Small Progress Staff to Action; Only One-third of Necessary Number of Subscriptions Now on Hand; Attempt Student-to-Student Contact in Drive.

Staff appointments for the 1931-1932 Wolverine were announced today by Isabelle Poulson, managing editor, as work on the college yearbook is getting under way for an improving edition commemorating the 75th anniversary of Michigan State college.

As the half year period in the Wolverine's intensive management subscription campaign was reached, it became apparent yesterday that little or no progress was being made in the attempt to raise the alarmingly low ratio of student subscriptions.

Business Manager James Truman announced last night that only 394 students had subscribed to the Wolverine, and that he needed at least 1,250 before he could allow the publication to go to press. The staff appointments follow:

HONOR DINNER GIVEN WATKINS

Banquet Will Take Place of Regular Varsity Club Affair.

A testimonial dinner in honor of L. Whitney Watkins, for the past 12 years a member of the State Board of Agriculture, will take the place of the regular annual Varsity banquet on Oct. 21 this year. This year's annual affair will occur in the Union building in the evening following the game. Attendance will be through invitation only and about 200 members are expected to attend.

L. Whitney Watkins, who retired next January after 12 years of service in connection with the state board, was with the class of 1893. He was a basketball player and manager while in college and is now a member of the Alumni Varsity club. Because of his interest in the Alumni Varsity club and athletes in general during his term on the state board, the Alumni Varsity club in cooperation with the alumni association and regular Varsity club have decided to put on this testimonial banquet in his honor at homecoming time.

The general chairman of the banquet is L. L. Ermold, 37, and he has a number of sub-committees working under him. Leslie H. Belknap, 99, of East Lansing is trying to secure an outstanding speaker for the occasion and a very special program is being worked out.

An important Wolverine staff meeting will be held Wednesday night at 7:30 o'clock at the Union. Subscription campaign workers are asked to turn in their money at the Union desk today or to attend the meeting. New staff members are desired.

Miss Magdalene Fox and Margaret Ryan.

Fraternities Helen Norton, women; Katherine Kemp, music art and drama; Ruth Dowd, and Christine Connor, men's athletics; Robert D. Bell, Curtis Rogers, and Arthur Kunkel.

Assistants to the advertising staff are Alan Dodge, LeVere Logan, Jas. A. Porter, and Frank DuRyne. Gramum reminded the student body last night that under a ruling of the college publications department made last year, no publication of a Wolverine is permitted unless a sufficient number of subscriptions to make the printing solvent is obtained. He spoke of the state that started last fall when it appeared almost certain that enough subscriptions would not be forthcoming. His warning was emphatically to the same point, that if at least 1,250 were not reached this year, publication of States annual yearbook would be stopped. Nov. 1 has been set as the deadline for subscriptions.

Meanwhile an intensive student subscription campaign has been under way for the past week under the supervision of Gramum. In addition the Wolverine management is offering a special price for group pictures to all sorority and fraternity houses reporting a hundred per cent individual subscription ratio.

According to Miss Poulson every attempt is being made to make this year's book as reasonable a one as possible. Pointing out that every Wolverine for the past three years has come "in the red," she emphasized as to whether or not a yearbook is to be published this year. She pointed out that her staff obtain printing and engraving rates.

Novel Covers, Illustrations Feature New Grid Programs

Short Stories and Historical Sketches are Other Innovations.

Bright, snappy covers in four colors, fashion notes for women and men, witty cartoons, school history sketches are some of the improvements which have been incorporated into this year's programs for Michigan State football games. As the program has developed, so has the innovation, which is greater this season than in previous years.

Busiest program of the season will be the one for the Syracuse game on Oct. 31, for which there has been already scheduled a dizzy story "Football for the Home" by A. C. M. Aoz, Jr. as well as other features.

The Georgetown game program will carry a story by Katherine Bush entitled "What a Young Girl Should Know" while Corey Ford's story, "Bad News—If the World Were Played According to the Hollywood Version of College Life" will be printed in the program for Saturday's game with Illinois Wesleyan.

