

The Blarney Stone

REVENGE

Last fall the Detroit journalists took notice of the overwhelming defeat handed the Spartans by the University of Detroit football team. This week-end without any wide herding from the metropolitan press, the Michigan State basketball five handed the Titans a wallop that will not only rub off and incidentally John White's hockey sextet whitewashed the White representatives Friday afternoon as a curtain raiser.

TACTITURN

Herbert Hoover, when interviewed last night by a State News representative, was reticent concerning the personnel of his cabinet appointments in his four year residency in the White House. It is thought, however, that a statement will be procured from future executive at an early date.

WAR

The nocturnal parades of military bands and the vigilant guarding of Abner Hall will be enacted again this week on this campus when Scabbard Blade, national honorary military fraternity, holds its bi-annual initiation ceremonies. Let us hope that no new freshman will be kidnapped in the first year stronghold that has withstood the storm of such attacks.

BOW BOW

All the Yellow Dogs on campus were bundled up into one kennel Friday night and a good time was had by all. This is the report of the Yellow Dog Club given in the Union last Friday.

HEADGEAR

The prevalence of hard hats on the campus this winter leads one to believe that we have a senior class of proportions. Such is not the case, however, for upon investigation it was found that juniors and lower classes are availing themselves of a mode of head dressing during the winter of formals. It is rumored that lower classes may be brought to bear on the upper classes and save it a couple of dollars away and save it a couple of dollars.

HORSE APICE

After breaking even with the Detroit Riding and Hunt club in polo week-end, we can truthfully say that the result is none other than a apice.

WE'RE FROM MISSOURI

With plans being formulated for the water carnival to be staged in time in the spring, we can't help but have misgivings and fear that it will rival a winter carnival in the Midwest. If the present weather stays with us in fact we know it would. But it is still four weeks away so there be hope.

ANOTHER COLD SPELL

With the invasion of the Clicket Ekimos, famous radio dance orchestra, Friday night, the entertainment should feel right at home in our state. We learn that cold weather will bother them in the least and it is said that these boys have a tendency to ruin the best of cold weather with their music which smacks of torrid zones and swaying palm trees. In other words, they are hot.

QUITE SO

A survey of the popularity of publications on this campus, newsmen and other authorities unanimously agreed that the Michigan State News is the question a leader. Yes, arbiters.

POLO TEAM HAS EVEN BREAK WITH DETROIT RIDERS

Detroit Hunt Club Wins Friday Night and State Takes Return Match.

ATTENDANCE IS GOOD

The M. S. C. polo team broke even with the Detroit Riding and Hunt club aggregation with one win and one loss in the week-end games.

Dropping Friday night's tilt by an 18-6 score, State staged a rally on Saturday afternoon and nosed Detroit out by a 12-11 tally.

The officers and students divided the periods, or chukkers, of play evenly between them on Friday, each playing two. Col. Sherburne was the mainstay for State, turning in the majority of the goals.

Detroit scored rather consistently throughout the game. Marking up six counters in both the first and second periods, and three in each of the last State made four tallies in the first, one in the second, none in third, and one in the last.

In Saturday afternoon's game the students played virtually all the match. The play was much faster and exciting than the night before and although handicapped by lack of accuracy in making shots the students made up for it by hard riding and lots of fight.

Autoclased in the first three periods, Detroit failed to even up the score by a last period rally. The personnel of the visiting team was: Droger, Fisher, Kicher, Maury, Clover, and Pierce.

State's lineup was: Peterson, Ocker, Mullett, Leavitt, Richards, Ramsdell, Capps, Chase and Larson, and Col. Sherburne. Ocker, Mullett and Leavitt scored the majority of the goals for State.

The game drew a large crowd and shows a genuine interest in polo in this school. The turnout insures the future of the game here. Matches with other schools are being scheduled and other teams will be played before the end of the term.

PLANS FOR BAND TOUR CHANGED

Reconsider Proposed Plans for Concert-Tour Due to Large Expense.

