THE J-HOP DINNER

As is the usual custom, the question of serving a dinner at this year's homecoming will come in for a lot of discussion. Much may be said in favor of holding the usual dinner. It presents an opportunity for the whole school to assemble, to be entertained, and is a custom of long standing.

Then too, imagine how disappointed the up-state date would be, if, after going on grape nuts for two days and going into intensive training for perhaps one whole week, she should go home during the evening.

On the other hand, colleges of our present size do not serve dinners at their junior proms. In doing as they do, we could reduce our entrance fee to nearly one-half.

Think it over, juniors, to eat or not to eat? Which shall suffer, your pocket or your stomach?

STATISTICS

One of our professors asked us to record in our minds which shoe we put on first in the morning. Perhaps he thought that at lot of us don't get up until after noon.

However, to show our willingness to cooperate, we suggest that we record the number of times that we put on the left leg of our pajamas before the right leg. Complications might arise there, too, for some of us don't wear that kind of pajamas.

And a lot of us could tell better about the way the people next door do their dressing act.

THE GLAD OR EMPTY HAND

About this time of year we hear much about decorating our fraternity houses for Homecoming and welcoming back the old grads to the scene of their spending their awful hours of work and their suicidal attempts to bring glory to the old house.

Those fellows did strive to build college and their fraternities, even as we all do. The world can be proud that we are proud of them, and that is forever more.

Yet, sometimes, don't we rather feel that little boys who are glad to have their rich uncle visit us, but wish that he would hurry in parting so that we could rush in and see what he has left us on the dresser?

THE WINNERS

As winners of the class rush, the freshmen have borne themselves well. They have one class in school which will not easily get the swelled head.

The way of cockiness in this college leads to the river and we have never heard of any Michigan State College student treating swelled heads with aspirin tablets.

NOTORIETY

Someone remarked the other day that he found small cause to wonder at the writings that the ancient Greek gods and goddesses got when they rushed around in such exposed conditions.

Nowadays, we take pictures of skirts more than two inches above the knees. Why shouldn't the Greeks have captured their women?

Speaking of these ancients, we would like to have read the heartbreaking letters that son Bacchus, in college, wrote home to Father Zeus.

Bob Zupke at Illinois thinks that the most important single trait that a football player can show on the field is alertness, and he can cite hundreds of examples to prove his point.

PLAN TO PRESENT COMMEMORATION OF STUDENT HERO

First Michigan State Man Killed in War to Have Memorial.

EMORY TO SPEAK

Armistice Day Will See Parade of Legion and Students.

Featuring the Armistice day ceremonies here will be the presentation of a memorial of the students killed in the war, given to the college by the student body and the student council, and formally presented by Clyde Olin during the afternoon of November 11.

A parade will form in front of the old armory at one o'clock. Led by the band and composed of the members of the East Lansing or William Ritter Johnson post of the American Legion and students of this institution, the parade will proceed to the armory for the presentation.

Clyde Olin, president of the council, will present the memorial in the name of the Student Council. Leon Greene will act as student chairman of the event.

As part of the Armistice day program, Colonel John Emory will speak. Colonel Emory is commandant of the American Legion post at Grand Rapids and served with honor in the First Division in the World War. He has been decorated through the influence of Colonel T. L. Sherburne.

The memorial consists of a bronze tablet commemorating the hero-student bearing a last relief of the flaming torch of the R. O. T. C. It will be hung in the officers' hall of the new armory in the most conspicuous place available together with the tablets commemorating famous Michigan generals.

According to present plans, the parade will not be a military affair. Rather, the students will march in groups according to their society affiliations.

The statue will be unveiled by a small group who will be chosen between now and that date. Added decorations to the assembly hall of the armory and the attendance of the Legion are planned to lend color to the occasion.

Organized by the Student Council, the plan of having a memorial tablet has been assisted by contributions from the four classes on the campus. All other arrangements have been made by that body.

DANISH LECTURER TO TALK MONDAY

Folk High Schools in Denmark and Rural Life to Be Subject.

Dr. Peter Manniche, founder and principal of the International Peoples' college at Helsingor, Denmark, will speak in the Little Theatre, Monday, October 24, at 7:30 in the evening according to President Kenyon L. Butterfield.

Dr. Manniche has chosen as his topic, "The Folk High Schools in Denmark and the Development of a Farming Community." He will have slides to illustrate the high points of his lecture.

As one of the leading authorities in Denmark in educational circles, Dr. Manniche is conversant with school life there from all angles and from this in particular. At present he is touring the states, lecturing in various colleges and in normal schools on "The Folk School of Denmark and Their Relationship to the Danish Cooperative Movement."

