Double or Nothing

Presented as belated Christmas gifts to Dr. Donald Hayworth, head of the speech department, FRANK GIRTS, Donna Lou and Francine May, The young ladies, born January 8 at Sparrow hospital in Lansing, weighed five eleven ounces and five eleven ounces, respectively. No difficulty arose in selecting names. Donna was named for her father and Francine after her mother.

According to reports, the doctor expects to find them excellent subjects for mental development experiments. Mrs. Hayworth and the twins are doing nicely at their home, 809 Newton street, Lansing.

Billography Serenade

WAR paid tribute to Western teachers college one day last week. Said the announcer on the air: "We will now play 'taps' for the 31 patients who have transferred to West this term."

Transfer of Training

Students sometimes put their hands to strange tasks. Bart Collins, former varsity wrestler, and graduate of last year's class, is now employed in keeping C. I. O. organizers from working into the largest sugar cane mill in the world, located in Clewiston, Fla.

Burning the Beans?

Rapt Norman, journalism instructor in the market for a new shower any day now. He is leaving his bachelor room for a neat little apartment, bedroom-kitchen-and-bath equipped with a large apron and a hot box. He is going to try his hand at mastering the culinary art. Asked if he were contemplating marriage, Mr. Norman replied: "I'm going to try out the experiment first."

He's On the Air

A Theater former sports editor of the State News, has accepted a position as announcer with station WIBM, Jackson. He will leave college to take over his new position soon.

State Coeds Organize Teams For Swimming Competition

Why go to California to swim amidst ice and snow? Coeds here have organized swimming teams to compete for the intramural cup offered by WAA. Meets will be held February 15 and 22. Class teams will be chosen for the WAA meet to be staged March 1 and 8. Swimming in at least one of the intramural meets is required to compete in the WAA event.

Dunford Assails Theory Of Recession Cause

Prof. C. S. Dunford, business administration department, assailed the "uncertainty" theory of recession in a talk before the Lansing Sales and Advertising Managers club Monday, January 24. Professor Dunford said that "it is a camouflage of words to declare that the recession is due to business 'uncertainty.'" Every student of business knows that under a price system demand cannot be controlled and that management is the dominant factor in business success."

Prizes Listed In Literary Contest

Short Stories, Essays, Poems to be Judged April 30

Rewards for skill in writing will be available to Michigan State students again this year in the annual short story, poetry, and George F. Lawson essay contests, sponsored by the English department. E. P. Lawrence, instructor in English, announced yesterday that the contest is now open and will close at noon, April 30.

Any undergraduate student may compete in the short story and poetry contests. Prizes for the short stories are: First, $30, second, $20, and third, $10. Poetry awards are $15, $10, and $5, for first, second, and third places, respectively. The Lawson essay competition is open to undergraduate men only, and there is one prize of $25 awarded.

A contestant may enter both the short story and the poetry contests, but no contestant may submit more than one short story or more than two groups of poems. A student who has previously taken a first prize in one of these contests is limited to entrance in one contest only in the essay contest may submit only one manuscript not to exceed 2,500 words in length. A student who wins the prize is thereafter disqualified from competition. The college has the right to print the winning essay in any college publication.

Musicale Sees Orchestration

Contributions for all three contests must be turned in at the English office in Morrill hall. Instructions for the preparation of manuscripts may be secured at this office by any student interested in entering the contests.

Last year the winners in the three competitions were Olga Dinach, who won both the short story and poetry prizes, and Roger P. Wilcox, who was given the Lawson award.

Snow Gets in His Eyes; He Drives on Sidewalk

The snow was flying Tuesday. It was a cloudy day. Perhaps that is the reason a slight gray haired gentleman with a jaunty gait was driving a car on a campus sidewalk.

Having strayed from the drive at the rear of the administration building, he took the long diagonal walk leading to the home economics building. He nodded cordially to the students as he drove along, gaily showing them off the sidewalk.

Finally he reached the road, wheeled the car to the right, and drove around to park his car behind the administration building. As he walked up the steps, he grinned and tipped his hat.

State Editors Timreck and Killeen To Convene In Union

Newsmen to discuss current problems at annual meet.

Combining serious business and hilarious pleasure in characteristic journalistic style, the Michigan Press Association offers a varied program for its fifty-third annual conference, meeting at the Union building Thursday and Friday and at the Old Hotel Saturday.

