MICHIGAN STATE COLLEGE, EAST LANSING, MICHIGAN, THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 29, 1938

No. 3

Today's Campus

WKAR Scores

R. J. Coleman, director of WKAR, announced today that all out-of-town games this fall, including the State-Michigan game Saturday, will be broadcast over the college station WKAR. Out-of-town games will be brought in to East Lansing by direct wire, Coleman said.

Down, 1 to Go

Dean Elisabeth Conrad has been searching the campus avidly the past week for her fifth, sixth, seventh, and eighth Betty Johnson. Monday she received a letter simply addressed to Betty Johnson at M. S. C. With registration records uncompleted she has been unable to locate more than four Betty Johnsons, although there are eight attending school here. She wishes that the real Betty Johnson or someone who knows at least five Betty Johnsons would please refer to her office. The return address on the envelope is F. A. Brown, 203 S. Columbia, Missouri.

Beat Michigan!

Beat Michigan! Mass pep-meeting tomorrow night, 7:30 p. m. in front of Gym. Snake dance, 8:30 p. m. Big victory fire at Parade field. Every student with spirit—Be There!

Tire Down?

A huge ten-wheel oil truck loaded with 10,000 gallons of fuel oil broke down on Grand River avenue between Abbot road and Ferguson street yesterday morning. The truck, a huge Diesel tractor, and trailer, and trailer, of the Petroleum Transport fleet, was bound from Bay City to Lansing with its cargo.

Lost: One Dorm!

Jane Hamman '42 is styling a permanent blush these days. Also a compact with a compass attachment and a secret compartment for carrying a map of the campus. Jane came home from her last date to discover that she had mislaid one of the more medium-sized of the women's dormitories. Clever detective work and a few astronomical observations enabled her to locate North Hall in its "new" location at 215 Louis, shortly after hours. Result was added to injury in the form of 14 late minutes.

Autographs Galore

A football inscribed with all the names of the Michigan State 26 football squad will be given away as door prize at the dance to be held in the Union Friday night. Tickets will be printed with different numbers. Later when the lucky number is drawn the number will be matched with the numbers on the tickets. Bill Porter and his orchestra will furnish the music.

Strike?—And How!

The student strike has finally reached East Lansing for posted in the window of Smoke Shop is the following sign: "The entire staff of this store is staging a student strike at the U. of M. stadium at Ann Arbor, Saturday p. m., Oct. 1."

Pessimist?

Paul C. G. Fulkerson, in discussing prospects of war, remarked in his class yesterday that it would be indeed critical, if we were on the eve of the decline of our civilization. A student looked up quickly and with a sad expression said: "You mean we aren't going to beat Michigan?"

No Slips

Have you seen the walks in front of Beaumont tower? The broom catchers and toe trippers of previous years have been filled with cement. No longer do coeds have to say "beware of Beaumont walks."

Coeds to Get Silhouettes At Carnival

Rhythmic Skit, Portrait Photos Are Other Features
"Silhouetted in the Moonlight"
No, not in a song, and not exactly in the moonlight, but Mary Johnson, home economics junior, will cut silhouettes of coeds attending the annual coed carnival from 7:30 until 9:30 tonight in the gym annex.
LITTLE SISTERS, TOO
Other attractions at the party include the presentation of a skit in rhythm, "Jazz Justice," by Theta Alpha Phi, dramatics honorary, and portrait photos by Raymond Turner, States News editor and former Wolverine cameraman. Student Grange and the campus 4-H club will serve refreshments.
Two women's honoraries, Sigma Alpha Iota and Mu Phi Epsilon, will furnish music. Hope Kelly, senior music student, has charge of this part of the program.
Big Sisters will take their little sisters to the party, according to Margaret Collinge, AWS counselor system chairman. Later hours have been granted by AWS.

Students and Faculty Discuss System

Prof. J. W. Stack and Miss Margaret Collinge are shown at the conference table conferring on the revised counselor system for Michigan State. Miss Collinge heads the AWS counselor system. Professor Stack, a zoologist, chairs the faculty advisor committee. Seventy-five faculty members are serving as advisors to freshmen.

