THE STATE NOT BE FRIDAY

LARGEST ANNUAL HORSE SHOW TO OPEN FRIDAY WITH AN ENTRY LIST OF MANY BLOODED MOUNTS

Show This Year to Offer Miniature Steeple-Chase As Novel Feature Event; Cavalry Cadets to Take Active Part; R. O. T. C. Students Admitted Free.

ALL STUDENTS taking military science at Michigan State will be admitted free of charge to the annual horse show to be held May 30 and 31, according to Colonel Edward Davis, commandant of the R. O. T. C. unit. The only requirement is that the full regulation uniform be worn. Each student may bring one co-ed guest.

Nearly everything is in readiness for the show, the committee having been especially active during the past week. Military classes have been setting up bleachers and boxes. Many improvements have been made this year, notably the addition of another gate to the ring. During the past years one entrance has been used for horses, owners and spectators. The new gate will be for the exclusive use of the animals and their owners.

The show will consist of four sessions, Friday forenoon and afternoon, and Saturday forenoon and afternoon. There are several events for R. O. T. C. students. One of the horseman-ship class will open the show on Friday morning. A special feature of the year will be a mounted equestrian which will be given in the afternoon program. Friday. The musical chairs, which is also a student event is to be held at this time.

An innovation of this year's show will be a miniature steeple-chase. The event will be run over an outdoor course which will include practically every obstacle included in a regulation steeple-chase. The horses and their riders will be in full view of the grandstand at all times.

Prof. E. A. Trowbridge of Columbia Mo. will judge saddle horses and hunters and George D. Elliott of Toronto, Ont. will judge hunters and jumpers.

One of the highlights of the show will be a dinner-dance at Hotel Olds Friday night. Many prominent social relations who are attracted to East Lansing each year for the annual equine event will be present.

The committee in charge of the show consists of Charles N. Halsted, Lansing chairman, Colonel Edward Davis, manager, Capt. E. B. Grabill, clerk.

ULYSSIAN JOINS THETA KAPPA NU

Local Society Installed Saturday as Beta Chapter of National Fraternity.

Ninety-three men attended an elaborate formal banquet commemorating the installation of the Ulyssian society into the national fraternity Theta Kappa Nu at the banquet hall of the Peoples church at 6:30 p. m. Saturday. Representatives of the Grand Council visiting members from other chapters and local guests, representatives from each of the campus fraternities and alumni, arrived and pledges of the society were present to make the event a most impressive one.

Preliminary installation arrangements were carried out during the afternoon but the main ceremony followed the banquet in the evening. Invocation preceding the dinner was given by Dr. N. A. McCune, and music during the four-course meal was furnished by the Playboys.

Benjamin Batchelor, acted in the capacity of toastmaster in the program that followed. Short talks were given by L. A. Wilson of New Jersey, Grand Archon of the national chapter, and Dr. W. A. Whitting of Alabama, Grand Scribe, both of whom spoke on the significance, value and spiritual side of a fraternity to a college as an institution, an interesting discourse on the history of fraternities at State during the past half century was given by James B. Hasselman, director of Michigan State college publications.

The Michigan Alpha chapter was represented by K. Pringle and the newly installed unit at State, the Beta chapter, responded to the occasion through the president, R. W. Peterson. The Beta chapter makes the second in the state and the 47th in the nation. The national organization was founded in 1896 by the union of 11 societies.

A highlight of the function was the setting of a guest from each of the local fraternities, eighteen of which were represented. After the banquet ten pledges were initiated into the new chapter in formal ceremonies. The new members are H. R. Aurdand, W. C. Bacteridge, R. Darbee, H. C. Gleason, A. C. Borrell, C. W. Huber, E. W. Moore, N. Rabas, B. E. Wellemeyer, and W. H. Yost.

Practice facilities for Louis Graveure's summer school courses are already nearly overbooked, and requests are still pouring in for accommodations, music department heads said today.

SOCIETIES PLAN INNOVATION IN MAIL DELIVERY

Plan to Move House Boxes From Postoffice to Union Lobby.

TO CIRCULATE PETITIONS

Change Seen as an Advantage to Both Societies and Union.

A movement to have all fraternities and society mail boxes installed in the Union lobby was begun today by action of the Union board activities committee when, after asking post office authorities for change of address were circulated around the campus.

