VICTORY

The Colgate game goes down in the record books as a red entry as far as State is concerned but it was a highly honorable defeat. With a sophomore center, two tackles who were ends last year, and three men in the backfield, the greater part of the game was the Green and White eleven playing their first season of college football. The Green and White eleven played a remarkable game against a team that was faster and more experienced. The coaching staff and team should be congratulated for the show-up Saturday.

GREEN FLAGS

Michigan Avenue in Lansing down town East Lansing paid its tribute to returning alumni Saturday by furling a green flag with a block 'S' in front of nearly every business house on the street. It lent an atmosphere to this celebration that has been sadly missing in other years, but once started, it should be adhered to for all events on the campus.

HOUSE DECORATIONS

The judging committee on house decorations had made the rounds Sunday morning instead of Saturday. We feel assured that the least decorated would easily be the best. Time, usage and zestful undergraduates playing around, to say nothing of 'alums' looking the place over, are not the best things for house decorations.

WHEN?

Back in 1925 the new Michigan State stadium was filled to its capacity, some 20,000, with temporary seats at the ends of the field needed to seat the huge crowd. It is estimated that 10,000 saw Colgate come Saturday, the second largest crowd to ever attend a game. When are we going to make it necessary for the athletic department to put out its circus seats to accommodate those seeking admittance?

A RECORD

After a week-end filled with entertaining guests, parties and a football game, the entire staff of assistant editors reported for duty at the News on Sunday night on time and in a good way. This breaks an unofficial record dating from 1891.

NO BASKETBALL

Recent ruling of the federal radio commission, taking WKAR off the air, will make broadcasting basketball games from here this winter impossible.

Michigan State college is credited with being the first college to broadcast play-by-play accounts of the court game and has unquestionably had the honor of one of the most able at the 'line' to do the talking. Jimmy Haslam is headed for one of the best jobs in its history with a veteran returning and a schedule that is one of the hardest in the country. It is probable that we must abolish one of the foremost means we have had to spread the fame of our campus nationally.

EXCLUSIVE

One of our sororities has become so popular that it has had to change its name in the new book. Perhaps the members feel that they should give their phone number only to those persons whose names have passed the test.

HOME COMING IS OBSERVED BY RECORD CROWD

Fraternities and Sororities Cooperate in Making Event a Gala Day.

EUNOMIANS WIN CUP

In spite of the dampening of spirits that the loss of the game caused, M. S. C. celebrated the greatest Homecoming in its history last Saturday and Sunday.

The societies responded to the request for decorating the houses with even greater enthusiasm than in previous years and their achievements were far more pleasing than ever before. With the exception of one society, every house in East Lansing did its part to make the whole affair a complete success.

Dean Conrad, Prof. A. G. Scheel and Lewis D. Richards composed the committee in charge of selecting the winner in this event. Their decision in the inter-fraternity contest trophy competition gave the Eunomians first place, the second going to the Electrics. The S. A. K., Harmon Phi Delta, Sigma Kappa and Sigma societies also received an honorable mention.

Phil Olin was in charge of the committee that decorated the houses with such effectiveness that the cup which has rested with the Union Literary boys for the past year will take up a new residence in the Eunomian house. The cup will probably be presented to that fraternity at a convocation in the near future.

The theme of the winning decoration was based on the motto, "Home Again to Take Colgate into Camp." The word camp was elaborately pictured out by means of a canoe, trees, campfire and table. A few animals were also to be seen in the background. M. S. C. and Colgate colors were used with effect to complete the atmosphere.

Even though this was the largest Homecoming M. S. C. has ever known, plans are already under way to put over a still greater celebration next year.

U. S. BAND SCORES HUGE SUCCESS

Large Crowd Hears Nationally Known Band; Soloists' Work Exceptional.

The U. S. Army band concert held in Demonstration hall last Friday night was well attended by a crowd of about 2,500. Led by Captain Starnard, the band played a program of ten numbers ranging from the typical band march to concert music. Between regular program numbers the band played several popular pieces, giving them a decided jazz effect.

The soloists featured were Thomas Darcy, trumpet, and also second leader Eugene Hostetter, saxophone, and Joseph L. Young, xylophone, whom the audience appreciated very much. Each of the soloists was given two or three times and the program is held to be the best ever played in this city by that type of band.