ROTC Sets Enrollment Record

Two Additions Made To Military Staff; Mrs. Byrne to Leave
Continuing to increase the Michigan State R. O. T. C., the military department announced yesterday that the number of men in uniform this year breaks all previous records, with 2,345 students enrolled. Approximately 290 advanced military students and 2,255 basic students are enrolled. Field artillery leads in enrollment with 736, followed by coast artillery with 615, Infantry has 480 students and cavalry 410.
GOLIGHTLY GONE
Major William R. Bent, infantry, is filling the position formerly occupied by Capt. Harvey J. Golightly. Major Bent was transferred to State from Fort Adams, R. I., and is married. He has one daughter.
Capt. Charles F. Hixon, field artillery, is another addition to the department. He arrived here from Fort Leavenworth, Kansas, where he completed the command and general staff school course. Captain Hixon brings with him his wife and two children. He has served with the R. O. T. C. unit at Purdue university for four years.
Mrs. Helen Byrne, who has been with the military department for the past 12 years, will leave her position at the end of the month. She will be succeeded by Mildred Erickson, who graduated from State last June.
The field artillery unit has increased that eight additional motorcycle vehicles will be delivered some time in December.

Murphy Announces $337,500 Grant From PWA

Action Brings PWA Grants to State To a $5,300,000 Total; Completes Five Year Building Program
Approval of a $337,500 PWA grant for construction of a $750,000 men's gymnasium and field house for Michigan State college was announced yesterday in Washington by Governor Frank Murphy.
Notice of the action is expected to be sent the State Board of Agriculture by PWA officials in two or three days, Secretary John A. Hannah said last night.
Total cost of Michigan State college's current building and improvement program, including dormitories already completed, buildings under construction and buildings and improvements scheduled for completion before September, 1939, is approximately $5,300,000.
Approval of the gymnasium and field house grant completes Michigan State college's building plans for which PWA grants were requested. Every request made by the State Board of Agriculture was approved, Secretary Hannah said.
No Fee Increase
A second new men's dormitory and the hospital are under construction. Other buildings to be completed during the school year are the auditorium, veterinary science clinic, women's dormitory, livestock pavilion and men's gymnasium and field house.
A campus and farms improvement program, financed almost entirely by WPA, will cost $1,300,000, and will include landscaping, parkways along the Red Cedar river, and tiling, fencing, bridges and other improvements on the college farm.
Total cost to Michigan taxpayers of the entire building and improvement program will be less than $125,000, according to Secretary Hannah. No increase in student fees is contemplated to cover the state's portion of the hospital, auditorium and men's gymnasium, all of which will be financed with PWA grants and bond issues, principal and interest being paid from fees and other income.
Gymnasium and field house plans, according to Ralph H. Young, athletic director, indicate Michigan State college will have one of the country's most modern athletic plants when the new units are completed.

Council Lays Game Plans

Plans were opened for the annual football games at the Student Council meeting, Tuesday night. Possible leaders for the freshman class were mentioned but no definite action was taken, according to President William Hasselback.
The games will serve to concentrate freshman-sophomore rivalry to one day. Since the freshmen have no president, the Council will appoint a leader, Hasselback said.
Other business up for discussion was a proposed teacher rating scale and the possibility of having a nucleus in the Union grill.
The council will meet again Tuesday.

Secretary

"I am very happy to see the completion of the building program. The fieldhouse will fill a real need both for the physical education classes and for intramural and intercollegiate programs. Its completion makes our facilities for physical education and athletics second to none in the country."

The present men's gymnasium, Secretary Hannah explained, will be remodeled to be used for a woman's gymnasium.
Located west of Demonstration hall and south of the varsity baseball field, the new men's gymnasium, 120 wide by 200 feet long, will face to the east. A field house 170 feet wide by 300 feet long will be connected to the gymnasium on the west side.

The gymnasium will house complete facilities for physical education and intramural athletics, with room for five basketball courts, wrestling, boxing, fencing and other rooms on the second floor.
New Pool
On the first floor will be a swimming pool 42 feet wide by 75 feet long, physical education classrooms and offices of the department of physical education.
A basement will house locker rooms and other equipment used in intramural and intercollegiate athletics, and a sub-basement may be included to provide additional space for sports practice rooms and intramural sports.

The field house will have seating capacity of 8,500 persons for basketball games, with a balcony on three and possibly four sides. The basketball court and first floor seats will be removable, so the entire structure may be used for football, baseball or other sports.
According to Mr. Young, plans for the gymnasium and field house incorporate the most modern features of similar buildings constructed in the last

MSC Mother No. 1 Tells Of Stevens T. Mason Hall

Have you seen the new men's dorm? From now on that will be our main topic of conversation, because we have just come from that humble cottage which 436 men call home.
A little curiosity as to how it would seem to be "mother" of such a large family, and rather expecting to find something old-woman-in-the-shed-like, we went a-calling on Mrs. Curtis Beachum, housemother extraordinary. And lo, she was young and extremely enthusiastic over her job.
And I'll let you in on a secret. There's going to be a big operation, a house-warming sometime soon, probably the middle of October. You'll all be invited, and you should all take advantage of the invitation. I'll guarantee you something to see. And even if you're not interested in seeing things, the chairs are very soft.