A plan long proposed by various student groups has been under consideration for the past year. Advantages to both the society houses and the Union itself are believed to be incorporated in the proposition.

Main reasons for the advancement of the plan are narrowed down to the following: (1) Box rent of $4.00 a year will be saved the houses. Boxes will be installed free of charge and will become the permanent receptacle of the societies. (2) Sudden stoppage of mail facilities due to unpaid rentals will be eliminated. Fraternity houses have long experienced difficulty for this reason and it is hoped that the prospect of permanent facilities will be attractive. (3) Personal contacts will be established between patrons and clerks that will bring more courteous and efficient correction of mistakes.

The Union building is considered to be a more direct route to and out of the way for the rest of the campus. (4) The plan will avoid the crowded conditions now found at the city post office.

PLANS SET FOR LANTERN NIGHT

COLLEGE GIVES SOIL TESTS FOR FARMERS

Two Laboratory Cars Left Here to Tour State May 19; to Return Today.

Michigan State College Soil department in cooperation with the New York Central railroad sent out two soil laboratory cars from here Monday. These cars are equipped with soil testing and various equipment for the testing of soils, so that the farmers may bring their soil samples and have them tested as to lime and other requirements. Farmers are given opportunity to have soil management plans worked out for them.

The train was scheduled to make six stops, including Jackson, Hillsdale, Tecumseh and Hudson. These sixteen stops cover a large area so that nearly all the farmers will have a chance to have their soil tested. It was reported that some 185 farmers had their soil tested at the stop made in Springport. The train is due back sometime today.

Thirty-seven reservations have been made by women students to live in the Women's building next year, one at Abbott Hall and twelve at Abbott for summer school this June.

ENGLISH PRIZES AWARDED SOON

17 Entries Being Judged; Winners to Receive Rewards (On June 13).

The judges are now viewing the manuscripts that were sent in for the English contests in essays, poems, and short stories. The prizes will be awarded to the winner on June 13.

The manuscripts sent in for the essay contest are: Cellini, Aris and Bravo, by J. H. Murphy; Safety in Modern Railroads, by Charles Shean; The Development of the Dye Industry, by Russell Tarrill; On Self Mastery, by Gordon Fischer; Hans Christian Andersen's Literary Works, by Carleton Eldridge; The Agricultural Manufacturing Act of 1929.

The following poems were submitted in the poetry contest: The Wind in the City, Two Suicides, Pan Again, Compassion, Corpus Delicti, by Florence Evanson; To the Spirit of Poetry, Impressions of Maxwell Street, April, by Eleanor Barton; Twentieth Century, by Ruth C. Clark; Whatever We Have Read, by Lawrence Scott; Price of a Era, by R. J. Weisall; Sonnets from the Norse, by J. I. Olsen.

Short stories handed in were: Ashes, by Lawrence Scott; A Quarter to Eleven, by Helen Knight; Hall to the Conquering Hero, by Ruth C. Clark; When Life Creeps Up, by Ruth C. Clark; The Gravel Pit, by Charles Barton; Heaving Wings, by Ruth C. Clark; Two stories were written by anonymous authors, the titles are Whistling in the Dark and The Sign of Gimletulle. The authors are requested to let the English office know who they are.

Arthur Farwell, through the musical department, speaks on the "Cuban Leader" Night program, Tech club.

MODERATE INTEREST SHOWN IN STUDENT BALLOTING IN SPRING

ALL-COLLEGE POLL YESTERDAY

Students Select William Pratt, Earl Steimle as Wolverine Leaders; Breen, Corover, Steele to Head Classes for Coming Year; Other Officials Chosen.

IN AN ALL-COLLEGE ELECTION that drew more than the expected student turnout, class officers in three under classes; editor and business manager of the Wolverine, college annual; varsity cheer leader, and athletic council representative were chosen Monday in a day of quiet polling. A total of 770 votes were cast, making a strong comparison with a year ago when faculty supervision was a drawing card.

William Pratt, East Lansing, defeated Norman Hurd, Port Hope, for the editorship of the Wolverine by a plurality of 94 votes. The major upset of the election came in Earl Steimle's defeat of Garfield Thatcher, the business manager of the annual. The voting stood 495 to 365.

