STUDENT COUNCIL SUPERVISES ORGANIZATION OF FROSH CLASS IN MEETING HELD THURSDAY

Plings Nominate Class Officers; Eliminations and Elections Set for 7:30 P. M. Thursday, November 7 at Chemistry Lecture Room.

Organization of the freshman class was definitely begun Thursday afternoon in Olds Hall by members of the Student Council in second yearling meeting of the fall term. Under the supervision of Charles Ladd, junior president, and Harold Hannah, president of the council, four candidates for each of the offices were nominated by their classmates to head the largest freshman unit in the history of Michigan State college.

With both the eliminations and finals set for Thursday, Nov. 7 at 7:30 o'clock in the Chemistry lecture room, high-pressure political jockeying is being conducted by friends of the candidates. A new system of placing the eliminations and finals in the same room has been tried out in this year's election and officials explained that the new system is expected to eliminate an unnecessary amount of ballot-counting and late-in frosh elections.

Last year men who were nominated the class president are: William Hall, Danville, Ill.; Carleton Spence, South Haven, Ed. Miller, Saginaw, James Mitchell, Detroit.

Four co-eds are listed for choice for vice-presidency: Marion Hendricks, Lansing; Shirley Merrill, Wayne; Trude Ottwell, Lansing; and Helen Rutherford, Plymouth.

For the office of treasurer were nominated: Harry Lawford, Saginaw; Deane Lamberton, Williamburg; Dick Elder, Niles; and Grant Thayer, East Lansing.

Co-eds are slated for class convention for secretary: Hannah Lee, Evanston, Ill.; Phyllis Bowman, Leslie, Butler, Mt. Clemens; Evelyn Cookerly, Detroit; Joan Kling, Lansing; and Elizabeth Fox, Pleasant Ridge.

For the office of treasurer were nominated: Harry Lawford, Saginaw; Deane Lamberton, Williamburg; Dick Elder, Niles; and Grant Thayer, East Lansing.

FRESHMAN DAYS ARE NUMBERED AS DEANS ISSUE REPORT CALLS

There is Still Hope Since Others Have Suffered and Graduated.

Your day of reckoning has come—Dean Davis is out!

Those freshmen spent with her countless hours of studying, many pleasures of the past for those you shall pay. If you guessed wrong on your bluebook or possibly if your bluff failed its purpose, surely you have cause for apprehension.

Regardless of the magnitude of your crime, be brave, there is hope to follow. Remember it is merely for your own good, to aid you, that these privileges of learning are granted. With your Dean are granted. Even sophomores and seniors are not immune to compliment yourself as belonging to one of the largest orders on the campus.

Be of good cheer, other great men before you have suffered reproach and criticism under conditions almost as unjust as yours and have lived to graduate.

MONKEY SUITS TABOO -- DAVIS

Commandant Rules All Classes Must Wear Uniform Once a Month in Winter.

Military students will no longer be required to wear monkey suits in late fall and winter term military classes, it was learned yesterday when an order appeared from Colonel Edward Davis, commandant to that effect. The order is to go into effect Tuesday.

In past years there has been much complaining on the part of underclassmen who were required to wear the old style, high collar uniform three days each week when most of the work of the day was in the classroom and no real need for the wearing of the uniform could be seen.

All students basic and advanced will be required to wear their uniforms the first Monday of each month, according to Colonel Davis, but aside from this it will be to the discretion of the instructor whether the uniform is to be worn or not.

Many hours during the winter are spent by the freshmen on the rifle range and a uniform will be necessary in this situation.

It is believed by members of the officers club that this action will have a great tendency to strengthen the morale in the regiment and help to make required military service more popular with the underclassmen.

STATE HARRIERS MEET MICHIGAN

Annual Five-Mile Run to End Between Halves of Case Game.

Michigan State's last stepping stone country aggregation will meet its second and intermediate foe of the season on the home course Saturday afternoon when the University of Michigan harriers will come to East Lansing to meet the Spartans in the traditional race.

The five mile run will end between halves of the Case-Michigan State football game at the Spartan stadium.