GO ON TOUR

How does it seem to be housemother to so many men? Well, I'm enjoying it. But all the actual supervision is done by Mr. Beachum and the nine precinct leaders or counselors. "I'm not a housewife," she said. "But maybe you'd like to see the place."
So we did our reporter thing and a-bog over the library with its comfortable leather chairs, the beautiful 4th floor in the game room downstairs, the huge, huge, huge soup kettle, the large, large, large pan of mustard being stirred by an electric heater, and the many scenes of roasting meat.
The dining room, a very important part of the building, doesn't eat the entire group at one time, so meals are cafeteria style. Out the dining room window one may see the basement being dug for the second unit of the dorm. When that dorm is completed 900 men will be served from this kitchen which will consist of the two buildings.

NEW GRILL

The new grill wasn't in full uniform yet, so we didn't see that. But we did get an invitation to come back later. We did see the Beachum's apartment, though, and if it's an example of the boys' rooms—oh, for the life of a freshman!
The piano is about the most popular thing in the building.

Scabbard and Blade Initiates Program

There will be a meeting of Scabbard and Blade tonight at 7:30 in room 12 of Demonstration hall. It is decided that all members attend Tuesday at 12:15 the first luncheon of the year will be held at Hart's Food shop.

Porter, Steinfeld Will Stage 'Swing Dual' at 'M' Dance

After the big game at Ann Arbor next Saturday, the spotlight will swing to the Michigan Union where the fourth annual All State dance will be held from 9 to 12. The party will be a double feature affair with State and Michigan couples swinging to two bands.
Bill Porter and his orchestra will represent Michigan State and U. of M. will feature Bob Steinfeld's Melody Men. This social affair, which has become a regular part of the annual mags at Ann Arbor, promises to be a bigger success than ever this year with increased interest in the game. Last year over 2,000 jammed the huge ballrooms of the Union, and State students were very much in evidence.
S. G. Waltz, manager of the Michigan Union, extends to all State students, their friends and guests an invitation to the dance and a cordial welcome to the use of many facilities of the Union.

Porter will also play for the Beat Michigan dance at the Union Friday night.

Greeks Lift Rushing Ban

Activities, Rushes May Trek to Ann Arbor Game Together
Society and sorority girls may attend the Ann Arbor game together this year if the entire party is registered at the Panhellenic office, according to the Panhellenic rushing rules.
This is only one of the changes in the Panhellenic rushing rules which are in effect this fall. No sorority pins may be worn in the dormitories or by girls wearing freshman counselor ribbons or while acting in the capacity of a freshman counselor.
Rushing will last longer this year, beginning on September 24 and ending on October 17. Dates are as follows: Monday, October 3, 7-8:45, open house, Wednesday, October 5, 7-8:45, open house, Friday, October 7, 5:30-7:30, buffet supper, Sunday, October 9, 9:30-11:30, breakfast, Tuesday, October 11, 7-8:45, open house, Friday, October 14, 6-8:45, formal dinner or preference party.
Singing period will last from 9 p. m. Friday, October 14 until noon, Monday, October 17. Pledging will be at 7 p. m., Monday, October 17.

Tradition Loving Frosh Toss Hair In Brink

Feeling that it is a freshman's privilege to wear a pot and wishing to let it be known in no uncertain terms, a group of 12 freshmen last night caught Bruce Mair in the Union grill and gave him the traditional ducking in the Red Cedar river.
Headed by George Schieve, the freshmen objected to Mair's column, "Now I Think," in the last issue of the State News. He had objected to the State tradition of freshmen ducking to wear the pot.
After his ducking, Mair had nothing to say except that "I'm now a tradition."

Dean Sets Up Rush Rules

New rules for fraternity rushing have been set up this year by Dean Fred T. Mitchell.
Under the new plan no new men can be pledged until four weeks have elapsed after their matriculation. Open house will be held at all fraternities on Saturdays from 2 to 5 p. m. This plan will allow freshmen to visit as many different houses as they desire.

