SCORE ANOTHER FOR OUR OLD-FASHIONED BOYS

A year ago we recall a panning we received in the University of Michigan daily newspaper. It followed an outburst of enthusiasm on the part of Michigan State students following a victory by the baseball team over the Wolverine nine. We were granted a host of titles among them "ancient," "old-fashioned" and "like monkeys huddled at us." It is not questioned in a regular fashion. Nevertheless, we do not mind retaining some of them, especially the "old-fashioned."

Only recent circumstances at the university have made it necessary for the authorities to recall benches from use by dignified seniors of the Ann Arbor Institution. The seniors, strange as it appears to us, were offended at not being afforded their usual place on the benches. A custom had been cultivated of gathering along the walks on the benches and passing judgment upon the views of the institution as they, greatly embarrassed, passed in review. The polished young gentlemen were indignant at being denied this privilege by the removal of the benches and required other conveniences for the pastime in the form of boxes upon which they might sit. Again the faculty, which we venture to say harbors a few of the more "old-fashioned" type of boys, intervened and removed the boxes. The polished young seniors still demanded the satisfaction forthcoming from submitting the ladies to this daily embarrassment, recruiting small stools, which they carried from place to place to afford seating facilities to watch the review.

We old-fashioned boys that we are, suppose that this venturesome bit of opinion is too mid-Victorian to warrant consideration. However, we feel rather exalted in our ancient modes, fashions, and practices, to be able to say that we have retained enough of the civility and courteous fashions of our predecessors to retain a respect for the fairer sex. State college costs are inflated with the embarrassment of passing groups of men on the campus, but they are accorded the greatest respect that such a group of men may tender in such cases. We are truly surprised that cultural atmosphere of the university has not fitted the graduating seniors with at least those preparations of gentlemanly character.

Drama Literature and Music

The thought this time is one of contrasting. It seems that with every addition to our library the demand increases two fold. At a hundred and fifty volumes of age we are no better prepared to cope with the ever mounting popularity than we were in our infancy. However, Mr. McCarthy stands ready to help us again from complete submergence and steps are being taken to buy up a couple of publishing houses which will supply us regularly with their best and best things.

A. F. Knopf, publisher supreme has done well by us for the present review in giving Warwick Deering's recent novel "Doomsday" to the world. Mr. Deering has long been one of the most modest writers that have contributed to the deluge of novels that come to this country from English sources, but not until "Sorrel and Sen" appeared on the horizon did he stir up any real comment. Naturally we are rather interested. When "Doomsday" came along. In "Doomsday" we find a haven from psychological studies and studies of neurotics. We are privileged to lounge about and follow the emotional interplay between characters. Mr. Deering is a craftsman with words.

This is a story of Mary Vinor, who lives in a cottage with her parents in an English town and sees nothing but of her but household drudgery. Not far away Captain Arnold Furse returned from war, lives alone on the farm "Doomsday." His contact with Mary comes because he supplies her with milk for the morning's needs, and after a series of meetings in which the two are drawn closer and closer together, Mary believes herself in love with Furse and the desire to know more of the world leads her to run away from the cottage and the town. separate ways and both marry. It is only after a hectic life with a rich man that Mary realizes that she is not possessed with all that life affords. What follows is developed with much skill and a large share of the last part of the book is given over to the gradual reconciliation between Mary and Furse. Mary, who is deeply repentant, stoops to conquer, both Arnold and Mary have lost their consorts, and Mary has known suffering and humiliation. Here is where Deering's art comes in, in describing emotions with restraint and feeling. Flaming youth is laid by the side for the moment for something of intrinsic value which will obviously be appreciated by those who are hungry for a real meal.

THAT'S the way P. A. talks to you in the bowl of a pipe. This great national gloom-chaser stabs the darkest clouds with a ray of sunshine. Buy a tidy red tin of Prince Albert today and see. Tamp a load of this friendly tobacco into your jimmy-pipe and light up.

Cool as a sub-cellar. Sweet as the breath of fresh-cut violets. Fragrant in the tin and fragrant as you smoke it. Never a tongue-bite or a throat-parch. So mild you can hit it up from sun-up to sun-down, yet with a body that satisfies completely.