Plans have been started for a series of week-end trips for the Michigan State Band and Glee Club to take the place of the formerly proposed extended concert tour. The plan for the tour has been practically been dropped due to financial inadvisability.

Glenn Stewart, alumni secretary, has for the past few weeks been gathering information from alumni groups in central Michigan cities relative to the demand and facilities that would greet the pending tour. The reports received point more and more to the fact that the proposed trip would only meet with financial failure due to a dearth of large auditoriums.

Although the State Board of Agriculture, in granting permission for the trip, authorized Pres. R. S. Shaw to give financial assistance, it is becoming increasingly apparent that at the present time the tour would be inadvisable.

A committee composed of Sec. H. H. Halliday, Glenn Stewart, and Lewis Richards, head of the Music Institute, are considering the matter and are awaiting further reports from outside.

LANSING SCHOOL HEAD TO GIVE LECTURE SERIES

J. W. Sexton, superintendent of the Lansing Public Schools, will give the fifth of a series of lectures which have been arranged by the department of education for the benefit of students engaged in practice teaching this winter term on Tuesday.

"Evaluating Teaching" is the topic which Supt. Sexton has chosen for his address to the teachers-to-be. The talk will take place at 4:30 P. M. in room 101 in the Home Economics building.

FRIDAY IS HOLIDAY

Washington's birthday, on Friday, Feb. 22, will be observed as a holiday on State's campus by the institution's staff and its students, according to the Staff Bulletin of the Michigan State College of Agriculture and Applied Science.

Theta Alpha Phi Presents Novel Theme in Play 'Outward Bound'

Imagine a situation in which a drunkard, a man of affairs, a fashionable society woman, a charwoman, a minister and two young people who have committed suicide are bound on a voyage to the final judgment. Imagine their bewilderment and misgivings when they find that they must rely on their past lives to plead for their futures before the hearing of The Examiner. That is the situation which forms the theme of Theta Alpha Phi's latest sponsored play which will be presented at the State theatre, Tuesday night.

If you were to watch the past of each of these characters, what sentence would you pass upon each? What future would you decree should be meted out to those who have erred? Are you anxious only to redeem them, or do you seek to punish?

On that great voyage into the unknown, the last great adventure of all human souls according to those who place faith in an afterlife, what people are characterized as "half ways"? You will learn if you see the play in which two half-ways disrupt the peace of what should be a voyage of fortuitousness.

BAND WILL PLAY AT CONVENTION

College Band Will Furnish Music at State Convention in Lansing.

Arrangements have been completed with the heads of the State Republican convention for the College Military band to play during the convention which will be held tomorrow in the Frudden auditorium in Lansing. It was announced last night by H. H. Halliday, secretary of the college.

The session opens at 11 o'clock and will continue until the business of the convention is completed. The purpose of the meeting is the nomination of officers to run in the spring elections. Eighteen hundred delegates from across the most prominent men of the state are expected to attend the convention in Lansing. It is a wonderful opportunity for the college band to further its already wide-spread reputation in playing before such an assembly of noted men and leaders in state government.

Leonard Falcone, director of the band, has been holding special sessions with the players in rehearsal of new pieces and preparing for the appearance of the college aggregation.

MATINEE DANCE AND SOCIAL HOUR TO BEGIN WEDNESDAY

The Union matinee dance and social hour will be started Wednesday afternoon, when the ballroom and lounges will be open to the students. This informal social hour will be held every day from 4 to 6 o'clock under the auspices of the Union social committee.

The plan was first tried at the University of Iowa student union and proved a great success. The hour is usually an interim between classes, activities, and the dinner hour, when there is little to occupy attention.

It is hoped by the Union management that interest will be taken in this plan of the Union to furnish an additional service to the student body.

XI SIGMA PI INITIATES THREE NEW MEMBERS

Xi Sigma Pi, national honorary fraternity, initiated three new members into its society on Monday evening. The new members are: R. E. Bower, 29, C. W. Hinde, 30, and R. J. Hill, 30.

