DRIFT MISS COMMENCEMENT

In a letter to the students, printed elsewhere in this publication, President Kenyon L. Butterfield makes an appeal to the student body for attendance to the commencement exercises and the big pageant, "The Beginnings." He remarks on the failure of the students to turn out for the unusually important occasion of the Founders' day program.

We feel that the importance of the participation of the students in events of this kind cannot be too much stressed. Whether a student is a senior or an underclassman, occasions of the type of the Commencement exercises offer a chance for a man to momentarily hesitate and, as the graduating class is receiving the rewards for their labors on the campus, look back over the course he has followed and, after a fashion, make a check on his progress. A few serious moments spent in contemplation of the type of address which Stinson Fess, senator from Ohio, and prominent statesman, is likely to deliver as the speaker of the day, need not be confined to seniors who are graduating. It is well to measure one's preparedness for that same project and attempt to raise the standard when shortcomings are obvious.

Students are inclined to catalogue events and dependent upon the category in which they are placed, they attend them. An event which they accept as an solemn project, such as Founders' day, they credit as having nothing which might interest them. Commencement, however, should not be pigeon-holed as a solemn event but should be an all-around event, especially since this is an anniversary season of so great importance. An interest and inspiration can surely be obtained from the exercises.

CONGRATULATIONS

Last night the first all-college sing which in years to come will be associated with the Festival of Carnea was held in the Forest of Arden. New songs written by students, faculty members, and alumni were presented and sung by the student body. An exceptionally good turnout of students greeted the first attempt of the affair.

This event is an attempt to reorganize the importance of music in the lives of students and men, and as the Spartans of old, after whom we are modeling our existence to a certain extent, to build a greater Spartan spirit of fellowship through the recognition of the power of song. Plato included in his model state, men educated for a period of time in the rhythm and sentiment of music. We

Editor's Note—Last night the first annual all-college sing was held in the Forest of Arden. Seven songs were sung by the students, songs which will some day be accepted as true Spartan songs. Just to recall them, we are printing these songs in the hope that they be more widely read and sung.

Backward through the hazy distance,
Troop the days of yore,
Scenes and faces float before us,
Cherished more and more.

Fold us fondly to thy bosom
Alma Mater dear,
Sing we now thy endless praises,
Sounding cheer on cheer.

(Chorus)
Swirl the chorals! Let it echo
Over hill and vale;
Hail to thee, our loving mother,
M. S. C. all hail.

(Alma Mater)

Hail Spartan Varsity,
And our colors proudly floating,
Drive on to victory,
Hit that line and never yield,
Hail to the team in green,
They are fighting for our fame,
Fight! Spartan Varsity,
We will win this game.

(Spartan Varsity)

(3)
Soft on the wings of wind our song is wafted,
Great song of praise, all hail, oh M. S. C.
First of thy race and greatest in the nation,
Thy loyal sons and daughters sing to thee.

When to thy halls we came in youthful ardor,
Seeking to find the way to knowledge vast,
Thou didst inspire and fill us with a spirit,
Cherished by each of us while life shall last.

Spirit of truth, of loyalty and honor,
Courage to fight and fight to win for thee,
Spirit of faith, of hope and adoration,
That is the spirit, grand, of M. S. C.

We learned to know and love thee like a mother,
From thee came strength to meet each passing day,
When filled with hope and ready for life's battles,
Thy blessing gave and send us on our way.

Now ends our sing and homeward soon we're wending,
Hours filled with joy are over all too soon,
Dear friends of ours we're grieving at this parting,
But we'll be happy when we meet again.

(Hail M. S. C.)

(4)
M. S. C. we love thy shadows,
When twilight silence falls,
Flushing deep and pulling
Our ivy covered halls,
Beneath the pines well gather
To give our hearts to thee,
Sing our love for Alma Mater
And our praises M. S. C.

When from thy scenes we wander
And twilight shadows fade,
Our memory still will linger
Where light and shadow played,
In evening of well gather
And turn our thoughts to thee,
Sing our love for Alma Mater
And thy praises M. S. C.

wish to extend our congratulations to Blue Key and Epsilon for the first attempt at the all-college sing and the festival of Carnea.

(5)
Men of northern vigor,
Schooled in Spartan rigor,
Stalwart sons of M. S. C.,
Proud and loyal feeling,
In your deeds revealing,
Prove your oath of fealty,
Valor honor emblazoned on each shoulder!