During intermission a short and snappy pep meeting was held. C. W. Otto, secretary of the Lansing Chamber of Commerce, and Coach Harry Kipke both gave short talks and the crowd responded vigorously to the efforts of the yell leaders.

FAMOUS ADVENTURER TO SPEAK IN LANSING OCT. 30

Speaking under the auspices of the Lansing Kiwanis club, Count Felix von Luckner, well-known adventurer, will tell the story of his experiences at the Fudden auditorium, Tuesday, October 30 at 8 p. m.

Luckner, famous as the "Sea Devil," roamed the southern seas during the war, sinking 300,000 tons of shipping, yet never took a life. He is endorsed by the American Legion and carries 37 decorations.

Proceeds of the lecture are to be devoted to the children's fresh air camp.

NEWS BUSINESS STAFF

An important meeting of the business staff of the State News will be held in the State News office Thursday afternoon, October 25, at 5 o'clock. Every member of the staff must be present at the meeting.

TOTAL ENROLLMENT OF MUSIC DEPT. REACHES 965

A total enrollment of 965 music students was announced last Friday by Lewis Richards, head of the music department. Of this total, 691 are enrolled in Michigan State college and 274 in the Michigan State Institute of Music and Allied Arts. Of the 364 in the Institute of Music, 88 are at the college and 276 at the Lansing branch. Mr. Richards expressed his pleasure in the number enrolled in the history, theory and appreciation of music courses.

In September, 1927, when Mr. Richards came to head of the music department, there was an enrollment of 192 students. The development in the last year has been unusually great and has attracted students from states as distant as Kansas, California, Texas, Massachusetts, New York and Canada.

YEARBOOK POSTS CONTEST TROPHY

Business Staff of Wolverine Offers Trophy in Sorority Subscription Contest.

A trophy is being offered by the business staff of the Wolverine to that sorority which within the next four weeks secures the greatest number of subscriptions to the college annual. It was announced this week by Lewis Snyder, business manager of the publication.

The contest opened on Saturday, Oct. 20, and will continue until Nov. 15. The sororities will compete for the greatest number of subscriptions and the winning society must have a minimum number of at least 60 subscriptions in order to receive consideration.

The subscriptions will be taken in the usual way with a down payment of $2 and the remaining $1 to be paid at the beginning of spring term. Friends of the various sororities are urged to cooperate in helping the society and at the same time pushing the Wolverine.

It is hoped that the contest will complete the necessary list of subscriptions so that work on the book may start in earnest and concentrated effort be put forth.

Working with Snyder at the present time on the business staff are: Al Goetter and Charles S. Kiefer, both juniors; Garfield Thatcher and Lawrence Cristensen, sophomores. Any freshmen or sophomores who wish to try out for positions on the business staff of the annual are urged to get in touch with the present business manager.

START COUPON BOOK CAMPAIGN

Student Relations Committee Puts Books on Sale at Fraternity Houses.

Union coupon books are being offered for sale in every society house and dormitory on the campus this week through the effort of the Student Relations Committee of the Union. The books are being brought to the attention of the usual special rate of $1.00 for five dollars worth of trade.

Previously it has been possible to purchase these books only at the Union desk in the lobby of the building. The new plan has placed 10 books in each of the sorority and fraternity houses and many more than that in the several dormitories.

The purchase of four coupon books a term makes a student a savings of $1.60 which is more than the Union fee and literally makes the purchase of the building free.

Fantastic Decorations Feature Annual Homecoming Gala Day

The alumni returned last week-end. The Union was mobbed and fraternities and sorority houses slept four deep, placing the most generous and luxurious alumni under the cracks in the ceiling. Everyone you ever knew or heard of was here, and reserved seats for Saturday's game were necessitated for the first time this year.

Preparations for the game were elaborate. The block 'S' showering section was formed and those sitting in it were given green balloons to be released at the first touchdown. The fact that they were released piecemeal, as their custodians got tired of holding them or waiting for a touchdown, somewhat lessened the effect but not the general sentiment.