At a banquet held at Hunt's Food Shop, President J. H. Haakola welcomed the initiates into the organization while R. E. Bower responded for the initiates. E. C. Groesbeck acted as toastmaster for the occasion.

Students Prefer Light Reading, Magazine Stand Survey Reveals

Representative newsstands in East Lansing agree that the three outstanding "best sellers" are The Saturday Evening Post, Collier's, and Liberty. These three nickel weeklies far out-rank any other publication with Liberty Digest and the humor weeklies Sage and Judge, holding high ranking but secondary to the first three.

Student interests appear to be varied and far flung from these observations and although there is no marked demand among college students for the American Mercury, there is also practically no call for such publications as True Story, Eye Opener, Whiz Bang, Paris Nights and others of questionable cultural standing.

The average student appears to prefer something of the light, entertaining order that is both informative and respectable. Leading monthlies were found to be The American, Harper's, Ladies Home Journal, Cosmopolitan, Woman's Home Companion, and The Red Book. There is also a demand for Century, Scribner's and Pictorial Review, although not to the extent that the weeklies enjoy.

Good Housekeeping has been found to be equally popular with either sex, and art and garden magazines have a general appeal to the student body.

Comics seem to thrive on fashion and movie magazines, while those containing aviation and mechanical subjects are sought by the men.

Agricultural publications enjoy wide popularity here which would not be true in other schools.

The demand for The Saturday Evening Post, Collier's and Liberty has been attributed to two factors, the price and the variety of content which is especially appealing to the college student.

DATE FOR ALL-COLLEGE ELECTIONS SET AHEAD

The date of the all-college elections formerly announced by the student council for Tuesday, March 19, has been changed to Thursday, March 21. Nominations for officers will be made March 5 with eliminations scheduled for March 12.

Members of the Union board, managing editor and business manager of the State News, the class representatives to the student council, student officers to the Peoples church, Y. M. C. A., Y. W. C. A., W. A. A., W. S. G. A. and officers of all student clubs will be chosen this term.

Vote will be by secret ballot and the elections will be held in the lobby of the Union building as in past years under the direction of the student council.

HONOR COLONEL ON ANNIVERSARY

Sherburne is Guest of Honor At Banquet Celebrating 30th Year
In Service.

Lieut. Col. T. L. Sherburne, commandant of the R. O. T. C. at Michigan State, was honored by the Morley S. Daves post of the Veterans of Foreign Wars at a dinner Monday night in celebration of his 30th anniversary in the United States army.

Col. Sherburne was the guest of honor at the banquet and a special program was presented by the local post which included a minstrel show and a minstrel play.

Although no official word has been received, it is understood that Col. Sherburne will be transferred to another post at the close of the present school year. At the present time, he is serving his seventh year as the head of the college military department, his original stay of four years having been extended for a year, three successive times at the request of college officials and the state board of agriculture.

Colonel Sherburne came to Michigan State college in 1922. He first entered the army in 1899 when he left Louisiana State university where he was a cadet officer on the R. O. T. C. to become second lieutenant in the regular army. He has served in Alaska, in Panama, in Mexico, in the Philippines and in France during the World war, where he was cited for gallantry and received a commission as colonel. He served in Germany in the army of occupation until 1919, when he returned to the United States where he was given the rank of captain. Before he came to Michigan State college, he was promoted again to the rank of lieutenant colonel.

SPHINX INITIATES CANDY SALE TO RAISE FUNDS

Sphinx inaugurated the selling of candy in campus buildings today to aid in the raising of funds to complete the furnishing of the remodeled ballroom in the Union Building.

Standards of all confectionery have been established in the Ag Building, Hort Building, and Olds Hall. A committee of coeds working with the Sphinx organization are aiding.

Much effort has been expended by the coeds in making possible the continuing of the ballroom into an additional lounge room during fall term. Every week was instituted and the first dance held. Recently the second of these dances took place. Although considerable money has been raised, a quite large amount must still be secured.