All meetings held at the college will be open to students in journalism. Topics of the conference cover a wide range of practical problems in the newspaper field. The members of the English department will also be present.

The M. P. A. includes 30 daily and 200 weekly newspapers from all over the state. Three hundred delegates to the conference are expected, according to Gene Allman, manager of the Michigan Press Association.

Governor Murphy, the State Board of Agriculture, and many state officials and legislators will attend the annual banquet Thursday night in the Union ballroom. Both Governor Murphy and President Shaw will extend greetings to the conference at that time and Leon D. Case, secretary of state, will introduce the state officials.

George Averill, editor of the Birmingham Eclectic, will be toastmaster and W. W. Loomis, president of the National Editorial association, will speak on the topic "Our Far-Flung Battle Lines."

Another traditional feature of the conference is the annual parade, which will be held Friday night at 8 o'clock on the main street of East Lansing. The parade will be sponsored by the Michigan State college.

The picture was shown here under the direction of G. W. Radtke, instructor in modern languages. The modern language department in charge of the foreign film program was so pleased at the attendance Tuesday night that it has tentatively set February 23 for the showing of the German film, "Der Winter King."

The German picture will be presented in German, with English subtitles. Tuesday night's picture, "Crime and Punishment," was the French version of the Russian novel by the famous novelist, Dostoevsky.

Dr. Barnett will be succeeded by Ralph Lewis, who at present is associated with the Michigan State college experiment station.

Mr. Lewis' position will be filled later.

Barnett Resigns Botany Post

Dr. H. L. Barnett, instructor in botany, has accepted a position in the botany department at New Mexico State college. His resignation from Michigan State college will become effective at the end of this month.

Dr. Barnett will be succeeded by Ralph Lewis, who at present is associated with the Michigan State college experiment station.

Fellowships Available For Various Schools

According to E. A. Bessey, dean of the graduate school, many notices have been received of graduate assistantships and fellowships at various colleges and universities throughout the United States.

Additional information regarding these assistantships and fellowships can be obtained from the graduate office in the botany building.

Student Meet Delegates To Speak Sunday

A report by 15 representatives to the National Students association, Oxford, Ohio, during vacation, will be given at the Peoples church Sunday, January 30.

Those speaking will be: Bob Hicks, whose subject is "Economics and Labor"; Lary Ball, "Student and Agriculture"; and Norman Hyatt, "Strategic Vocational Opportunities."

Noted Speaker to Address Women During Farm Week

Among the important speakers appearing on the lecture program for women during Farmers' Week will be Dr. Hazel Kyrk, associate professor of home economics and economics at the University of Chicago. Doctor Kyrk is recognized as one of the outstanding woman economists in the country, and will speak on the topic: "What Are the Problems of the Consumer?" She has written several books, one of which is "Economic Problems for the Family." Doctor Kyrk will appear on Tuesday's program.

Wednesday's speakers will include Dr. Bess Cunningham, of the University of Toledo, and Miss Marion Telford, director of field activities on child safety of the National Safety Council. Doctor Cunningham, author of "Family Behavior," will speak on "Personality Building and the Family." Miss Telford's subject will be "Are You Safe at Home?" Mrs. Kathryn Bell Niles, director of foods of the American Poultry industries, will also speak Wednesday.

Instructors Show Literary Works In Library

Various literary works, written by a number of the members of the Michigan State college English department, and published in various media, are now on display in the exhibit cases of the library.

These works are in the field of criticism, translation, biography, fiction, and poetry. Some of the material is in periodicals and some in books. The display has been collected and arranged by Prof. C. M. News, Jr. and Dr. Anders Orbeck, both of the English department.

The members of the English department, whose works are included in the display are: Professor Newlin, Doctor Orbeck, Prof. Wallis B. Moffet, John A. Clark, Dr. A. J. M. Smith, Prof. William W. Johnston, Prof. Kenneth C. Randall, and E. P. Lawrence.

An article, written by W. I. Blum, and published in the American Mercury will soon be added to the display.

Crime Picture Draws 350

The French film version of "Crime and Punishment" drew an audience of 350 students and townspeople that filled the chemistry lecture hall in capacity, when it was shown Tuesday night.