YWCA to Hold Open House

The Y. W. C. A. will hold an open house for all women students who wish to join in the student parlors of the Peoples church, Friday, September 30, from 9 to 9. Invitations can be obtained by request at the Coed Carnival.
The following Thursday, October 6, there will be a Y. W. C. A. all-member meeting from 7:15 to 8:15 in the church. The year's program will be outlined and Mr. J. D. Gibbon, secretary of the community welfare, will be the guest speaker. His talk will be on what the community expects of college students.
The group meetings of the Y. W. C. A. will be held at 5 p. m. Wednesday, October 11, at 5 p. m.

State Freshmen To Snake Dance

Michigan State freshmen will once again demonstrate the snake dance between halves at the Michigan game Saturday. As soon as the half gun is fired, the frosh will flood onto the field and strut their stuff, ending with a yell. All frosh are urged to wear pots.

Women to Have Old Gym

The present men's gymnasium, Secretary Hannah explained, will be remodeled to be used for a woman's gymnasium.

President

"The fieldhouse will fill a long felt need and present an opportunity for more general training for men and women students in physical education and athletics. The constant increase in student enrollment at the rate of five to six hundred a year during the past several years makes these additional facilities absolutely necessary."

According to Mr. Young, plans for the gymnasium and field house incorporate the most modern features of similar buildings constructed in the last

Stand Up and Cheer

Win or lose, Saturday is State's big day of the year. The football team is carrying the responsibility of the school, of each student, that day. It would seem, then, that each student should take advantage of his only opportunity to show the team he appreciates their efforts.

This opportunity presents itself at the all-college, student council sponsored pep-meeting, 7:30 p. m. Friday, on the gymnasium steps. A knowledge that a unified student body is standing behind them, gives the team members an additional degree of self confidence. A personal contact with the football players at the pep meeting will give the average student a more personal interested attitude toward the actual playing Saturday.

For the good of the team, crowd, and Spartan spirit, the State News hopes for a record turnout for Friday's pep-fest.

Frosh Maintain Tradition

Bruce Mair, State News columnist, was thrown into the river yesterday afternoon by a group of 12 irate freshmen. This action followed printing of a column by Mair in which he stated that pots are nuisances to freshmen.

These freshmen were afraid that Mair's policy would break up the time-honored custom of pot wearing. George Schieve, who led the attack said to Mair as he climbed from his sudden bath, "We freshmen want to wear pots, and don't see why an upperclassman should interfere in any way with this Michigan State tradition."

Such a showing of spirit on the part of freshmen is indeed heartening to most upperclassmen, especially those of the Varsity club who have sponsored the sale of pots, and who have taken great care to preserve the picturesque custom of wearing pots.

Quotable Quotes

—By Associated Collegiate Press
"Experience has proved, and probably no one would deny, that knowledge can advance, or at least can advance most rapidly, only by means of an unfettered search for truth on the part of those who devote their lives to seeking it in their respective fields, and to complete freedom in imparting to their pupils the truth they have found." An old axiom is pointedly restated by Dr. A. Lawrence Lowell, Harvard president-emeritus.

at la ODD

—By LOUISA HUESTON

Dippy. Muffed this day. Was unmistakably frowned upon in Union cafeteria when I unceremoniously transferred a glass of "football milk" to my tray. My "But I didn't know" failed to convince them. The incident rattled me. When I saw my glass of water clouded I just KNEW I must have tried to pour the bottle of milk in it. Have sent in my application for the prize to be awarded the latest reprimand of longest standing.

You can call this column what you like, as you undoubtedly have innumerable times, but it's blotters to pen-point, that the Illustrations Associate Editors won't set the type for "A la Odd" again. It'll be "Impromptu" next time.

Pic-up Pome:
Let's think of eggs. They have no legs. Chickens come from eggs. But they have legs. The plot thickens. Eggs come from chickens. But have no legs under 'em. What a conundrum.

Remember when you were a little punk when you used to lubricate the play-ground slide with a sheet of wax-paper under you? When you used to be awake nights trying to decide what choice possession you'd save (if you could save only one) in case your house caught on fire?

Tip for new toilers. In the attic of one of the men's rooming residences there is a stack of English theses left there by a summer course teacher. Charge of twenty for additional information. Suggestion of the week: a clock for the new gill.

Pick-up: Dieting is just a case of mind over matter.

Rat Riot. This rodent was as huge as the word mammal connotations. Its chosen habitat was under a sofa in South Williams. But Julie Siene and Ross Lynn routed the rat with a broom and exterminated it with same weapon. For the hoody details call 22367.

Overheard from exam week of last term and in such an optimistic tone. "AND THE PROF TOLD ME that if I got a hundred in the final I MIGHT get a D out of the course." Gloria Scott dining every evening in the Union's Sunset room with seven males and only one is a brother.

