Solve Problem of Studying at Coop

Peace and Quiet Reigns in Special Room in Dormitory
Basement.

Peace and quiet reigns in the new study hall in the basement of the building to be an excellent place in which to study. It is probably the only place in the building where one can be free of the interruptions of a talkative roommate, friends or the other disturbance elements who go to make up the personnel of the "coop."

The girls are on their honor to be quiet while in this room. So far there has been no disturbance. Each girl has confined herself to her own studying and has refrained from interrupting
and disturbing her neighbors.

Four students, two men and two women, were nominated as junior class representatives to the Liberal Arts board at a meeting of that board held in Ods hall Thursday at 5 o'clock.

From a group of approximately ten students, which was the total representation present from the class, the four resulting nominations were: Gertrude Bazar, held Wednesday, Dec. 10.

COUNCIL HOLDS ACTIVE SESSION

Choose Two Delegates to Attend National Conclave at Atlanta.

The selection of two representatives to attend a national convention,
the rejection of a fraternity petition for charter and the setting of dates for special junior class elections for the purpose of filling vacancies on the liberal arts board, were the major issues discussed at the regular student council meeting on Tuesday evening.

Metropolitan Press Against College Newspaper Critics

College newspapers have gone far for democracy, and who have come back to raise hell annually so no one can forget it. The Gastonia strikes of last year also called forth editorial representing all shades of opinion on the problems of labor. This editorial from the California Daily Bruin offers an interesting insight on the tribulations of certain college editors.

CROWLEY GETS WESTERN OFFER FOR GRID COACH

Press Reports Found Rumors of Advances to Spartan Mentor.

HAS ENVIABLE RECORD

Gonzaga University of Spokane
Seeks to Fill Vacancy
There.

Newspaper dispatches from Spokane,
Washington, carried the word yesterday that Coach James H. Crowley, who has been in charge of the Michigan State football team, has been offered an opportunity to become head football coach at Gonzaga university for the coming year.

This dispatch, establishing the foundation for the various rumors that have been circulating here during the past few days, that other institutions are attempting to get the services of the Spartan coach.

Crowley, before leaving for Chicago Thursday, admitted that he had been in communication with the western school during the past few days but that for the present he did not want to comment on the matter. Crowley will have one more year of the Michigan State contract to fill.

The dispatch from Spokane revealed that Raymond P. Flaherty, present consultant of the position at Gonzaga university, had tendered his resignation
after an unsuccessful football season.
The authorities there seem anxious to find a successful coach during their absence, out of approaching next autumn.

When approached Thursday afternoon, Athletic Director Ralph H.
Young would not comment further than registrar's office, Michigan State student pilots are eligible to compete

CHICAGO QUESTIONNAIRE Asks Secrets of Family

There is no limit to what our universities want to know about candidates for higher learning, according to Edward Hope, New York Sun columnist.
As an example he cites the following questionnaire submitted to all freshmen at the University of Chicago:

- 1-Are you apt to be frightened in the dark?
- 2-Have you ever experienced a complete lapse of memory?
- 3-Have any of your family ever taken drugs?

The Family Skeleton
Whether or not a collegian, who is nervous when the lights go out is considered poor material for the football squad has not been revealed by the faculty. The possibility that a student may be deprived of his letter or once having had a lapse of memory or barred from the gym club on the ground that his father once took a sleeping powder does not appear remote.

Evans All secrets
But why stop with a few foolish questions? Why leave anything unre-vealed? Let's go to the bottom of things.

1-Did any female member of your family ever stop to talk to horses on the city street?
2-Were any of your ancestors addicted to adze-shiners' croquet, nibers
or dotted nightgowns?
3-On which side did your great-grandmother sleep?
4-How many times have you been meter inspectors, delirium tremens, stamp collectors, hay fever or dog show judges in your family at any time in your life ever tried to put your pants on over your head?

By JOHN TATE, Jr.

The small colleges are still in the pre-war period, provincial, collegiate, and imbued with rah-rah spirit.

That is the crux of an editorial recently appearing in the student press of the University of Wisconsin. It claims that football at some institutions is not only a god but the angels, too. Such institutions run front page editorials and in other ways boost football. But at large schools that draw their students from a wide area the college paper is indifferent, if not definitely unfriendly to displays of college spirit.

