WELLS HALL ACCOMMODATIONS WILL BE LIMITED TO FRESHMEN BY NEW STATE BOARD RULING

Administration and Housing Officials Believe New Plan Will Decrease Difficulties of Operating Men's Dormitory; Boarding Club to Remain Closed.

College operated men's dormitories, as far as upper-classmen are concerned, in all probability will be non-existent next year. The State Board of Agriculture at their regular monthly meeting today are considering the advisability of limiting all upper classmen from Wells Hall, last remaining men's dormitory, next year. The measure making the dormitory a freshman rooming house in the future was approved and passed by the faculty in their meeting Monday evening. There is some little doubt but that the governing body of the college will carry out the recommendation of the faculty and make Wells a freshman dormitory.

COUNCIL MAKES ELECTION RULE

Student Council Acts to Prevent Campaigning in Union Building.

At the last meeting of the Student Council on Tuesday night a motion was made and carried to the effect that no active campaigning should be conducted in the Union building at the coming elections. This ruling will be interpreted to mean that such practices are barred in the future anywhere within the inner doors leading to the first floor.

Two major changes have been made in the original plans for the Tenth Annual R. O. T. C. Horse Show to be held here May 20, according to an announcement made yesterday by Capt. Marion I. Voorhis, general manager of the event. The first alteration is in the matter of judges. Capt. J. L. Bentley of the Ottawa Hills Hunt club will preside over the entries in the hunter, polo, and military classes, and Glenn N. Ellis, Clarkston, Michigan, will judge the saddle horses in place of those men announced in the official prize lists.

Oldest Scholastic Honorary Has Local Graduate Chapter

Phi Beta Kappa Association of Lansing Has Forty-eight Members at Present.

Although due to the omission of Latin in the courses offered by this college, there is no undergraduate chapter of the national honorary scholastic fraternity Phi Beta Kappa, there has been for a number of years a graduate association made up of men and women living in Lansing and East Lansing who have won distinction as scholars in various colleges throughout the country. The fraternity of Phi Beta Kappa is the oldest Greek letter fraternity in the United States. It was founded at the College of William and Mary in 1776 and since that time admission to its ranks has come to mean distinction as scholars everywhere strive. It is not a social organization, but rather bases its qualifications on scholastic record and attainment.

CO-EDS TO VOTE ON A. W. S. CODE

Revised Constitution to Be Voted Upon at All-College Election.

A revised constitution of the A. W. S. featuring major changes in organization and by-law will be presented to the women students to be voted upon at the all-college election next Wednesday after receiving the approval of the A. W. S. Council. Differences in organization include a division of powers with an executive board meeting once each week to handle all disciplinary cases, and a council meeting once each month to take care of social and service work, instead of the old executive council made up of all the members acting as a unit on all business, both disciplinary and social.

PASSED

The State Board of Agriculture acting on a recommendation by the faculty at a meeting today passed a resolution designating Wells Hall as an exclusive freshman dormitory. The order will go into effect at the beginning of next fall term.

Wells Hall has had a turbulent year and has been the scene of many interesting incidents in the past several years. There have been quarrels and a number of improvements have made the place more habitable. In making the building a place for freshmen only the college administration believes it is doing the building most favorably for the greatest good.

The club had excellent dancing in recent weeks and for most of its existence had been operated by students. The Economic department operated it for two years but abandoned it last fall as an unprofitable undertaking.

SEVERAL GROUPS TO VISIT CAMPUS

Approximately two hundred are expected in the group.

They will also head picnic lunches at noon and at night.

R. W. Tenney has just received word from the Rogers City school stating that they are sending a group of seniors here Saturday to inspect the college.

UNION ANNOUNCES DAILY PRIZE OFFER

Cafeteria Patrons to Receive Tickets on Ten Awards.

In carrying out its policy of bargains and special offers to students who patronize it, the Union management today announced that beginning Wednesday, May 25, it would offer a number of prizes daily to users of the cafeteria. The prizes will be awarded to holders of lucky numbers, which will be on a ticket given them as they pass through the line into the cafeteria. These tickets will be made in duplicate, and the receiver is to place one-half of each ticket in a box which the Union provides, and to keep the other half. Drawings will be made at night and the winning numbers announced the following morning and posted in the cafeteria.