Wisconsin Has College For Laborers

During its first year the University of Wisconsin school for workers had more than 5,000 student registrations in its various courses of study, it was revealed in a summary of the last school year compiled by Prof. F. E. Seligson, director of the school.

The new school for workers, which operates during the entire year, was established by the state university a year ago after provision had been made for it by the state legislature. The purpose of the new school, the first of its kind in any college in any state in the United States, is to provide Wisconsin workers with an opportunity for organized study during the entire year.

The new six-semester school for workers, whose services are open to all types of worker, union and non-union, and any kind of union affiliation, is an outgrowth of the old Wisconsin summer school for workers in industry, which was established on the university campus 13 years ago.

"Dad" Coleman, Kansas State Teachers' college employee, has given out 415 miles of towels to students in the college locker room in 30 years.

THRU Smoked Glasses

of ELMER E. WHITE

Super Dater

Keith Gardner, sophomore in Applied Science, has been a very busy boy. His accomplishment has set a record of some kind I'm sure. His particular accomplishment—dating 22 Kappas in one school year. Speaks well for either Keith or the Kappas. Keep up the good work, Keith and you'll get ahead in the world.

Who's Next?

Dave Laidlow has Ferolyn Green where he wants her, or vice versa. Anyway she's been sporting a Phi Tau sweetheart pin around.

False Alarm

During freshman week, to one of the various mixers, Harry Jackson, Phi Tau sophomore, escorted an old flame, Betty Wright, freshman. He bet her (don't know the stakes) that she couldn't meet five fellows in 10 minutes. To make a long story short, she did. The five fellows were so interested that they tagged along with the original two. Harry did his best to tell them that he wanted to be alone—with Betty, but it was no go. As a last resort he stepped into Harborne's and called his brothers to help him dispose of the five spares. The bluff worked and by the time the Phi Taus got their fingers up to lick five freshmen, the molesters had left our original hero and heroine where the story began.

Nationality?

From the Union second hand book store comes the report that people are still hooking the price. For instance, D-1111 "Shepherd" is trying to sell a Nelson's Curran for $1.35, which originally sold new for $1.35. What a business!

Peaches

Roma Jean Fritz, sophomore from Concord house, has pushed the freshmen coach out of the limelight. No less than Vic Spaniole and Jack Goodlett, both campus play boys, were extremely interested in her Saturday night at that freshman mixer.

Where You Go I Go

Constant companions are Mary Roth, transfer student from Grand Rapids, and Bob Courtright, a senior of the same village. Every where they are seen together—Spartan's office, Union grill, campus, and always just chomping.

A little bit INDEPENDENT

By JOHN CRIST

PIN POINTS

When a dog bites a man that's not news. When a guy pins a gal that's almost news. But when a guy pins a dean that IS news. And that is just exactly what happened on our own campus last week.

Bob Zant, chairman of the pin committee of the Independent council, presented one of the new Independent pins to Dean Fred T. Mitchell, adviser to the council. And speaking of pins, for the first time in the history of M. S. C. members of the Independent council have a visible sign that they are Independents. The new pin have proved very satisfactory.

NEW ZONE HEADS

In elections held Tuesday night, two zone chairmen were elected. They are Ed Gerhardt, who heads zone 2, and Jerry Centilla, who was elected to represent zone 4. Election of other zone managers will take place in time to allow the council to meet in the near future.

IME HEADQUARTERS

With the removal of the Spartan office to the library, the Independents have fallen heir to the office in the mixed lounge of the Union. An identifying sign, so that all may know where we are, will soon be on the door. Regular office hours will be announced later.

DATE BUREAU

Don Jackson, last year's mentor at the date bureau, announces that this agency will function as it did last year. Applications will soon be accepted and the files put in order.

ACTIVITIES

A twenty-seven intramural touch football league is in the process of formation and will begin play early next week.

With the Modern Greeks—

KAPPA ALPHA THETA—
The Thetas will be entertained after the game Saturday by the Ann Arbor Eta chapter. Jeanne Bradley and Marian Radcliffe were guests of honor at a surprise birthday party Tuesday night. Grace Roberts is a transfer from Ohio.

THETA KAPPA NU—
Will hold a smoker Sunday for prospective men pledges. The fellows are still trying to discover where it is that Bill Ingleson and his wife, formerly Peg DeWaele, live in Chicago so that they can rush down and give him a house-warming right.

ALPHA XI DELTA—
Jean Houghton, Jean Webber, and Barbara Booth are transfers from Albion. Not unaturally.