A number of people were turned away because of lack of room. The picture was shown here under the direction of G. W. Radtke, instructor in modern languages. The modern language department in charge of the foreign film program was so pleased at the attendance Tuesday night that it has tentatively set February 23 for the showing of the German film, "Der Winter King."

The German picture will be presented in German, with English subtitles. Tuesday night's picture, "Crime and Punishment," was the French version of the Russian novel by the famous novelist, Dostoevsky.

Faculty Club Holds Party

Approximately 100 faculty couples of the State College club danced and played bridge at the monthly party which was held at the Union Tuesday night.

A bridge tournament held from 7 until 9:30 p. m. in the club room resulted in Mrs. L. N. Field's winning the woman's high prize and Dr. H. J. Maher turning in the high score for 150 men.

Music was furnished for dancing from 9 until midnight by Nate Fry and his orchestra in the ball room. Refreshments were served during the evening in the club room.

Chairman of the party was Professor S. G. Bergquist. Assisting him were Gay H. Hill, H. M. Wills and Duncan Stewart.

Ann James to Speak

Ann James, a member of the Home Economics club, will speak at Okemos today on "Novel Parties May Give."

This is one of a series of talks sponsored by the club.

Must Service Desk Be Discontinued?

A service desk for students, begun late last term by the Independent Men's league has been discontinued because of lack of space for it in the Union.

The desk was set up mainly for the purpose of handling transportation problems, something it did admirably at vacation time, when accommodations were arranged for many students. These included reservations and guarantee of through passage at reduced rates to New York city for some 30 persons, as well as making connections between those who wanted passengers and others who wanted rides to distant places.

Besides this service, the desk was to serve as a clearing house for lost and found articles, a function now delegated to Secretary Hannah's office, but one that has never been too well done because lost articles are almost never taken there. The desk proposed to handle all sales of tickets for student affairs, rather than the Union desk, where they are now something of a nuisance. In short, the desk was to function as a central place for all small but important services which are now scattered and rather haphazardly done.

The present office of the Spartan magazine would admirably serve as a location for the desk. The Spartan has outgrown its office and should be located in the Union annex with the offices of the State News and Wolverine.

It is true that classroom space is almost at a premium, but the sacrifice of one classroom would not be too great a price for the continuance of the service desk, which could well become an important cog in the Union's service to students, and it would at the same time solve the problem of an office for the Spartan, a problem which will have to be faced in the not-too-far distant future.

'Tis Written --- Is It Forgotten?

The City of East Lansing ordains: Section 1. That no person shall permit any snow or ice to remain on any sidewalk, in front of any house, building or lot, occupied by him or her, or on the sidewalk in front of any unoccupied house, building or lot, owned by him or her, on Grand River avenue from the intersection of Michigan avenue to east side of M. A. C. avenue, on Evergreen avenue from Grand River avenue 100 feet north, on Abbott road from Grand River avenue to Albert avenue, on M. A. C. avenue from Grand River avenue to Ann street.

Section 2. No person shall permit any snow or ice to remain on the sidewalk in front of any house, building or lot occupied by him or her longer than 24 hours after the same has fallen or formed; and when ice is formed on any sidewalk, such owner or occupant as above provided, shall within 12 hours after the same has formed, cause salt, sawdust, or sand to be strewn thereon.

Section 3. Any person or persons violating any of the provisions of this ordinance, shall, upon conviction thereof, be punished by a fine not exceeding twenty-five dollars, and in default of the payment of such fine, such person or persons shall be imprisoned in the city jail until such fine is paid, not exceeding the term of thirty days.

Section 4. This ordinance to take immediate effect.

Quotable Quotes

By Associated Collegiate Press

"It is just as easy to get verbal indigestion from stuffing your speaking or writing vocabulary as it is to get the more usual physical ailment," Mrs. Claire Soule Seay, lecturer in English for the University of California extension division, thinks too many people stuff their vocabularies with verbiage and obscure thought processes by an excess of words.

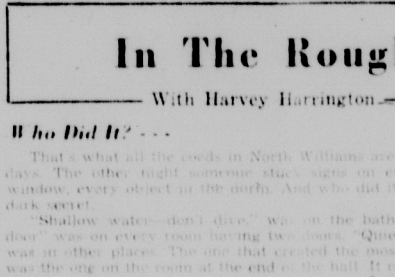

"Only four or five college students out of 100 are interested in justifying their beliefs and it is upon those few students that professors should center their remarks," Dr. D. L. Miller of the University of Texas thinks that most students have to be jerked from their old beliefs before they will begin a critical examination of the rational foundation of those beliefs. Most young people are pretty well satisfied in just living, not thinking.

