WELLS HALL EATING CLUB PHIL GAMBIA PHII SOCIETY SEES RISE DURING TERM ENTERTAINED BY FACULTY

Club A, popular men's eating club, is closing a very successful term next Wednesday after a great increase in popularity under the stewardship of Loren Baur, Unionville. Baur took over the steward's reins after a steadily waning membership last year and in three terms has re-established the club in its former position as one of the best organizations of its kind on the campus. At present nearly two hundred men are members of the club, which is managed and operated by students in cooperation with the college authorities. On Thursday night Russell Breinme, Treverton, Pa., was elected steward by the senior employees of the club to succeed Baur who is a member of this year's graduating class. An assistant steward, Dennis McGuire, Alma, was also elected at that time. Both Breinme and McGuire have had considerable experience in club management. Members of Phi Gamma Phi, honorary German society, were entertained by Dr. and Mrs. Patton at their home, 424 Rosewood avenue, on Monday evening, March 17. After the singing of German songs, Miss Katherine Schuler gave her initiation talk as a new member. She spoke on Goethe's 'Herminia' and Dorothea. Gustav Daemlich of Grand Rapids was the guest speaker of the evening. His topic was 'Jugendberegung und Sport in Deutschland.' Mr. Daemlich has been in this country only two weeks and was therefore able to give a very good first hand impression of life in Germany. His address given entirely in German was a fine experience for the members of the society.

THE OLD ORDER CHANGETH

Our job is over and we are not sorry. We would not have missed it by any means, but our allotted time has run and we are ready to retire. Indeed, it may be time that men with new ideas come into office. We who have been in office have endeavored to put the news before the campus and to make the paper a financial success, and in turning over our duties to those who will take our places we remind them of the responsibilities and obligations which will rest upon them. They will find not a position of glory, but a position of indebtedness to those who put them in office, of responsibility to duty, and of service to their college. In the case of yesterday's election, they must consider also that other men, not so fortunate indeed, but who served well and who lost a good race. He had his followers, he had his ambitions and ideals, even as they. His defeat is no disgrace, it is a victory for him that he had the courage to run and to lose. And it is for them to hold their work to such a high degree that he may find there, in part, the realization of his ideas. To those men, those who won and he who lost, we retiring from office are indebted. Through their loyal help our work was made successful, and we extend to them our thanks and to the student body for their support. May they continue from where we left off, ever with a high purpose and with great success.

TOOLS IN OUR HANDS

With June and the end of college only three months away, we hear talk among the seniors of prospective jobs. Many are wondering just what they are going to do, and those in the liberal arts school especially are confronted with this problem. All over the country a new crop of college graduates will be launched into the business world, and we are apt to hear talk once more that college graduates are a glut on the market and the type with the average liberal arts education is that it does not fit a man for a business career. If that is true, it is because the college graduate expects his education to work for him rather than he should work with his education. What the college graduate can expect to get out of his college education depends upon his ability to use that education. The liberal arts education is tested and is capable of turning out accurate and intelligent work in the hands of a good operator, but you can no more expect 100 per cent results from education in the hands of a poor operator than you can from a Steinway piano when played by a man of little ability. Education is a tool in the hands of the college graduate, and the results which he can obtain are dependent upon his own skill in using it and upon his own character. Education will not work by itself, it demands a careful, patient, and determined operator.

CAMPUS FORUM

East Lansing March 17, 1930

Open Forum State News
The class of '31 is seeking 200 of its members to sign a petition which is to make possible an assessment of $1.25 per member. It seems that 425 out of a class of 575 are being fined for not consuming their share of the J-Hop tickets.
Why does the J-Hop have to be such a "high-brow" affair? Of course, a thousand dollars and more is not so much to pay for good music, but when eight hundred more or less is just paying for an orchestra's reputation, then it seems rather foolish. The decorations must be talked about or the party is not a success. Favors are nice. But when there is doubt about the debate on left-overs, as there must be in the future, modification seems wise. And if favors are to serve their purpose, better ones that will not burn are best. It is granted that our J-Hop tickets did not cost as much as in previous years. And our blanket tax is less than that of either the class of '25 or '27. Perhaps we have improved? Perhaps the class of '32 can improve much more in making the J-Hop a reasonable party. One that the class can wholly support.

DEBATERS WIN LAST HOME TILT

Defeat Western Reserves of Cleveland Before Big Audience at Owosso.

The M. S. C. men debaters won their last home debate of a long and strenuous season last night when they defeated a picked traveling team from Western Reserve university of Cleveland. The debate was held before a large and enthusiastic audience in the new high school at Owosso.

The student body has every reason to feel gratified with the results of the season. The team won six and lost four and won two by critic judge decisions. The remaining five debates were non-decision affairs.

During the season the Green and White orators defeated Detroit City college twice, Purdue, Western State, Ypsilanti Normal, Albion, and the Detroit College of Law. They dropped two tilts to the strong Notre Dame university one to Albion, and one to Detroit City college. Non-decision engagements were held with Detroit College of Law, Oberlin, Iowa State Teachers, Western State, and Bowling Green.

PANHELLENIC COUNCIL TO CHANGE RUSHING RULES

The Panhellenic Congress has announced a change in "rushing" regulations on Michigan State campus. This new ruling which provides for nine "rushing" dates instead of eight as in previous years will go into effect next fall. The extra will be the Sunday afternoon before general registration week.