The editorial states that the latter type of institution is more cosmopolitan and the student is given to a greater degree freedom of thought and expression.

In other words, the writer is stating that large schools such as his own are blasé, sophisticated, and cosmopolitan in their attitude; and that the smaller schools, and the large ones that draw their students from one district, are rah-rah, collegiate, and obsessed with the pursuit of incidental issues.

All of which may or may not be true. But one sports writer called Wisconsin's football team "the mid-west's outstanding disappointment." And any defense is better than none.

What we have seen of these so-called sophisticated schools and people that exude the cosmopolitan air does not bear with the writer's statements. Most individuals like that are either covering up deficiencies in intellect or possess a superficially complex. There is one university, at least, that has an espionage system to detect student irregularities at fraternity parties and other places. Perhaps that is a part of the freedom of expression mentioned in the article.

The University of Kansas is giving a short course for freshmen for those students who are willing to start at the bottom of the ladder.

A certain P. P. O. C. (prominent prof on campus) has been placed on one of Bricker's committees. It is rumored that the future first lady was in some of his classes, if that throws any light on the subject. (Not the course he was taking.)

One of the sub-rosa social affairs of the season took place last night in the State theater. Everyone of any importance was there, including the actors themselves. The pair displayed by some of the players when they were boisterously welcomed at their entries by the rabble in the first few rows was quite remarkable. Don't misunderstand us, not all those in the pit were commoners. We must have some loopholes.

Warren Rogers vividly portrayed the part of a broad-minded old duck who to the self-righteous, had a scandalous past and a shadowy present. And he hangs his hat at the house across from the new woman dorm.

In the audience was a former star basketball player who noticeably winced at the point where the leads became sentimental. Oh, well, he should remember that the play's the thing.

Dean Dye Attends East Conference In Washington

While at the Eastern conference with the State Board of Agriculture and faculty members, Dean Marie Dye attended three meetings of the Land Grant College association held in Washington, D. C. from Nov. 15 to 22. The first one was the National Council of Parental Education which was held Saturday, Monday and Tuesday, at the Willard hotel. The purpose of this meeting was to advise training for parents to help educate their children. These reports given by the committees were also used for the White House conference.

The second meeting which Dr. Dye attended was the Land Grant association meeting which was held Nov. 17 to 19, inclusive, at the Willard hotel. The Michigan State college home economics department was especially represented as Dean Dye was chairman of one of the home economics sections. The problems discussed were the personal work with home economics students, and the part that home economics plays in the adult educational program. Land Grant colleges are especially interested in the agricultural research and extension work.

Sphinx to Honor Dean Conrad In Saturday Function

Sphinx will give a tea tomorrow afternoon from 2:30 to 5:00 o'clock in the Student Parlors of the Peoples church to honor Dean Elisabeth Conrad, Dr. Lydia Lagstrom and Dean Marie Dye. Invitations for the tea have been sent to representatives of the various women's organizations on campus and presidents of societies. Miss Irene Knaben of the Home Economics department will pour and the receiving line will consist of the officers of Sphinx and the guests of honor. Inasmuch as this is the first social event to be sponsored by Sphinx so far this term it is expected to be one of the loveliest of the closing days of the term.

The committee in charge of arrangements for the tea consist of Lucile Martin, chairman, Marian Lee, Elaine Come, Donald MacMurely, Katherine Panter, Frances Middleton and Marion Leighton.

STUDENT PULSE

Signed and initialed articles on any topic pertinent to student interests are welcomed in this column.

EDITOR'S NOTE: Although it is the policy of Michigan State News to publish signed comments on the news items, his letter is printed without a signature because of its personal nature. Write to the Editor.

In reply to the question raised here in the issue of Tuesday, Dec. 2, the following explanation is offered:

The song contest of the spring of 1936 was sponsored by Equilibrium in cooperation with Sphinx for the purpose of inspiring new songs, outstanding in originality and school spirit, and suitable to be included in a Michigan State all-college song book. Leading up to this contest was the growing realization that our own Alma Mater is by no means original to this college, but it serves many other schools throughout the country.