"Democracy grew up here and it is best for you, but in Germany, we never did have any real democracy. . . . That is why we gave it up." Max F. Heinze, 17-year-old German exchange student at Moses Brown school, thinks it would be impossible for the U. S. to have a dictator. "The people would laugh him out of power."

Who Did It?
That's what all the coeds in North Williams are wondering these days. The other night someone stole signs on every door, every window, every object in 100 North. And who did it remains a deep, dark secret.

"Shallow waters—don't dive," was on the bath tub. "Use other door" was on every room having two doors. "Quiet—men at work" was in other places. "The one that created the most fun, however, was the one on the room at the end of the hall. It read "Dead End."

The Readers Speak

Dear Editor:
What motivates the sophomore egotist who tries to justify any audible audience reaction other than direct applause or condemnation at a sincerely attempted, artistic performance such as "Dr. Faustus"? Undoubtedly Hollywood does turn out some celluloid to which ridicule, while cruel, is certainly no worse than the affront to audience intelligence given by the film.

But this loud hissing defended by our collegiate intellectual was not the result of a poor performance or an unconvincing plot, though the latter, I fear was beyond the comprehension. Rather, it was the sort of thing one hears at a strip-tease act when the actress has almost finished disrobing. At such affairs the actress' worth is measured by the amount of whistling and hissing her unclad body can arouse. The actor-audience relationship is entirely carnal.

But why bring strip-tease manners, strip-tease audience appreciation to an artistic performance?

Also the writer mentioned Champaign, Ill., as one of the Urbias where collegiate audiences run the show, and attempts to set such a state of theater conduct as the goal towards which we in East Lansing should strive.

Heaven forbid. While never having been to Champaign, I have been to Princeton, N. J.

We Must Wage Peace

Admiral Noda said, "our sole objective is to secure peace in the Far East thereby."

A large building program by the United States might start a naval race because such building would upset British and American naval parity, Admiral Noda thought.

Japan adhered to a previous declaration she would not enter a building race, he said. But admitting that recovery of Japanese naval plans might cause uneasiness, the admiral appealed to other nations to trust Japan's avowed against aggression.

AVOINSE POINT OF VIEW
China's ambassador Hsu Shih-shing, departing for home, reviewed briefly his futile efforts to improve Chinese-Japanese relations.

"I am deeply concerned over future development of the situation," he said. "History shows there are vicissitudes in national fortunes which are neither permanent nor fixed.

"The sentiment of a race is hardly expressed by armed force. Do the far-sighted people of your country view the present situation as indicative of Japan's eternal happiness?"

The ambassador's departure does not mean the closing of the embassy. Both Japan and China will continue to be represented by counselors. Wang Fu-shan remains as counselor of the Chinese embassy in Tokyo.

JAPANESE POINT OF VIEW
Japan's conflict with China is no excuse for a world-wide building race. Rear Admiral Kiyosha Noda, spokesman for the Japanese naval office, emphasized recently.

"None of the powers take the Chinese-Japanese affair as an excuse for building bigger navies; they have a distorted point of view. Harriet Burton. They aren't so far wrong, either. . . . Edna Jane Smith, another red-head, this time a Chi Omega, is engaged to Don Hillie, who is with the marines. They will have a military wedding.

Ab. Wilderness
"It is said that Jack Gauntlet and Sis Harryman are accustomed to continue with nature of a Sunday morning. Gawah, why not yell until spring Jack, and be cast into ecstasy, and stuff, by the birds, and the flowers, and the bursting buds.

The Weather
All these people who have colds—consumption be the matter?

where the same condition exists. There only kind of motion picture which can be enjoyed is the rowdiest of comedies, anything calling for appreciation of fine acting or clever dialogue is entirely wasted. True it is that one is saved from an evening of total boredom when the picture is a poor one, because the audiences have a tradition to maintain, their reactions are the same to all pictures, good or bad. For this reason I say heaven forbid we establish such a condition in our East Lansing audiences. So, Joe College, with the exalted ego, don't show your lack of breeding and your poor taste by exhibiting a burlesque reaction when an actress impersonating Helen of Troy is successful in her attempt to look like the modern conception of that much sought lady. If your mind is such that you respond only to naked flesh on the stage, don't go to see "Dr. Faustus."

