Formal Dances Open Season For Series of Winter Parties

Tomorrow night Delphi is the first formally to hold its formal dinner-dance this term. This starts the series of formal dances which will lead up to the J-Hop and Varsity parties in March. Delphi gives its party in the Western ballroom of the Hotel Olds with Willie Jones' Syncopators from Indianapolis in charge of the music. According to the custom of all the fraternities the nature of the favors will be withheld until the guests go into dinner. Prof. L. C. Plant and Mrs. Plant, Prof. E. A. Gee and Mrs. Gee, and Capt. R. E. Larson and Mrs. Larson are chaperons, while out-of-town guests will include E. H. Lloyd from the University of Pittsburgh, and Gale and Robert Hunt from the University of Detroit.

The Ancient and Honorable Society of Yellow Dogs' holds its first annual dance tomorrow evening in the Union ballroom. Dr. R. C. Huston is chairman of the general arrangements committee. J. A. Ikeman has charge of securing the music, and A. Laurie sponsors the decorating. Fred K. L. Butterfield and Mrs. Butterfield, See H. H. Halliday and Mrs. Halliday, Mayor Luther Baker and Mrs. Baker, and the deans of all the fraternities on campus are invited as guests. The purpose of this organization are "friendship, frivolity, and fun," with the most stress on the latter. Wolverine Kennel No. 1 is the name of the local kennel of this organization which has kennels in every state of the Union. Officers of State College kennel are Dr. W. L. Chandler, chief cur; Dr. Ward Gilmer, scratch cur; R. H. Young, custodian of the bone; and E. S. Smiley, custodian of the collar and license tag.

Enomian fraternity has an open house tomorrow night. Willie Bennett's orchestra plays, and Prof. R. E. Hartsuch and Mrs. Hartsuch are patrons. Trimora also entertains at an open house. The Quisot Ramblers will furnish the music for the event at which Prof. and Mrs. Burks, Prof. and Mrs. M. M. Cory, and Prof. and Mrs. L. C. Emmons are acting as patrons.

Herndon has its open house tonight with Halladay's orchestra furnishing the music. Another event for this evening is the dance for which Hod Draper and his band plays at the Union. This is the second open party at the Union, and will begin at nine o'clock.

EXTEND QUESTIONNAIRE BY PAN-HELLENIC WOMEN

To Provide Contact Between Local Organization and National Body.

In keeping with the new policy of a closer relation between the national Pan-Hellenic council and the local body, a questionnaire is under consideration for adoption which deals with common sorority problems, house chaperones, and cooperative entering. This is sent out by the national organization in hopes of smoother running of sorority and inter-sorority affairs.

Another course of action under consideration is that of informing freshmen of the cost of joining sororities often to the dismay of the freshman, she finds that the cost greatly exceeds expectations. This would handle that problem.

A new constitution is in the process of formation, in which one of the features will be the eligibility of the pledges from the standpoint of marks. The committee appointed for this purpose includes Eileen Downer as chairman, Dorothy Robinson, and Ernestine Garrison.

In the past the method of obtaining the marks of freshmen at the mid-term has been more or less unsystematic. Margaret Mathews was appointed to interview several members of the faculty to determine by what method this can be done to better advantage.

The Union Literary society held their formal initiation banquet at the Hotel Olds, January 18. Oliver Hood acted as toastmaster.

The following men are to be formally initiated at the Alpha Gamma Rho house next Sunday, Paul Young, Gerald Tischner, W. Hart, Harold Knoblauch, John Hawkins, and Jess Bird.

The Trimora society are holding an "open house" January 21. The patrons are as follows: Prof. and Mrs. Burks, Prof. and Mrs. Cory, Prof. and Mrs. Emmons. The Quisot Ramblers will furnish the music.

John Gavatos, a pledge, and Fred Radee, a member of the Lambda Chi Alpha fraternity have left for Austin, Texas, where they will enroll in the University of Texas at the beginning of the winter term in February.