Charles Ladd, Muskegon, decisively won over "Ho" M. for the athletic council 182 to 281. Howard Mite, Bay City, was unopposed for the varsity cheer leader position.

Gerald Breen, Holland, will next year's senior class, according to the vote of the class members in the election yesterday. He defeated Carl Burt, Birmingham, by a vote of 94 to 94.

Bernice Weston, Detroit, beat Is King, Clarkston, for vice president by a plurality of 92 votes. Fern S. Lansing, defeated Florine Reardon, for secretaryship, 155 to 125. Edward Gibbs, Escanaba, beat C. L. Lark, Sault Ste. Marie, for treasurer by 157 to 85. Two of the largest votes were cast by the class of the undergraduate classes.

The smallest vote of any class shown by the sophomores in a class election, about 218 being deposited. Paul Conover, Jackson, won a position for second year presidency by a plurality of 47 votes.

Dorothy Wickstrom, Western Springs, Ill., won the soph class balloting for the office of vice president by defeating Charlotte MacKinnon, Bay City, 122 to 95. Virginia Adams, Lansing, 125 to 95, the class secretary by winning over Helen Bennett, Midland, 134 to 111. James, Bud, Daley, Cleveland, Ohio, defeated John Wilson, Ann Arbor, by a plurality of 107 votes.

Twenty-four and thirty-one ballots were cast in the freshman class polling yesterday to rank second in class political opinion. Rex Steele, Detroit, beat Monte Holstrom, East Lansing, for leading presidency by a vote of 150 to 81.

Helen Carothers, Plymouth, won a 68 vote election over Elizabeth Lee, Lansing, for office of vice president. Kate Gordon, Battle Creek, defeated Helen Vandenberg, Battle Creek, for the secretaryship by 24 votes. Paul Foster, East Lansing, featured a mild upset by defeating Horton Stickle, Iron Island, Ill. for treasurer by 38 ballots to 28.

The voting was held Monday from 8 to 5 in the Union lobby under the direction of the student council.

ACHIEVEMENT

The new chapter of Theta Kappa Nu is to be congratulated on the realization of a long-striven goal. This fraternity has the deep-seated purpose in its creed. Backed by an unusual record, the former Ulyssians will do well to maintain the high level set in the past years of its experience.

Commemorating the event in a most impressive way, the ceremonies showed much planning and effort. Every guest in the semblage at the Peoples church Saturday night must have been away with him the thought that this organization was a friendly fraternity, one that was most unselfish in its relations with the other societies on the campus.

The elaborateness of the function clearly depicted that the organization viewed the installation as a significant event in their lives. Many times the transition merely is a step for the prestige at goes with carrying the name of a national fraternity. In this instance a more serious object is clearly evident as the underlying thought of the change.

Music -- Art and Drama

By Zilpha Lewis

The student art exhibit on the fourth floor of Olds hall, which was opened to the public Sunday, attracted a considerable number of Lansing and East Lansing residents as well as students of the college. The best work of the year is on display in the corridors and many rooms allotted to the art department, but at first glance there results only a confused impression of dancing blue elephants, copper dishes draped about with assorted fruits, or of grotesque human shapes in every attitude of the anatomy of the human frame. Upon seriously considering the matter, however, it is found that an instructive estimate of the students' accomplishments may be gained by a comparison of the freshman work in the various fields to that of the more advanced classes.

In the first year the work is confined to drawing in charcoal of large objects, with especial emphasis upon solidity and lights and shadows. Work in design is begun in black and white, the introduction of color entering later. Winter term of the freshman year still lives in oils are commenced.

To the observer the work of the more advanced classes is of greater interest, because certain crudities of composition encountered in the work of beginners, become smoothed over and obliterated by the senior year. It is hoped that rash comments will be refrained from until the spectator has assured himself of the specific aim the young artist had in mind. Many of the exhibits are of worth, not so much through artistic value, but rather as a study of some particular problem. Three and five minute sketches from life are examples of this type of thing.

Outdoor sketching and still lifes from casts are the especial features of the sophomore year, while water-color and figure drawing from life occupy the juniors.

The exhibit will remain open for the remainder of the week in order that students may have ample time to visit the display. They are urged to enter the many small rooms as some of the most worthwhile sketches are hung there as well as in the corridors which do not offer enough space.