Officials of the college have obtained this engagement especially for the students, but all members of the staff are invited and urged to attend.

RICHARDS GETS ENGAGEMENT IN N. Y. THEATER

Will Fraternize with Leaders in Musical Concert Talent.

Lewis Richards, head of the Michigan State music department, has left for New York City where he has been invited for a two week engagement at the Roxy theater. Others of note who have been invited include Fritz Kreisler, the famous violinist.

Mr. Richards, as many know, is one of the foremost harpsichordists of America. He has played or made appearances in many leading symphony orchestras, in both America and Europe. He is a member of the Beethoven Association.

Anyone desiring information concerning the music department can see Mr. Farwell, during the absence of Mr. Richards.

Students who have been members of Granges at home or who are interested in Grange work are cordially invited to meet together Saturday evening in the student parlors of the Peoples church for an informal get-together. Entertainment provided will be a part of the evening's program. The gathering is being instigated by student members who are anxious to meet other students who have been active in Grange work in their home communities.

The get-together will begin at 7:15 o'clock Saturday evening.

COUNCIL AWARDS FLAG RUSH TO SOPHOMORS

Evidence of Wire Filing Insufficient to Warrant Forfeiture of Event.

Points for the flag rush, a disputed event in the class rush Saturday, were awarded to the sophomore class by the student council Tuesday night.

Although evidence was offered that the wire holding the flag had been filed, it was not thought sufficient to forfeit the event to the freshmen.

Revision of the score announced Saturday now gives the sophomores 45 points and freshmen 65. Decision on the relay race, in which both teams committed fouls was allowed to stand. The ten points were divided evenly between the teams.

PLAN EXHIBIT OF MODERN ARTISTS

Poster Display Also to Be Shown Sometime This Year.

An exhibit of drawings and illustrations by contemporary artists is being negotiated by the art department, according to Prof. Scheide, head of the department. This exhibit is related by the American Federation of Arts and the date of its appearance here should be set very soon.

The list of artists includes such prominent illustrators as W. J. Aylward, Elizabeth Shippen Green Elliott, Thornton Oakley, Maxfield Parrish, Frank Schoonover, Jessie Willcox Smith and N. C. Wyeth. The drawings are chiefly in color and should be of interest to the student body in general as well as to the art students.

An exhibit of posters will also be shown sometime this year. This exhibit is circulated by the Devoe Reynolds company and ought to be very instructive.

The present exhibit on view in the library is composed of work by both students and instructors, including several interesting murals by Prof. Scheide. It includes several paintings that were not on exhibit last year.

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED AT BRIDGE LUNCHEON

Date Set for Marriage of Hope Halladay to Flint Man.

A bridge luncheon was given by Mrs. H. H. Halladay at her home Wednesday noon to announce the wedding date of her daughter, Hope, who is now an instructor in the Michigan State music department. She is to marry Dr. S. T. Flynn of Flint November 12 in the Peoples church. A number of Mrs. Arthur and Lansing girls were present.

Miss Halladay attended the University of Michigan and graduated in music and liberal arts in 1924. She was a member of Mu Phi Epsilon, a national honorary musical organization and also a member of the Delta Gamma society.

INITIATE VESPER SERVICE AT HALLADAY HOME

Sunday, October 23, the first vesper services of the year will be held at Mrs. H. H. Halladay's home on Faculty Row from four to five o'clock. Mrs. Halladay started these meetings six or eight years ago and the girls have come to regard them as one of the traditions of the college. At noon the College Girls' Assembly meeting will be in charge of the Kappa Delta sorority.

Gives Linemen Deserved Credit In Analyzing Spectacular Plays

By Joe Porter

Did you students and fans on the sidelines of a football game, ever analyze a scoring play or a play in which a substantial gain was made and determine just who was responsible for the success of the play?

If Jones runs the length of the field for six points or Brown boots a 35 yard field goal winning the game, where does the credit go? It goes to the man who did it and Brown appears all over the sport page.

We are not trying to discredit the accomplishments of the backfield men for personally conducting the ball over the last white strip but we are only trying to bring to your attention the fact that the ball carrier is hardly ever entirely responsible for the gain or for the score.

If the fullback hits the line on fourth down for a needed two yards for a first down and makes it he is lauded as a great punger and if he does this consistently he soon becomes a temporary hero. But suppose he falls to gain but only hits a stone wall and is tossed back. Is he criticized for it? No. "The line didn't open a hole," is the word passed up and down the sidelines.

