FRATERNITIES PLEDGE 160 MEN DURING PAST WEEK OF RUSHING; DECREASE BY FORTY FROM 1929

Men Expected to Reach 250 By Cessation of Pledging Period as Many More Are Not Officially Announced
By Societies.

INCE THE OPENING of pledging season at 12 o'clock Sunday night, over 160 men have taken pins from the various fraternities on this campus. Many more have not been officially listed. It is expected that the total will exceed the 250 mark before the completion of the rushing activities. The usual quota of the societies was attained in but a few isolated cases. The general consensus of opinion is that the past year's business decision has caused students to be a little wary in assuming the social and financial obligations of fraternity life entails. It is also believed that incoming freshmen have been apprised of warnings against accepting fraternity pledges without thought. The following are all known except those otherwise listed.

PLAN TO NAME CORPS SPONSORS

Officers Club Picks Committee to Select Candidates for R. O.
T. C. Honor.

A committee to nominate co-ed sponsors for the R. O. T. C. corps and divisional units was named in an Officers club meeting Tuesday evening at 4 o'clock. Art Haag, artillery; Richard Offley, infantry; Orfield Thatcher, cavalry, and M. H. Pfing, junior artilleryman, were chosen to select four candidates for sponsor for each of the three units and four for corps sponsor.

The field will be narrowed down to two co-eds for each office at the next meeting of the Officers club and the remaining contestants will later be voted upon by all of the members of the R. O. T. C. both upper and underclassmen. Candidates for corps and unit sponsors are usually chosen from either senior or junior co-eds according to custom.

Installation has been set for the night of Nov. 21, the Friday before the University of Detroit game. The committee chosen to handle the ceremonies is composed of Hermann Liedtke, Harry Schmid, Ruth Strong and Glenn Taite.

Maurice Greer, cavalry, was elected by the senior members as new president of the Officers club to succeed the incumbent, Karl Jepson, who is unable to function because of scholastic difficulties.

SHORT COURSES FACE BIG YEAR

Director Tenny Receives Requests from 30 Counties; Stress Importance of Work.

With the promise of an enrollment of 62 in the two-year short course in general agriculture beginning October 27, the total number of registrations in the winter term courses should compare favorably with last year's high mark of 339. Ralph W. Tenny, director of short courses, has already received applications for admission in the initial course from thirty counties.

The aim of the short course program is stated by Prof. Shaw in the following words: "In the future the notably successful farmer must be prepared to do things a little different and a little better than the average. Conditions of production, harvesting, storing, marketing, farm finance, and home living have undergone a radical change in the recent past and these processes are bound to continue in the future. This means an ever increasing need for special training for the prospective farmer. No agencies offer such excellent opportunities for suitable training in a short space of time at medium cost as the short courses of the agricultural colleges. Michigan State college offers a variety of well balanced courses."

Meanwhile, all those who wish to assist the staff by presenting their subscriptions will find any of the following men more than pleased to accommodate them: William Frost, Earl Steele, James Granum, Howard Conard, Bob Farney.

All students interested in a place on the business staff of the Wolverine are encouraged to get in touch with Earl Steele at the Payless house. Subscriptions are particularly urged to try out.

SMEAD TO COME TO CAMPUS SOON

Will Convalesce in College Hospital; Benefit Grid Game Planned.

In behalf of the college Wednesday, an invitation was extended by Dr. R. M. Ginn of the Health Service to Edward Mead, retired Spartan football captain to come to the college campus for the remainder of his time of convalescence. The opinion was expressed by Dr. Ginn that the recuperative facilities here would lessen his recovery.

A group of officials that included Ralph H. Young, Dr. Ginn, Price Vaderhaar, commander of the Kappa Alpha Fraternity, and Frank Gray, a member of the Headmen's benefit committee, drove to Detroit Wednesday to see Mead and to present him with the money raised in the second semiannual game between the Lansing Blue and the State Journal teams. The sum totaled $3,162.40, which represents every cent of money taken in, inasmuch as everything connected with the game was donated.

The money will take care of approximately one-third of the Spartan captain's hospital expenses. Plans are now being made to raise the remainder of the money through a football game later in the season. Faculty approval has been obtained to make the State Premanian-Great Rapids Junior grid game on the morning of Nov. 3 another benefit for him. Details of the handling of tickets were not being worked on by a committee.

Mead will probably arrive in East Lansing within the next ten days to begin his stay at the hospital.

CROWLEY MEN OPEN GRIDIRON RELATIONS WITH CINCINNATI IN SECOND HOME ENCOUNTER

Michigan State "Eleven" Enters Game Tomorrow Determined to Preserve Unbroken Coal Line Record; See Little Opposition.