East Lansing was transformed into something resembling a circus midway by the fantastic decoration of its many fraternity and sorority houses. The parade was there, too, out in front of the Eunomian house—where huge elephants wagged lifelike heads at the rest of the menagerie, who complacently wagged back. There was enough crepe paper tinned about the town to support Mr. Demson for years, and the block 'S's and C's hung here and there would, if placed end to end, have made a grand roller-coaster reaching from Twichell's for those who buy the best. SENIOR CLASS TO HOLD FALL TERM PARTY TONIGHT

Pat Dollahan's Orchestra to Furnish Music for Party in Union Ballroom.

EXPECT BIG ATTENDANCE

Featuring an unusually quiet week-end, the senior class will hold its fall term party Friday evening, Oct. 26, in the Union Ballroom.

Pat Dollahan's orchestra from Flint will furnish the music for the occasion. This band of musicians has acquired a position of distinction throughout the state during the past year and will be remembered on this campus from past visits.

Decorations of green and white will prevail in the ballroom, and the party committee has promised some novel innovations in the way of decorations and amusements. Dancing is scheduled to start at 9 and continue to 12.

As the only open date of the football team during the college football season, the dance is expected to draw a large crowd from among the Spartan athletes who are also given an opportunity to attend.

Members of the party committee in charge of the fall term event of the class of '29 are: Chairman, George Farley; Marion Trumbull, Paul Schaub and Ira Price.

Tickets for the event are on sale at the Union desk or may be obtained from any member of the executive committee.

Patrons for the evening are Coach and Mrs. Harry Kipke, Mr. and Mrs. E. Van Frimodig, and Captain and Mrs. Joseph Hinwood.

THETA ALPHA PHI TO PRESENT PLAY

"He Who Gets Slapped" to Be Staged at State Theater on Nov. 20.

Theta Alpha Phi honorary dramatic society will present the first play of the season, "He Who Gets Slapped," on Nov. 20 at the State theater. The play by Leonid Andreyev is a fatalistic drama of crisis life.

The title role is being taken by William Montgomerie, who is one of the outstanding dramatists on the campus and a member of Theta Alpha Phi. "Consuelo," the baritone tenor, is also being played by Albert Tied, who is also well known for her playing ability.

The action of the play centers about these two characters and is carried along with the support of several minor characters through a dramatic story interspersed with light bits of humor.

Rehearsals for the play have been going on under the direction of Prof. R. S. King, head of the dramatic department, since the beginning of the term.

DISMISS PLAN TO TAKE CADETS TO DETROIT

In reply to the many rumors which have been circulating among the members of the College R. O. T. C. since Oct. 1, L. S. Sherburne, announced that due to the excessive cost of transportation the cadets will not participate in the parade in Detroit on Armistice day, as was formerly planned.

Notification was received some time ago from the Detroit headquarters but upon investigation it was found that college had no means of raising the necessary amount of money necessary to finance the undertaking.

There is nowhere you please. Everywhere from windmills to rowboats, decorated the houses, and green flags swung out along Grand River.

All this art was not achieved without a lot of work, and the new pledges learned that the fraternal souls who were so kind during rush season, made hard taskmasters. But all the lavins of art and all the back stairs scribbled down without much cursing other than that essential to all such occasions.

There were seventeen parties Saturday night. The alumni were stepping out. Everywhere undergraduates were overshadowed by their predecessors, the Big Men and Women of the class of empty-ump. It was hard to find anyone who still attended classes. Even those august souls, last year's graduates, assumed a somewhat juvenile air under the eyes of the men who once dipped them in the Red Cedar and forced them to menial tasks.

Sunday evening things began to return to normalcy. Trains out of Lansing carried crowds of alumni, the undergraduates returned to prominence, showed away the extra army coats, and now there's nothing left but a bit of green paper here and there. Homecoming is over for another year.

TRIMOIRAS COMPLETE DEAL FOR NEW HOUSE

The Trimora fraternity announced the closing of a transaction with Hicks Bros. Realty company involving the exchange of their present house and lot for two houses and an acre of ground on North street. The deal was closed Monday.

Plans are being completed to completely remodel one of the houses to include a dining room, bathroom and sleeping quarters. The fraternity plans to move to its new home shortly after Thanksgiving.

Accommodations will be available for 28 men in their new quarters. One of the houses will be used for upperclassmen and the other will be for the use of freshmen and sophomores.

BARBECUE TO BE GIVEN NOV. 23

Two Lower Classes to "Bury Hatchet" Over Winter Months.