INTER-FRATERNITY GAMES PROGRESSING IN LEAGUE

A number of interesting intramural basketball games have been played since the opening of the season, Feb. 5. Basketball usually marks the climax of the intramural competition, and this year promises to be no exception. The results of the games thus far are as follows:

Inter-fraternity league: Olympics defeated Eumoniens 14 to 7. Eclectic defeated Delta Sigma Phi 10 to 5. Phi Kappa Tau defeated S. A. E. 17 to 10. Lambda Chi Alpha defeated Phi Delta 23 to 8. Olympics defeated Hesperians 20 to 15. Hermians defeated Delta Sigma Phi 13 to 4. Phi Kappa Tau defeated Alpha Gamma Rho 17 to 8. Union Lads defeated Delphians 11 to 5. Phi Kappa Phi defeated Ulysians 12 to 6. Trismoria defeated Ae Theon 13 to 7. Physians defeated Phi Chi Alpha 22 to 6.

Inter-ward league: Ward F defeated C 20 to 18. Ward E defeated B 22 to 15. Ward D defeated A 13 to 11. Inter-class league: Senior Acs defeated Senior Engineers 18 to 16. Junior Acs defeated Junior Engineers 13 to 11. Sophomore Acs defeated Sophomore Engineers 10 to 2. Fresh Engineers defeated Fresh Acs 14 to 6.

SERGEANT FOLEY GIVEN ADVANCEMENT IN RANK

Sgt. John Foley, stationed here since 1920, and a first sergeant since 1929, has been rewarded with a promotion to the highest ranking grade of non-commissioned officer.

He will still be stationed here with the sixth corps area of the R. O. T. C. and will continue with his present line of duties.

PIERRE DE LANUX TALKS THURSDAY NIGHT ON CAMPUS

Internationally Famed Writer and Speaker to Give Address In Hort Building.

M. Pierre de Lanux, internationally famed author, historian and diplomat, will speak Thursday night at 7:30 on the subject "Modern Manners in Foreign Police" in the auditorium of the Horticulture building. The lecture is being presented under the sponsorship of the International Relations club of M. S. C. and is given through the courtesy of the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace.

The discourse should prove as interesting as it is vital. M. de Lanux, who speaks excellent English, has gathered a wealth of material during his varied experiences. A writer of note, he is considered one of the leading authorities on history and diplomacy. He saw active service in the French ambulance corps and also as a correspondent in the Balkan territory.

M. de Lanux is probably best known in this country as a speaker of noted ability, having appeared before distinguished audiences in every part of the world. It will be remembered that he was to have spoken here at an all-college convocation during the latter part of January, but failed to arrive in time to deliver his address. So the announcement of the second engagement of the famous internationalist should meet with wide-spread enthusiasm for it enables everyone to hear the noted speaker, including those who were disappointed last month.

The public is invited to attend the lecture, which promises to be interesting and important. The speaker will be introduced by Prof. Mary Hendricks in the absence of Dean E. H. Ryder, who is in Florida.

ALL-AG BANQUET TO BE TONIGHT

To Include All Branches of Agricultural Division at Union Building.

Dairymen, horticulturists, foresters, farm crop, men, bookkeepers, both student and faculty members, will meet together in the annual All-Ag banquet to be held in the Union building tonight at 6 o'clock.

Since it is one of the few occasions of the year in which men from all the departments can get together, the All-Ag banquet is rapidly becoming the most popular meeting of Ag men. Last year there was an attendance of over 150. This year the mark is expected to be closer to 200.

An unusual program consisting of short talks by President R. S. Shaw, Dean Cox of the agricultural division, Dean Gilmer of the veterinary division, V. R. Gardner, director of the agricultural experiment station, Howard and Father, head of the farm crops department, and E. L. Anthony, head of the dairy department, has been arranged by the program committee. Judge Collinswood of Lansing will give the main speech of the evening. Arthur Knoblauch will act as toastmaster.