Denny Mitchell wishes it published that she is not trying to get Cole Johnson's pin. Which reminds me, the Kappas and the Chi O's felt very hurt over that statement which said they fell into a stupor after Sunday's entertaining when they really went into profound meditation upon their guests.

ECLECTIC—
Bob Johnston is now an active. The touch football team has been organized with Bill Moon as captain. Jim Shaw is around again.

PI KAPPA PHI—
Bob Lander is back from his corps training in Texas, an impressive lieutenant.

"Popsicle for Peace" is the slogan of a Pembroke college organization that is raising funds to send delegates to a discussion meeting.

The next day, October 4, the East Lansing High School Science club will attend a banquet there and the American Association of University Women will meet, also.

October 12, 13, and 14, the state convention of the Child Study club will take place at the Peoples church.

Junior Child Study Club Meets Tuesday

The first meeting of the East Lansing Junior Child Study club was held at the home of Mrs. Charles Wesley, Tuesday, September 27, in the evening.

Final plans for the state convention to be held October 12, 13, and 14 were completed.

Swim Club Will Meet

The Faculty Folk Swimming club will hold its first meeting of the year, Monday, October 3, from 7:30 to 8:30 p. m.

The club meets every Friday night in Peoples church. All are invited to its parties except the monthly dances, at which only members may "tag."

Alabama Polytechnic institute societies recently staged a G-To-Church contest.

Lonesome Students Asked To Join Student Club

Listen all you frosh and upperclassmen: Do you like fun? Are you lonesome?

The answer to your problem of how to make friends and meet lots of people is to join the Student club. It's about the largest social organization on campus, having had a membership of over 400 last year.

It's a worthy president is Walter Schroeder, Harry Macy, vice-president, in charge of membership. Harriet Bosma and Jim Carothers hold down the job of secretary and treasurer, respectively.

MANY INTERESTS

The club has many committees, to insure satisfaction of the diversified interests of its members. Committee heads are: Alice Carter, funds (that in itself is a selling point); Ray Roland, games; Jean Wyatt, publicity; Jan Rovick, musical; Eva Tullius, folk dances; Evelyn Dawes, games, and Elbert Churchill, transportation.

Student directors are Miss Emma Sater and William Gennie.

The club meets every Friday night in Peoples church. All are invited to its parties except the monthly dances, at which only members may "tag."

As the opening event, there's to be a "Fall Kickoff" tomorrow night. A picnic supper and dance at the Ledges, a scavenger hunt, and a masquerade will be scheduled.

Doesn't your budget seem tight? You'll be glad to join the fun tomorrow.

BUILDING

10 years of other large mid-western state schools. The units will resemble the recently-completed Purdue university gymnasium and field house.

The buildings are designed not only for intercollegiate athletics, but also for intramural sports and physical education classrooms and laboratories, Mr. Young explained.

Rapid growth in Michigan State college's enrollment in the past 10 years has taxed the department's facilities, he said, since only the gym annex has been added to care for additional students.

The gym annex will be used to provide room for the new auditorium.

The State Board of Agriculture's portion of the building, cost—$412,000—will be provided by a bond issue to be retired over a 20-year period from student athletic fees and other income.

The athletic department has no indebtedness at the present time, the stadium recently having been paid out.

The new men's and women's dormitories, auditorium and hospital will be built without cost to Michigan taxpayers, P. W. A. providing a total of $900,000 in grants for these buildings.

The state's portion, $1,190,000, will be paid from building revenue or student fees, the State Board voting Monday to let it be repaid over a 20-year period for the auditorium and dormitories, and over a 10-year period for the hospital.

The $107,000 veterinary science building will be financed by a $50,000 PWA grant and $57,000 allowed the Board of Agriculture last April by the State Emergency Appropriations Commission.

Decision to construct a livestock pavilion, $92,000, made after the board was assured by a committee representing Michigan livestock associations that these groups would appeal to the legislature for funds to reimburse the charge for approximately $51,000, the amount the State Board had to provide from its revolving fund before it could

Sixth Grade

Miss H. Olson's sixth grade pupils are studying South America. Don Smith brought South American stamps to show the students, and Gerald Watermire brought a chart showing the various locations of rubber.

Louise Huddleston, whose father has just returned from Europe, brought a music box to class. Her father brought the music box from Switzerland.

Mary Jane Wellman was elected president of the sixth grade. Charles Theroux, vice-president, Elizabeth Oswald, secretary, and Louis Willard, treasurer.

Arthur Nolan and Lois McCartney are new students this year. Arthur is from Royal Oak and Lois is from Detroit.