Final Records For Minor Sports to Be Noted Soon

Practices in four W. A. A. sports will be completed this week and next when participants in tennis, golf, track and archery will turn in their final records. For tennis records of six practices must be finished and turned in by the end of this week. The dates for the tennis tournament will be posted in the gymnasium next week. By the end of this week also, the records of five practices in golf must be in and the schedule for the golf tournament will be arranged and posted at some time during the following week.

All track practices must be completed by June 1. On Saturday, June 7, the track meet will be held at which time it is necessary for all team members to be present.

Since archery practices end on June 7, co-eds are asked to check up now to be sure that they will have practices enough by that time. Also it is suggested that they fill out score sheets from now on. The tournament in this sport will be held from June 9 to 14.

Engineers' Society Attends Banquet In Union Tuesday

One hundred and fifty members of the Detroit-Ann Arbor section of the A. I. E. E. in addition to members of the Lansing and Jackson organizations held a banquet in the Union Memorial building Wednesday May 29. A large delegation was present from Jackson and Detroit a number from Ann Arbor and a number from the Lansing Engineers' club.

During the dinner hour the group was entertained by the college string trio and a number of selections by the college girls glee club which were enthusiastically received. President R. S. Shaw welcomed the delegates with a review of the college activities. The main talk of the evening was an illustrated lecture by T. F. Barton, district engineer for the General Electric Co. of New York.

New Honorary is Formed Monday as Ten Are Initiated

Porpoise, newly organized swimming fraternity, held its first swimout yesterday and its formal initiation last night. Formal initiation rites will be held in the college pool tonight.

The members of the new organization are Ed Cook, Charles Scheid, Horace Craig, Ray Schaubel, Marion Joslin, George Seeley, John Knight, Gordon Snyder, Dale Vaughn, Myrton Van der Meer, James Mitchell, Evans Boucher, Lyle Hauger, Russell Cronenworth and Howard Clark. Horace Craig has been elected president of the fraternity. Ray Schaubel, vice president, and Gordon Snyder, secretary and treasurer, Coach Russell B. Daubert, swimming coach has been named ex-officio member.

Daubert has been the influencing factor in the organization of the local chapter. He is a member of the parent chapter which was founded several years ago at Iowa State college. The fraternity is represented by several important colleges in the country, among which are Grinnell and Drake universities.

Old Water Tower To Remain Upright For a Year or Two

From the latest report by W. A. Davenport, it is quite certain that the old water tower will not be removed as was contemplated from the campus this year. Although the tower has not been used as a pressure storage tank for more than two years, it has served well as a radio antenna mast. The cost of dismantling the tower would be so great that no bids have been accepted so it is expected that the tower will serve as an antenna mast for another year or two.

STATE TRACKMEN TO INVADE EAST

Coach Mort Mason and Charges to Compete in Annual
I. C. A. A. A.

Coach Mort Mason and a group of Michigan State track men leave East Lansing Thursday afternoon for Boston, Massachusetts, where the Spartans will compete in the annual I. C. A. A. A. meet at the Harvard stadium to be held Friday and Saturday. The complete personnel of the team making the trip has not as yet been definitely announced but Capt. Lauren P. Brown and Clark Chamberlain are sure to run the two-mile with Loren Fullerton the sole Spartan in the mile. The rest of the team will be selected from the following men: David Swanson and Lewis Hackney in the 800; Kenneth Yarger in the high hurdles; Walter Russow in the low hurdles; and Bob Olsen in the pole vault. All of these men have shown up well in recent meets and if the coaches concede them any chance whatsoever of breaking into the scoring in national competition they will be allowed a chance to prove their ability.

Chamberlain and Brown, who have been running neck and neck all spring, will match strides with the best runners in the east in the two-mile with their several competitors coming from Rikers of Penn State, who in an indoor meet last winter traversed the distance in 9:22. In the mile Fullerton will have a group of more than ten men who have run the distance under 4:25 this spring.

FROSH TRACK TEAM FACES STIFF MEET

Liberty Entered in Six Events in Clash With Adrian College
Wednesday.