There's more philosophy in a pipe-load of P. A. than in the average Doctor's thesis. No matter what brand you are smoking now, you don't know how much your jimmy-pipe can mean to you until you pack it with good old Prince Albert. Get started now.

PRINCE ALBERT

—no other tobacco is like it!

P. A. is sold everywhere in red tin, pound and half, pound tin tins, and pound crystal-glass tins with sponge-moistener top. And always with every bit of bite and punch removed by the Prince Albert process.

at Forester Shindig

Some of the pioneer life in the north woods will be revived Saturday night in the arena when Michigan State students hold their annual shindig.

The event considered one of the highlights in spring term festivities, promises to be bigger and better than ever before.

Some of the chief features will be the Last Chance bar, presided over by Bill Hinchings, bonnet, Frank Healy, professor and Floyd Roberts, entertainer. Drinks will be served free and consist of the usual raw red and peach pretzels.

According to Bonness Hinchings, no state dollars will be admitted. Long coats, shirts and gingham dresses will be in vogue and a prize will be given for the best costume.

The hall will be decorated with pine boughs from the forestry department and lanterns are to be displayed.

A well known Lansing orchestra, formerly designed at Kris Kross and his River Hogs, has been secured to furnish music for the evening.

Committee Meets
to Formulate Plans

Members of the committee controlling the events for commencement week, Paul Eagle, Prof. R. B. Ross, Arlo Paulson and R. C. McCulloch, met Tuesday night to discuss plans.

According to present plans, there will be an all-college sing on the Thursday night before commencement.

This would call for the presence of the college band and singing on the part of all of the students.

Entire plans already begun in connection with the contest for the new song to be written by a State student. The committee believes that this song should be introduced on that night.

College for Married Couple on $120 a Month

The old adage that two can live as cheaply as one is being worked out with great success by a youthful married couple who are students at the University of California. They are living normally and comfortably on a monthly budget of $120 which includes the cost of their higher education.

The budget which embraces a maximum of but $25.84 for food, has had the attention of the home economy department of the university. Mrs. Myrtle Austin, the bride, has accomplished such an unusual feat in her budget for food that it is to be made the subject of textbook matter at the university next year.

Food Mrs. Austin holds is the basis for all economy in the home. With this in mind, she took up the home economics course along with her other studies following her marriage. She entered a special nutrition course so that she might deal with the food problem intelligently. She decided that $25 a month was all that she and her husband could afford for food.

Each fruit and vegetable she held about from the table, including along with milk and eggs. Milk was the best of the bunch, as a proportionately large allowance was made for fruits and vegetables. Meat, which included poultry, was in the mind of Mrs. Austin, and to be heavily indulged in.

The Austin budget of $120 a month covers the entire family, but the bulk of the bill is for the rent and taxes on the house, and for their car. These are not included in the monthly expenditures of food.

INJURIES HURT STATE TRACKMEN

Alderman's Injury Lowers Chance of Record by Spartans at Ohio.

More than 1000 athletes representing approximately 125 universities, colleges and high schools are scheduled to compete in the 4th annual Ohio State relay games to be held at Columbus, Ohio next Saturday. Trials in some events are to be held on Saturday morning with all finals to be run off in the afternoon starting at one o'clock.

Only three eastern colleges are entering in the meet, Pittsburg, Geneva, Cornell, Syracuse being the entries. The meet is to consist of 36 events, mostly relays, with a few individual events.

Time trials were held last Tuesday to determine the Spartan runners to represent State at the relays. Considering the stiff wind that the runners had to buck against, the time for the various events were exceptionally pleasing to the coaches. The 440 men had a stiff time bucking the breeze around the curve in the final stretch but led by Kroll, they finished the distance in very satisfactory time. Kroll, Krim, Lang, and Henson were the first to finish the distance, and should surprise the team for the mile relay.

The Spartan track club will have an opportunity to display their wares at the half mile relay as there is no relay over that distance in the university class. The Spartans being forced into that division through the protest of the smaller colleges entered in the meet.