Dauntless fearless what Spartan known to yield
Trained to battle glory, stirred by song and story,

Sign of craven spirit,
Never need we fear it
In the ranks of M. S. C.,
Faithfulness and daring
In the conflict sharing,
Win your laurels fair to see,
Noble gallant the heritage you claim,
Bravely staunchly you carry on its fame,
We, who honor duty, vesting it with beauty,
Triumph in your loyalty.

(Sons of M. S. C.)

Up with the colors, well raise them on high,
We'll fight for our college, for her we will die,
Let's raise the dead echoes, unfurl to the light,
The colors we honor, the green and the white.

We'll all stand together, and honor will bring
To our Alma Mater, whose praises we sing,
Let's rush to the fray then, our foes put to flight,
The colors we honor, the green and the white.

(The Green and White)

(7)
Varsity, Varsity,
Fight on to victory,
Charge down the field, hold high the shield,
Of Spartan loyalty.

Varsity, Varsity,
We're here to cheer you on
To triumph great for the Green and White,
And Michigan State.

FACTS GIVEN ON R. O. T. C. STATUS

DePauw Latest School to Abolish Compulsory Military Drill.

New York (By New Student Service) How many colleges have changed the status of military drill during the past few years? The question is often put since DePauw University changed her drill requirement from compulsory to optional (New Student, May 25). The following brief summary outlines the changes in R. O. T. C. units since 1921.

(1) 1921. Military drill abolished at Columbia University as a result of lack of support. (2) 1923. Abolished at the University of North Carolina. (3) 1924. Made optional at the University of Wisconsin by the state legislature, as result of protest by civil

NOTED PEOPLE TO APPEAR AT STATE

Four Lectures and Three Musical Artists Comprise Personnel of Next Year's Artists' Course.

Four lecturers and three musical artists comprise the personnel of the 1927-28 M. S. C. Artists' Course, according to recent announcement made by Prof. W. W. Johnston, head of the English department and chairman of the Artists' Course Committee.

Well-known artists and entertainers are being obtained for the course. These include Myra Mortimer, Manuel and Williamson, Upton Chase, R. R. Baumgardt, Lew Sarrett, and Prof. C. H. Patterson.

Myra Mortimer, world-renowned contralto, will appear November 29, in the first number of the course. Miss Mortimer is now on tour in Europe but she will return to America in October to give several concerts in this country. She has become adept at the art of lieder singing and ranks among the best of these artists. She has spent her life in getting to the heart of song masterpieces and proclaiming the message hidden therein. With her full, rich voice, Miss Mortimer combines a command of dynamics, breath and color, as well as temperament and understanding. Her programs are not limited to lieder singing but cover the entire field of song literature.

Manuel and Williamson, appearing here December 6, are two pianists of exceptional talent. A part of their program consists of Mozart numbers played on the harpsichord, an instrument upon which Mozart composed his work. In addition to carrying the two harpsichords, the artists bring two grand pianos, upon which they render the other half of the program.

Upton Chase, explorer and lecturer, is coming February 7 to give a lecture upon the Orient and especially China. His experience with China is based upon eight years actual contact with the various phases of life and action there, as well as several shorter trips of investigation. He has written several books and magazine articles on the subject and enjoys a high standing as a lecturer about the East. When he is not lecturing, exploring or writing, he is kept busy by his position of lecturer at the University of Washington.

R. R. Baumgardt, noted astronomer and lecturer, is also scheduled for the course. His lecture is entitled, "An Evening with the Stars" and is said to be very interesting and instructive. In recognition of his years of toil and research in astronomy, Mr. Baumgardt was recently elected to the Royal Astronomical Society.

Lew Sarrett, poet and nature lover, also appearing in the series, should need no new presentation to the students since he was obtained for a second lecture at the special request of some of those who heard him last winter.

Prof. C. H. Patterson, of Massachusetts Agricultural College, Andover, is an educator and a noted reader. He will read, Washington Irving's "Rip Van Winkle." This man has been scheduled to appear in the series.

Herbert Kirschner, violinist, is also especially recommended by members of the faculty who have heard him.

Cincinnati, Ohio (UPI) For the first time in the history of the university, the commencement service this year at the University of Cincinnati will be held in the athletic stadium instead of in the auditorium. The innovation was forced because of the increased number of persons desiring to attend the service.

The sermon to be given by Rabbi Avrahim Heller Silver of Cleveland will be amplified by a system of four speakers.