The annual fall term barbecue, which symbolizes the "burying of the hatchet" between the freshman and sophomore classes, will be held on Friday, Nov. 23. The grill will be in front of the old armory to be the scene of the affair. As the tradition goes, the student body will turn out in full at this time and celebrate the occasion by partaking of the bounteous supply of order, dominion, and barbecue that is always there.

The ceremonies are to be impressive as usual. There will be speeches by a few prominent members of the faculty and outstanding men of the campus. Actual ceremony symbolizing the end of the hostilities will hold an important place on the program. An all-campus dance will follow.

Maurois Greer, '31, is general chairman in charge of the affair. Other committee members will be announced later according to Curtis B. Bower, president of the sophomore class. This occasion of hostilities continues until the spring term, when open season on freshmen begins again.

PURPLE AND GOLD SELECTED AS SOPHOMORE COLORS

Purple and gold were selected as the sophomore class colors at a class meeting Thursday night, according to an announcement from Curtis Bower, sophomore president.

December 14 was decided upon as the date for the annual fall party. Plans for the barbecue to be held November 23 were also discussed.

FUTURE PROFS. GAIN PRACTICE

26 Students Enrolled in Educational Teaching Course; Practice in Local Schools.

Dean Roder, head of the liberal arts department, states that there are 26 students instructing in academic subjects as practice teachers. 13 teaching English, 2 teaching geometry, 4 teaching algebra, 6 teaching history, and 1 teaching French. The above are teaching in the East Lansing high school. There are two calls for student teachers in mathematics and physics still unfilled.

Mr. Waipole, associate professor of education, reports that there are 10 students teaching agriculture in Haslett and East Lansing. Mr. Waipole is giving an address to the rural division of the Michigan State Teachers' association on Friday at Detroit. Also next Monday before the same division in Lansing. There is an opening in South Africa for a teacher in agriculture and one in home economics as told by Dr. Stuck, a missionary of South Africa.

Miss Irons, associate professor of home economics, announces that there are 37 students teaching home economics in Haslett, East Lansing, Central high school, Walter French, junior high and Eastern high school, Lansing. This year there is a new system of observing the various methods of teaching home economics in the local high schools. There will be a meeting of home economics district No. 1 Monday afternoon in the Little Theater of the home economics building at 2 o'clock.

HOME EC CLUB TO HOLD SHORT BUSINESS MEETING

The Home Economics club will hold a short business meeting at the Peoples church Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock. Following the meeting there will be a social hour that was announced by Lucile Bunge, president of the club. Those home ec students not having membership in the club can obtain them by seeing Marie Hostelmann at the meeting.

BASKETBALL ISSUE TO BE SETTLED SOON

State Board to Pass on Possible Use of Demonstration Hall as Basketball Court.

TWO PLANS ADVANCED

Decision as to whether the varsity basketball team will be allowed to use Demonstration hall for its major games this winter is to be made within a few days at the next meeting of the state board of agriculture. It was learned today.

At the regular monthly meeting of the athletic council last Saturday a great deal of time was given to discussion of various plans for utilizing the building so that the student and alumni body may be seated.

Two plans have been advanced. One is that a movable floor equipped with a hoist arrangement be erected at one end of the building.

This plan is not entirely feasible, however, as the building was not erected for the purpose and engineers are extremely doubtful as to whether it will work satisfactorily.

The most feasible plan offered is that a sectional floor exactly like that in use in the University of Michigan field house be put down. It would be necessary that it be in place for two months, thereby curtailing slightly some of the activities of the cavalry.

Another advantage of the sectional floor would be that if the state legislature appropriated funds for the erection of an addition to the present gymnasium it could be used.

According to an announcement the decision is to be made at an early date as to whether either plan will be adopted.

The athletic department reports that already people are calling to ascertain whether they can get tickets for this winter's big games.

SUCCESSORS TO COACHES NAMED

C. L. Ricks to Coach Wrestling—Brown's Resignation Accepted.

W. Sherry Brown, swimming coach for the past two years, has tendered his resignation to be effective December 30, according to announcement late yesterday. He is leaving the coaching position to enter business, but information as to his particular field has not been ascertained.

A number of applications for the position are in the hands of athletic department officials but no successor has been named as yet.