According to an announcement by Laurin P. Brown of the Publications office, who supervises the making of the programs, innovations in this year's picture bulletins of the games are a description of the college from which the visiting team comes by a person attending that institution, and stories about the home campus, of school history, and of important persons and singular events connected with Michigan

Hunters May "Fighting Bob" Monnett Help Wardens is Heart of State Attack

Numbered Bands on Slain Fowls Can Be Sent in to Game Division.

Pleasant hunters this year will have an opportunity to assist the state in obtaining desirable information about this game bird by sending in crops for analysis and by reporting the leg band numbers of any birds shot.

All of the cock birds released from the state game farm have been marked with a small aluminum band attached to the leg of each bird. Birds released on private shooting preserves have also been tagged with private bands. If hunters who kill birds having any of these bands will send the band together with information as to where and when the bird was killed to the game division, department of conservation, Lansing, much information as to the migratory habits and movements of the birds may be obtained.

Through the cooperation of the Michigan division of the Izaak Walton League and the department of conservation, P. D. Burke is making a detailed study of food habits of plovers. He has established a field laboratory near Williamson, and has been working in the vicinity for several months.

HUGE LOCAL CROWD ACCOMPANIES SPARTAN GRIDMEN TO WEST POINT BANQUET MOTIF TO BE AUTUMN

Reporter Is High in Praise of Hospitality Given to State Team.

A small army of Michigan State students, ably assisted by a good sized representation of Lansing and East Lansing townpeople, made up the Spartan cheering section in Miché Stadium at West Point last Saturday. A large portion of the spectators in the east stands was composed of Michigan State students. Yesterday as the tired but pleased Spartans returned to the campus, many stories of the game and things pertinent to the game and changed each student relating in glowing details the beauties of the extension and the ovation accorded the Michigan State delegation at the United States Military Academy. Hospitality was the slogan of army officials who were assigned to look after the well-being of the Spartan team and its followers. The team on its arrival at the reservation on the peaceful and scenic Hudson was immediately taken to a hotel where arrangements for the squad's stay had been made.

After a short practice drill the team was entertained at a dinner at the hotel. Again in the evening the team was honored at the hotel. The team was honored at the hotel. The team was honored at the hotel.

WELCOME DEMONSTRATION MOST IMPRESSIVE OF ANY, SAY STUDENTS, OFFICIALS

Student Council and Blue Key Combine to Get Classes Excused; Estimate Crowd at Two Thousand; Orderly Spirit of Meeting Highly Commended.

The most orderly and impressive demonstration of welcome ever to be given a Michigan State gridiron squad on its return from foreign fields was extended yesterday morning to 28 Spartan football men when they arrived from West Point.

Debarbing at the Union station in Lansing at 10 o'clock Monday morning the Green and White gridmen, coaches and team assistants were brought to the college in a cavalcade of more than a score of privately owned cars. Preceded by a detachment of state police motorcycle officers, the convoy stretched through downtown streets for an eighth of a mile.

Through the joint efforts of the Student Council and Blue Key, national service fraternity, classes were excused at 10 o'clock in the morning by order of Pres. R. S. Shaw. Approximately 2,000 students and faculty gathered immediately in front of the gymnasium. Headed by a corps of yell-leaders and the Spartan military band the assembled student body marched en masse to the west entrance of the college. There they crowded the sidewalks for more than two hours.

As the train of returning football men reached the entrance to the stadium, the most dramatic of the two mishaps occurred about 60 miles from West Point between Newburg and Middleton when R. W. Hallock, 32, driving a light sedan, was forced to leave the game before its completion to rush another student back to Lansing because of the serious illness of a near relative. As the pair were speeding down a long hill a woman and a large dog crossed the highway. To avoid hitting the dog, Hallock ran over the car. In doing so the car swerved sharply to one side and crashed into a guard rail at the edge of the road. Damage to the vehicle was serious enough to cause the pair to abandon it.

