Illinois Psychologist Talks on Personality Factors in Marriage

Dr. Harold Anderson of the psychology department of the University of Illinois gave the fifth in the series of lectures on marriage for senior women at 8 p. m. Monday, May 9, in the Little theater.

The topic of Dr. Anderson's lecture was "Personality Factors for Successful Marriages." He stressed the importance of spontaneity and harmony in marriage relations.

Two lectures will be presented in the marriage series next week. Dr. Robert Foster of Merrill-Palmer will speak on "Psychological Adjustments in Marriage" at 8 p. m. Monday, May 16. On Wednesday night, May 18, at the same hour, Dr. Irma Gross of the Michigan State home economics department will talk on "Economic Adjustments in Marriage."

Austin Chosen Section Head

Prof. E. L. Austin, of the education department, has been elected president of the education section of the Schoolmaster's club for the coming year.

The club meets annually at Ann Arbor during the last week-end in April or the first week-end in May. The three or four thousand members who attend the conference are divided up into their respective sections of education, English, mathematics and others. The education section has about 400 members and Professor Austin will preside over this.

Economists to Help With Project

Ronald Mighell and Ross V. Baumann, economists of the Bureau of Agricultural Economics at Washington, D. C., have come to Michigan State college from Washington to work on the co-operative project of inter-regional competition in the production and sales of farm products.

Mr. Mighell returned to Washington Saturday, but Baumann will remain for six months to work with H. B. Taylor, research assistant of the farm management department, who is in charge of the project for the college.

Col. S. D. Smith has returned to active duty as professor of military science and tactics from Walter Reed hospital, Washington, D. C., where he underwent treatments.

Shylock Undergoes Changes Through Centuries

By TOM MOLLOY
With the spring play but a short month away, thoughts rightly turn to Shylock. For this year's play, to be presented in the new band shell, is The Merchant of Venice.

And who is so rare as the person who has never heard of Shylock? No one, perhaps, unless it is the Shakespearean actor who has never had a desire to play that part.

This statement smacks a bit of exaggeration perhaps, but it is definitely gospel. And what is more, each one of a myriad of Shylocks has had his own ideas as to the manner in which the character should be portrayed.

At various times during the history of the theater the lot of Shylock has been one of low comedy, that of villain and blackguard of the first water, and "an exalted Jew and avenging angel."

New Officers Installed By Athenians

Betty Wagner Will Serve as President of Women's Group

Installation of Athenian officers was held last night when Charlotte Schmidt, retiring president, after lighting her taper from a large white candle, lighted the candles of old board members, who in turn lighted those of new officers.

Betty Wagner, liberal arts sophomore, will serve as president of the Athenians during their first year on the campus as a social organization.

Other newly-installed members are Ruth Maas, vice-president; Dorothy Pennel, recording secretary; Barbara Myers, corresponding secretary; and Jean Walsh, Roma Jean Gritz, Shirley Scott, Elaine Moore, and June Carisic, members-at-large.

Members of the retiring board are Charlotte Schmidt, president; Dorothy Snyder, vice-president; Helene Foss, treasurer; Clara Jensen, Pi Kappa Phi, Student Council representative; Ronald Cooley, Theta Kappa Nu; executive committee members: Melvin Flading, Hesperian, and George Collins, Delta Chi.

Two changes in the Interfraternity constitution were adopted by the council. An increase in the length of the rushing period from seven to 27 days was the first provision adopted. This is intended to provide more time for prospective pledges to make a decision as to the fraternity which they wish to join.

The second constitutional change provides that general fraternity open house will be held at all houses during the rushing period on pre-determined Sunday afternoons. Prospective pledges may visit any house on these occasions. Both changes will be put into operation next fall term.

Girls to Visit Campus

Home Ec Sponsors Prep Day, Tea and Reception Planned

Approximately 1,400 senior high school girls from approximately 400 cities and towns in the state will visit the campus Friday, May 13, for the annual home economics high school day.

The home economics division, sponsor of the day, has placed a limit of ten people, including the chaperon, from each school in order to keep the total number within entertainment possibilities.