Manager Ray Bagen announced the following prizes to be awarded to the lucky persons each day: Five $1.00 meal tickets, five prizes which may consist of a winner's choice of one package of cigarettes, three packages of gum, or three candy bars. One stipulation which the Union management makes in presenting this novel attraction is that the winners of the $1.00 meal tickets must use the entire ticket on the day it is awarded, and that the other prizes must be taken on the day won.

Interest ran high in the eliminations yesterday as a total of 92 juniors, 182 sophomores and 121 freshmen cast their ballots on candidates for president, vice-president, secretary, and treasurer for next year's three-year class. The candidates voted on at this time were voted at the eliminations in class meetings last Monday, May 16.

ANNOUNCE CAST OF SENIOR PLAY

Veteran Thespians Appear in Annual Dramatic Production.

"Little Old New York" an entertaining farce comedy by RITA Johnson Young will be offered by Theta Alpha Phi as the annual senior play. The production will be staged in the Forest of Arden on the evening of June 7. Cast against the background of aristocratic New York in the early nineteenth century when a young inventor was attempting to obtain backing for his brain-child, the first steamboat, the play introduces some of the glamorous characters of the time such as John Jacob Astor, Cornelius Vanderbilt, Washington Irving, Betty Schuyler, and Henry Brevoort.

The action which takes place in the garden of the DeLavan house and in a prize-fighting ring is centered around a will leaving a fortune to a boy in Ireland with the stipulation that if the boy were not found in a year the money should go to a cousin, D. Lavan. The boy had died in poverty and his twin sister, unacquainted with his name, had been kidnapped by a boy's group in the Irish army. Her arrival at the DeLavan home, accompanied by her father, and the ensuing complications, furnish some of the most interesting action.

number of Michigan State alumni "Saint's Rest." Wells hall, and other historic men's dormitories represented more than room rent and an essential aid in getting a college education. They did not move out after the first year but remained the entire year as it was imperative that they take advantage of the low rates if they remained in college. There are some Wells hall residents at the present time who are confronted with the same situation.

It will be interesting to watch developments at the freshman dormitory next year. The day of the convocation is past it was said here recently by a member of the administrative body who has attended all college meetings that have packed the largest auditorium on this campus. The annual program of lectures sponsored by the Liberal Arts board and the large number of concerts given here lately have come to take the place of the convocation. Students no longer care to hear the man who must take time off between more important engagements to speak to them. The dignity of the paid-for lecture has a greater appeal.

In many respects the passing of the convocation is not to be regretted. The students lecture course does or could or should take its place. However, there is some room for an honest doubt. The speakers who appear in our lecture course are professionals, most of whom have a number of stock addresses. Since their lectures are prepared at the beginning of the season and merely delivered whenever they have an engagement during the following three or four months, their messages are usually not quite fresh. They lack the element of timeliness. Furthermore, they are highly specialized. The lecturer offers an insight into a new phase of knowledge and in doing that he neglects what we may call a survey of the field to which his knowledge belongs.

The convocation speaker on the other hand usually has a timely topic and he treats it broadly. It seems reasonable to believe that at this time a lecture on the experiment in progress at the University of Chicago would take well with the students here. Most students are more familiar with what is going on at Chicago than they were two or three years ago when the first lecture was delivered here since interest in the University under its five year plan has been constantly on the increase. It would probably be impossible to obtain a representative of the University of Chicago to speak here on our lecture course.

Brades educational leaders, there are several prominent people in the world of letters who occasionally address college audiences in this country. During the past winter Sherwood Anderson appeared at one of the Pacific coast universities where he attracted one of the largest crowds in the institution's history. Some of the editors of our leading national magazines might be secured as convocation speakers, but it is doubtful if one of them could be scheduled as a lecturer of the students' course.

S. C. U. will meet at Pinetum Sunday afternoon at 5 o'clock for a picnic supper and program.

MEN AND WOMEN GLEE CLUBS' CONCERT

As my previous encounters with glee clubs were all in divers churches and were mostly all uncomfortable, it may be understood that your reviewer entertained no great expectations as to the quality of his evening's entertainment as he wended his way toward Tuesday night's concert. It will warm your hearts to hear, however, that this last encounter was extremely comfortable, pleasant, and even elevating. The concert was good.

If any laurels are to be thrown the lion's share should go to the women. Their numbers were almost universally more difficult more varied and better performed than those of the men, and this is said by one who seldom admits any superiority to the fair sex. I liked especially the Night Wind and the Snowstorm especially of the women's presentations and Reapers Song and Border Ballade of the men's.