Three informal parties are also scheduled for Saturday night. Radio parties are also scheduled for Saturday night. Radio parties will be staged at the Pi Kappa Phi and Hesperian houses.

Notice is hereby given that a Public Hearing will be held at 7:30 p. m. in the Common Council Rooms, City of East Lansing, on February 7, 1938 on the proposed amendment to the Health Ordinance...

Amendment to Health Ordinance

An Ordinance to amend Section 20 of Chapter III of an Ordinance passed by the City of East Lansing on April 10, 1923, effective April 19, 1923, known and styled as the Health Ordinance for the City of East Lansing.

That Chapter III of the Health Ordinance for the City of East Lansing be and the same is hereby amended by the addition thereto of a new section to be known as Section 20 of Chapter III of the aforesaid Health Ordinance, and the same is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 20. That the Health Officer and Sanitary Inspector of the City of East Lansing have full power at all times to enter every building, room, basement or cellar occupied or used, or which they have reasonable cause to believe is being used for the purpose of housing or permitting any person or persons, for the purpose of inspecting such premises, and if, upon inspection the owner, lessee or person in possession of such premises, is found to be violating any of the provisions of this Ordinance, or if the operation of such building, room, basement or cellar used for the purpose so designated is being conducted in a manner detrimental or injurious to the health of any occupant or occupants, the officer or inspector making such an examination or inspection shall thereupon issue an order to the person or persons in authority or in charge or control of such place or places, to correct such objectionable conditions within such reasonable time as in his discretion he deems proper, and unless such person or persons shall make such improvements as required by such order within the time so limited, it shall be the duty of the Health Officer or Sanitary Inspector to institute prosecution against the person or persons for the violation of this Ordinance and to take the necessary steps and close the aforesaid building, room, basement or cellar until such improvements and repairs shall have been made and approved by the Board of Health or their agents.

HARRY W. LOTT, City Clerk. Jan. 24, 1938.

A professor at Carnegie Institute of Technology in measuring the decibels of sound in the men's dormitory found that between 5 p. m. and midnight, the average noise level was 112.1 decibels, or "equivalent to that given by two riveting machines or a sustained roll of thunder."

Art Classes To Begin

East Lansing Adults May Enroll Tonight

Opportunities for instruction in painting and drawing will be open to the men and women of East Lansing beginning tonight at 7:30 p. m., through a cooperative arrangement of the People's university with Michigan State college.

Four senior students in the art department who have specialized in art teaching will act as coaches and instructors. They are Jean McGilivray, Jean Knight, Barbara Stubbs, and Raoul Nies.

Beginning this evening any high school graduate or person more than 18 years of age may spend an evening each week working with the materials of his choice—oil, water color, pastel, pen or pencil sketching, charcoal and many other forms in the studio in the Union annex. Beginners as well as advanced adult students are invited.

Council Proceedings

Common Council Rooms, East Lansing, Michigan January 25, 1938

Regular meeting of the Common Council called to order by Alderman Barnhart.

Present: Aldermen Barnhart, Card, Adams and Maher.

Minutes of meeting held January 19th were read and approved as printed.

Mrs. H. K. Veider conferred with the Council regarding parking on city streets and asked their cooperation in securing parking facilities for people desiring to remain in the city more than one hour.

After considerable discussion the Council requested the traffic committee to make a survey of the situation and make a report.

Mr. V. J. DeCamp, chairman of the traffic committee, presented the following changes of street signs and regulations for parking, for the approval of the traffic commission: That the south side of Grand River and Michigan Avenue, from Abbot Road, west to the city limits be open to all day parking.

On the north side of Beech street, there will be no parking between the intersection of Michigan Avenue and Rosewood.

On the north side of Beech street, the signs to be removed and this side of the street open to parking committee arose and reported as follows: Alderman Card moved that the recommendations of the traffic commission be approved and signs erected designating the restrictions. Supported by Ald. Adams and carried. Yeas: Ald. Card, Adams, Barnhart, and Maher.