Coch Koba is having his baseball candidates take several laps around the riding hall in the new armory each night at the end of practice and go over that series of hurdles along the north wall. We wonder if that would come under the head of "horse play."

Formal initiations of the Union Literary society were held at the house last Wednesday evening. The new members are: William Hamlin, Jackson, Clyde Durst, Lausing, Harold Smead, Sturgis, Robert Miller, Wagon, H. Charles Wardwell, Ann Arbor; Elbert DeWeerd, Holland; Gerald Brown, Holland; Leonard Turpin, Lewiston; Leonard Schupbach, Leith, Brighton; Frances Perrin, Grand Somerton, Arizona; Arthur Howard Ypsilanti; Clifford Herr, Hillsdale; Thomas VanZanden, Holland; Robert Carruthers, Durand; Myron Bestervolt, Kalamazoo; and Charles Lisch, Detroit. The initiation banquet is to be held at the house next Wednesday evening.

UNION COMMITTEE PLANS PARTY OF UNUSUAL TYPE

Weekly Parties Will Be Scheduled Unless Other Events Inter-vene.

Successful in its purpose of providing recreation for great numbers of overworked students, the Union activities committee is planning another of those famous "Union parties" for tonight. Old King Jazz in the person of Hod Draper and his band will be there, and a great time is anticipated.

Believing this to be the type of party most favored by students, the committee is planning a definite schedule in order that all may know in advance when they are to take place. Unless a major social or dramatic event comes on that date, there will be a Union party every Friday night. The last one was a pronounced success, and if the student body will continue to back them, the committee promises more and better parties in the future.

Very Athletic Ada

Ada isn't feeling very athletic today only weather athletic, she encountered an icy stretch of pavement and disaster, with the result that she moves slowly and painfully, and with a great deal of caution. Really though, an epidemic of icy walks is a great thing in an institution of this size to popularize athletics. Every pedestrian in the college was sliding and paving the great out-of-doors in vain attempts to retain his equilibrium; some paved successfully, and others not so successfully. A physicist would find it an interesting place for a study of the laws governing balance of the human body.

Ada is promoting a great altruistic work—namely, campus etiquette. Greeting people in embarrassing situations will be treated; how to monochordantly greet the referee who has just discovered you slugging friend or opponent, what to say to the dean just after you have smashed his rear fender, whether as an intellectual inferior, you should get off a narrow walk to let the president by, or whether as a gentleman, he should let you, the perfect lady, by, how to greet the professor whose class you have just cut, and how an erstwhile pledge should greet her dear sisters the morning after initiation. Some may object that this does not come under the head of athletics, but it does. It is mental gymnastics.

Speaking of ice, etc., you should see the girls taking advanced clogging. They do a dance called "Jack Frost" so naturally imitating ice-skaters that the minute you get in the room, you start to shiver.

This really is a paper on our unheralded athletes—heroes of the commonplace, as 'twere. For first place.

we nominate members of the State News staff. Did you ever see a fat one? We'll tell you why—there are four flights of stairs up to that office, and no elevator. That's one reason why their heart action is so bad. Treat them carefully.

For second place, we propose those great hikers who have a class in the army one hour, and in the dairy the next. Surely, State will be able to make a strong bid for the Olympics.

For third place, we mention those agile people who walk off with their sister's clothes and the cook's hat. They have to be agile to escape.

For fourth place, those unfortunate people who carry a briefcase around with them all day—they seem to be loaded with concrete blocks. Next spring, we should see them putting the shot, or hurling the javelin.

Soften your harsh tones, then, when speaking of your sister who goes not out for W. A. A. sports—she may be a greater athlete than you.

P.A. suits my taste like nobody's business

I KNOW what I like in a pipe, and what I like is good old Prince Albert. Fragrant as can be. Cool and mild and long-burning, right to the bottom of the bowl. Welcome as the week-end reprieve. Welcome . . . and satisfying!

No matter how often I load up and light up, I never tire of good old P.A. Always friendly. Always companionable. P.A. suits my taste. I'll say it does. Take my tip, Follows, and load up from a tidy red tin.