In the morning, Nancy Farley, Albion, will describe "College Customs," Dorothy Hasselberg, Standish, vice-president of the college chapter of the Home Economics club, will report the club's activities, and Marta Dalen, student enrolled from Sweden, will describe home economics phases in her home country.

Entertainment for the day will include fencing, tumbling, and dancing, displayed by present college students. Demonstrations, exhibits and trips are scheduled for the afternoon. The final event of the day will be a reception and tea in Sarah Langdon Williams and Mary Mayo dormitories.

A matinee dance will follow the program and its success will determine whether similar dances will be held again this term.

Special Air Frolic Set for May 11

A special show has been designed for the full hour Frolic of the Air broadcast from the Union ballroom Saturday, May 14.

A public address system has been installed to enable the studio audience as well as the radio audience to hear all soloists and entertainers.

A matinee dance will follow the program and its success will determine whether similar dances will be held again this term.

C. J. Bolander, head of the Michigan Milk Producers' association, was guest speaker at the college Junior Farm bureau meeting Saturday.

Benjamin Hennrik, state director of Junior Farm bureau, was also present at the meeting.

Pershing Rifles Place Fourth

Fifty-three officers and men from Company D, 3rd Regiment of Pershing Rifles, returned to the campus at 3:30 a. m. Sunday, from their first attendance of the national drill meet, held this year at Western State Teachers college, Bowling Green, Kentucky.

The platoon placed fourth in the competitive drill, while Privates Paul Davis and Parker Gray were eliminated from the stiff individual drill contest. Western State took first place in all events.

Dr. W. F. Thompson of the speech department, who is president of the Michigan Non-professional Theater association, was speaker at the annual banquet of the Midland Civic Players, Midland, on Thursday evening, May 5.

Juniors, Frosh Name 43 Candidates For Offices

Sophomores Will Meet Today to Complete Nominations for Class Posts; Colek, Ruben, Ritter to Compete for Senior Presidency

With the junior and freshman candidates for next year's class of officers already known, interest today is centered on the sophomore nomination meeting scheduled for 5 p. m. in the Horticulture lecture room.

Last night at the junior and freshman class meetings 43 were nominated whose names will be on the ballot for the all-college primary to be held Tuesday, May 17, in the Union building.

Joe Ruben, Gene Colek and Bob Ritter received the junior nominations for senior class presidency. The freshman candidates are Roland Ely, Jack Nicholson, Robert Richards, Elton Foltz, Chet Kennedy and Barney Blankowski.

Other candidates named at the junior class meeting held in the Olds hall lecture room are as follows: Vice-president, June Olive, Jane Hall, Harold Beecher, Wilma Hanby, Patricia Simpson, Ev Snyder, and Dorothy Snyder; treasurer, James Schewe, Ed Mc-

Each nominee for a class office should bring to Dr. F. T. Mitchell's office before noon, Saturday, May 14, a petition signed by 50 members of his class. Each petition will state that signers approve the bearer's entry into the political contest.

All nominees in the coming political race who wish to scratch may do so by bringing to Doctor Mitchell's office before noon, Saturday, May 14, a signed statement to the effect that they wish to scratch their names from the ballot.

Class officers should file names of nominees at Dr. F. T. Mitchell's office as soon after noon as possible. Have this list include signature of class adviser.

Namora and Dave Deel, secretary, Rosella Gersuch, Judy Corrigan, Ruth Stinson, Helen Grace Johnson and Helen Carso.

The freshman class candidates for sophomore vice-presidency are Mickey McCann, Shirley Van-Aiken, Josephine Wood, Miriam Nickle, Gladys Clark and Ruth Kittredge. Bruce Mair, Bob Farhas, Don Brando, Bob Dodge, Richard Grooming, Lawrence Lusk, Edward Mills and John Benson will compete for the office of class treasurer.

Freshman secretary nominations went to Antra Jean Robertson, Betty Vyn, Yvonne Bow, Mary Lee Schooley and Elaine Crell.

A political rally is scheduled for Monday, May 16, at which all the candidates will have an opportunity to address the student body.