Although the Spartans under the coaching of Mort Mason have won from the Wolverines for the last two falls, the Green and White squad have put in a busy week in preparation for the invaders. Mort Mason's men haven't been beaten since the fall of 1926 and are anxious to keep up their record.

Contrary to the usual custom, ten men will start for each team with the first five finishing counting. Austin is the Wolverine star while Michigan State has Lauren Brown, Clark Chamberlain, and Capt. Wilmarth to rely upon. Other men expected to start for the Green and White are: Roosen, O'Connor, Reid, Steimle, Rablensch, Dowd, and Fullerton.

CO-EDS SHOW INTEREST IN ORATORICAL CONTEST

Considerable interest is being shown among the co-eds in the oratorical contest which is to be held at Michigan State college some time in February.

Those who have all ready signified their intentions of taking part in the contest are: Jean Caroline Anderson, St. Johns, Muriel Coe, Detroit; Adelaide Hamilton, Gaylord; Thelma Cole, Hillsdale; and Bernadine Young, Elsie.

Any other co-eds who are interested in taking part in this contest should confer with P. C. Koonan, co-ed debate coach, before the tryout which will be held December 3.

The last two memorial coins issued by the United States government were the Sequoia half-dollar and the Hawaiian half-dollar.

STATE THEATRE TO CELEBRATE

East Lansing Movie Observes Second Anniversary With Special Program.

INSTALL NEW EQUIPMENT

Western Electric Sound Mechanism Promises Improved Audition.

On Sunday, Nov. 3, the state theatre celebrates the second anniversary of its opening in East Lansing. On this occasion, new sound equipment, the Western Electric celebrated product, a theatre in East Lansing and for and against Sunday openings. From the best in sound reproduction.

The state spent two years ago after a period of negotiation for and against will be put in operation, enabling the state to present to its patrons the very best of what is successful, playing to good results and during the next few months to many fine productions were presented here in advance of their Lansing showings, considerable numbers of Lansing patrons were in evidence.

Sound pictures were produced at the state some months ago, the theatre being second only to the Glenside in installing the equipment in this territory. The equipment, however, did not give entire satisfaction and now in celebration of the completion of two years in the community, the management has spent upwards of $10,000 in installing the very best talking picture equipment on the market, the same that is used in the largest houses in the country.

DAVENPORT SETS FORTH PROGRAM

Campus Improvement Program Includes New Ventilation of Gymnasium.

Beginning of construction on a new set of agricultural buildings (completing of present campus structures) has been announced by the Davenport campus improvement program.

The primary importance to the campus improvement program is the new building facilities in the gymnasium building, the new building is in this direction, a complete new system is expected to be installed before the Spartans start their season.

Overhauling of the gymnasium and antiquated ventilation systems are given as the reason for the proposed change.

The contracting firm of Powell and Daniels, who have recently finished construction of the new wooden poultry house on Harrison road, have been given the contract to erect a storage barn and experimental feeding area for the animal husbandry department.

The barn is to be a 24x48 story structure, while the feeding area will be 20x30 with ten pens. It will be erected on the college property and will be used in experimental work.

The project outlined for the contractors, totalling a value of $6000, includes a new improvement shed to be built on farm No. 2.

College architects have completed drawings and work will be commenced immediately on special experimental pens to be used by professor Hunt in his study of the behavior of dogs. The pens will be erected between the old colony and the new south of West hall.

The college blacksmith shop having been moved to new quarters south of the horse barns, the farm mechanics department has been able to move its tractors and equipment to the old site. With these two divisions out of the way, a contract has been let to the construction of an extension to the machine shop, which will be on the site of the present insight tractor sheds.

Since the Consumers Power Co. of Lansing has extended power lines near the college farms, the building and grounds officials have been able to start wiring the houses for electric lights.

Publications office in the basement of Az Hall has recently been remodelled to provide room for Prof. A. H. Nelson's office, thus uniting the journalism heads.

Interior and exterior decorating is being carried on in the economics building adjacent to the Union. Two offices have been built in the rear for the convenience of the department.

MICHIGAN CITY GRIDDERS TO VISIT MICHIGAN STATE

Indiana High School Squad Will be Guests of Athletic Association At Case Game Saturday.

The Michigan City Ind. high school football squad will be guests of the Michigan State athletic association at the Case-Michigan State football game tomorrow.