A heady driver by the name of Hallock, 32, carelessly accepted a hand-off without the drawback in possibly an unassuming car he was equipped with the best of the best. The car was a light sedan and was being driven by a young man who was driving at a high rate of speed. The Curlew May Ring At the University of Kansas the Pan-Hellenic council has been discussing the advisability of a curlew which would send out a warning whistle for all events in campus in return for their respective schools within ten minutes. This project may not materialize as the council members do not show much enthusiasm, and most of the student body remains indifferent.

Juniors and Seniors Favored Co-gate freshmen and sophomores were recently deprived of the privilege of dining on operating cars while attending college. The upper classes were given the responsibility in making this regulation effective but they believed that the university should assume some of it. Consequently the registrar's office is now registering cars and giving to each applicant a sticker to paste in the lower right hand corner of the windshield. The sticker is a narrow C inside of which is the word "student" and the year 1931-32. When registering the cars students must present their car and operator's license.

At Co-gate much interest has been aroused in favor of a polo team. If a team is organized the ponies will be hired from the newly established Overlook Riding academy. The qualifying scores for the All-College Golf tournament have been posted and the rights arranged. The rights should be played off by Monday, Oct. 19, and the results turned in at the Gym.

It has been decided to have one girl from every sorority write a criticism of the present plan to be submitted in two weeks to the council for its consideration. There will be no rushing until Oct. 14, four weeks from the publication.

Formerly the National Pan-Hellenic convention has been postponed by a hurricane but this year at St. Louis, the assembly will be composed of student members one girl from each college.

Y. W. C. A. Drive For Membership Ends Thursday

More Than 120 Women Enter in First Three Days of Campaign.

The Y. W. C. A. membership drive will end Thursday, Oct. 15. All girls should be members of the board before that date. The success of the drive is evidenced by the fact that new members totaled 120 girls at the end of the first three days. This year a new system is being used which requires members to join every year. Previously membership was carried over until graduation. There are no specified dues, but donations are welcomed.

The induction service will be held at 4 o'clock Oct. 15 at the Peoples church. At this meeting new members will receive membership cards. Permission for absence from this meeting must be obtained from the president.

The first membership meeting of last year will be held at 7:30 Thursday, Oct. 22, in the student parlors at the church. There will be two general meetings a term and maximum absence from three meetings a year automatically cancels membership. Freshman girls can obtain permission to go to the meetings from the president or house mother.

Pertinent Bits of Historical Information About Michigan State College.

By NATE FRY 100,000 cubic feet of air is used every minute in the ventilating system at the Chemistry building.

Two busts have recently been placed on the walls of the study room leading to the main study room of the library. The bust on the right as one is ascending the stairs is that of the Honorable Justin Morrow, former United States senator and father of the land grant colleges. The bust on the left is that of the Honorable Edmund Willlet who was president of this college from 1885 to 1889 and resigned to become the Assistant United States Secretary of Agriculture. The latter bust was executed by Burley K. Canfield, class of 1889.

Cement walks were first placed on this campus about forty years ago.

Professor A. J. Clark, head of the chemistry department, is starting on his second quarter century of teaching at this college. One of his distinctions is that he has witnessed more football games in which State teams have participated than any other fan.

When this college was founded California was the only state west of the Missouri river.

It is interesting to note that nearly every college on the Michigan State News exchange list mentions a marked increase in its enrollment of students for 1931. It is believed that unemployment is a factor in this situation.

Dr. E. R. Vanderslice spoke to the C. G. A. at the same hour on "What I Saw in Europe."

Open house was held at the home of Mr. Kunkel, 223 Dorothy lane, from 4 to 6 for the students.

The B. C. U. for men and women met in the student parlors at 6 o'clock under the direction of Miss Eleanor Lightfoot. The topic for discussion was "Does the Church Challenge Our Loyalty?" Miss Sater took charge of the evening program.

At 7:30 o'clock Mr. Kunkel talked on "The Wet Parade," giving opinions and observations of the look of the same name by Upton Sinclair.

Sign-Out Slips - Popular With Sorority Girls

House Council of A. W. S. Adopts Convenient Scheme.