Made optional at Pomona College, California, by action of the administration, as a result of general protest. (4) 1926. Made optional at Boston University by general protest, including the student body. (6) 1926. The R. O. T. C. unit at Hampton Institute (Virginia) was abolished by the administration although drill is still offered by university instructors. (7) 1926. Made optional at the College of the City of New York by the administration on protest of students and parents. (8) 1927. Made optional at DePauw by faculty on protest of students and faculty.

On the other hand, the past year saw: (1) the introduction of naval R. O. T. C. units in Harvard, Yale, Georgia Tech, U. of California, U. of Washington and Northwestern University. (2) the initiation of the non-R. O. T. C. unit in coast artillery at Fordham University. (4) interference with free speech in connection with R. O. T. C. in a number of colleges.

CLASS PRODUCES COMPOSITE BOOK

Southern University Composition Class Writes Novel; 18 Students Participate.

Birmingham, Ala. (By New Student Service) On the title page of the new novel that is almost completed at Birmingham Southern University will be the names of eighteen students of the English composition class. The class collaborated on this novel which is being written as a regular part of the course.

Eighteen different students wrote the twenty-three chapters of the novel. Each chapter was rewritten at least one time to insure smoothness and transition. As may be imagined it was not easy to connect a uniformly written and coherent novel from the heads of so many amateur writers. Most of the action takes place in Birmingham in a district familiar to all the writers.

In charge of the composition class is an instructor whose first novel is just appearing in print. His name is James Saxon Childers and his first novel, Laurel and Straw, the story of a Rhodes Scholar, will be reviewed in a later issue of The New Student.

Professor J. T. Horner, head of the economics work in agriculture here, is to teach at the American Institute of Cooperation at the School of Commerce, Northwestern University, Chicago, Illinois, from June 20 to July 16.

Our Hats Are Off to Them

In a few days the class of 1927 will take part in their last activity upon the Michigan State College campus, their own Commencement. Michigan State College's loss will be the world's gain. For four years they have worked and played after the fashion of true Spartans, fought Spartan battles, sang Spartan songs, played Spartan games, and been in the center of it all. East Lansing and Michigan State will miss these graduating seniors, but as a parting word we extend our heartiest congratulations for their past attainments and best wishes for their future success.

STATE CO-EDS TO STAGE SWIM DEMONSTRATION Style Show to Be Big Feature of Performance; Three Scenes Billed by Mermaids.

Coeds are giving the first swimming demonstration of its kind to be held at M. S. C. tonight and tomorrow night, June 7 and 8.

The demonstration consists of three parts. The first scene shows some very practical demonstrations of life saving and will be given by the Life Saving Corp.

The second act will be a style revue of bathing costumes from 1847 to the present time. This is to be one of the best features of the performance.

A water polo game between the Life Saving Corp and some of the W. A. A. girls is the most unusual event in the third scene.

The public is invited to attend the exhibition. Tickets are one side at the Union desk and the college book store or may be purchased at the door.

COMMENCEMENT SPEAKER MAN OF WIDE EXPERIENCE

Representative John C. Ketchum highly recommends the senator, stating in a letter to President Butterfield that his long and distinguished career as a public educator in Ohio coupled with his more recent outstanding services as a member of the house of representatives and in the United States senate gives him a viewpoint of both educational and public affairs that makes him outstanding as a commencement orator.

The commencement procession will form Friday morning at 10 o'clock in front of the library from where it will march to the new armory, led by the president, board of agriculture, faculty, graduate students, and then members of the graduating class in order of divisions.

The complete cast with the exception of a number of the Merry Men is as follows: Paul Anderson, Little John; Paul Anderson, Robin Hood; John Anderson, Little John; Paul Anderson, Alan-a-Dale; Duane Beerman, Friar Tuck; John Kelly, Will Scarlet; James MacElroy, David of Doncaster; Perry Fremont, High Sheriff of Nottingham; Charles Guetschow, Guy of Gisbourne; his nephew, Sir Richard of the Lea; William Montgomery, Lord of the Bow; Ted Stevens, A Wandering Friar; Roy Bower, The Bishop of Falstide; Harlow Brigham, A Pilgrim; William Montgomery, Lady Marrian; Ellen Farley, Lady Jane; sister to Sir Richard; Lucile Bunge, Dorothy; Margaret Hubbard, Ruth; Carolyn Manor, Nell; Marian Eddy, Nell.