Led by Capt. Crawford, the Michigan City squad of 20 men will arrive tomorrow and will be the guests of various fraternity houses until Sunday. The squad will be on the campus until Sunday, when they will be on the program for the visitors.

ALUMNI MEETS ARE SUCCESSFUL

Large Crowds Attend Divisional State Gatherings, According to Glen Stewart.

Glen O. Stewart, secretary of the alumni association, has returned to East Lansing after following a series of seven meetings of the Michigan State Teachers' Association. Alumni meetings were held in conjunction with all of these meetings.

Meetings were held at the following places: Escanaba, Jackson, Flint, Traverse City, Grand Rapids, Ann Arbor and Kalamazoo.

Under a new and better system the state has been divided into five districts. Alumni meetings are held along with the teachers' meetings in each of the districts. The two in which no alumni meeting is held are Detroit and Cheboygan, there being an established alumni club in Detroit and no few graduates of Michigan State live in the Cheboygan district that to hold a meeting there would be impractical.

Mr. Stewart stated that the significant part of the meetings was the increased interest shown. The attendance has increased from ten to 50 per cent. The Flint meeting broke all records with its graduates present.

President Shaw and the administrative officers of the college have cooperated with the alumni and helped to make the meetings successful by making members of the college staff to speak. Among those who have spoken are: Coach James H. Crowley, Dean Marie Day of the home economics department, Dean J. P. Cox of the agricultural department, Prof. A. J. Clark of the chemistry department, and Dr. E. L. Austin of the education department.

The speakers tell the graduates of the college of the college of new buildings, improvements and of athletes. They literally take the campus to the graduates.

NEW AIRPORT SEEN HERE

Site Near State Police Barracks Said to be Ideal for Purpose.

It is believed that East Lansing may be selected as the site for a state airport, according to reports this week.

Representative W. Green discussed aviation matters with William H. Mayo, chief engineer of the Ford Motor company, chairman of the state fair board. A site owned by the college and adjoining the state police barracks is being considered.

Improvement of the college land for use as an airport or landing field was first suggested by George G. Chandler, commissioner of public safety who visited out at the property could be improved at little cost. Plans have already been made there. Commissioner Chandler said.

Plans drawn several weeks ago by an employee of the state highway department calling for construction of three concrete runways at the so-called Lansing airport have been abandoned. It was estimated that the cost of such a project would have been more than $100,000. Governor Green declared Wednesday that the state never would spend that amount of money for such a purpose while he acted as chief executive.

PAN HELLENIC GROUP CONVENES FOR 1ST TIME

To Award Prize to Best Decorated Society House On Campus.

Pan Hellenic association, which consists of a senior and a junior member of each sorority, held its first meeting this term Tuesday. It was decided that next year the society would present a loving cup to the best decorated sorority house during Homecoming week.

It was also voted that the Pan Hellenic dinner, at which time the Pan Hellenic scholarship cup will be awarded, will be held Wednesday, Nov. 20.

MICHIGAN STATE GRIDDERS FINISH PREPARATIONS FOR SATURDAY CLASH WITH CASE

Coach James H. "Sleepy" Crowley Sends Fighting Spartans Through Light Drill Today to Close Week's Workouts.

Coach James H. "Sleepy" Crowley's scrapping Spartans will play host to the Case Tech gridders tomorrow afternoon in the fourth home game of the season, in which they will endeavor to keep up their record of winning all home games. Tomorrow's game does not seem as a particularly hard clash, as Case comes here with a rather poor record. Nevertheless, Coach Crowley has not let up on his intensive drilling, fearing another upset similar to the Albion game last year if they let the game slip. The Spartans will be easy picking.

In case the game should be played on a fog day, State's gridders should be on their toes, as the only prior advantage of the week was played in a sea of mud last night. The gridders from Case opposing the Spartans and second Albion team. If the game is played on a fog day, the Spartans are going better than they were in the former battle. The Spartans have been able to pound through the defenses for a single tally.

Crowley has finished his fundamental and aerial drills for the week and the Spartans will close in saving individual efforts in the preparation on character work and defensive work. Drills will be held on the field and the Spartans will be ready to play on Saturday.