From all reports the new system of signing-out slips recently adopted by the house council of the A. W. S. has proven satisfactory. Sorority girls find the new system especially convenient because every individual girl signs on one slip that contains "sign-out" space for the whole week thus eliminating the separate week-end slip on each slip the last column, which totals the number of late minutes of each girl, is advantageous for filing purposes.

Girls who wish special permission for signing out at any time may obtain it from Marion Kline, president of the A. W. S., who may be found in the office at the Women's building on Tuesday, 2-3 and Friday, 2-4.

Adelia Brewster, whose hour there are Wednesday, 11-12 and 4-5, or Dorothy Prudeaux, who will be there on Monday, 4-5, and Thursday, 9-10.

Every girl who receives special permission for signing out must place beside the hour she returns, the initials of one of these three girls who gave her the permission.

Another requirement of the house council is that all the signing-out slips for each week be handed in by 9:00 p. m. the following Monday.

The house council plans to meet again Oct. 14 to discuss the new system and its progress. Another problem requiring consideration is that of Sunday night supper in the dormitories. It is not thought a desirable policy to request the girls to stay in the dining room on Sunday night and the council is open to any suggestions which may be forthcoming.

CO-EDS APPLY FOR RIDING TEST TO CAPT. VOORHIES

Junior and senior girls who wish permission to ride alone on college horses may apply to Capt. Voorhies of the cavalry department to secure an appointment to take a test in riding. If the test is successfully passed the applicant is granted the privilege asked for. The fee is twenty-five cents for two hours.

Right to serve near beer at their annual smoker was denied sophomores at the University of Minnesota by the college administration. The sophomores nearly had near beer.

CROWLEYMEN TAKE SMALL END OF SCORE IN TITANIC BATTLE WITH ARMY'S FIGHTING ELEVEN

Lack of Reserves and Competent Aerial Defense Proves Stumbling Block to Michigan State Gridders in Eastern Invasion Saturday; Monnett Only Scorer.

By CLARENCE VAN LOPIK

Overwhelmed by sheer force of numbers and not by lack of courage or nerve, Michigan State's courageous grid eleven went down to its first defeat of the season at West Point, N. Y. Saturday afternoon when they were beaten by a powerful Army team, 20 to 7. The Cadets were forced to extend themselves to the limit to check the determined Spartan grid team and the score is no indication to the real game that was staged on Michie field.

Coach Jimmy Crowley's men played the Army to a standstill in the first quarter and the highly touted Cadet eleven had to send in fresh troops as the second quarter opened. The Spartans had three first downs before the West Pointers gave any indication of effectiveness. Passes were what spelled the downfall of the Crowleymen who proved themselves superior to the service team in straight football. In the second period the Army completed two passes each of which paved the way for a touchdown. Fields, Cadet back, demonstrated he could handle the puck with plenty of accuracy and two passes, one for 64 yards and another for 35 yards, eventually gave the West Pointers a 14 to 0 lead at the half. State's aerial defense was not all that it could have been due to the fact that the leg weary Spartan backs were unable to effectively cover the fresh and speedy Cadet halfback that performed in the second period.

Monnett Scores
At half time it looked as if the odds were too great for the Crowley men as they trailed at the end of a 14 to 0 count. The second half had barely started, however, when Bob Monnett, State's outstanding halfback, broke through his right tackle and with excellent interference sprinted 68 yards to a touchdown. It was the outstanding feat of the day and gave Spartan fans new hope as the West-Pointers realized victory was by no means assured.

It was in the third quarter that State's followers saw their hopes of victory fade as Monnett tried to pass. At half time it looked as if the odds were too great for the Crowley men as they trailed at the end of a 14 to 0 count. ## No wonder men smoke PIPES!

EVERY PIPE SMOKER has the satisfaction of knowing he has on masculine right that the women won't take away from him. They do leave our pipes alone.

And though the girls may not know it, they're leaving us one of the finest smokes a man can have. There's something calm and soothing about a pipe and good tobacco. I lead to clear-headed thinking. Perhaps that's why the leaders—the real men of the world—are pipe smokers.