The song book was begun as the project of Sphinx last year and was entirely completed and organized by the close of the spring term. Therein will be found those songs for which prizes were awarded and additional songs, as soon as Sphinx has overcome the obstacles met with in their attempt to finance the publication of the book.

In this project, they ask the cooperation of the entire student body in the support of their plans. The first step is already being undertaken in sponsoring the Sphinx party, Friday, December 12, at the Union ballroom. Music will be furnished by Zoepers' Ten Rhythmic Kings of Detroit.

Any further suggestions or contributions to this project will be gratefully received and will hasten the publication of our M. S. C. song book.

Swimming Meet Planned Monday Afternoon at Gym

A swimming meet in which any co-ed is eligible to enter is to be held on Monday night at 5 o'clock in the college pool at the gymnasium. The meet is being sponsored by the Women's Physical Education department and will be in charge of Miss Josephine Garvin, swimming instructor. The meet will consist of a number of free-for-all events and will include a special Red Cross life saving demonstration by the members of Green Splash. Girls who wish to enter any of the events are urged to sign up at the gym office by Monday.

These interested in the contest may obtain information from the dean of Boeing School of Aeronautics, Oakland airport, Oakland, Calif. Awards will be made by a national committee of prominent educators of which Dr. Baldwin M. Woods, University of California is chairman.

CROWLEY GETS WESTERN OFFER

It is explained that Crowley still had one season on his three-year contract to fulfill here.

Coach Crowley has made an enviable record as grid mentor during his short time here. Coming here in September, 1929, following Harry Kipke's resignation, Coach Crowley shaped a formidable season which had an acceptable season. This past year with the help of the spring football season, Crowley developed one of the strongest grid age generations that has ever represented the college and brought national football recognition to Michigan State for the first time in the past 15 years.

WARREN ROGERS IS HIGHLIGHT OF CASE

Grenham invites John Willocks, with whom he has had a slight correspondence to visit him. Believing that Willocks has carried on a love affair with Margot during her absence, the old sportsman arranges for a rather unexpected meeting of these two young people hoping that Margot will be moved to forgive her husband after an Grenham and Lady Printon are exposed to her own precarious position, and all difficulties are smoothed out. The play was abundant in comedy which, although no moral lesson, teaches a wonderful lesson of conciliation in which Hon. Willie and tended, teaches a wonderful lesson his wife forgave each other. Lord human nature.

The new G. E. low-grid current Pliotron tube capable of measuring a current as small as 100 amperes.

This Little Tube Measures Stars

Centuries of Light Years Distant

BY MEANS of a new vacuum tube called a low-grid-current Pliotron tube, astronomers can gather the facts of stellar news with greater speed and accuracy. In conjunction with a photoelectric tube, it will help render information on the amount of light radiation and position of stars centuries of light years away. It is further applicable to such laboratory uses as demand the most delicate measurement of electric current.

So sensitive is this tube, that it can measure 0.000,000,000,000,001 of an ampere, or, one-hundredth of a millionth of a billionth of an ampere. This amount of current, compared with that of a 50-watt incandescent lamp, is as two drops of water compared with the entire volume of water spilled over Niagara Falls in a year.

General Electric leadership in the development of vacuum tubes has largely been maintained by college-trained men, just as college-trained men are largely responsible for the impressive progress made by General Electric in other fields of research and engineering.

LINEUP FOR INITIAL CAGE TILT WITH CINCINNATI IS UNDECIDED; TO PLAY IN LANSING FIELD HOUSE

Haga and Scott, Co Captains, Loom as Only Certain Starters; Coach Van Alstyne Puzzled Over Other Positions for Curtain Raiser.

TONIGHT at 7:30 o'clock Coach Ben Van Alstyne's Spartan basketball team swings into action for the first time this year when it meets the University of Cincinnati in the season's initial court battle. The game will be played in the Boys' Vocational School Field House in Lansing, due to the fact that the Spartan court, following the expansion of the gym and because the portable floor in the demonstration hall has not yet been erected. The Lansing floor is far superior to the cramped quarters of the Spartan gym and there should be plenty of seating room for State's court enthusiasts. The Cincinnati game is likely to prove a real test for the Spartans who will engage their first major opponent next week Saturday when they meet the University of Michigan at Ann Arbor.