Ald. Maher moved that the following bills be allowed and orders drawn on the respective funds for the amounts:

The conference will conclude Saturday noon with a Dutch treat luncheon at the Olds Hotel honoring past presidents: Seath Ingalls, Galesburg Argus; Leon D. Case, Vernon J. Brown, and Elton Eaton, state representatives, and state Senator Don Vanderveer will speak. The president-elect will discuss "The M. P. A. Program for 1938."

tion 20 of Chapter III of an Ordinance passed by the City of East Lansing on April 10, 1923, effective April 19, 1923, known and styled as the Health Ordinance for the City of East Lansing.

The City of East Lansing Ordinance, Chapter III of the Health Ordinance for the City of East Lansing be and the same is hereby amended by the addition thereto of a new section to be known as Section 20 of Chapter III of the aforesaid Health Ordinance, and the same is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 20. That the Health Officer and Sanitary Inspector of the City of East Lansing have full power at all times to enter every building, room, basement or cellar occupied or used, or which they have reasonable cause to believe is being used for the purpose of housing or rooming any person or persons, for the purpose of inspecting such premises, and if, upon inspection the owner, lessee or person in possession of such premises, is found to be violating any of the provisions of this Ordinance, or if the operation of such building, room, basement or cellar used for the purpose so designated is being conducted in a manner detrimental or injurious to the health of any occupant or occupants, the officer or inspector making such an examination or inspection shall thereupon issue an order to the person or persons in authority or in charge or control of such place or places, to correct such objectionable conditions within such reasonable time as in his discretion he deems proper, and unless such person or persons shall make such improvements as required by such order within the time so limited, it shall be the duty of the Health Officer or Sanitary Inspector to institute prosecution against the person or persons for the violation of this Ordinance and to take the necessary steps and close the aforesaid building, room, basement or cellar until such improvements and repairs shall have been made and approved by the Board of Health or their agents.

Ald. Maher moved that the Council concur in the report of the Committee and the Clerk be directed to advertise the Ordinance for public hearing, which will be held on Monday, February 7, 1938 at 7:30 p. m. in the Common Council rooms, at which time all persons interested will be given opportunity to be heard. Supported by Ald. Card and carried. Yeas: Ald. Barnhart, Adams, Maher and Card.

Phi Kappa Tau Scores First Victory

In the Interfraternity Bowling league Tuesday night on the Hesperian Recreation Alleya the Phi Kappa Tau, Hesperian, and Alpha Gamma Rho teams each won their matches by taking the first two games and dropping the third.

The Alpha Gamma Rho five defeated the Theta Kappa Nu 2-1-2-2-0-21 to increase its lead in block 2 with three wins and no set backs.

In another match in the same block Phi Kappa Tau bowled its first victory by knocking over the Alpha Epsilon Pi 1-957-1-338.

The Hesperians left the Kappa Sigs in the cellar position of block 1 by triumphing, 2-201-2-032. In this latter match the two best games were rolled by Dave Anderson of the Hesperians with 221 in the first game and Bill Meyer of the Kapa Sigs with 195 pins in his third game.

Fraternity Teams Give Out Tips on Basketball

BY TOM MOLLOY

Supposing you were a fraternity's basketball team and wanted to get somewhere in the Interfraternity league—what would you do?

This is how the fraternities take care of the situation. The Sigma Nus say that they play the hit-and-run system. In their one game this year they evidently hit often, than they missed, for they came out on the big end of the score.

Although they have not yet played, they accord for their ability to work as a unit by saying that they had experience together as freshmen. That's one solution for you as a fraternity basketballer—get experience together as freshmen.

The Hesperians, on the other hand, do have set plays. They confess, however, that their plays occasionally change from set plays to upset plays. Basketball at the Hesper house is often served with the meals. Over their coffee they plan how to put their opponents in hot water when they meet on the basketball floor. They suggest that you imitate wherever and whenever you can, if you want to be a good basketball team.

The Tics and the Delta Sigs both followed the same procedure before playing their opening games, neither team had any pregame practice. This method produced varied results. The Tics won their game, the Delta Sigs became famous as the scorching wonders of the evening.

The recommendation in this case is to follow the "no practicing" practice of the Tics then to not practice as the Delta Sigs do not practice.

The formula for success therefore, seems to be: get experience as freshmen, practice every time and all the time you can, and do not practice at all. The whole situation gets pretty complicated as time goes on, so the best advice to follow for your peace of mind is: Do not be a fraternity basketball team.