Leonard Falcone, director of the band, has returned to the campus during a leave of absence in order to conduct this series of concerts and assist in the dedication of the new shell. Temporary seating facilities will be provided.

On Wednesday nights preceding the band concerts, WKAR will run a remote control of the organ from Abbott hall from 6:30 to 7:00. Bob Hoax will be the featured soloist that week.

Following is the program for tomorrow night:

Concerto, March from "The Froggies," Rosewood, Schubert; Ballet Music from "Fanny," Saint-Saens; Prelude to "Indiana," Saint-Saens; March of the Little Fauns from "Tyliside," Paderewski; Polka, Paderewski.

Members will hold a round table discussion of printing and developing in general. An open period will follow during which visitors and non-members will be invited to ask questions.

A practical demonstration of printing will be given by LaVerne Aurand and plans will be laid for a field trip and social evening.

Attention will be given to a proposed staff of special photographers for the State News. Qualifications will be discussed and candidates referred to Ray Turner, State News editor, for assignments.

Special invitation is extended by the club to those interested in photography who are not already members. Members are asked to bring prints for comment and criticism.

Women Will Hold Meet

Six Groups Will Hold Gatherings At Various Houses

Members of the Women's society of the Peoples church will meet this week for the regular monthly divisional gatherings at the homes of the various hostesses of the six divisions.

The regular business meetings of the separate groups will be preceded by a Bohemian lunch, following which the women will be entertained by a special program planned by the hostesses.

Division number one will meet this afternoon at 1 p. m. at the home of Mrs. E. H. Ryder, 420 Evergreen avenue. Mrs. S. F. Sexton is president of the group. Mrs. L. A. Wright, 331 Evergreen, will be the hostess for division number three, of which Mrs. R. J. Robb is president. This group will also meet at 1 p. m. today, as will group number four, which will gather at the home of Mrs. R. N. Gibson, 1111 Climax street. Mrs. C. K. Wirth will preside over this meeting.

Mrs. E. C. Prophet, president of group six, has called her meeting for 3 p. m. Wednesday afternoon in the social hall of the church.

Group five will assemble Thursday at 2 p. m. at the home of Mrs. William Melchior, 1203 East Grand River. Mrs. H. C. Isange is president of this division.

The final meeting will be held by group two on Friday at 1 p. m. Mrs. L. S. Foltz is hostess of this division and Mrs. Charles T. Sherman is president.

Traffic Awarer Announced

Prof. L. C. Plant, chairman of the committee on scholarships, announces a $1,200 scholarship in the interest of street traffic research which is being offered to engineering seniors and alumni of high scholastic rank.

Four lines of work will be pursued in this research: principles of street and highway traffic control, problems of street and highway traffic control, economics and administration of traffic control, and planning and design of traffic facilities.

This scholarship does not call for service of any kind. The recipient will have his entire time to spend on study and research. Any students interested should see Professor L. C. Plant or Dean H. B. Dirks of the engineering school.

Trojan Squads To Vie Tomorrow

East Lansing high's track and baseball team will play hosts to a pair of formidable foes tomorrow. The nine entertain Lansing Central while the thirteens meet Eaton Rapids.

Coach Fred Shaver's baseballers were shut out by the Big Reds last week with two hits, but if their No. 1 hurler, Ty Anderson, can reach his early season form again the Trojans may come through with an upset.

Ron Mead, star sprinter, will lead the Trojans against the Rapids team. Mead will run both the 100 and 220-yard dashes.

Hays Makes 'Mail by Air'—Young Collegiate Who's Who

East Lansing Senior Chosen by Honorary On Activities, Marks

James Grant Hays III, East Lansing senior and member of Phi Delta Theta fraternity, was chosen by Who's Who in American colleges as one of the outstanding students in America and his biography appeared in an annual production in which over 475 universities and colleges were represented. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. I. G. Hays, 605 Butterfield.

Selection of outstanding students is made on the basis of records in scholarship, extra-curricular activities, athletics and future possibilities by an unprejudiced committee from the respective universities.