Seven men compose the forward wall on a football team and seven stars in the line can make four stars out of four dubs in the backfield and never receive a word of praise from the general run of football followers. On the other hand if seven green linemen grace a certain football team that happens to number four stars in its backfield it is logical that the team won't

SOPHOMORES COLLEGE HOST FOR BARBECUE

Annual Event Will Be Held On Parade Grounds or In Front of Wells.

BEFORE BUTLER GAME

Large Crowd of Game Visitors Also Guests of Class of '30.

The annual signing of the pact of peace between the sophomore and freshman classes, when the traditional hatchet will be buried, has been set for November 18th and will be similar to last year. The meeting also served the purpose of a pep meeting for the College game the next day. This year the big mass meeting will take place on the night before the Butler University game which is sure to be one of the big games of the year.

The date for this high food and fun feast was set by the student council at its meeting last Tuesday night. As yet the place for holding it has not been selected and due to the bad condition of the cavalry drill field across the river a new place will have to be selected and that will probably be either the parade ground or in front of Wells Hall.

The parade ground seems to be the favored place because of the large space with ample advantages for the visitors and also take care of the participants. In the past many thousands of people have attended this huge food feast every year and for that reason the spot in front of Wells Hall has not the advantages of the other place.

The sophomores are the hosts that night and the freshmen furnish the labor for the big bonfire. Although a nice place has been started across the river in the regular place by the college it will not be used unless it can be removed.

The whole student body and everybody else interested such as the many guests of students who will come early for the game in order to take in this largest event of the year for the sophomores and one of the oldest and biggest traditions of the college will be guests of the sophomores.

During the barbecue the sophomore and freshman class presidents, pledge themselves and their classes to peace as long as the freshmen do not take too great liberty with it, until the spring term by burning a hatchet which has been handed down to a great many class presidents. This peace will remain unbroken until the thawing of the last winter in the early spring.

Donates Interesting Collection to Engineering Department

A collection of Pyrex electric power line insulators have been presented to the Electrical Engineering department by the Corning Glass Works through the courtesy of Mr. W. H. Taubert of the Power Sales department of their Chicago office.

Pyrex insulators are made from the same material from which are produced a large percentage of American laboratory and chemical ware in the form of beakers, test tubes, etc.

The first meeting of the "Beekeeper's Seminar" will be held Wednesday evening, October 26 at 7:30 o'clock in the lecture room of the entomology building. An interesting program of talks and cuts is being planned. Any one interested in bees and honey is invited to attend.

W. S. G. A. SPONSORS BENEFIT FOR UNION FUND

Will Hold Bridge Party in Union Ball Room November 5.

The W. S. G. A. is sponsoring a benefit bridge to be held November 5, from two until four in the Union ballroom. Extensive plans have been formulated and W. S. G. A. promises many attractive features, in the way of music and refreshments. The tickets cost fifty cents and each sorority house is responsible for five tables each.

The four sophomore houses are expected to fill five tables each. The money raised is to go toward the "Women's Lounge Fund." The alumni have contributed freely to this fund and have partially furnished the lounge. As yet the coeds have not done their part in this worthy cause. All girls are urged to attend this bridge or at least contribute fifty cents toward the fund.

ALL HOUSE PRESIDENTS MEET TO DISCUSS BENEFIT BRIDGE

Monday evening the house presidents of the various sororities and dormitories met with the officers of W. S. G. A. Plans were discussed for the benefit bridge to be held November 5. Suggestions were made about starting a W. S. G. A. scrap book to contain all the paper clippings of events sponsored by co-eds. Such a book, it is expected, would be valuable for reference work later.

The annual senior fall term party will be held next Friday night at the Union. Jean Goldkette's Ramblers will furnish the music. This party should be well attended as it falls on the night before Homecoming and many of the returning alumni will avail themselves of the opportunity to dance to the music of Jean Goldkette's famous band.

Something new in the line of decorations is promised and several novelties will be introduced. Tickets are now on sale and can be procured from any member of the committee for $1.25 per couple. Mr. and Mrs. James Hassenauer will be the patrons.

STAGE TRY-OUTS FOR FORENSICS

Judges Will Select Men for Squad from Leaders of Eliminations.

Candidates for the men's debate squad will try out next Tuesday night in the Little Theatre. A new ruling is being tried this year allowing men with two years experience in major debates to pass through the initial try out without taking part. The only men affected by this are Russell and Miller who have been on the squad the past two years.

Where only twenty-five men tried out last year Coach Menckhofer has stated that the number will amount to forty for the present Tuesday night. Those surviving the first elimination will meet again Nov. 1 when the judges will select the men to make up the permanent squad.

