18-6 Upset Handed Spartans By Boston College Eleven To Spoil Undefeated Record

Boston Upsets State---So What?

Saturday morning Michigan State was a Rose Bowl contender. Saturday afternoon they were a team smarting with defeat at the hands of a college whose squad was reputedly very weak. Yet on their return Sunday they were accorded one of the most enthusiastic pep meetings ever held on this SPARTAN YARDAGE BEST

Such acclaim was a surprise to some, perhaps; but regular Outplay Eastern Eleven But stuff to the student body, the same student body that had been only mildly enthusiastic about the Michigan victory.

The reason for this loyalty lies in the fact that Michigan State students have the utmost confidence in their team and coaching staff. They know that their team puts up a scrap, whether it wins or loses. And though they expect a victory, Spartans have dreamed of an they don't turn their backs on a defeat.

They also realize that football is a game, not a business. When alumni and students demand a team which cannot be three easily earned victories beaten, no matter how stiff the opposition may be, they cre- over highly rated opposition ate a commercial attitude toward the sport which has injured earlier this season, and the it in many colleges. Annual Grid Classic FALL SCHEDULE

Saturday afternoon State plays Washington University of St. Louis on Macklin Field. Last Saturday has passed just as all night mares do sooner or later. Although they are bound to occur at one time or another. The big problem now is to rally around and help the Spartan eleven and coaching staff whip the next four opponents, in Season's Opener; State Washington, Temple, Marquette and Loyola.

Team Looks Strong.

Charlie Bachman's club which had been traveling at furious clip until the Boston game was almost sure to have a bad day, just as all teams do at one time or another. The whole idea is that everyone interested in the team had no idea when that day would come. From hele it appears as if the schedule is the big bugaboo. The fact that the State coaching staff must point the team for the Michigan game so early in the season is a bad factor. However, at arther have the Spartans defeat your Ann Arbor rivals than anyone else State plays, yet in pointing for that early game it leaves the Spartans wide open for a let-up somewhere along mid-season. Just as W. W. Edgar, sports editor of the Detroit Free Press stated in his column this morning, "playing part of Giant Killer early in the year what has ruined State's otherwise brilliant season."