COURT SQUAD ON WEEK END TRIP

Will Meet Loyola Five Friday and Marquette Saturday.

After winning four straight games on the home floor, the Michigan State basketball team left Thursday afternoon for Chicago for a game there Friday evening with the Loyola University five and on Saturday the Spartans will go to Milwaukee, Wisconsin where they will engage in a game against the Marquette University five that night.

The Friday night game with Loyola will probably result in the hardest test that the State five has had this year. The Loyola quintet has won most of their games thus far this season and has vanquished the Kansas Aztecs by a top-sided score and the Oregon State five. Marquette also has a fast team this year but is not considered as strong as Loyola.

Coach VanAlstyne's men have been working toward these two games for the past week after an unexpected win over Coe College Monday evening. State has a well balanced, high scoring machine perfected that has brought about pleasing results in the games played thus far this season.

Ten Spartans and the coach took the western trip. Coach VanAlstyne chose four forwards, two centers and four guards, who were as follows: Dickson, DenHelder, VanZelen, Shenhorn, Felt, Totten, Colvin, Schau, Rasso, McGillivuddy.

The probable starting lineup for the Friday evening contest will be: Dickson and DenHelder, forwards; Felt, center; Colvin and Schau, guards.

FACULTY BOWLING LEAGUE BEGINS TOURNAMENT

In Group B, high match and high game were scored by the farm crop division with the totals of 2270 and 809. Kessler of the ag engineers had high individual total of 590 and Churchill of farm crop team rolled high individual score of 211.

Standings for the week of Jan. 9-14. Table with columns for Group, W, L, Pct.

Second Annual Chess Tournament Starts Thursday Eve at Union

The second annual Michigan State Union chess tournament will begin next Thursday evening at the Union building. The tournament this season will be in charge of M. L. Joslin, 20, and all entries should be in before next Wednesday so that pairings can be made.

The Lonesome Road

From down the road comes the sound of bells. A lonely traveler takes up his burden and trudges along. As he walks he sings a melody that, in its slow rhythmic measure, has much of the mood of the "Volga Boatman." Gene Austin interprets it with all the warm humanity that has made his voice so popular. The record is well worth hearing. Come in and enjoy these new Victor releases—today!

FENCING TEAMS FACE U. OF M. IN FIRST MEET SATURDAY

The first fencing meet of the year for the Michigan State fencing team will be held at Ann Arbor on Saturday evening of this week when the Spartans engage the University of Michigan fencing team. Both the varsity and freshman teams will compete.

Coach Joseph Waffa, who has charge of the State fencers, has been working hard with his men and the teams should be able to make a commendable showing against the Wolverine's best. The entire fencing squad will make the trip.

TRAYNOR CUTS YEARLING SQUAD TO FIFTEEN MEN

Coach Barney Traynor cut the frosh basketball squad down to 15 men and is holding four practices per week for the rest of the season. The frosh schedule has several hard games ahead, but Coach Traynor believes that the frosh men are equal to their opponents.

The 15 men are: Baker, Barnard, Bayard, Clark, Grove, Hagan, Handley, Kowalek, Peary, Prendegast, Scott, Taikkaen, VanAntwerp, VanZander, and Warner.

U LITS WIN CUP IN BOWLING LEAGUE

New Champs Defeat Lambda Chi to Win Championship in Interfrat League.

The Union Literary society is the new campus bowling champion in the Michigan State College Interfraternity league, defeating the Lambda Chi Alpha team 2297 to 2229. Head of the Alpha team scored the high three game total with the mark of 519. The high single game score was rolled by Colvin of the Lambda Chi Alpha team with the score of 297.

Table with columns for Union Literary Society, Lambda Chi Alpha, and individual scores.

Entries can be left at the Union desk and a fee of ten cents will be charged. Last year's tournament created quite an interest in chess and it is expected that there will be even more entries this year. Last year's tournament was won by M. L. Joslin who is in charge of this tourney.
