If in any one year the number of essays submitted is in the judgment of the local committee large enough to make the task of the judges unduly burdensome, the committee may select the ten best forwarding only these to the judges of the contest. This rule is made necessary by the fact that no remuneration is offered for the time spent by the judges in their work, and that some men refuse to serve unless the number of manuscripts is limited.

The Emmentan contest, which has usually been held along with the Lawson will not be held this year. Further information in regard to the Lawson contest may be obtained at the English office.

In a recent publication of the State News an editorial appeared entitled "The Junior Hop". The author of this article elucidated on the value of such social events as this J-Hop, saying that they are indispensable to the life of a college student. He even goes so far as to request that students who are missing this social life should reform and take in a few "big parties, even though it pinches the pocketbook."

Mr. Author, you are wrong. The men who have the power and "stuff" to be masters in this world do not arise from the group of students who hurry from "formal" to "informal" and from "prom" to "J-Hop". Far from it. The student who comes to Michigan State College with the hopes of getting an education of the mind and spirit is the man who will be the leader of tomorrow. We tend to unjustly look down on the serious student who studies. But, that student will in days to come give orders to us who are the social "collegians", and live up to the name by being fools! No, the social life does not make the man. On the absolute contrary, those people who have made the world what it is, are those who have used their books and

INTEREST HOLDS FORTH IN UNION POOL TOURNAMENT

Dean Bissell Enters at Last; Meets Hasselman in First Draw.

Marked interest still continues to hold sway over the second annual college student-faculty pool and billiard tournament. In the games of the last few days, Lieut. Chase eliminated Erimodig 100-71 in the straight pool event, and then Erimodig turned to defeat him in the second round of the three cushion billiard draw, 15-11.

Coch Eastwood trimmed Prof. Stew art in their three cushion match, 15-13, while Gallagher turned in the only student match to win from Davenport, 11-9.

Two student draws were completed last week in the straight pool event. Philip defeated Modill, 100-72, while Schwartz eliminated Crane, 100-98.

Following a recent comment that the name of Dean George Bissell was prominently absent from this year's entries, we note that the "engineering shark" is now entered in the straight pool section, and will oppose Jimmy Hasselman in his first contest.

Ex-grid captain "Red" Rummel is in charge of the tournament.

Deserts Radio To Set High Bowling

Jimmy Hasselman is publications director for the college, and when he creates an occasional swash in athletic circles himself, he is deservingly of a little personal publicity, outside of the usual Agricultural or radio realm. Jimmy has jumped in to second place among the bowlers of East Lansing by racking up the second highest score ever made on the Olympic alleys. This total was 296, and this is only two pins lower than the best mark made here.

FARM CROPS EXHIBITION CAR TO TOUR 9 COUNTIES

The farm crops department is co-operating with the Michigan Central railroad company in sending a demonstration car to several counties of the lower peninsula. Educational material for potato growers will be stressed during the tour, which is scheduled for March 11 to 26, inclusive.

In order to give the potato growers of lower Michigan a better opportunity to obtain benefits from the experimental work done by the college and to bring before them the latest ideas of cultural methods, the Michigan Central railroad company is placing several demonstrations and exhibits in a railroad coach. This will be exhibited to groups of farmers in the larger towns of the counties visited.

Educational and entertaining lectures and slides will be on each program.

The counties to be visited are as follows: Eaton, Jackson, Calhoun, Kalamazoo, VanBuren, Cass, St. Joseph, Branch and Hillsdale.

brains in college and let the girls and parties go to. In fact, history shows unmistakably that men who were popular never have done the world much good.

Of course social life to some extent is necessary to the well rounded person. But to cite such an event as the J-Hop as an example of the social height a student should reach is absurd. The man who cannot attend all our big parties is fortunate to say the least.

And it's just about time we were electing a few officers around here on basis of pure merit, instead of social popularity!

I wonder if it would hurt the halls of our new library if we drove some pegs in the walls? I, for one, am getting tired of carrying an overcoat up and scuff around one arm, looking very much like a hall tree. Some one seems to have found a use for the keys to the coat lockers other than they were intended for. Perhaps they fit into gun machines.

There is something thrilling in hearing our visiting speakers hold forth on college spirit and college friendliness, on the true love of mutual giving. And then it's just like having some one take your seat on our local trolley to find that all the locker keys have gone home to lunch.

The point is this: There should be about one hundred of those lockers

START PREPARATIONS ON ANNUAL HORSE SHOW

Set Date for May 30 and 31; Not Likely to Be in Stadium.