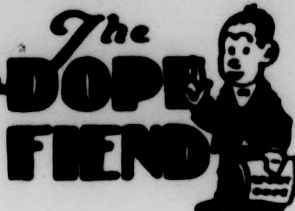

It is not certain that captain Fred Alderman will be able to run in the relays due to wrenched muscles, but the coaches are hoping he will be good enough by that time to enter. Bill Smith seems to be quite recovered from his spike wound, and Bobn comes in just in leading shape, and he will probably be in shape to run Saturday.

The middle relay team will consist of Wilmarth, Williams, Clark, and Wylie running the 440, half, three-quarters, and mile respectively. Dean Tillson has been showing up very well at the discus, having showed out the past better than 140 feet in practice very consistently. He has approached 45 feet in the shot and should give a hard fight for high honors in that event. Smith has also been showing up well in practice in the same event. McCabe is another good prospect in the discus. McAfee has been vaulting at heights well over twelve feet consistently and then another sophomore, has been approaching twelve feet in his attempts. State's coaches are very optimistic as to the outcome of the relay meet.

WEATHER DELAYS ADRIAN GAME

Game Postponed Until Today Because of Heavy Rain-fall.

Once again the weather went back on the Spartan football team, and as a consequence, it made necessary a day's delay before the local ball-players should have an opportunity to follow their battling overseas at the expense of the Adrian mountaineers. The Spartan mountaineers now is hampering at the bit in their impatience to swing

Hennie Osterbaum has won his fifth letter at the University of Michigan and with it his fifth emblem of championship. All five teams on which he has played have won the western conference titles. He now has two gold footballs, two gold basketballs and one gold baseball. Both footballs bear special engravings denoting his choice as all American player.

Clarence DeMaie, 35-year-old Madison runner has won the Boston marathon race for the fifth time. This setting of the American list of marathon runners. Although his time was eight minutes short of the world's record, his victory was marvellous because of his very consistent showing.

Clarence Davidson, University of Kansas hurdler, was an amazing success in the 110 yard race, his perfect time of 1:57.5. He has set a new record which is expected to last the distance.

The committee on early season track activities of Pittsburg is starting a drive to raise $2500 for the purchase of new track equipment. The committee is now in the city, while the committee members are in the city.

Only two members of Notre Dame's track basketball team will appear next year. This team of eight men had two games in two seasons of play, and suffered among the victims of the Big Ten game.

North this season again, and get a chance to rub the old team's hand. Emma, the Spartan, should again get saturated with moisture to the extent of sending them to the hospital. The first game will be on Friday at 4 P. M.

The game was postponed on account of bad weather and heavy rain. It was decided to change the date to the first following. This will make necessary two games in a row in the Ohio game scheduled for next Saturday. In the case of the good team shown by the Spartans, it is not likely that it will work out great harm with the Spartan coaches as Henson will receive the bit to be the leading Friday, and that leaves only Krim an opportunity to try and some new material for the better game. TENNIS TEAMS START PRACTICE

Expect Captain Hendershott to Star in Net Game This Season; Good Material Out

The tennis team, under Coach C. D. Ball, is starting practice to round in to shape for the coming season, which starts the last of this month. The varsity and freshmen teams are holding practice on both the clay and asphalt courts from 4 to 6:30 each night. Mr. Ball looks for a fairly successful season in view of the fact that he has some good material back this year.

So far, the team candidates have engaged in no strenuous games or practices, but with the coming of warm weather, more and more candidates should appear in an attempt to gain a place on the varsity squad. The varsity has some excellent men back from last year who will form the nucleus for the rest of the team. Captain Hendershott is probably the best of the men who are returning from last year. He played an excellent game last season and should turn in a number of wins this year.

Scott is another man who showed up well last year and is looked to for a good deal of business. Starting freshman is another prospect who was practicing last year, but is back now with the possibility of starting this year. Other men who will be practicing in the later stages of the season are other men who are showing up well as Fred, Ayffell, Roy, and Smith, Lewis, Marble, and Emerson. The first match of the season is scheduled for April 29 when State is slated to meet up with Kalamazoo college.

The committee on early season track activities of Pittsburg is starting a drive to raise $2500 for the purchase of new track equipment. The committee is now in the city, while the committee members are in the city.

Only two members of Notre Dame's track basketball team will appear next year. This team of eight men had two games in two seasons of play, and suffered among the victims of the Big Ten game.