WITHOUT A SCORE chalked up against them so far this season, Coach Jimmy "Sleepy" Crowley's Michigan State grid team will enter tomorrow's battle in the Spartan stadium with the University of Cincinnati as top-heavy favorites to win. The game tomorrow will be the first gridiron encounter in history between the two institutions. Coach Crowley does not expect to encounter overly tough opposition in wresting victory from the Ohio grididers although the Buckeyes team has not tasted defeat this season. Cincinnati managed to emerge on the long end of the count in their battle with Kentucky Western last week when their all-out attack netted them a 6 to 9 win.

NEW UNIFORMS—

One of the most progressive steps taken by the military department in recent years of R. O. T. C. in this school is indicated by the neat, well-appearing uniforms that the underclassmen are now wearing.

So much better are they than the old "O. D." issue military suits, that no close analogy can be drawn between them. The roll collars, slacks, and in particular, the natty overalls caps remove this year's cadets from the classification of wearers of "monkey suits." Only a person who has worn a suit of this type can appreciate the discomforts thereof.

Meeting the specifications of the war department in every detail, the suits transform our R. O. T. C. underclassmen into well-dressed up-to-the-minute military fashions. The college administration and the military department have certainly filled a necessary and imperative want with the adoption of the new uniform.

DRIVE MORE CAREFULLY—

With more student-driven cars using the campus roads than ever before, extreme care in driving must be taken if serious injury to pedestrians is to be avoided. The crowded condition of the roadways and the numerous cross-walks around the campus demand more careful driving on our campus.

Protect your fellow student by PLAYING SAFE while driving.

Two Parties Bring Sorority Rushing Season to a Close

The two sorority parties which will be held on Saturday and Sunday Oct. 12 and 13, will bring the fall term season to a close. These parties are the most important of the rushing season both from the standpoint of the society and the rusher.

It is the custom for rushers to accept the invitation of the sorority in which they are most interested. This is an indication to the sorority that the rusher would like to be a part of that particular group and the invitation is an indication that the society is interested in the rusher. For this reason the Pan-Hellenic council requests that all rushers consider these invitations seriously before accepting.

Silence week begins Sunday evening at 8:45 and continues until Friday afternoon at 5 o'clock. During this time there will be no communications between sorority girls and the rushers. Pledging will be at 5 p. m. on Friday in the various sorority houses.

A. W. S. President Warns Freshmen To Start Slowly

Martha Farley, president of A. W. S. give a word of warning to freshman girls when interviewed this week by saying that all girls who are interested in entering outside activities should be careful not to assume too many burdens.

Each individual who enters an activity assumes a responsibility and many responsibilities mean the fact to accomplish anything well. She suggested that a major and a minor be enough for a beginning and they should be carried out to the limit of the individual's ability.

Homecoming Next Week-end Casts Damper on Present Party Plans; Union Dance Tonight in Ballroom

Approaching Festivities Lower Party Interest This Week, Though Hesperians and Olympics Plan Entertainment Tomorrow Night; Wagenvoord's Orchestra for Union Party.

HOOMEOMING has so far overshadowed all other social events that very few fraternities have ventured to hold parties this weekend preceding this paramount event. The Hesperians will have a pledge party on Saturday evening, however, and the Olympics will entertain with an open house the same night. A Union party has been scheduled for tonight.

A large attendance is expected at the Peoples Church Pan-Might this evening to which all students are invited. Faculty events so far this term will be minimized by the president's reception to be held Tuesday evening in the Union ballroom. The Faculty Club entertained this afternoon with a reception for new members.

The Hesperians will hold a dance in honor of their newly picked members Saturday night at their house. The Payer Area will play for the dancing and Prof. and Mrs. A. J. Clark and Prof. and Mrs. E. A. Lee will be the patrons.

The Olympics will hold an open house this afternoon for new members this afternoon in the main hall room on the third floor of the Union. The room was decorated with various red decorations.

Wagenvoord's orchestra will play for the Union party Friday night. Union dances will be an event of practically baby "nights." About 100 faculty women were present.

The president's reception will be held October 14 in the ballroom of the Union building. The committee for the affair have not been disclosed as yet. Hartdeka's orchestra will furnish the music.

Professor and Mrs. R. P. Hilliard and two sons returned Saturday Oct. 6 from a month's trip abroad.

Alice D. Buzner, 22; Jean C. Butler, 22; Ruth A. Pringle, 22; and Frances L. Williams, 22, were initiated into