Coach Crowley has finished his week's work of plans and will be expected that they will be completed tomorrow night. The Spartans will leave for Albion on Saturday.

Michigan State gridders may not receive a homecoming gridders when they play Case tomorrow. Instead of the customary green and white, the gridders will wear blue and white.

Despite the fact that the Spartans have been able to play on the field, the Spartans will be ready to play on Saturday. The Spartans will be ready to play on Saturday.

The two characters filling the roles of the North Carolina colonials are Bernard Critchenden and Warren Shock. Both of them, taking their difficult parts with great aptitude.

Playing the part of a widow and a lover of one of the colonials, Dorothy Trish has played her part as a fine actress.

Both Abner and Garfield Thatcher, juvenile leads, are playing up exceptionally well in their roles.

Assuming the part of a former college football star, a half gentleman of exuberant, lively, humorous. Al O'Brien is doing a fine piece of work and is one of the stars of the show.

With the carrying on of daily rehearsals and the work of the players bearing perfection the play promises to be one of the best ever attempted here.

BIG ROAD EXHIBIT SHOWN IN ARMORY

Road Commissioners Display Largest Collection of Equipment in Mid-West.

The Michigan Association of Road Commissioners and engineers in cooperation with Michigan State college, exhibiting the largest display of highway building machinery ever shown in the middle west during the past week.

Approximately 3,000 persons visited the show daily. Road builders and contractors came from all parts of the state to attend the road show. The exhibition is considered to be the largest one in the country excepting the national show.

Exhibits were so numerous that there was not room enough within the armory to house them. Much of the equipment had to be shown outdoors. H. J. McKinley, general manager of the show, stated that he had been forced to turn down over 20 applicants for exhibition space.

Gov. Fred W. Green was an honored guest at the exhibition. Wednesday when he inspected the show. In the evening Hon. Frank Rogers, former state highway commissioner, was a guest of honor at a banquet at the Olds Hotel. The Michigan State College Musical Institute orchestra entertained during the evening with its music.

OPH FALL PARTY TOMORROW NITE

Joseph Morrison's Band of Grand Rapids Features First Large Party of Term.

Eliminating a week of intensive preparation for the sophomore fall party to be held tomorrow night, the Union hallroom committees announce that nearly everything is in readiness for the annual event which is fair to be one of the outstanding affairs of this term.

One of the most successful eight piece orchestras in the state that of Ralph Morrison of Grand Rapids, has been engaged to play. The band is well known in Detroit and Ann Arbor, having played for numerous dances and parties, and holds an enviable reputation among the best organizations in this state.

Tickets went on sale last Monday and have been selling fast during the week. Representatives were appointed to take charge of the distribution for his society. Tickets are selling at the Union desk and will be sold at the door tomorrow night. The admission is two dollars per couple.

The ballroom will be decorated in a unique fashion, featuring a very clever theme which will be carried through out the scheme. Novel programs, which also embody the color theme, will be provided.

Patrons for the affair are: Mage and Mrs. C. Thomas-Stahle and Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Primod. Guests for the evening include Pres. and Mrs. Robert Shaw and Dean Elizabeth Connor.

The party is in the hands of the arrangements committee, headed by George Merkel, general chairman. The sub-committee heads are: Josephine Dean, decorations; Earle Curtis, tickets; Melville Pflug, music; Frank Conover, floor.

That the party will be a success is assured by the fact that it occurs on the night of a home game and cross-country run, and because the campus is not over-crowded socially this week. With the exception of the Union party, the sophomore fall term is the only open party on the campus during the week.

COMPLETE PLANS FOR ALUMNI DANCE

Arrangements for an all-college alumni party to be held in the Union hall on Nov. 7 are rapidly being formulated. Alumni from all colleges in the country are expected to be present. Tickets are placed on sale this week and committees started work on preliminary plans.

The committees in charge of the affair are as follows: General chairman, Edward H. Stier, U. of M.; ticket sale, James Ramsey, U. of M.; posters, Chas. W. Smith, O. S. U.; music, Ruth Bedford, U. of Chicago; dancing novelties, Mrs. Marion McPherson Fead, U. of Florida; admission, O. Dewey MacDonald, U. of Colorado; registration, Dorothy McPherson, U. of M.; name cards, William Noyes, Purdue.