North this season again, and get a chance to rub the old team's hand. Emma, the Spartan, should again get saturated with moisture to the extent of sending them to the hospital. The first game will be on Friday at 4 P. M.

The game was postponed on account of bad weather and heavy rain. It was decided to change the date to the first following. This will make necessary two games in a row in the Ohio game scheduled for next Saturday. In the case of the good team shown by the Spartans, it is not likely that it will work out great harm with the Spartan coaches as Henson will receive the bit to be the leading Friday, and that leaves only Krim an opportunity to try and some new material for the better game. of international politics in China for years. He is now lecturer in the art department of the University of Washington. He still makes frequent trips to China in order to keep up personal friendships with leaders in art and China, and to continuously be up on the new conditions there. He should have a lot to give to the students here.

be third lecturer on the program for next year will be B. R. Baumgardt, a member of the Royal Astronomical society. Mr. Baumgardt is a good authority in his field, and all of his lectures are very appropriately illustrated by remarkable lantern slides.

Three Musical Numbers Besides Madam Martinet the concert has chosen two other very fine entertainments. Herbert Kroschner, the violinist, will be the second number and should prove a real attraction. The best musical feature will be the concert by "Mandel and Williamson" who play first two harpsichords and later two grand pianos illustrating ancient and modern musical instruments. This must be sure of real reception from the student body because of the general attraction of these kind of entertainments.

The Liberal Arts entertainment program under the direction of Fred W. Johnson, have been of an excellent quality and very popular with the student body and faculty during the past year and according to the above report they have been able to secure nearly the year an exceedingly good order class of artists.

Members of the following committees: Chairman Stanley Hertzell, Robert W. Lewis, Marion, Noble, and Helen Francis.

The athletic committee of those who will arrange the various events on the track and raise the money for the same is chairmaned by F. Henson, H. Diller, H. Fessenden, and Margaret Tompkins.

Members of the publicity committee are: Chairman Keith, Hinchbaugh, Robert W. Lewis, and Bill Martin.

K. DeLokson was chosen as proper chairman for the next meeting of the various committees. The team committee will meet in the Union room on Friday afternoon. The athletic committee will convene at 12:30 on the same day.

SOPHS-FROSH TO HAVE CLOSE MEET

Fresh Chances Good as Ohio Relays Take Sophomore Stars.

The Fresh Soph track meet is scheduled to take place Friday and Saturday morning of this week. The meet was formerly planned to take place Saturday afternoon, but was changed as a result to conflict with the Ohio relay game, the same afternoon. The meet is high between the two classes, although the sophomores swamped the freshmen men in the indoor meet, they are not favored to repeat with such an overwhelming score this time due to the fact that the Ohio relays are taking away some of the sophomore best men. Lang, Kroll, Henson, Wilmarth, and McAfee are some first and second place men who will not be able to compete. This fact should help the yearlings to even the meet a little more and a little rivalry should be looked forward. While the freshmen have an outstanding star, they have some other men who are much better than average in some events, and are looked to for some first places in the contest.

STATE COLLEGE GRAD ON LAST LEG OF JOURNEY

the capital of the Swiss country. Then came Germany and the Rhine with all of its historical significance, the Black Forest, and finally Heidelberg. Powers asserts that "all of the glamour of the romance in the Student Prince of Heidelberg is deserving." It was much more than they anticipated and proved one of the pleasant spots in their journey. "A winding river runs by beautiful green mountains on all sides, a great red sandstone castle and hundreds of colorfully painted houses" is the fashion in which Powers describes the place. From Heidelberg they went to Munich another place which seems to have made quite an impression on the boys. He mentions Munich beer and says "You may wonder if my mentioning beer in preference to telling you of the art centers which Munich is, but then you never drank any Munich beer."

Saltzburg, Vienna, and then Frankfurt, where the latest news was just marked accounts for the movement of the wanderers to date. April 18th set as the day on which they were to re-appear for Berlin Paris London, finally home. Powers asserts that they expected to be back in East Lansing early in June, "so well as going with the graduating class."

If all the college students who have in class were held and to end they would be much more comfortable. Pan and a cardinal (Osterbach).