At this time all the freshman girls will be invited to visit as many of the sorority houses as they wish. In this way the sororities will meet more co-eds than they possibly could just through personal acquaintances and recommendations, and a much good material that might otherwise be overlooked will be found. On the other hand, the girls will have a chance to get a more general idea of the comparative types of sororities than they would by attending four or five houses on one day.

Women's Squad to "Go on the Air" from WLW Next Friday; is Unusual Procedure.

Michigan State's co-ed debating team will "go on the air" a week from tonight, March 22, when their engagement at the University of Cincinnati will be broadcast over station WLW. This debate is being sponsored by the radio station.

An ambitious schedule has been arranged with a debate tonight at the Little Theater, when the University of Cincinnati sends a team here, and ending with a trip to the Phi Kappa Delta convention at Wichita, Kansas, during spring vacation.

Two co-eds, Miss Patterson and Miss Pasch, will make the trip, prepared to take either the affirmative or negative side of the disarmament question.

BASEBALL MEN WAGE BATTLES FOR PRIVILEGE OF SOUTHERN TRIP DURING SPRING RECESS

Coach Kobs Undecided as to Which 16 Players Will be Chosen for Jaunt Into Dixie Starting March 29; Spartan Nine to Travel 1,800 Miles, Play Seven Games.

COMPETITION for positions on the varsity team is so keen that Coach John Kobs is very much undecided as to what men will make the early southern training trip during spring vacation. The Spartan nine will play seven games on the 1,800-mile trip to be made by motorbus and either 16 or 17 players will make the trip. The party will leave Saturday, March 29.

Five pitchers, three outfielders, six infielders and two catchers will comprise the party to make the southern jaunt. Merry battles are being waged for every position, which is very gratifying to the Spartan diamond mentor despite the fact that he is spending much of his time attempting to decide who will make the trip. He realizes that much better playing will result from the keen competition for jobs as first string players.

"Jumbo" Kahl, Johnny Landon, Charlie Griffin, Pete Brose, Olson, Bullock and Behling are holding the upper hand in the race for positions on the State pitching staff. Landon has been showing fair form in early drills and Griffin, a sophomore, continues to show much promise. Kahl and Brose, the latter a sophomore, will get plenty of chance to play. If early season performance is any indication, Crall is in harness.

"Jabber" Barnard, Jim Hayden and Keith Byrne are the most promising prospects for the catcher's job, with the first two mentioned holding a little edge. Any of these three candidates are capable of working behind the plate in a credible manner. Max Crall and Breitenwischer are battling for the job at first base, with the former holding the advantage of greater experience.

There is a heated contest for every position in the infield. Clum, Cuthbertson and Freddy Danziger are fighting for the second base position. Johnny Madonna and Macealey are both putting forth their best efforts in an attempt to gain their coach's favor for the short stop job and Vincent Pevic and "Ki" Knisel appear about even in their race for the third base position.

Veterans in Gardens
A veteran outfield will be available, but newcomers are forcing the letter-men to work hard. Captain Al Sachs, "Pop" Warner and Ernie Gibbs will be ready for service, with Gross, Van Patten and Chamberlain all ready to replace any of the veterans who may falter. Gibbs is also a prospective relief hurler.

The Spartans will open their southern season against Maryville college in Ohio Monday, March 31, and will play the same diamond team the following day. A long jump is ahead of the State baseball squad the night after the second game when they travel to Nashville, Tenn., to play a two-game series with Vanderbilt university Wednesday and Thursday. Friday will be devoted to travelling when the Spartan journey back to Ohio to meet St. Xavier at Cincinnati Saturday and will be idle Sunday. Monday they meet the University of Cincinnati nine and Tuesday Coach Kobs men will wind up their early season against Miami university at Oxford, O.

STATE THINCLADS TO MEET CHICAGO

Coach Young's Men to Tackle Chicago University for First Time.

Michigan State's track team will close its indoor season on this week end with a meet at Chicago with Chicago university. This is the first of two meets to be held between the two schools, the return engagement being scheduled to take place here in 1931.

Chicago has a strong well-balanced team this year with a few stars of exceptional calibre. Among them is East, a sprinter, who defeated Tolson, co-holder of the world record in the hundred yard dash, in a dual meet with Michigan recently. Another is Lett, a miler, who won the event at the Illinois Relays last Saturday.

depended upon in the two mile, with Steimle running with him. Fullerton will run the mile. Swanson the half mile and Salmon the quarter. In the 50 yard dash, Russell and Voelker will represent the Green and White.

Russell, Yarger, and Russow will be State's entries in the hurdles and are conceded an excellent chance to place Cole, Bayless, and Russell will high jump. Dill will throw the shot, and the pole vault will be ably represented by Olson and Field, and Roger Grove, since Chicago is notoriously weak in this event, and there is a chance for a slam for the Spartans.

But one relay will be run, the distance being eight laps of Chicago's 147 yard lap track. The men running for State will be Russow, Voelker, Salmon and Russell.

Nelson C. Vosnel, Ph. Ed., 29, has accepted a position in the Muskegon high school. Mr. Vosnel finished the requirements for the B. S. degree at the close of the fall term but re-registered in winter term for graduate study. He takes up his new work Mar. 24th.