At a meeting of the state committee in charge of the annual Michigan State College horse show, preparations were started for this year, an annual event. The date has been set for May 30 and 31.

The show will take place the afternoon of May 30 and 31, and the evening of May 30. It is probable that the scene of the show will not be in the football stadium, but at some more accessible spot on the campus.

Much interest both in and out of the state has been manifested this year, said Colonel Sherburne, and we confidently expect the number of entries this year to surpass that of any previous show.

Now there are about twenty open to the public. A number of enthusiastic Michigan State lockers, men filled with the burning, consuming, all-enveloping desire to do big things for their college have appropriated the remainder of them for their own convenience.

These same offenders would split their last meal with an unfortunate fellow student. I wonder if they would have him hang up his hat out of doors? I wonder who will be big enough to start a movement to be unselfish in this matter by leaving his locker key in the slot after using the locker? At least, if these men cannot get over being so self-centered they might leave their name at the News office, and we could send them the coat stands, also.

Sincerely, Bill Muller

Politics here are rotten? Men are shoved into responsible offices by a mere handful of students. Class meetings are attended by only a small percentage of the class enrollment, and most of that percentage is too weak-minded to see that justice is done!

Even the ordinary things about the campus are characterized by little or no student interest. Many students conscientiously feel that compulsory attendance is amateur, or that the scholarship here is too low, but most of us are either so stagnant minded or so backward that we do nothing at all about these injustices.

IT IS FIRST ABOUT TIME WE WOKE UP! An attempt for justice was made in the last freshmen class meeting. But, due entirely to lack of student interest, nothing was done. There most certainly are men here at State who care to see that affairs are run right. Then why is it that no one stands out for sound principles once in a while?

There are many things at this college which need very vital changing. A sound thinking group of students could make this school a model of modern education. What we need is a few men who will come out with radical ideas and get us out of this rut of conservatism. We need class meetings filled with students eager to elect officers on sole basis of merit. We need men who will throw popularity to the winds and do a little fighting, right or wrong! That's what makes big men and that's what will make State a better college. As things stand now, everyone around here doesn't care anything about the college, or else is too lazy to see that things are changed. What are you going to do about it? The Campus Forum should be swamped with articles. Every thinking student must take it upon himself to fight for a better State. LET'S SNAP OUT OF IT!

CONCLAVE DREW GREAT SUPPORT

Noted Speakers Proved Interesting to Student Body in Annual Meet.

A chosen subject of the College Christian Conclave which ended Sunday was a Modern Interpretation of Christ for our times. Emphasis was laid on Christ as a source of personal power and the use we make of ourselves now and the preparation we make for the future.

The conclave was an explanation of the individual's future in terms of his present. It helped the students to see the real issues and make the right choices. The Conclave attempted to show sources of power within the student and to help him use himself wisely. It developed creative personality in the student so he will live more often as he would in his best moments. The Conclave offered no apologies to challenge students to face Christ.

Coeds Hear Authority

Monday morning topical group meetings were held. Dr. George H. Baker of New York talked on "The Vitality of Christ." Miss Frances P. Greenough of New York met with a group of coeds on the subject, "The New Freedom and the Old Law." Secretary Thomas Stock of Boston talked on "The Part Religion Plays in Personalities." The World Program of Catholicism was discussed by a group of students and Father A. Gabriels of Lansing. Dr. William F. Sheldon of Chicago gave a talk on "A Practical Christian Program for the Campus."

A very interesting address on "The Fight for the Campus" was given by Dr. Chester B. Emer of Detroit. Following the topical group meetings Friday morning, Dr. Baker gave another address on the subject, "The Place of Religion in Education of the Faculty and Students." Friday afternoon.

Personal Problems Treated

Saturday afternoon was given over to personal conferences of students with the keynote leaders, in which students were enlightened on many of their personal problems.

Sunday was filled with talks and addresses on some of the subjects being discussed. "The Christ Keeps Ahead of Youth" by M. Willard Langer; "Basic Principles in Christian Womanhood" by Miss Greenough; "Sincerely Serving Christ" by Secretary Stock; "Sources of Power" by Dr. Baker; and "The Future" by Dr. Langer.

CO-ED DEBATERS FACE HARD DRILL

Prepare for Clash With Toledo "U" April 8; Marriage and Divorce Question Attracts.