At Michigan State Hays has been a member of Blue Key, junior service fraternity, and Excelsior, local senior honorary, and has been treasurer of his class in his freshman year, editor of the Spartan magazine, 1936-37, president of the Press club, 1936-37, head cheer leader, 1937-38, president of the Michigan State college student council, 1937-38, treasurer of the East Central Region of the National Student Federation of America, and special feature editor of the Michigan State News, 1935-36.

After his graduation in June, Hays plans to go into advertising.

High School News Shots

A moving picture, "Courage of the North," was shown to all students having student tickets, Monday at 3:30, in the auditorium.

The picture dealt with the life of the Canadian Mounted police. The East Lansing high school orchestra, made up of 46 students, played before an assembly of 200 students Saturday evening, May 7.

The members of the orchestra enjoyed a tour of the school, a banquet, and following the concert at which Bill Buchanan was featured solo pianist, movies were shown to the group. Miss Margaret Harris and Miss Frances Ayres, director of the orchestra, accompanied the students.

Howard Ingerson, senior track star, returned to school Monday after a week's illness with the measles.

Approximately 700 people attended the "All-High Review" held at East Lansing high school Friday evening, May 6. The event, which was the second of its kind to be held at the school, was again a success. In addition to several dramatic and musical presentations, Mrs. Norman Kunkle exhibited the work of her art students, and Lynn Adams exhibited work done in his woodwork classes.

Students to Work In Metal Lab

A number of engineering students will be employed on research in the foundry during the summer. Instructor W. L. Cockrell, of the engineering division, says. Electrical furnace and cupola melting are the special problems to be investigated by the students.

Mr. Cockrell and other instructors will work with the students, carrying on research work which has occupied the division's attention for many years.

'Mail by Air'—Young

East Lansing will "take to the air" when local post office officials participate in National Air Mail week, May 15-21. Earl E. Young, postmaster, today revealed that the East Lansing branch will join in the national attempt to make the public air minded during this week.

"We want every citizen to mail at least one letter by air while during the week from May 15 to 21," Young said. He feels that people will appreciate the service better by using it at this time.

It is interesting to note that it costs only six cents to send an air mail letter anywhere in the United States... only three cents more than an ordinary letter. Mr. Young pointed out. A letter, traveling by air, will reach any point in the country within 24 hours. Because of the advantages over ordinary mail business men recognize that an air mail means saving time... and to save time is to save money.

Parcel post, registered mail, as well as special delivery and C. O. D., can all be utilized in this service. While it takes four days or more to deliver ordinary mail to distant parts of the United States by other methods, only one day at the most is consumed in Air Mail delivery.

The history of this service goes back 20 years when Air Mail was instituted as an experiment. It has long since passed the experimental stage, and its benefits are now proven facts. The development of a greatly augmented Air Mail service will be reflected in enlarged aviation service of all kinds. Extension of air service means security for the country... and every commercial pilot or pilot of an air mail plane will be an asset to our future national defense.

No other development can so quickly and completely unite us as a people into the social, business and patriotic interests of national life as Air Mail service. It will make us efficient in times of peace and secure in times of national peril," says a government bulletin on this subject.

Although at present there are only six cities in Michigan which are air mail bases, during Air Mail week, planes will operate from 60 more airports in the state.

Postmaster Young urges that all citizens of East Lansing take an active part in this week and remember the slogan of the service: "Time flies... so does Air Mail."

St. Thomas college in Scranton, Pa., has been re-named University of Scranton.

WKAR to Air Philippine Question

East Lansing High To Be Heard in Second Broadcast

East Lansing High students will be heard in a second of a series of broadcasts over WKAR, Wednesday, May 12, from 2:30 to 3:00 p. m. The question, "What Shall We Do With The Philippines?" will be discussed by a panel group.

A dramatic review of the events that have led to the present situation of the islands, will also be presented on this program. Two students, Jacqueline Wynne and Ray Ethel, who have lived in the Philippines, will be interviewed concerning life on the islands.

Those students of the senior science classes who will take part in the panel discussion are Betty Jane Anthony, Virginia McKenzie, John Pearce and Wernan Anderson.

The review, based on historical research, will be dramatized by Paul Ritts, Don Spalding, Jack Witick and Bob Theroux. Sound effects will be in charge of Richard Williams.