For president, Max Crall and Harold Harnish were chosen, and one of these two men will lead the class of '30 next year. Both Farley and Beryl Farr were nominated for the vice-presidency. Helen Marwick and Margaret Peterson will run for the office of secretary.

STATE TAKES 2ND ANNUAL C. I. C TRACK CARNIVAL

Alderman Stars in Last Home Meet of Career; Grim Out.

NOTRE DAME SECOND Marquette Third, Butler Fourth, Lombard Fifth; State Sophomores Star.

Freddy Alderman closed his track career at Michigan State in a blaze of glory as State overwhelmed all other entries to gain an undisputed first place in the second annual Central Intercollegiate track and field meet last Saturday. Freddy scored three first places against the cream of the intercollegiate athletes besides running two relay teams that took one first and a second. The Spartans scored 70 1/2 points, the largest total ever accumulated by a State team in an open meet.

State scored in virtually every event being shut out in only the low hurdles and the javelin throw. The Spartans showed surprising all-around strength in the meet, coming through with unexpected strength in the low hurdles and high jump, besides scoring three places in the shot and discus.

Passink of State surprised onlookers with a first in the high hurdles against Barron of Notre Dame. The time was exceptionally fast considering the wind being 16 to 20 seconds. Wacham also came through for a fourth place.

Alderman had no trouble in taking both sprint events against a first field owing to a high wind blowing against the runners, fast time was out of the question in either event. Alderman's margin in both sprints was great with Henson coming through for thirds in both. Time for the hundred was 10.1 while the 200 went in 22.6.

McAtee Smashes Record

Harold McAtee provided one of the thrills for the crowd by scoring an unprecedented heights in the vault. He edged out Glaser of Marquette in a thrilling duel to gain first at 11 feet 3.5 inches, a new record for the stadium, and by far the best height yet registered by McAtee although he has been consistently vaulting in the neighborhood of 11 feet.

The mile run went to Henry Wylie of State with Clark of State taking second. The time was fair for the track, 4:29.9, but the main satisfaction of the coaches was in the second obtained by Clark. The State sophomore proved that he has the stuff, and will be the man to take Wylie's place when that star graduates. A surprise came when Judge of Notre Dame failed to place although he is the National Intercollegiate champion.

Alderman registered his third victory when he gained first place in the broad jump at 22 feet 7 inches. The two mile went to Shimok of Marquette as was expected. The blond Marquette runner turned the distance in fast manner, breaking the old record for the event at 9:38.45. Ray Severance of State came through with a fourth place in the event, close behind Philberg of Marquette.

The weight events found State having things all its own way. Smith, Barratt, McAtee and Tillison formed the squad of weight lifters that took a total of 17 points in the shot and discus. The high jump was a surprise with Wacham tied for first with Griffin of Notre Dame at 5 feet 9.5 inches. Diller of State tied for third.

One of the disappointments of the crowd was due to the fact that Bohm Grim was unable to compete. The State flyer was suffering from an injured foot that gave too much trouble to permit of his entering. But for this misfortune, State's margin of vic-

The four youths accumulated 25 points between them to nose out the Fort Collins team of Colorado, two times winners in 1925 and 1926. Cass Tech of Detroit placed third.

Carl M. Loos of University of Michigan has been elected to pilot the World wide baseball team next season. Loos has been playing shortstop for Michigan for the last two years.

University of Pennsylvania, in line with other eastern institutions, has joined Harvard in an agreement not to scout each other at football. Pennsylvania will ask all its other major opponents to make similar agreements, including Chicago.

Seven hundred and seventy nine British golfers did a hole-in-one during 1926, according to records just compiled. The compilation was made by an English Scotch whisky distilling firm which maintained a standing reward of a free bottle of whisky to every golfer accomplishing the feat.

Helen Wills won the North London women's tennis championship last week, defeating Elizabeth Ryan, also a California, 6-2, 6-2. This tournament was the first for Miss Wills in England this season. This greatly increases her chances to regain the American women's championship and capture the forthcoming tournament at Wimbledon.

Michigan State Normal college won the first annual track meet of the Michigan Collegiate conference held at Ypsilanti with a total of 62 points. City College of Detroit, a challenger for the title until the last event had been completed, was second with 54 1/2 points.

The M. I. A. A. track title went to Hillsdale last week by a large margin over Kalamazoo College. Led by Goertz, who scored 28 points, Hillsdale showed the way to other entries throughout the meet.