Following their recent road trip through Indiana, Illinois and Wisconsin, Michigan State Coeds are rapidly progressing under the tutelage of Coach Blake for the opening of the home debate program on April 8. On that date the University of Toledo will send its affirmative team to meet the state negative team on the marriage and divorce question. The home team which will oppose a uniform marriage and divorce code will be comprised of Miss Mary Reboehmer, 29, of East Lansing; Miss Theba Eschle, 28, of Lansing; and Miss Virginia DeWitt, 29, of Lansing. Coach Blake announced Saturday.

Trip to Toledo University

Two weeks later the M. S. C. affirmative team which will support the proposed uniform code measure on the same question will journey to Toledo to engage with the Ohio negative artists. This road team will be Miss Florence Hunter, 29, of Boston, Mass.; Miss Kathleen McPherson, 27, of Lowell; and Miss Maudie Rohlf, 27, of Lansing.

The M. S. C. coeds are scheduled in a triangular program this season with Western State Normal and Albion College. April 15 marks the date of the triangular debates. The affirmative

TO DEDICATE CHURCH ORGAN NEXT SUNDAY

Under the willing fingers of Frank W. The noted concert organizer from Detroit, the new Casavant pipe organ was installed at the People's church and features its own dedication next Sunday at four o'clock.

Walter, an Englishman who has spent twelve years of his life in Canada in 1903 is now the First Presbyterian church of Grand Rapids. The highlights of his career show his study under the organ of Chester Cathedral and choir of Ripon Cathedral, his conducting of a choir of five hundred voices in the Dominion, and his presidency in Detroit.

All East Lansing concert goers will render the vocal offerings and appearance along benches for the duration of the program, at least on the left side.

The new pipe organ, result of long and careful planning and contributing of Lansing residents and visitors, has just been installed, and during afternoon it will be introduced to the public.

History Reveals Itself in State News Records

By Bill Muller, '29

This morning we looked through the files of the State News office. Every few show the efficiency and ease of manipulation that our files. Yet in every issue, or every editorial, or our files on various campus questions, and a record of the changes through time.

Up in the News office is found the only open air filing system on record. Between the two wings of the fourth floor, there is a vault in which the light is left to sit in the office. When the editor or his assistants want to leave a file as a record of the evening's work, they open the window and throw it out into space. Time and the elements finish the story.

First of all there is a study of a body mangled editor's cigar. The corduroy condition of the dangerous end of his file bears every evidence of a vicious editorial. That must have been an evening of extravagance in the office, for the butt is all of an inch long. Those overemphasized tooth marks are a record of "Didn't receive" notices from subscribers.

Coed Editor Ezra Prescott, leaves in the files evidence of his staff activities. There we find a hairy staff, and wrapper, here some Home Economics biscuits, unburned by the bitterest needs of the elements.

Finally, this story, without the window is filled with six inches of thick water. In appearance it resembles the Georgetown flood. This roomy plume is emphasized when after the water has subsided the staff gathers to watch the secrets revealed. On top of the pool are dozens of swollen cigar butts, candy wrappers, ancient news stories, perhaps filed for reference, carefully worked out all American clippings and never a trace of the coed News. It's too close to the Women's building.

As the float disappears down the drain pipe it gathers all of the records about the mouth of the outlet. There are seeds there from the great elm across the street, lime from the newly-laid sidewalks of the Union brick, a shooting that looks as though it had been on a late night, a disgusted looking pipe stem and a weary looking candy bar.

Half way between the Wolverine office and the News office lies a worn out Tom Heath tin bottle. Since we have to claim in the matter we leave this for editorial comment. Evidently it belongs to a visitor for it has a London trademark.

Perhaps it would embarrass many of the truth in our files. Perhaps, if the campus is over the scene of a mock shooting campaign, these bits of ammunition, being records will be produced in court and labeled as evidence. Perhaps we will have an audit of the News sometime. Then these old relics may be dug out of the outside and sent to the dump.

This week completes the work of our present staff. We feel that we should give some account of the year's business. Our records are open to all those in the fourth floor open the window and our past is known.

We will return to Albion here, while the state negative team will journey to Toledo for the match with the W. S. N. The marriage question will attract the most interest.

Only nine girls were try-out candidates this year for the three teams which will have marked the year at the conclusion of the schedule. Each of these girls will have debated twice and each will have had one road trip. The number of girls who were candidates this year did not come up to expectations, in spite of the many in-campuses offered for coed competition.

Three Teams This Year

In addition to the two teams which will compete in the remaining debates, state had a third team in the field. This year was composed of Miss Florence McPherson, 27, of East Lansing; Miss Marjorie Warkie, 27, of East Lansing; and Miss Virginia DeWitt, 29, of Lansing. They will then hold Law State College and Carroll College, both in Wisconsin, to no decision draws.