C. L. Ricks has been named varsity and freshman wrestling coach to succeed Hagan Leonard, whose services terminated last June. Ricks will assume his duties November 15 and continue until March 15. He was a varsity wrestler at the University of Oklahoma for three years and recently has been connected with the college experiment station in Grand Rapids.

ALUMNI VARSITY CLUB HOLDS REUNION LUNCH

The Alumni Varsity club met at a reunion luncheon at the Hotel Downey on Saturday, Oct. 20. Forty-eight members were present.

The election of officers was conducted at which A. L. Bibbons, '15 of Syracuse, N. Y., was installed as president, George Wenner, '22 of the state department of agriculture, was chosen secretary-treasurer of the organization.

Impromptu speeches were the order of the day. Most of them expressed a hearty approval of the reunion. A movement was started for a larger gathering next year.

JUNIOR CLASS MEETING

The junior class will hold an important business meeting in room 111 Olds hall this afternoon, Tuesday, at 5 o'clock. Discussion will be brought up concerning the J-Hop and all juniors are urged to be present.

AN IMPROVED BAND

Breaking the expectant lull which rested upon the huge crowd of spectators just a few moments before the kick-off of the homecoming game, Michigan State's band marched on the field. Alumni anticipated with pleasure the sight once more of the strutting soldierly musicians, students awaited with the hope that the band would live up to its reputation.

As the seventy-five musicians marched down the gridiron, the old guards were thrilled and the students were reassured. The band had again achieved that difficult combination of military precision and fine musicianship which such a group must possess to attain success as one of the principle features at a football game.

Two weeks of practice in maneuvering was apparent in the increased ability with which the straight lines of musicians stepped down the field, turned their corners, marched and counter-marched. And in addition the formation of the "letter" 'S' which climaxed their performance at the half was a surprise because of the change from the former M. S. C. and was very well executed.

A change in costume which was also pleasing to note was the green 'S' in the drum major's plumed shako in place of the former red decoration. A new method of tossing the baton over the cross bar was demonstrated with skill and seemed to be a decided improvement over that of last year.

It was gratifying to note that the improvement in the military bearing of the band was not gained at the sacrifice of their known musical ability. With an evident betterment in the marching of the group it is to be hoped that this department of the training of the band will not cease.

PHI TAUS LEAD IN INTER-FRAT BOWLING LEAGUE

The Phi Kappa Taus Thursday evening at the Rainbow alleys hung up a new team score of 2510, easily defeating Lambda Chi Alpha who collected but 2276. The individual honors went to McPherson who, showing mid-season control, chalked up an average of 185.

Probably the closest game of the season was the Olympic vs. Trimora match Tuesday night, when the Olympic boys posed out the Trimora in one pin. The game created a lot of excitement and not until the last ball was rolled was the outcome certain.

The league standings:

SPHINX PLANS SERIES OF FOUR TEAS FOR CO-EDS

Pauline Massey, president of the Sphinx, local honorary campus fraternity, announces that the group has planned a series of teas for co-eds in Dean Elizabeth Conrad's honor. These teas will be given by each class separately, the senior tea being given Wednesday, Oct. 24 from 3:30 to 5:30 in the student parlors of the Peoples church.

Plans are also under way to give a tea for women some time before Christmas to promote a more democratic spirit among the girls, and enable them to become better acquainted.

In order to come in contact with one another more frequently, the society has planned to hold get-togethers once a month. These meetings will be in the form of social gatherings only.

"Such popularity must be deserved!"

Down deep in the Kongo the native sons believe that anybody who has an explorer for dinner will absorb all the brains, courage and other success-assuring virtues of the unfortunate victim.

We wish we could say the same of Chesterfields—that all their popularity is conferred upon whoever smokes them. Frankly, however, this is not invariably true. Several Chesterfield smokers have recently been discovered who are not ambassadors, steel kings, or even bank presidents.

But—since Chesterfields are so satisfying, mild and different—we'll all of us continue to enjoy them for these sound smok virtues alone.

Popularity? Six million smokers are enjoying em today. Such popularity must be deserved. Make it six million and one?

COLGATE'S POWERFUL OFFENSIVE ROUPTS FIGHTING STATE WARRIORS

Spartan Gridders Taste Sting in Stronger Forward Wall of Invaders.