There will be an admission fee of 75 cents per person. A more complete announcement of the plans for the evening will be announced later.

BRIDGE TO BE BUILT HERE

Jorn Road Is Site for New Structure Over Red Cedar River.

COVERS LARGE SECTION

Tracts are about to be let by the highway department for a new bridge to cross the Red Cedar river at Jorn road. It is expected that contractor's equipment will be at the site immediately the contract is let, and construction work will be in progress throughout the winter, so the new bridge may be well along completion before the appearance of water in the spring.

A Melick of the highway department stated Thursday. A new structure at this point was absolutely necessary. The old bridge was unsafe, and out of line. Hagadorn is an important thoroughfare and is increasingly so. We plan to erect a bridge of structural steel, a 39 foot roadway. Construction is such that this roadway can be used when necessary to 42 feet out remodeling of the rest of the bridge.

This section of East Lansing is to be developed with the school and other heavy traffic. The highway department wishes to take care of present needs and be prepared for future expansion of the district.

Recently the county expended considerable money in repairs to the bridge, but these were merely of a temporary nature.

OF D. GAME TICKET PREFERENCE DATE SET

Modig Announces That Nov. 6 Is Last Day for Seat Preference.

Preference date for tickets for the University of Detroit-Michigan State football game has been set for Wednesday, Nov. 6, at 3 p. m. Nov. 6, according to an announcement made yesterday by William L. Primodie, ticket manager. Students are urged to turn in their applications as soon as possible because a large crowd is expected for the annual clash between the two Michigan schools. Primodie also announced that if any student tickets were included in a student house block, it would cause the entire application. After Wednesday, Nov. 6, tickets may be secured at the athletic office.

SCABARD-BLADE HOLD FALL PARTY

Eleven Men to Take Formal Pledging at Society's First Dance.

The first fall term party ever given by the Scabard and Blade, honorary military fraternity, is being held tonight in the Masonic temple. Aside from the party which is formal in nature, eleven men will be given formal pledging in the customary military manner during the evening.

The prospective pledges are Harold Hannah, Theodore Zetzel and Paul Smith, infantry; Henry Morris, Kenneth Thompson, Amos J. Hawkins, artillery; Arthur Knudson, Herbert Moore, Allan Wright, Kenneth Vaughan, and Chas. Kershaw, cavalry. At the same time, Colonel Edward Davis, Capt. Blanton and Capt. Crabell will be taken in as honorary members.

SENIOR E. ENGINEERS PLAN FOR JACKSON MEET

Meeting of A. I. E. E. to Take Place Nov. 12.

Many of the Michigan State senior electrical engineers are planning to attend a meeting of the Detroit-Ann Arbor division of the American Institute of Electrical Engineers which will be held at the Hotel Mayan, Jackson, on Nov. 12.

During the afternoon the students will make an inspection tour which will take them through the power plants of the Riverstone street sub-station, the Roberts street sub-station and the Sparks-Williamson Co.

Following a banquet at the Hotel Mayan, L. W. W. Morris, editor of the Electrical World, will give a talk on "Power Planning."

Forestry Department Busy On Experimental Problems

At the present time, the forestry department is carrying out some interesting experiments. Among these are a number of exotic varieties such as the gray bark, Scotch elm, Russian mulberry, Russian Olive, ginkgo, and

CO-ED DEBATE BUSY PREPARING FOR TRIPS

Michigan State Team Has Hard Schedule Booked for Coming Season.

The Michigan State co-ed debating squad is working hard in preparing for the trip to the Phi Kappa Delta convention at Wichita, Kan., to be held in the spring.

While on the trip, teams made up from the squad will meet the University of Cincinnati, March 27, Washington University, St. Louis, Mo., March 28, Lindenwood college, St. Charles, Mo., March 29, and on March 31, they will debate at the national convention at Wichita. This is the first time that relationships have been established with Washington University, an institution of very high standing in the west.

TELEPHONE SERVICE MAY BE DISRUPTED

Removal of College Exchange to New Location Begins Tomorrow.