Action in the Interfraternity league will not be resumed until

SPORT INTERLUDES-Swell Offer

By GEORGE MASKIN

Sharty Selin, erstwhile exponent of loud talking, suddenly has become ski conscious, despite the fact he admits his few attempts at the winter sport always ended in bad spills.

Selin left the following note on our typewriter last night, and we in turn are passing it along. "Dear Scooper:

"Jim Husted of the forestry department is attempting to start a ski movement in connection with the show bus trip to Cadillac February 6. Jim is anxious to get as many men and women students to take up the sport for a couple of reasons.

"The first is, Jim says there isn't an outdoor winter sport which produces more thrills than skiing. Secondly, Jim has received a bid from the University of Michigan challenging State to a meet.

"Jim will personally instruct novices or others who may have had some previous skiing experience.

Yours, "Sharty" Selin"

Good Salesmen

College coaches serve a double purpose in the modern scheme. Their No. 1 job is to produce winning teams. That's what the college hired them to do.

But as a side job, the coaches sell the college at numerous high school banquets and other similar events staged the year around. If you don't think Michigan State coaches aren't top-notch salesmen, check with the registrar.

What the coaches say at speaking engagements goes a long way in influencing hundreds to enroll at their college when September again appears on the scene. The coaches can gain and lose friends for the college without much trouble.

'M' Swimmers Rout State; Yearling Cagers Score

Wolves Again Win Every Event

By DON ANDERSON

University of Michigan's powerful swimming team, taking every first place, swamped the Spartan tankers, 67-17, last night in the college pool.

The Wolverines Collegiate and Big Ten champions, broke five varsity records, and one pool record. The pool record broken was in the 360-yard free style when Tomski, Emmet Holmes, and Hutchins of Michigan came in with the time of 3:17.5, thus breaking the old record of 3:23.3 set in 1932.

The varsity records broken were in the 270-yard medley relay, the 220, 100 and 50 yard free style and 200-yard breast stroke. In the latter race, Al Brightman of State, although he did not win the race, broke his own record by two seconds.

Probably the race most interesting from a spectators standpoint was the 440-yard free style in which State took its only second. In this race Hutchins of Michigan came in first with Williamson of State second. A hot battle was waged between Bob Tesak of State and Jack Wreford of Michigan for third place, with Tesak winning by a hair.

The meet marked the second time in two years, and the tenth time in eleven years that Michigan has swept all the first places. In spite of the one-sided score State looked good and gave promise of fine performances in the future.

The outstanding performer for Michigan was Weldemar Tomski, who broke varsity records in both the 50 and 100 yard free style.

The summary:
200-yard medley relay: Won by Michigan, 2:54.4; second, Wreford and Wreford, 3:04.4.
200-yard free style: Won by Hutchins, 2:58.0; second, Tesak, 3:01.0; third, Wreford, 3:04.0.
100-yard free style: Won by Tomski, 1:58.0; second, Wreford, 2:01.0; third, Wreford, 2:04.0.
50-yard free style: Won by Tomski, 1:00.0; second, Wreford, 1:03.0; third, Wreford, 1:06.0.
100-yard breast stroke: Won by Hutchins, 2:15.0; second, Wreford, 2:18.0; third, Wreford, 2:21.0.
200-yard breast stroke: Won by Hutchins, 4:45.0; second, Wreford, 4:50.0; third, Wreford, 4:55.0.
200-yard back stroke: Won by Hutchins, 2:55.0; second, Wreford, 2:58.0; third, Wreford, 3:01.0.
200-yard individual medley: Won by Hutchins, 4:15.0; second, Wreford, 4:20.0; third, Wreford, 4:25.0.
200-yard individual medley: Won by Hutchins, 4:15.0; second, Wreford, 4:20.0; third, Wreford, 4:25.0.
200-yard individual medley: Won by Hutchins, 4:15.0; second, Wreford, 4:20.0; third, Wreford, 4:25.0.

Fencers Start Ohio Series

Swordsmen to Face Three Opponents

The Spartan fencers' bill of fare for Thursday, Friday and Saturday is meet.

Thursday they meet Western Reserve at Cleveland, their opponent Friday is Ohio State at Columbus, the last contest of the Ohio trip is at Cincinnati with the University of Cincinnati.