One of the most colorful features of the program will be a group of old time tunes and melodies played by the Messrs. Howard in a mandolin-guitar duet.

FACULTY MEMBER TO GIVE ADDRESS AT CONVENTION

Prof. George A. Brown of the animal husbandry department will address the third annual meeting of the Michigan Livestock Loss Prevention association to be held at the Hotel Olds Feb. 21.

The topic on which Professor Brown will talk has been announced as "Preventing Losses That Are Not Counted in Mortality Tables."

There will be a short meeting of the staff members of the Michigan Agriculturalist Wednesday night at 7 o'clock in room 100, Ag hall. Anyone interested in agricultural journalism is urged to attend.

AT THE UNION

Come to the Union for those wonderful, fat, mailed milk. These have been a specialty in the grill for some time and you will find them extra thick with lots of mailed milk.

The Union now has a room for group dinners of 50 people. The porch off the ballroom is completed and affords a wonderful place for literary society dinners and banquets. Make reservations for your group with Miss Simmons at the Union.

Make it a habit to come to your Union. Good food and over size helpings of everything.

At the matinee dances, beginning Wednesday, don't forget those mailed milks in the grill.

IMPATIENCE AT U. OF M.

Student government at the University of Michigan received a setback last week when one of its chief exponents on that campus lost patience with the present powers of the student governing group, denied its efficacy, and eliminated himself from further participation.

It is common thought that student government is a government which has powers over the activities of the student body and which should have the governing of the individuals composing the student body. Because a student council or similar group lacks dictatorial powers, because it must bow to the will of the college administration in the last analysis, there is a tendency to belittle it.

to believe it nothing more than a travesty.

Those intimately connected with student government realize and know that student government has not yet attained that position on the American college campus where a dual dynasty can be set up. Student government as student government is yet very young and therefore has still a long time to go before it can or will reach a position of real independence from other authority.

Since student government is in the formative stage and must grow but gradually at best, there must be patience on the part of those now in close relationship with it. It can progress only by acceptable administration of present responsibilities as they are allowed by the college head.

The function of a student council is fundamentally advisory. Because of its representative make-up, it can be taken as a cross-section of the student body and can be relied on to present the student attitude on campus questions.

In addition to its advisory capacity, it has become administrative in matters concerning student activities.

We are of the opinion that the resigned member of the Michigan student council should have recognized the situation of student government before his final year, if his relationship with it has been as close as reported. And knowing conditions, he should have been willing to aid in the slow process of putting it another degree closer to the ideal.

Instead he has leaped expectantly for the sceptre of absolute student power, found it still far in the distance, and lacking the support of patience and willingness to build, has fallen.

ANTHONY TO CONDUCT DAIRY COURSE AT EATON RAPIDS

Prof. E. I. Anthony of the dairy department is conducting a short course in general dairy production at Eaton Rapids.

The vocational agricultural department of the Eaton Rapids high school is putting on dairy extension meetings. Five weekly meetings will be held during the course.

From all reports, much practical knowledge has been given to the dairy-men, which will likely mean more progressive dairy farming through the suggestions of Mr. Anthony.

FORTY-SEVEN ATTEND THREE SHORT COURSES LAST WEEK

Three short courses held at the college during the past week in the agricultural division were successful from the standpoint of attendance. There was a total enrollment of 47 people in the market gardening, beekeeping and farm superintendency short courses.

The farm superintendency short course was a new experiment in short courses, and was designed to give managers of state and county institutions some of the fundamental principles in relation to soils, animal husbandry, horticulture and poultry.

What Other College Men Have Done With Kresge

Graduating from Western Reserve University in 1921, I began business life with an idea that I was fitted for managerial work. I felt my comfortable desk work and started in the stockroom. Then I worked my way up to the position of assistant manager and manager.

I then received my biggest promotion, and today I am happily located in an executive position, with increased responsibilities.