For future concerts I humbly pre-fer a few suggestions. Let each group perform all its numbers at one sitting and thus avoid the continual fling on and off of both, and as well spare the hands of those spectators who feel called upon to applaud when either appears upon the stage. Also this interchanging sometimes produces an unpleasant reaction caused by the contrast of vocal timbres which takes time to wear off. A plea is as well put in for more combined numbers, the larger volume and greater range which can be obtained by this union is, I think, sufficient cause for its increased use.

COLLEGE DORMS REPORT NORMAL VACANCY LISTS

Total of 518 Students Reside in Three College Dormitories.

Recent figures released by college officials for the spring semester show that the total of campus residents housed in Wells Hall, Mary Mayo Hall, and the Women's Building now numbers 518. Vacancies in all three places total only 81 and conditions in this respect show no change from what is considered normal for this time of year according to statistics made by Ronald Griegson, supervisor of Wells Hall and Miss M. A. Untergrove, housing assistant who provided figures for the two girls' dormitories.

The figures show that Wells Hall with a maximum capacity of 294 men, contains 186 residents, leaving only 108 vacancies. Mary Mayo Hall listed as having accommodations for 246 residents, now has 203 women students with 43 vacancies. The Women's building with facilities for housing 149 co-eds, has 129 in residence there with 20 vacancies. In each case these vacancies refer to persons, not rooms, the number of vacant rooms is much smaller in each case.

At present no boarding club is maintained at Wells Hall. In the girls' dormitories all residents are required to take their meals in the dormitory dining rooms.

BEAU-GUEST

Mary Mayo West was all-a-flutter last Sunday noon. There were gentlemen guests for dinner. For the first time this year the girls returned from crowding around and darning in as soon as the dining room doors were open. Everything went quite smoothly except that two different people started singing at the same time and that no one was quite sure whether the first course was a salad or a cocktail. Oh yes, and the singing of the "Alma Mater" at the close of the meal was a surprise to an embarrassed majority who were already half-wal out the door.

Watson, the needle."

INTEREST RUNS HIGH IN SPRING ELECTIONS

on Tuesday, May 24. The all-college ballot will also include the vote on acceptance of the revised Student Council constitution. A copy of this proposed constitution appeared in the issue of the News four weeks ago. It provides for a large expansion of the powers of student government and defines the duties of the Council in the clear, concise terms which have heretofore been wanting under the old constitution. This proposed constitution has already been approved by the administrative group and faculty of the college and needs only a majority vote of the voting next Wednesday to put it into full effect.

All-College elections are scheduled to occur from 9 to 6 o'clock on May 25 in the Union building. The polls will be in charge of Student Council members and under faculty supervision.

ANNOUNCE CAST FOR SENIOR PLAY

in the cast of "Gruastark" Miss Hammond had roles in "The Tinker" and "The Gossipy Sex" Klank was in "To the Ladies" and "The Cradle Song." All but two of the junior and sophomore members of the cast have appeared in other productions of the honorary dramatics society.

The housemother was, of course completely stupefied at the report. The audacity of the speaker was inconceivable, but nevertheless merited a reply so she appealed to their love for home and mother. "Well, would your mothers let you do a thing like that in your homes?" And the answer "Sure, shed rather have us do it there than on the street and after all, it's only human nature." An intrepid spirit defending a noble cause but, uselessly.

CAMPUS COPS PREFER NICKNAMES

Some of the students of the college do not know our own "campus cops" except as the ones who maintain law and order about the college. Aside from being officers of the law, these men are real fellows and would like to have the students regard them as their friends and not enemies.

At the head of the force is Chief Don Bremer. Don graduated from this school in 1927 after working part time on the force while going to school. He also worked for the East Lansing police force for more experience along that line. Just call him "Don" when you see him, he like it.

R. W. Rogers is another one of the officers who graduated from degree from this school in 1931 and this school. Rogers received his has been with the force of the campus since 1927. He is quite adept in riding a motorcycle and does his bit to make the campus safe for pedestrians. Rogers name is "Dick."

Last but not least we have B. R. Higgins who joined the force in September, 1931. Before coming to this college to work he was working under President Hoover in the Far East. He was working at the time in the Relief corp and served for a long period of time in the Balkan

Forestry Orders Pour In Despite Wide Depression

The depression has not affected the reforestation movement in this state, according to Professor P. A. Herbert, head of the forestry department. The forestry department to date has received orders from approximately four hundred residents of Michigan who will plant seedlings where from 100 to 50,000 trees this spring.