Michigan State's freshman track team will find the stiffest competition it has experienced so far this year when it meets Adrian college Wednesday afternoon at the stadium. The meet begins at 4 o'clock. Although the Spartan freshmen have triumphed freely over all the teams they have met so far this spring, present indications are that Wednesday's contest will prove much closer than usual. The Adrian aggregation brings a well-balanced team a team that recently ran up a total of 91 to 40 points against Detroit Tech. Clifford Liberty, State's freshman star, is entered in six events, the 100, both hurdles, the broad jump, the javelin and the high jump. He should account for a great number of points for the Spartans, a factor that should have a heavy bearing on the final result.

SPARTAN SPORT SHOTS BY HARRIS COATES

More Records for State
Two Michigan State college athletes established new records in the Central Intercollegiate held at Marquette University, Milwaukee, Wis., in a night meet Friday. Clark Chamberlain, long-legged Lansing runner, beat out his teammate Capt. Lauren P. Brown and turned the two mile course in 9:33 to a new meet and State varsity record. Captain Brown set a new mark in the Michigan Intercollegiate held here the week previous when he completed the eight lap course in 3:24, not finished third at Marquette. Ken Yarger crossed the 120-yard high hurdles in 15.5 to set a meet record of him standing at 15.6.

The Inevitable
"Chum" Coltherton, reliable second baseman on Coach John H. Kohl's Spartan nine, made his first error of the season Saturday against Oberlin. The fast fielding keystone sacker failed to handle a reasonably hot grounder and was late on his throw to first. "Chum" perhaps he has the error out of his system.

Helping Himself
"Jumbo" Kahl did more than pitch Saturday to shut out Oberlin, 3-0. He had seven assists to his credit when Oberlin grounded out to him. He controlled the majority of the Oberlin bingles to the infield and forced them to ground out when the Buckeye batters were fortunate to solve his delivery and get hold of his "books."

Tinkle, Tinkle
"Doc" R. M. Ginn, head of the college health center, will have to pay a bill for a new windshield because he parked his car east of the bleachers at Old College Field during the Oberlin game Saturday and an Ohio batsman drove a high ball through the plate glass.

Michigan State's fighting track team, led by the demure Clark Chamberlain, placed second in the Central Intercollegiate, held Friday night in the Marquette stadium at Milwaukee, Wis. The Spartans, bolstered materially by eight points collected by Chamberlain when he took a second in the mile and won the two-mile, emerged with a two-point margin over Marquette University, their conquerors indoors. Notre Dame won the meet, as expected, the Irish collecting 60 points. State had 36 and Marquette 33 tallies. The remainder of the teams together collected the remaining 26 points.

In the mile run, Chamberlain made no attempt to sprint the last lap, but contented himself with second place, saving his strength for the longer race an hour later. He ran the two-mile course in 9:32 setting a new Central Intercollegiate, Wisconsin state, and Spartan varsity record. Capt. Lauren Brown finished third, behind Bohan of Marquette.

Kenneth Yarger, Spartan high hurdler, came through in fine style, winning his event in 15.5, a time which broke the varsity record set in 1922 by De Gay Ernst, by a tenth of a second. Russow and Russell accounted for three more points for State by placing third and fourth in the low hurdles. David Swanson, slim Spartan half-miler, came up from behind in his event to take second behind Little of Notre Dame. In a close finish he raced Little to the tape, only to lose by a step. Little's time was 1:57 flat. Melville Pflug, sturdy Green and

NETTERS LOSE TWO FOREIGN MATCHES

Michigan State's tennis team suffered two defeats in their first journey away from home last week-end Thursday afternoon Oberlin college netmen handed them a 4-3 defeat in a hotly contested meet. Friday afternoon they were defeated by the Detroit City college combination, 4-1. In the meet with Detroit City college Capt. Paul Kane gave State its only score when he defeated McNaughton, City college ace, in the singles.

LEARN TO FLY

at CURTISS-WRIGHT SUMMER CAMP
SPEND YOUR VACATION ABOVE THE CLOUDS

Under ideal conditions you will be given a thorough course, not only in the theory and technique of aviation, but also will be taught to fly. When the course is finished you will be prepared to take your government tests for your pilot's license.

Located on beautiful Grand Ile, at the mouth of the Detroit River, twenty miles from Detroit, you will fly from one of the best air ports in the world.

Recreational activities—Golf, Swimming, Sailing, Baseball and other sports are provided.

Living quarters in our new $135,000.00 clubhouse will be provided.

The summer camp opens June thirtieth. Only a limited number of places can be accommodated.