Because of some confusion resulting from the wording of the question as previously announced, it has been revised. Final determination of the wording is yet to be decided upon by the national committee of Phi Kappa Delta. A question to be used at tryouts is "Resolved that the policies of the U. S. which have resulted in its intervention by force of arms in the government of Latin American nations should be abandoned."

With a host of freshmen making their first bid, there is every indication that a merry scramble will ensue for the coveted places on the team. All those who have not yet made applications to Mr. Menckhofer are asked to do so immediately. Three hours academic credit is given to all men on the squad.

The judges who will make the selections Tuesday night are Mr. Ruth, Mr. Blake, Mr. Haber, Mr. DeWeerd, Mr. Menckhofer.

Robinson, Marshall, Longnecker Bowen, and Rohn Score In Sponsor Race.

Results of the balloting for corps sponsor and for the various unit sponsors by the cadets of the college were announced yesterday afternoon. Dorothy Robinson will act as corps sponsor and assume the honorary title of "colonel."

Miss Robinson is a member of Sphinx, honorary supreme among the coeds, was for two years a follower of debating, and is a member of the Alpha Phi society.

Mary Marshall was chosen to sponsor the infantry, Elma Bowen the cavalry, and Margaret Longnecker will sponsor the coast artillery unit.

The vote on corps sponsor was cast by all units and votes on the unit sponsors were taken in each division. This year saw the largest vote cast in the history of the military department, over 1,200 cadets expressing their preference.

Thursday night, members of the college and those of their sponsor Mary Lee Rohn of the Eta Alpha Phi society, Miss Rohn was opposed in the race by Miss Dorothy Butler.

As corps sponsor, Miss Robinson will receive the title of honorary colonel, and the three unit sponsors will receive commissions as honorary lieutenant-colonels.

These commissions will be formally presented at the sponsor installation, the date of which has been set for December 2 in the new armory assembly hall.

Full military ceremony will be in effect that night, and Colonel T. L. Sherburne has requested all R. O. T. C. students to keep that night as an open date, thereby guaranteeing a stable showing for the occasion. Following installation there will be amusement of some kind for the student gathering.

The full list of contestants in the sponsor race were: Corps sponsor, Dorothy Robinson, Mary Ella Fairmyre, and Beatrice Rohn; infantry, Lucile Bunge and Mary Marshall; cavalry, Eleanor Bowen and Caroline Manor; artillery, Margaret Longnecker and Marian Chinnick; band, Dorothy Butler and Mary Rohn.

A substantial reward will be paid for the return of the log slide rule which was lost in the room adjoining the room lab. Call Hall, Thursday afternoon, Oct. 20, 1927. No questions asked. The fellow who lost it is working his way through college and needs the money. Please leave at Dean Bissel's office or at the Union desk, "Hat" Haines, 29 100 Clemens ave., Lansing, Phone 5-4378.

WANTS OPTIONAL DRILL

The history of military science and tactics at Michigan State College is a question of interest and great importance. From 1857, the founding of the college, to 1882, military training was unknown at the college. If the Morrill act necessitated a course in compulsory military science, why was not the department instituted in 1862, the year when the act was passed? In 1882, a group of students petitioned the faculty for permission to form a military company; their request was acceded to. From 1885 until the time of the mandate in 1887, military was conducted on a purely optional basis. On July 15, 1887, the state board of agriculture adopted the following resolution: "That in the discretion of the faculty, military drill be made a required part of the course of the agricultural college." This is sufficient proof to explode any fallacious opinion that may exist among the student body that military must be compulsory in the land grant institution. Another mistaken idea, quite general among the student body, is that concerning federal appropriation in connection with compulsory military. If the state board of agriculture were to make the course optional, federal support would continue without hindrance.

No matter how convinced the state board of agriculture may be of the justice of their course, they cannot afford to ignore or do violence to the moral sense of the student body of the college. For the feeling on the part of the students that the authorities are exercising arbitrary power without moral justification kills the moral influence of the college. A college that does not command the moral respect of its students grows to be, for the most part, a factory. To ask the American institution of learning above all to become the temple of militaristic cult, dedicated to the ghost of a destruction that is to ask of them a betrayal of their very soul. It is for our college and we the students to discover a more elucidative way for happiness and safety.