"Our orders this spring," Herbert stated, "came largely from farmers who apparently have not let the depression warp their sense of proportion nor have they lost faith in the future. Expenditure for forestry seedling stock does not bring an immediate return, but it should bring handsome income in future years."

Students at Tabiqueau College recently voted to have a compulsory chapel attendance. States Higgins nickname is "Tom."

OHIO UNIVERSITY HERE TODAY FOR CONTEST WITH KOBSMEN-WOLVERINE GAME WEDNESDAY

U. of M. Struggle to Mark High-light of Spartan Home Season; State to Defend Record Set During Past Few Years of Being Undefeated on Home Field by Ann Arbor Team.

With their winning of a brilliant victory over Notre Dame in their annual contest with the Ramblers last Saturday, Coach John Kobs baseball men were set this afternoon to continue their winning ways, when they encounter a team representing Ohio University on Old College field at 4:10 o'clock.

The contest this afternoon will mark the start of the home stretch of the season for the Spartans. A final drive against teams from Michigan, Michigan Normal, Western State, Chicago, and Notre Dame will be made by State to finish the season.

REGULARS WIN GAME, PRAISE

Crowley Men Run Rough-shod Over Team Composed of Alumni, Reserves.

A team composed of alumni and Spartan reserves proved very little opposition to the first team that Coach Jimmy Crowley had developed this spring when the regulars romped away to eleven touchdowns in a game that ended the spring training sessions last Saturday.

Next Wednesday the rivalry which was started earlier in the year when State went to Ann Arbor to engage the University in a contest, will be continued. The first game of the season as it was called at the end of the sixteenth inning with the score tied at 3-3.

With the arrival of the Michigan team, the Spartans will be called upon to defend a record which they have built up within the last three years of not having been beaten on the home diamond by the University team within that time.

It is highly probable that Charles Griffin will be called upon to face the Wolverine again after his sensational victory over the Notre Dame team Saturday. Anxiety over the hurler's condition was dispelled when the left-handed specialist to treatment and appears to have recovered fully from a side injury which was believed to be serious enough to put in doubt his part in the schedules for the remainder of the season.

Today's opening battery has not been decided upon. Homer Gerard McCallin may get the call to start on the mound. Pemberton who went to George against Hilldale and Pees Fosse who has demonstrated relief hurler will be held in reserve. If the going looks good, Pemberton may even give some of the big league hurlers a chance to show their wares. Webster may be Kobs' pitching selection. It is certain that Floyd Morris will get the catching assignment.

Headlines in the Ramblers' great left-handed Charles Egan, Charles Griffin for the first time in his college pitching career was over the Irish. Griffin's control was perfect with the exception of one inning the fourth. In this inning three successive hit bats. Notre Dame two runs and that she was able to score during the afternoon.

In the fifth inning State's batting 2 to 1. The Spartans came through with four hits when Morris covered the bases with a screaming double and scored himself a moment later. The inning thus produced was sufficient to assure victory since Griffin seemed to pitch better ball as the game proceeded. Up to the ninth inning he had allowed only four hits. In the last frame he gave the Irish two more blows which did not prove fatal damage.

The Spartans take a return game with the Notre Dame team at South Bend June 4.

THIS and THAT BY THE SPORTS EDITOR

NOTRE DAME

Michigan State's rivalry with Notre Dame, one of many years standing, continues to extend to virtually every sport season football. And the Spartans have again shown some of their prowess. The Notre Dame back on the program schedule. Ten years ago the Irish were regular football rivals.

The record this year has three victories for Notre Dame and two for State. Notre Dame won both basketball games and the football match. State has won in track and baseball. This week the Spartans have a chance to even matters with the Irish, since the tennis team of the two schools will compete here Saturday afternoon.

The Michigan State men have dropped only one match this year and had a close one to the University of Michigan.

TRACK

Tomorrow and Saturday nearly 700 athletes representing nine institutions of higher learning within the State of Michigan will be here for the 12th annual state intercollegiate meet. In the past this event has been one of the finest sponsored in the state. Michigan State college extends greetings to the visiting athletes.

One Notre Dame ball player knows that Charles Griffin can lose a fast ball. The regular Ramblers shortstop ducked into one of "Chips" last curve and was knocked out for several minutes. He resumed play in the game but was forced out after a half inning in the field. The crowd applauded the player's courage.