COACHES ATTEND BIG TEN MEETING

Four Men Go to Chicago to Plan Schedules for Winter Sport Program

Four members of Michigan State's coaching staff, James H. Crockett, John H. Kote, J. J. Prinslow and Ralph H. Young, accompanied by Dean J. J. Cox, chairman of the athletic council, left for Chicago Thursday to attend the annual meeting of Western Conference officials at Hotel Sherman. This meeting, which will be held Saturday, will be the medium by which many of the schedules of conference teams will be filled for next year.

The Spartan officials hope at this meeting to be able to show all their schedules for the coming winter and to complete next fall's football program.

Randy Beseck, elongated substitute center of last year's team, may start at the pivot position, although he has been furnished plenty of competition in the past week by McCash and Freebold, sophomore possibilities. Harold Hahn, a reserve last season, is another center prospect.

Coach Van Alstyne has plenty of good reserve material and tonight's game may see one or more sophomores making their court bow for the first time. McAfee and Beedin, guards; Gafner, Van Dettler, Holcomb, Ardziejewski and Wilcox are forward prospects who have shown promise in practice this week.

TANK PROSPECTS ARE QUITE BUSY

Starting the season with a nucleus of six lettermen from previous seasons and a group of promising sophomores from last year's crack freshman team, Coach R. A. Dwyer looks forward to one of the most successful swimming seasons in Spartan history.

Headed by Capt. Horace Craig, major letter winner last year in the back stroke and Ray Schabel, another major letterman in the free-style, the squad is working out daily at the pool in order to get into shape for one of the most ambitious schedules ever undertaken by Green and White swimmers.

Besides Craig, the backstroke will be represented by Boulder, a sophomore. In the free-style will be Schabel, Howard Clark, Craig, James Hitchell, John Tate, star of two years ago, Snyder, Howard Higley, Boncher, and DeWick. Breast stroke candidates, headed by Dale Vaughn, are Seeley, Snyder, and Bud Smith. Lovewell, Smith, and Tate will uphold the Spartans in the distances, and Hauger and Clark will compete in the dives.

The complete schedule has not been announced, but indications are that some of the strongest teams in the western conference will be met including Michigan, Chicago, Indiana, and Northwestern. A triangular meet with Case and Western Reserve of Cleveland is also on the ticket. The first meet is with Grand Rapids Junior college.

Next Thursday, Dec. 11, Detroit Northwestern high school, comes to East Lansing to engage the State freshmen in a dual meet.

Inter-Fraternity Bowling

Next week will mark the start of the final matches in the Inter-Fraternity bowling tournament with the Phi Kappa Psi team, champions, scheduled to play on Dec. 12. The Phi Kappa Psi team, who placed third in the inter-fraternity matches last year, are the second best team in the tournament. The game is expected to be close and the winner will probably win the final match. In the second game the Tri-Kappa chapters of Phi Kappa Psi will meet the Phi Kappa Psi team, who placed third in the inter-fraternity matches last year. The Phi Kappa Psi team, who placed third in the inter-fraternity matches last year, are the second best team in the tournament.

As all college wrestling tournaments will be held next week Dec. 11 and 12 in an effort to interest more men in the sport and to include Coach G. L. Van Alstyne in the material for the coming year. The preliminary will be held for all weights. Wednesday and Thursday afternoon at 4:30 p.m. will be the final afternoon. With only two lettermen back, preliminary for a possible 1931 team are being held. State candidates are needed especially in the heavier weights. Twenty-seven men are out at present including several national winners from previous years.

Capt. Norman Blaine did not return to school as was the case with Coach Blaine's brother, George, who was on last year's team. Trampoline in the 145 pound class and American 150 pounds are also being represented. Winners who were expected for practice.

Other possibilities are Brindle, a sophomore, and Ball, who was runner-up in 1929. These men wrestle at 115 pounds. In the 135 pound class Steve Larson and the leading competitor, Larson, are the leading competitors.

Perhaps the Michigan State wrestling team will be represented by A. M. colleges. Larson as a part of the Michigan State team for several years in the past. In the 135 pound class Steve Larson and the leading competitor, Larson, are the leading competitors.