The financial return that has come to me exceeds all that I had expected.

Colby B. S. '15—Western M. S. '17

A Phi Beta Kappa man became an instructor until 1920, then assistant head chemist for an Eastern manufacturer until 1922 when he entered the Kresge organization to take the training course.

He is now a manager of a Kresge store and claims, "I feel I had myself receiving a great income than the teachers and industrial acquaintances who sought to discourage me for making such a radical change of occupation."

A Mission University graduate enthusiastically relates the following:

"In June of 1923, just after I had been presented with my much treasured sheepskin, a gray haired gentleman with years of experience said to me: 'Just what the future holds for you will depend largely on the steps you take during the next few years. Take my advice and select some good company, begin at the bottom and work your way to the top.'

AFTER the years of college then there comes to many men the most trying period of their careers. What place does the world have for them? For what niche has their training best suited them? Where do they fit?

It is to these seniors who have not yet fully decided on their future that this advertisement is addressed.

The S. S. Kresge Company has an opportunity for college men who are ambitious enough and capable enough to reach the top—yet who are willing to start at the bottom. These men we train to be store managers and to occupy other executive positions—well paid positions involving a share in the Kresge profits. The men selected are given intensive preparation for their future executive positions; they are instructed in every detail of store management and they are advanced as rapidly as they become familiar with the Kresge policy and the Kresge methods of merchandising. The work is not easy but the reward is not small—an executive position in the Kresge organization which operates $10 stores with an annual volume of business close to $150,000,000.

If a career such as those described here appeals to you, write our Personnel Department and a Kresge representative will be sent to give you a personal interview.

What Others Have Done You Can Do

A Bucknell College graduate writes:

After graduating from college with the degree of B. S. and M. A. I accepted a position as Chemistry instructor in a small college. After two years as an instructor I became dissatisfied and decided to enter the business world.

I became acquainted with an enthusiastic Kresge manager, who gladly explained their system of training men to become store managers. Shortly after that I started in the stockroom, received promotions according to my ability to earn them, and today although a successful store manager I am in line for still greater responsibilities.

I know of no other organization where a man's efforts will be better repaid than with the Kresge Company.

An alumnus of the University of Michigan class of 1922 says: "The most important problem confronting me the last semester in school was choosing the job that would begin when campus days were over. To make the right start in the business world was my ambition. I turned down several well paid jobs, the kind that paid fairly well to start but had no future for a six-month job with the Kresge Company which paid little to start but offered a definite future. I considered my education with good common sense and after applying myself diligently, I was rapidly promoted to greater responsibilities."

Today I am manager of a good sized store, and gladly recommend the Kresge Company as a means to a definite end, providing you possess the necessary qualifications and a whole hearted desire to succeed.

Season Social Interests
Sustained by Society Parties

With the J-Hop and the Varsity party already but pleasant memories, the various fraternity and society affairs have come into sudden prominence during the past week-end. During their annual invasion of the campus, the society formal is again keeping the student body active.

Socially speaking the week-end started off on Friday evening when the Chi Omega entertained at a formal dinner dance. Phi Kappa Tau, Theta Chi, Phi Chi Alpha, and the Union party, also held Friday evening parties.

Saturday evening was the date of many attractive parties among which were formal dinners given by the Kappa Delta, Delta Sigma, and the Union Literary society. A very large party given by the Union Literary society at the Hotel Olds was the highlight of the evening. The Western room at Hotel Olds was the scene of the formal dinner dance of the Chi Omega society last Friday evening. Covers were laid for about forty couples, the tables being very effectively decorated with spring flowers in pastel shades and long white tapers. Prof. and Mrs. A. J. Clark and Miss Irene Shabin acted as patrons for the evening while the honor guests included Marian Lord and Jeanette McKibben of Detroit. Bob Crum's Cotton Pickers of Detroit furnished music for the dancing.

Dr. and Mrs. M. M. McCall acted as patrons for the Phi Kappa Tau open house Friday evening. The Playboys played for the dancing from eight until twelve.