State and Ypsi Conceded Best Chances for State Track Title.

RECORDS THREATENED

BY FAYMIX

The thirtieth Annual State Intercollegiate track and field meet will find the Spartan stadium full of spectators Friday and Saturday with nine schools represented in an attempt to smash previous records.

Schools to be represented are Michigan Normal, Western State, Michigan Normal, Detroit City college, University of Detroit, Olivet, Kalamazoo and Michigan State college. Michigan Normal of Ypsilanti is rated as the strongest competitor for the Spartans, and these two schools will be battling for first place against the entire field of the way things are looked at now.

The deciding factor as to whether the Spartans will win depends on a great deal on the influence of scores by the other institutions on the track and field meet. If further competition subsides more from Huron comes than from State's, the Spartans stand for a win will be greater and vice-versa.

State has eight excellent chances for titles. If five of these can be placed in the Spartan core, the school will have a great chance to take first place away from the stadium.

It is Saturday at U. of D. O'Neil broke the 100 yard dash with the time of 16.4. Ken Lafayette to win the 100 yard dash with the time of 16.4.

YFARLINGS DEFEATED IN TELEGRAPHIC MEET

State Yearlings Dropped a Telegraphic Meet with Ohio Wesleyan

State yearlings dropped a telegraphic meet with Ohio Wesleyan last Saturday by a score of 56 to 69 but at the same time won from Coach Glen Hitchings' Caro high school team by a score of 88 to 33. The results of the Caro meet were used against Wesleyan.

by Swartz of Western State who set a record here last year with the time of 4:16.6. If he is pushed, he may better the mark.

Liberty and Bath are slated to work on the high hurdles for State, with Westcott and Beatty of Ypsi as their toughest opposition. These two Spartans will also be opposed by two Ypsilanti men on the low hurdles, Simmons and Beatty. Beatty is a colored boy who has proven capable in more ways than one for the Hurons.

One of Detroit City college holds the record for the shot put with a throw of 46 feet 9 inches made earlier in the season. The high jump event will be a battle between Schmitt of Western State and Gilbert of Ypsilanti who jumped 6 feet 7 1/2 inches last week. If he can repeat his performance this Saturday, he will have little trouble in capturing the record.

The mile relay will find Western State, Ypsilanti and the Spartans with the strongest teams in the field. There will also be a freshman 880 and two mile relay with the State yearlings in close running with Ypsi and Western State.

STATE TAKES TITANS EASILY

Detroit Team Succumbs to Spartans as Nine Records Fall.

Michigan State track men did not find the going very difficult at the University of Detroit last Saturday and set the Titans down with a score of 90 to 34. Nine meet records were broken.

Ken Lafayette and Bill O'Neil staged a close race in the 100 yard dash with O'Neil winning by about two inches with the time of 9.9. The same as that turned in by Lafayette in the Notre Dame meet the week before.

Otto Pomeroy ran the 800 outdoors for the first time and turned in a win with a new record of 1:59.4. Keast ran the 440 in 51 for a new record, while Adler, Liberty and Bath made a clean sweep of the 120 high hurdles. Lafayette equalled the meet record in the 220 and Bath took the 220 low hurdles.

The one mile relay team composed of Hovey, Thomas, A. Cobb and Pomeroy set a new record of 3:29 with the Kleinbessel, Dill and Pfing set new marks in the broad jump, discus, and javelin.

Twenty-four State men scored points with Kleinbessel tying with Yeager of Detroit for high honors with 10 points to his credit. Lafayette, Bath, Dill, and Pfing were tied for second with eight points each.

DO YOU INHALE?

Certainly... 7 out of 10 smokers inhale knowingly... the other 3 inhale unknowingly

Do you inhale? Seven out of ten smokers know they do. The other three inhale without realizing it. Every smoker breathes in some part of the smoke he or she draws out of a cigarette.

Think, then, how important it is to be certain that your cigarette smoke is pure and clean—to be sure you don't inhale certain impurities!

Do you inhale? Lucky Strike has dared to raise this much-avoided subject... because certain impurities concealed in even the finest, mildest tobacco leaves are removed by Luckies' famous purifying process. Luckies created that process. Only Luckies have it!

Do you inhale? More than 20,000 physicians, after Luckies had been furnished them for tests, basing their opinions on their smoking experience, stated that Luckies are less irritating to the throat than other cigarettes.