Fifth Grade

Miss Howard's fifth graders have a hobby collection. All the pupils of the class brought to school their hobbies. Many interesting foreign dolls were displayed.

The fourth, fifth, and sixth graders were invited to see the display of hobbies.

Second Grade

John Ellinwood, who just returned from Germany, where he spent the summer, gave a report of his trip to Miss Vander Noot's second graders. The pupils have made a Chinese poster which they drew and colored with crayons.

English Instructor Accepts New Post

R. M. Limpus of the English department, resigned during freshman week to accept a position at Muskingum college in Ohio. He will be replaced by Dr. R. J. McDavid. Dr. McDavid has a Ph.D. degree from Duke university and has taken post-doctoral work at the University of Michigan.

Short Coursers Find Rooms are Limited

Inasmuch as the 16-week short course will begin October 31, there are already inquiries for living facilities. All East Lansing residents who care to rent rooms to the short course students are asked to communicate with G. R. Heath, housing director for men.

Union Will Give Tea

The Women's Christian Temperance Union will give a tea at the home of Mrs. L. A. Wought at 331 Evergreen avenue, on Friday, September 30. The tea will be given in honor of the new members. A cordial invitation is extended to everyone interested in the work.

The contributors group of the Women's society of the Peoples church, head a meeting there Tuesday, September 27. They discussed their summer vacations to the west and foreign countries.

Lott Will Head Nomination Caucus

A citizens' caucus will be held at the Central school Wednesday, October 5, at 8:30 p. m., to nominate a mayor, a city treasurer, two supervisors, a justice of the peace, and two aldermen, who will serve without pay. Any other business that may come before the caucus will be transacted at that time.

Harry W. Lott will preside over the meeting. He announced that the several offices each have candidates up for re-nomination. L. L. Frimodig is the candidate for the office of mayor. Mr. Frimodig has served the city of East Lansing continuously since 1930, when he was elected to the city council. He was appointed to the post of acting mayor on July 24, 1933, and was elected mayor on November 7 of that year.

C. G. Card and O. R. Adams are the aldermen who will be up for re-nomination this year. Mr. Card was appointed to succeed Alderman Bergquist in 1931, and was elected to office in 1932. He has been on the city council since then. Mr. Adams has been a member of the council since 1932, when, on January 9, he was appointed, and was elected to the office on November 12 of the same year.

Those up for re-nomination for the other offices are: city treasurer, Agatha Amell, justice of the peace, L. E. Newell, and two supervisors, A. R. Sawyer and Jacob Schepers.

Crazed Football City Prepares to Sweep In on Ann Arbor

15,000 From East Lansing Expected to See Battle Saturday; Both Rivals Practice Behind Closed Gates as Game Approaches

By MARSHALL DANN

The storm signals are out! A cyclone is forming at the four corners of Grand River avenue and Abbot road. Into its vortex it will whirl up the citizens of this football-maddened community during the next two days. It will sweep eastward out Grand River avenue early Saturday morning. It is due to strike its scene of final destruction—the University of Michigan stadium, shortly after 2 o'clock that afternoon. It will cause incalculable damage among the Wolverine and their supporters.

Two Pin Leagues Start Seasons

Two bowling leagues, the Merchants and Hardware, raised the class of their 1938 schedule this week at the Rainbow Recreation. The Merchants' league Monday, while the Hardware League takes over the alley Wednesday.

According to L. J. Fridman, the Interfraternity pin season will get under way around November.

Dooley Praises Pingel and Rockenbach in Magazine

Scoop Says: Lauds Ace Back For His Play

Lauds Ace Back For His Play

Eddie Dooley in his annual edition of Illustrated Football pays high praise to Johnny Pingel and Lyle Rockenbach of Michigan State in his section devoted to "Stars of 1938."

At the same time Dooley lauds Charles Bachman as the developer of first class halfbacks with almost the infallibility that Southern bird-dog trainers turn out great hunting dogs.

What Dooley has to say about Pingel of course, reproduction here.

"One of Bachman's outstanding products at the triple threat spot is John Spencer Pingel, an almost flawless player. For two tempestuous seasons, Halfback Pingel has played hard, high-pressure football.

"A six-foot, 180-pounder, he's so scrappy as a fullback. Blocking or carrying, it's all the same to Pingel. He's a sportsman who plays for the sheer joy of the game."

Compares Rocky to Stalled Freight Train

Dooley spurs no adjectives in describing Rockenbach. Concisely built, Rockenbach is a vicious charger and a regular stalled freight train when it comes to hitting that line. Yet for all his soundly built physique and his ability to pull out of line like a speed-boat to run interference in the Van of the southwest back.