New Coach This Season

This year is the first for Coach Blake, who is of Madison, Wisconsin, and graduated in the class of 1924 of the University of Wisconsin. Last year he coached debating at the University of Illinois, and he comes to state with a successful forensic record.

Another Epoch In Wells Hall History Passes

Ward E. Wells Hall, a residence place and not a pest house for contagious disease patients. The contrary seemed true, however, last Friday when a rumor of smallpox quarantine and dead "poxers" drifted through the ward from pessimistic lips. We do not know who started the absurd story, but one thing is certain, and that is that the results of the rumor were varied and effective. One man, a brave and noble fosterer, went so far as to pack his haversack and head for home. The majority, however, vent their opinions with ontological verbosity and proclaimed the great opportunity of sleeping through a ten-day quarantine.

There was no little talk of R. O. T. C. guards walking their bent with fixed bayonets before the doomed ward of barred windows and red plague signs. Nevertheless, the stern view over the ivy-clad and the Ward E. Staters went to classes, unindicted by health officers, soldiers, or policemen. Another episode in the glorious history of Wells Hall had passed, so relates a resident of that dorm.

GREAT SPARTAN TRACK MACHINE SWEEPS RELAYS

Cream of Michigan Thinclads Turned Back by State; Set New Relay Record.

HESTER LOSES TO GRIM

Ypsilanti Star Conquered by M. S. C. Flash; State Strong in Relay Events.

By Dale B. Stafford
Athletes from Michigan State College played the greatest part in the sixth annual Michigan State relay carnival held in the gym Saturday night.

Seven schools sent teams to the events and all came in for honors of some sort. State divided most of the places in the special events with Detroit City College. In the forty yard dash, Grim of State won first with Alderman third. In the special forty yard event Tall of Detroit City College was a winner with Spence and Chapman, his team mates, third and fourth. Spence won both hurdle events with ease. The expected duel in the 100 between Loving of Western Normal and Spence failed to materialize, when Loving was eliminated in a preliminary heat. Loving finished second to Spence in the high.

McAtee Loses

The pole vault saw probably the greatest upset of the day when McAtee of State, winner at the Illinois carnival, was relegated to a tie for second place with Thorpe of Ypsilanti. The bespectacled Spartan vaulter had a bad night and first place was taken by Hathaway of Kalamazoo College. He set a new meet record with a vault of 12 feet one and five-eighths inches.

In the high jump, Richards of Western State defeated Deberry, title holder of Detroit City College. The big Western jumper failed to shatter the record. Ken Deberry set last season's State record.

State Defeats Michigan

The most thrilling relay of the evening was the Michigan-Michigan State two mile event. State won by about ten yards when Wylie Spartan anchor man, opened up with a great burst of speed in running his final lap.

State led throughout the event mainly because of the superb efforts of Reasman, Clark, and Williams. The men are highly deserving of mention, as is Wylie who ran the final laps.

The other thrilling event of the evening was the two mile between Western State and Ypsilanti. The latter team had confidently expected to win, but the work of the Westerners was far superior to what was expected. The race was decided at the last lap.

In the spring events the State quarter consisting of Lang, Kroll, Grim, and Alderman shattered the existing records by enormous margins. The team is expected to set the world's record for the half mile relay in the spring.

The meet was probably the most successful ever held here. Every team took home a trophy of some kind and the events were well arranged.

MAIN ELLINGER

This Spartan dash star smashed the 100 yard free style swimming record of 1:03 last Friday night against Wooster College, when he negotiated the centry in 59.8 seconds. Clipping 3.2 seconds off the old record, which he had also established, marks Ellinger's advent into the realm of Spartan sport stars.

TANK CREW WINS WRESTLERS SEEK OVER OHIO TEAM MICHIGAN TITLES

Season Finale Goes to Coach Brown's Men As Ellinger Lowers 100 Yard Record.

Coach Leonard Will Take Twenty Mat Men to M. A. A. U. March 19.

Michigan State swimmers defeated Wooster College of Wooster, Ohio, last Friday night in the season's final 15-21 smashing two college records. Coach Brown's team performed brilliantly to end the season with the biggest victory of the year, and one which places them at four wins and three losses for the year. Wooster took first in the 50 yard free style for their only victory. Ellinger smashed the existing record for the 100 yard free style swim when he left the held trailing to do the distance in 59.8 seconds. This clipped the record of 1:03 also held by Ellinger and established against Michigan State Normal College.