Friday evening also witnessed a Union party at which Bruce Fayerweather's orchestra furnished entertainment for many. Beginning at eight-thirty dancing continued until twelve o'clock.

TRACK TEAM LOSES STAR WEIGHT MAN FOR SEASON

Athletic Director Ralph H. Young announces that Ivan G. Tillotson of Potosky, former Central Intercollegiate champion and record holder in the shot put with a heave of 45 feet, is ineligible for further track competition at Michigan State, because he has completed his full three years of sports participation.

The loss of Tillotson means that State must rely on two men in the shot put event, Reuben Dill and Marion Joslyn, neither of whom are as set in the 40-foot class.

It was hoped at the start of the season that Tillotson would be able to participate in winter track.

Michigan State's puck team finished the season with a win Friday afternoon when the Spartans defeated the University of Detroit hockey aggregation 8-0. It was exactly the margin by which the Green and White team won the first tilt with the Titans several weeks ago.

State was superior in every branch of the game against Detroit. The speed exhibited by the Spartans held the Titans at bay throughout the game. Only four tries were made at the State goal, and these were easily stopped by McKinnon, State goalie.

Five of State's eight goals were made by Harper, speedy defense man. Two others were scored by Jones, and the other by Clark. State showed considerable improvement in skating, passing, and stick handling.

Just a line to let you know where some of your tobacco has been going for the last ten years.

I have been smoking Edgeworth for the last ten years, in fact, since I started smoking, and it is just as good now as it was then. Have given other brands a fair trial, but there is none like Edgeworth. During that time I have had costly pipes and some not so costly, but I have decided that it is not the pipe but what is in it that counts.

With best wishes for your continued success in the manufacture of this high grade tobacco, I am,

STATE DROPS FIRST TRACK MEET OF SEASON TO OHIO WESLEYAN

Battling Bishops Gain 65-44 Verdict Over Spartan Athletes
Saturday.

VETERANS STAR

Ohio Wesleyan's well balanced indoor track team champions of the Buckeye state were too much for the Spartans and Michigan State lost its first intercollegiate meet of the season at Delaware, Ohio, Saturday evening, 65-44.

Although State secured but four first places in the meet, this quartet of winners made a fine record. Lauren Brown, famed distance man for the Spartans, gave the outstanding feature of the evening by winning the two-mile event in the fastest time clocked in the mid-west this year. His time of 9:48.5 was 30 seconds faster than the Ohio Wesleyan record and considerably faster than the indoor mark.

Dean Wesleyan, set a terrific pace and led Brown until the last half mile when the Spartan closed the gap and finally jumped into the lead to finish a good 50 yards to the front.

Harold McAtee, veteran State pole vaulter, had little trouble in taking first place in his event. In going over at 12 feet 4 1/4 inches, McAtee broke the Ohio Wesleyan record by several inches. Bill Kroll, midwest quarter miler for the Green and White, outstepped a fast field in winning his event in 1:54.6 and Meredith Clark, State's fourth winner, took the mile event with a brilliant finishing sprint in 4:38.

Among the upsets of the meet were the inability of Roosen to place in the mile event, the failure of Capt. Henson and Lang to score heavily for State, and the defeat of Hackney by a narrow margin in the half-mile.

The high score tie at 73 points existing for a week between Jim Van Zyl, forward, and Art Haga, guard, members of the Spartan basketball five was broken in the University of Detroit game Friday night, when Van Zyl took the lead by showing four shots through the hoop from the field and three from the four line, bringing his total up to 84 points while Haga garnered three baskets from the field to add six points to his former 72.

Although State has lost four games this season out of 13, it has amassed 415 points to its opponents 284 for an average of 31.9 to 21.1 per game which shows something of the Spartans' strong defensive game. This effective defense was especially noted Friday night. With such a record they await the powerful Notre Dame quintet which will give Coach Van Alstyne's new combination a real test.