Colgate's Maroon-jerseyed gridiron warriors put a crimp in Michigan State's hopes for a perfect Homecoming day when they overwhelmed the Spartans with a powerful offensive in the opening two quarters which resulted in a 16-0 victory for the east-erners before the second largest crowd that ever attended a game in the State stadium. Colgate scored a touch-down and field goal in the first quarter and a touchdown in the second period, but the Kipke-coached men played the strong invaders to a stand-still in the final half and held them scoreless.

State's loss on Saturday was a disappointment to some of the fans probably but to others it was a great satisfaction to see the Green and White eleven put up such a hard fight against a team of Colgate's caliber. Colgate, according to some reports, has one of the best teams they have had in seven years and put their strongest possible combination into the game against State. The strong forward wall of the Maroons, which averaged around 191 pounds, was a decisive factor in the offense which pushed the winning touchdowns over.

Smrad kicked off to open the game and Yoblock for Colgate downed the ball on his own 37 yard line. A line play failed and Colgate punted. State tried a couple of line plays without success and Grove punted to Dowler on the Colgate 35 yard line. Dowler took the ball and behind interference which took every Spartan player out of the play the fast Maroon back carried the piekin 65 yards for the first touchdown of the game. Strammello added the extra point.

Again Smrad kicked off and Dowler received the ball and was downed on his own 36 yard line. Yoblock in two plays made it first down on the 41 yard line and then Dowler broke away for a run which lasted about 15 yards for another touchdown. However, Christensen overhauled him and brought the Maroon man down on State's 12 yard line. Here the Spartan line held and Dowler and Galloway were stopped three times in succession. Strammello then made use of his toe and added three points to his team's total by making a perfect field goal from placement. After Nordberg furnished a punt on State's 20 yard line and Colgate recovered it looked as if another Maroon touchdown was forthcoming but the intercepting of a Colgate pass by Nordberg on State's three yard line spoiled this chance for the visitors.

Colgate's last touchdown came early in the second quarter. With the ball in State's possession on their own 24 yard line a line play opened. Grove punted on the first play to Dowler who carried the ball to midfield. Galloway then broke away and ran to State's 20 yard line. A minute later this same back took the ball to the 8 yard line for another first down. Vaughn punched the line twice for a total of four yards and then the State line held. On the fourth down Vaughn leaped over the line of scrimmage and made the touchdown out by a matter of a few inches. Strammello failed to get the extra point.

In the first half of the game State seemed dazed by the repeated off-balance smashes which were made possible by the burly Colgate forward wall which worked like clockwork. When the Spartans gained possession of the ball they could not gain until during the closing minute of the half the Kipke men punched the Colgate line and passed for a first down as the period ended.

State came onto the field in the second half determined to stop the onslaught of the easterners. This was done when the State line tightened and held off the attack which the Maroons tried at the time. One feature of the third period was the holding of Colgate for four downs on State's 20 yard line as the quarter ended.

In the final period the Spartans unleashed an offensive that took the ball deep into the Colgate territory several times but failed to produce touchdowns. After an exchange of several punts Colgate took the ball on State's 38 yard line but line plays failed and State took the ball on their own 14 yard line. Nordberg then made 16 yards around right end and a minute later Breen substitute back made another first down by a 25 yard run to the Colgate 25 yard line. A penalty on the Maroons put the ball on the 20 yard line and gains by Nordberg and Danzinger substitute for Schau made it first down on Colgate's 12 yard line. Here the easterners braced and held the Spartans to no gains for four plays and the ball went over to the Maroons. On the first play Colgate punted and Nordberg downed the ball on the visitors' 37 yard line. Breen and Danzinger made a first down on the 26 yard line and Nordberg lost four yards. Two forward passes failed to connect and Colgate was given the ball on their own 34 yard line. Dowler for State recovered a fumble on his own 47 yard line and on the first play Hart substitute back intercepted a pass as the game ended.

State made but seven first downs to Colgate's 13. Colgate gained 269 yards by rushing to the Spartans' 95 but the Kipke-men outstrated their rivals in the passing game by gaining 84 yards by the overhead route while the Maroons gained 37.

Smrad, Christensen and Anderson played the best in the forward wall while Grove's fine punting was outstanding in the backfield. Danzinger substitute for Schau and Breen substitute back also played good games in the backfield.