State Lowers Medley Time

The second record to go into oblivion was the 150 yard medley relay. The Spartan trio, composed of Ellinger, Thomas, and Chamberlain, negotiated the distance in 1:29 seconds. This was one of the most record smashing swims ever recorded here, since the old time was 2:02.2 seconds. Thomas swam the back stroke, Ellinger the free style, and Chamberlain the breast stroke to complete the Spartan medley team. M. Cook made the best time he has ever set in the 200 yard free style against Wooster when he ended in 2:49.9 seconds.

Konastand a freshman star gave an exhibition in the 200 yard breast stroke and set a new record for freshmen to shoot at, when he finished in 3:00.7 seconds.

Between the events, the crowd was entertained by "Skinner" Chamberlain whom it is claimed, "broke the world's record for drinking pop under water." Chamberlain mastered three bottles beneath the surface of the pool.

Coach Sperry Brown in his first year as Spartan swimming coach has reached a considerable degree of success, and he looks forward to establishing swimming as a major sport here next year. Following the close of the season Friday, Coach Brown signified intentions of entering Randolph Thomas, and Ed Ward Cook in the intercollegiate swimming championships to be held soon at the University of Iowa.

Cook is one of the greatest divers State has ever developed, and his victories include one over the University of Michigan diving array. Thomas, Detroit star, has few college superiors in the back stroke events.

ILLINOIS WINS BIG TEN MAT TITLE FROM U. OF M.

The University of Illinois wrestling team again took the Big Ten Conference wrestling championship Saturday night when they defeated Michigan, 12-9. This is Illinois' fourth Big Ten championship. No falls were obtained by either team and at the end of the semi-final the score was tied. Bernie Shively, all American guard, then won the meet for Illinois by defeating Pressett, Wolverine heavy-weight.

Third place in the conference goes to Iowa who defeated the University of Indiana the same evening. Iowa's margin was 12½ to 9½.

MCATEE TO RECEIVE GOLD WATCH AWARD

Spartan Athletic Board to Grant Illinois Trophy Pole Vaulter Tied For.

Harold McAtee returned from the University of Illinois relay carnival held at Urbana last Saturday, the possessor of a blank sheet of paper which he was lucky enough to draw when making an agreement in regard to a tie with four other men. Harold showed his good sportsmanship how ever and remarked: "Well, someone had to lose and so that's that", so he proceeded to lose even his thin and scarce record for his record leap of 12 feet 6 inches which broke the old Michigan State College record, which was 12 feet 6 inches and established in 1926 by H. H. Wilson.

Since the return of Harold to State some developments have taken place. The board of control of athletics has voted to award to Harold J. McAtee a gold watch of the same design and manufacture as those awarded out at the University of Illinois relay carnival to the winners of his sport.

Captain Fred Alderman and Bob Tombs were the other State men to win watches and first places. More first places were won by Michigan State College than by any other institution competing at the Illinois relays.

FIVE ATHLETES MAKE RECORDS

Mat Record of Gibbs and Tank Title by Ellinger Ranks Them With Trio in Other Sports.

Five versatile, equally great athletes in their respective fields, mark the spotlight of Michigan State College with the recent advent of two record holders into the collegiate limelight. They are Frank J. Gibbs, star wrestler, and Main Ellinger, star swimmer, who graduated in three years of varsity competition with some of the best men in the west. Great things are expected of Gibbs when he vies for state honors on March 19 at the Michigan A. A. U. meet in Flint. Even the national intercollegiate looms ahead with possibilities for this Spartan, who graduates in June.

Ellinger Sets Record

Ellinger, clocked off the 100 yard free style swim against Wooster College last Friday night in the record time of 59.8 seconds to set a mark for all comers to shoot at. The old record, which he also held was 1:03 seconds. He is expected to lead the M. S. C. link team into a brilliant season during coming year. Ellinger is a junior.

The niche of honor draws Gibbs into its fold, since they are individually brought recognition of their sports to the campus. They are to be grouped with three other sports celebrities who grace the campus, Captain Fred Alderman, one of the greatest drop-kickers in the land; Bob Grim, ex-captain of the track team and 75 yard co-holder of the world's title; and Captain Frederick Alderman. "Annie" can merely flash at 300 yards, and joint holder with Murdochson of the last time over clocked for the three mile 100.7.

Alderman, Grim, Smith, Gibbs, and Ellinger have each won a piece of honor in the sporting world of Michigan State College.