Rockenbach has one more weapon besides this to play. Should he fail to attain All-American status, it will be a great surprise to Big Ten fans.

Just where Dooley gets "Big Ten fans" we don't know. However, Dooley does quote Bachman on stating, "Rockenbach is the second best guard I have ever turned out."

LYLE ROCKENBACH
... Like Stalled Freight ...

Number one, of course, was All-American Sid Wagner," says Bachman. "But if you want my guess, Rockenbach will close up the gap one of these days."

Tackle Shortage May Spoil Perfect Year

In addition to devoting several paragraphs to Pingel and Rockenbach, Dooley also discusses the State team's chances.

The tackle slots represent Michigan's Thermopylae, points out Dooley. "If the line holds there, Michigan State supporters need not worry."

The modern-day Spartan will come back bearing their shields—and trailing clouds of glory.

In another section, Dooley says: "Prospects even with '37. Shortage of tackles may spoil chances of a perfect record. But spirits are high and the Spartans will be hot."

It is interesting to note how Dooley rates the remaining eight opponents on State's 1938 schedule.

'M' Must Improve to Beat 1938 Mark

MICHIGAN—The line has added zip and running game sparkles. Blocking and tackles must improve to better the 50-50 record of 1937.

WEST VIRGINIA—Stronger even than last year and best since '28, but it's a slightly harder schedule. Glenn must find a center, punter and passer to win eight.

SYRACUSE—Salem's first year was a fine one. His second should be better.

SANTA CLARA—Only a shade weaker than last year's potent undefeated team. Exports at tackle and end reserves are needed to keep the record clear.

MISSOURI—Big sophomores will add power to the 1937 weight stack of 1937. Christian and Cunningham show a lot of stuff. Passing is fine. Fair chances.

MARQUETTE—Stronger, but the brutal schedule will keep the good line busy and the backfield must develop versatility to smother more than three.

TEMPLE—They look tough, these Owls, and worse than in 1937. If Bowles and Horvath on the injury list come through, it'll be one of Temple's best.

an hour and a half of hard scrimmage duty in preparation for the coming tilt with the Big Red.

The game is scheduled for 7:30 at Pottengill field in Lansing.

RECORD TICKET SALE

In the meantime, the athletic departments of both schools are reporting a record ticket sale. Almost the entire allotment of over 12,000 tickets has been distributed through the outlets at State, while from Michigan comes word that portable bleachers, seat may be erected to handle the overflow. These seats, which are the property of the board to over 90,000.

Along the "Ironhorse" line, in the State athletic office, it is heard constantly the plea or demand for "a pair on the 30-yard line." From the thickest secretary on up to Head Coach Charlie Bachman and Athletic Director Ralph Young, this has been the greeting from those who have a "pull."

Assistant Director of Athletics Lyman Franovich complained that he could have disposed of every seat in the stands by personal friend if they were but on the mid-field marker.

Spartan students will send their voices through a strenuous pre-game workout in a quiet hall session tomorrow night. A snafu dance, which is expected to be continued at 4 o'clock the following afternoon is scheduled to follow the pep meeting.

START EARLY

Oscar Glendon, commissioner of the state police, warned all those driving to the game to start early to avoid congestion and to drive safely. Additional troops have been detailed to handle traffic on all roads into Ann Arbor.

Principals in the main event, some 100 State and Michigan players, are holding their final rehearsal behind closed gates in the enemy camp. Coach Bachman being the "No Admittance" sign out at the Old College field Wednesday.

New Haney Arrives, But He Plays Guard

There's another Haney in school, and a football player, too. The newest Haney is Shar, been a guard, who made a reputation for himself at Kingsport, Tenn. high. The other Haney, Est, needs no introduction to State fans.

"Big 'Est' is the No. 1 full back.

Trojans, Central Clash

"Tonight is the night," that's the cry around the corridors of East Lansing high school as game time for the long-awaited meeting of Lansing Central and the Trojans draws near.

Battered by confidence games in last Friday's game at East Rapids and equipped with several new game tactics, the Trojans are not looking for their first victory over the Big Red in three years.

PHILIPS HURT

Trojans' hopes received a severe jolt Tuesday afternoon when Max Phillips received a recurrence of an old shoulder injury that may keep him on the sidelines for the Central game.

Coach "Cuddly" Shaver has been drilling his boys viciously in an effort to improve the blocking and tackling of his charges. Tuesday evening the Trojans went through