The squad making the trip is composed of the following men: foil and epee, Manuel Arcega, Ben Busquet, and John Long; sabre, Edwin Ballie, George Grenke, and George Gargett.

Manager Bill Hershey rounds out the list of those going to Ohio. Bill Hasselback, experienced sabre and epee man, will be unable to make the trip, for he has been stricken with pneumonia.

The three Ohio teams are reputed to be strong. Ohio State boasts some of the best collegiate fencers in the middle west.

State Matmen To Oppose Ohioans

Determined to get back on the victory side of the record and raise its average above 500, the Spartan wrestling team is preparing for a meet with Ohio State university on Saturday night at 8 o'clock in the college gym.

Although rated as underdogs, the Spartan matmen have no delusions about the strength of the Ohio squad, and are looking for victory.

There will be a few changes in the Spartan lineup, the most important being at 165 pounds where Dave Pletz, a sophomore, will perform.

The injury that Bill Mason, 155-pounder in the first two matches, received in the Michigan meet, will keep him on the bench for some time. Coach Fendley Collins has moved Cliff Freiberger from the 145-pound class back up to the 155-pound class and put George Bird, a senior, in at 145 pounds.

Coaches Are Speakers

There isn't a member of the State coaching staff who doesn't excel as a speaker. They know their stuff, for none uses the same speech more than once, despite the fact he may face an audience 15 or 20 times a month.

Trojans Play Tonight

Game With Everett is Advanced to Avoid Date Conflict

Because of a conflicting date with the Spartan-Butler game Friday night, Coach Cuddy Shaver announces that the East Lansing-Everett game which was also scheduled for Friday, will be played on the Trojan floor.

Everett's record is not very impressive this year and it will have to be hot to stop the fast-improving Trojan cagers. Last week the Blue and Gray flashed their best form of the year by putting away two capable Eaton county fives, Eaton Rapids and Charlotte.

In the Charlotte game last Friday, the Trojan high geared attack looked very good at times, but would quickly bog down. All of the boys had their eye on the basket and the scoring was evenly divided with the exception of Don Phillips, who was high point man.

If Shaver can get this scoring machine to function throughout the game opponents will find a much harder team to beat when the second semester rolls around. The defense was particularly bright against Charlotte and forced the speedy Ohio forwards to hurry most of their heaves.

Annual Track Meet Starts

First Day's Results Give Frosh Edge

The freshmen established a slight lead over the sophomores in the 18th annual soph-frosh indoor track meet by grabbing firsts in two of the three events run off yesterday. A sweep in the 40-yard dash helped the freshmen gain the edge.

Summary:
40-yard dash: Won by Lautenschlager (S), 7.15; second, Martin (F), 7.18; third, 7.22.
80-yard dash: Won by Rudinski (F), 15.00; second, Smith (F), 15.05; third, 15.10.
160-yard dash: Won by Kilian (F), 3:15; second, Puhoff (S), 3:18; third, 3:21.

State Five to Battle Butler Friday

By VIC SPANIOLO

Smarting from two successive defeats to Syracuse and Marquette, Michigan State's basketball team swings back into action Friday night facing the strong Butler university five in the demonstration hall at 8 o'clock.

With hopes that the Spartans will benefit from much needed rest, Coach Ben Van Alstyne has excused his regulars from practice most of the week in anticipation of Friday's game.

The invading Bulldogs have rolled up an imposing list of victories, including wins over Northwestern and Michigan. In their last start, Notre Dame put on a spirited last half rally to overtake Butler.

The State coach has been working with the reserves in an attempt to strengthen their play. So far this season Van Alstyne has not used his reserves to any great extent.

Many of the Spartan followers attribute the recent slump to those three games in five days that State played earlier in the month. It may be that the cagers have gone stale and with that view in mind Van Alstyne ordered the rest.

If that is the case then the Spartans should regain their early season form. The sophomore trio which had been traveling at a great clip previous to the Marquette tilt, slowed up to a walk against the Hilltoppers.

But the work of the sophs has been, on the whole, encouraging and satisfactory. The forward line, composed of Frank Shidler, George Falkowski, and Marty Hutt, has, together, rolled up 316 points for 11 games, an average of 29 per contest.

George Falkowski, who thus far has proved to be the steadiest of the three, has scored 53 field goals