College men like a pipe—packed with cool, slow-burning Edgeworth's, the favorite pipe tobacco in 42 out of 54 colleges. It's cut especially for pipes, to give a cooler, drier smoke. You can buy Edgeworth wherever good tobacco is sold. Or for a special sample packet, write to Larus & Bro. Co., 105 S. 2nd St., Richmond, Va.

The favorite smoke of college men.

A pipe is for the smoke for girls.

Minor Sports

The Varsity tennis tournament which reached the quarter final stage should be wound up by this weekend. All except two of the members of the varsity and last year's freshman team are entered in the tournament. Stanley West is forced out of action temporarily because of a minor foot operation. Des Pine, the other absentee, is on the basketball squad.

Some of the results of the quarter finals are: Joe d. Goodwin 6-4 6-2; Norris d. Nordwall 6-2 6-2.

Only four of the ten scheduled first round matches in the Spartan tennis tourney have been played. Coach Ball urges all players to play their first rounds as soon as possible so the second and third rounds may be completed this week.

The results of matches played so far are: A. Hoyt d. R. Reite 4-6 6-3 6-1; A. Brown d. H. Schultz 2-6 8-6 10-8; R. Millard d. T. Soule 6-1 6-3; C. Palmer d. A. Cobb 6-2-6-1.

The awards for the winner and runner-up of the tournament are medals. The consolation fight winner also receives a medal.

The Intramural department is sponsoring an Interfraternity Golf tournament to be played at Indian Hills on the morning of Oct. 10 while the football team is at West Point.

The tournament will have no bearing on the Interfraternity award.

STATE TO HAVE NEW POLO TEAM

The military department is sponsoring a polo team which has already begun practice. The coaching and management of the organization has been placed in the hands of Lieut. C. H. Martin, a newcomer to the staff who has had considerable experience on regimental teams. About 22 men are wanted to start with. In about six weeks the squad will be cut to 12, enough for four indoor teams.

Most of the fun this fall will be spent in training the ponies and putting them in condition. Activities will be abandoned when the weather becomes too severe but as soon as the basketball floor is removed from the riding hall next spring practice will be begun in earnest.

Several matches will be arranged between the men on the squad as well as a game with the Lansing National Guard unit.

State managed to threaten again before the period was over and advanced to Army's 15-yard line on some brilliant ball carrying by Monnett and Elliowitz. They were unable to cash in on their opportunity however and the Cadets had line as the quarter ended.

Goal Drive Fails
Stecker failed trying to get through Brunette as the final period opened. Army punted to State's 40-yard line. Elliowitz picked up nine yards off center. Monnett advanced the ball to Army's 43-yard line for a first down. Monnett attempted a pass but it was knocked down. Kowatch heaved a pass to Monnett who carried it to Army's 10-yard line before being downed. Monnett advanced the ball to Army's 4-yard line but State's Fields passed to Kopezak on State's 15-yard line where Kowatch tackled him but the Army back got loose and ran unimpeded to a touchdown. Herb added the extra point making the score Army 14 State 0 as the half ended.

Third Quarter Better
Jimmy Crowley was fuddled on the field with his Spartan protégés just before the third quarter got under way. Capt. Price kicked off for Army to Abe Elliowitz who was downed on his 32-yard line. Jerry Jones collected five yards at left end. Bob Monnett grabbed the ball on the next play and slipping through the Cadet line ended the secondary defense and raced 64 yards to a touchdown. He was afforded good interference in his sensational run. He booted the extra point to give State a total of seven points.

Both teams resorted to punting to keep the opposing side from threatening. The heat and bruising play was beginning to tell on the Spartans who took time out. Elliowitz passed to Vandermeer for a nine-yard gain. Monnett failed to gain at right tackle. Elliowitz made a first down when he crashed through for a first down on Army's 35-yard line. Monnett attempted to pass but was unable to locate a receiver until Price. Army captain was upon him. As the ball left his hand Price batted it into the air and caught it as it came down. He galloped to State's 1-yard line where he was pulled down from the rear by Handy. Kilday went through the line for a touchdown. Army failed to collect the extra point.