This question of optional military drill is one not concerned with the military department, but rather, one of respecting the rights of the students. This matter of compelling men to go through military drill can no more command their respect than can an effort to compel them to take part in Sunday religious services. This element of compulsion in connection with the course, if properly weighed, is an unethical abuse of power. It is in principle a form of conscription in national institutions, and shall we sit back and take it all with a smile? GILBERT VANDERMALE, '26

ACTIVITIES FOR ALL

The great majority of college students waste about one-fourth of their time. This is no idle statement. It is cold fact. We don't wish to preach to State students about the value of time and the dire results of wasting it, but we would like to suggest a method of utilizing these spare moments. All of us could spend a little more time on our books, but even then we would have plenty of time to spare. With this time we could be accomplishing something that would bring credit to ourselves as well as service to our alma mater, if we so desired.

There ought to be a greater interest in campus activities at Michigan State. Few students realize that their duty to their class does not cease when they pay their dues. They should be vitally interested in the affairs of their class to the extent that they are willing to serve on committees or as officers. In this manner the student is acquiring valuable training as well as performing a needed service to his class.

Nearly every student reads the State News, but few realize the vast amount of work required to make each issue possible. A large staff of assistants is needed to dig up stories and prepare them for publication. Any student who has any inclination at all toward literary or journalistic endeavor ought to find himself in a position on one of the several student publications.

Athletics, dramatics, glee club, band and debating are other forms of campus activities that are open to all students. In these cases college credit is given the participants, so that the benefit received is two-fold.

Many students who have talent in various lines are backward about using it. Don't hide your light under a bushel. Get into the swing of campus activities and your Fraternity, your class, and your college will mean much more to you than ever before.

No Matter How Much You Learn

YOU KNOW ONLY SO MUCH AS YOU REMEMBER. Your mind will obey you just in proportion to the requirements you place upon it if you give it a chance. You can always remember if you train your mind to serve you when and as you want it to serve. You can think and talk better and clearer with training that will take but a few minutes of your time. Prof. M. V. Atwood, formerly of the N. Y. College of Agriculture at Ithaca, now Editor of Utica Herald-Dispatch writes: "I have all memory courses and your is best of lot. You owe it to the public to publish it in book form." In response to this and other demands this course has been issued in a handy little volume to fit your pocket and the cost is but Three Dollars postpaid until December when Five Dollars will be the price. Familiarity breeds CONTENT

THE longer you smoke Prince Albert, the more convinced you become that it is the most satisfying tobacco that ever nestled in the bowl of a jimmy-pipe. You get a brand-new thrill every time you open the tidy red tin and breathe that wonderful aroma.

And when you tuck a load into the business-end of your pipe, light up, and open the drafts—say, Mister! Cool as a letter from home, telling you to cut down your expenses. Sweet as an unexpected check in the next mail. Sweet and mild and long-burning.

So mild, in fact, that it never bites your tongue or parches your throat, no matter how swift your pipe-pace. Yet it has that full, rich tobacco-body that lets you know you're smoking and makes you glad you are. Try Prince Albert, Fellows, and get the joy that's due you! Buy a tin today and get started!

P. A. is sold everywhere in tidy red tins, pound and half-pound tin humidors, and pound crystal-glass humidors with sponge-moistener top. And always with every bit of taste and punch removed by the Prince Albert process.

PRINCE ALBERT
—no other tobacco is like it!

Parties and W. A. A. Hike Among Activities of This Week End

HARRIERS HAVE CHANCE TO MAKE VARSITY SQUAD

Five Berths Offer Places to New Men for Northern Trip.

The all-college run will be the last chance track men will have to make the varsity team of six which will go to Marquette the 29th.

Last year Severance came in first with Brown and H. Wylie finishing second and third. Last year the men who ran against Marquette were Severance, Wylie, Waterman, Williams, Blaklee and LePlant.

Captain Wylie will be the only man of last year's team to make the trip which will mean five places will be filled by new men. Brown should win the all-college run this year. Captain Wylie, Roosten, Roberts, Wilmarth, Clark or Haven may step in ahead of him. Trapp, Dowd, Hanson, Crow, Maples, Hansen, and Case will push them hard.

The distance will be the regulation cross country course, 4.83 miles. Cups will be awarded for the first three places and gold, silver, and bronze medals for the next seven. The run will start at the new stadium following the cross country course. It will also finish at the new stadium. Coach Mason is fairly well satisfied with the time of the novice run but he feels that the all-college run must be much faster if the team wins from Marquette.

A cherished honor

That it's a real collegiate favorite everywhere is but one of many honors borne by the jade-green pen with the little white dot. And because this Lifetime pen spends most days in the writing hand and least in repair shops, it is worthy of all honor. Unconditionally guaranteed for a lifetime of flawless writing, it costs more because it is worth more. Its careful, sturdy construction makes possible the guarantee. And the Titan pencil is a twin in dependability.