Beginning tomorrow, college work will be busy moving and installing the new college exchange in the new library. For many years it has been located in the old library but the need for room in the building and the desire to enlarge and improve the system necessitates its removal.

According to H. H. Halladay, secretary of the college service may be a bit irregular Saturday and Sunday due to the shifting of the apparatus but the work should be completed by Monday, making possible a better and more complete telephone service on the campus.

BEGIN WORK FOR FLOWER SHOW HERE

Annual Autumn Flower Show to be Held in Armory Nov. 16 and 17.

The first indications of the Autumn Flower Show, sponsored by the Michigan State Florist association to be held in the new armory of the Michigan State college Nov. 15, 16, and 17, appeared Saturday morning when several large loads of bright colored autumn foliage was stored to be used as decorations for the coming event.

The leaves were gathered by the students of the horticulture department and a representative from the Smith Floral company, the Pacific Floral company, and the Van Pelt Greenhouses. Twenty-five boxes of southern wild smilax and fifty large evergreens will constitute the remainder of the decorations outside of the natural beauty of the 10,000 blooms of chrysanthemums, roses, sweet peas, carnations, snapdragons, cyclamen, that will complete the display.

The show promises to be one of the most colorful and attractive ever staged in the state, due to the endeavor to convert the riding hall into a replica of nature.

COLLEGE WILL BURN 14,000 TONS OF COAL

Michigan State college officials expect to burn at least 14,000 tons of coal this winter. It was learned from the building and grounds department, who are supervising the dumping of this winter's supply. From six to eight cars are being brought in daily, almost overloading the power house facilities for handling the briquet.

Under a new system all coal will be dumped this fall in cement bins constructed this summer, eliminating dirt fuel that in the past has caused fire.

The Value of Looking Prosperous

It pays to look well. A man owes it to his self, respect to wear good clothes. Footwear plays an important part in the appearance of the well dressed man.

SHE'S FUNNY THAT WAY!

L.H. Morse has a tricky way of stepping right off the face of a record and being perfectly charming to you—it's something more than singing. You'll find all the familiar Morse magnetism charging both the long hits on her new Columbia record. One is a lively number in dance tempo—the other a crooning intimate ballad crammed with lots of "come-along."

Before your dealer wraps this one up for you, have him play these steppers, too—

Record No. 1972-D, 10-inch, 75c	Love Me Sweetheart's Holiday —Tosca . . . Lee Morse and Her Blue Girls Quartet
Record No. 1970-D, 10-inch, 75c	Bridge and Better Than Ever from "George White's Scandals" —Tosca . . . Lee Morse and Her Blue Girls Quartet

You ARE INVITED TO CELEBRATE

OUR SECOND

Anniversary Week!

Starting Next Sunday and Continuing the Entire Week!

FAR MORE IMPORTANT

than the picture, will be the opening of our new Talking Equipment.

We Have Torn Out the Old Talking Equipment and have installed the same equipment used in all the DeLuxe Theatres. You will now be able to HEAR every spoken word in natural undistorted tones!

Western SOUND Electric SYSTEM

PRESENTING FOR THIS GALA EVENT

SUNDAY, MONDAY AND TUESDAY

All Talking, Singing, Dancing!
NANCY CARROLL -- HELEN KANE
JACK OAKIE

"SWEETIE"

A jazz-riotous musical comedy smash! Campus capers garnished with collegiate dancing and ten new song sensations. Girls galore—laughs by the score—a bracer for the eye and ear.

WEDNESDAY AND THURSDAY

Will Rogers

First Talking Picture

'They Had to See Paris'

The celebrated humorist in his first speaking screen debut as an Oklahoma millionaire who tries to mix crude oil with French cognac.

FRIDAY AND SATURDAY

100 Talking!

GARY COOPER -- MARY BRIAN
RICHARD ARLEN

'The Virginian'

Here's a theme mighty as 'The Covered Wagon.' And now you HEAR as well as see the inspiring spectacle of the pioneer West. Great outdoor scenes greater with sound. The wonderfully human romance everybody knows and loves.

"KEEP YOUR EYE ON THE STATE." IF IT'S A NEW PICTURE, IT'S AT THE "STATE."