Summary: 100 yard dash, Alderman, Michigan State, first; Elder, Notre Dame, second; Henson, Michigan State, third; Della Maria, Notre Dame, fourth. Time, 10:3.10.

Mile run, Wylie, Michigan State, first; Clark, Michigan State, second; Murphy, Marquette, third; Young, Notre Dame, fourth. Time, 4:29.9.10.

Shot put, Smith, Michigan State, first; Barratt, Michigan State, second; Repetti, Notre Dame, third; Tillison, Michigan State, fourth. Distance, 41 feet, 10.38 inches.

100 yard dash, Phillips, Butler, first; McDonald, Notre Dame, second.

STATE STARS TO RUN AT CHICAGO

Hope High for Alderman to Take Honors in National Collegiate Individual Championships.

The National Collegiate A. A. in individual championships bring to a close the track season with the cream of the nation's athletes gather at Chicago to determine the National championships. Notable stars through-out the country will be present to these events which are recognized as the American Olympics.

Couch Young will enter State's outstanding stars to make their bid for national recognition, notably Alderman, Grim, McAtee, Wylie, Henson and perhaps one other sprinter.

This is Alderman's last chance to gain more prominence in college athletics, and hope runs high for the State flash to cop high honors in his favorite events. In past years something has cheated the State sprinter out of first honors although he has taken seconds in them. This year finds him anxious to gain a victory in one of the shorter dashes and insure him national fame.

The quarter mile at the I. C. A. proved Alderman to be one of the nation's best at the distance, and he will not be running that distance at Chicago. McAtee in view of his performance at the local meet last Saturday has proved himself to be of championship caliber, and should be able to make even higher heights, which should place him in the meet.

Wylie also is capable of a great aid for prominence at the mile. He has been turning in consistently good times under 4:30 for the distance, and is hoped to give great opposition to the leaders. Grim in finishing his last collegiate year at the sprints is anxious to close his career with a good record, and these intercollegiate will furnish the required opportunity to put his name on the lips of followers of the track and field sport.

50 Students Strike Out for Summer Training June 17.

A total of 50 men from the local R. O. T. C. will go to camp this summer according to Major Gray of the military department. The 33 men of the artillery division will report at Camp Knox, Kentucky, while the nine men representing the infantry and the 17 men of the cavalry division will be assigned to Camp Sheridan, Illinois.

Several men have signed up for advanced training who will not go to camp this year. The enrollment up to the present time makes the percentage of men taking advanced military greater than at any time in the past.

ST. XAVIER TO END SEASON AT STATE

Saturday finds the baseball team coming to the close of one of its most successful seasons in the college history. St. Xavier's college furnishes the opposition for what promises to be a real hard riding trip. Earlier in the season when the team was returning from its southern trip, the team stop ped at Chicago long enough to pep up a 4 to 1 victory from the Cubs. This game then will furnish one of the features of the commencement week.

Coming fresh from their sensational victory over the University of Michigan the Kobesens will be in fine fettle for the closing game of the season. Lefty Tullies should be suitably rested to do the twirling, or Kobes may give one of the relief hurlers a chance to display their wares.

This season marks another successful baseball season for the Spartans. Kobes has done wonders for a team that was noticeably weak in two departments, batting and the battery. He has developed two capable catchers in Witter and Stevens and a successful alternate for Tullies in Bremer. This is the primary reason for the success of State's team this season.

The cardinal feature of the Spartans has been their batting. They have developed a sensational grand slam, a few so-called rips, and the team seems to have a delight in slugging and victories of importance times when hot power is needed.

INSTALL MUSIC HONORARY MEMBERS

has built up an enviable record in the last six years through its success in sponsoring better college music.

Through the installation of the chapter, which is a strictly University of Michigan State event, a big step has been taken toward drawing the two institutions closer together with more friendly relations.

The installation of the chapter will be given by seven members of the Arch chapter, five student members and two faculty members. Twenty-nine charter members, including three faculty members, will be initiated. Their names are: H. Preston, G. Pasch, R. VanTassel, S. Hartsock, J. McLean, R. Severance, J. Ott, W. G. Savory, J. C. Green, G. K. Houser, G. T. Ford, F. M. Wargowsky, H. A. Gaskell, E. Graham, J. Farley, H. S. Aven, J. Layle, C. D. Tuttle, V. A. Stockman, C. R. Parker, S. M. Bay, H. R. Burghum, J. S. Edwards, M. J.
