

Why Not Educate Underclassmen?

Michigan State's first marriage course lecture of the year is history and a goodly crowd of seniors have acquired additional knowledge of what will be the most important step in their lives.

Mrs. Helen Jordan, who speaks on psychological problems before marriage in a recognized authority on household and sex words, was the speaker.

The marriage lecture course for seniors is a good beginning toward solving this marriage problem. Many Board and Executive members credit their work. But the course must be repeated as early as beginning. Further work either by faculty or students is necessary.

Why should seniors alone have the benefit of the course? Why should not juniors, sophomores, and freshmen be given the same advantages? Most of the cases discussed in the course are similar to those of seniors. In fact, many marriages are broken up because of the same reasons.

That marriage involving the best of people is not easy. It is a long and hard job. It is a job that requires the best of people. It is a job that requires the best of people.

On the other hand, the marriage of two people who are not the best of people is a job that is almost impossible. It is a job that requires the best of people.

Those who have not picked their partners wisely will have a hard time. They will have a hard time. They will have a hard time.

The marriage of two people who are not the best of people is a job that is almost impossible. It is a job that requires the best of people.

A good marriage is a job that requires the best of people. It is a job that requires the best of people.

At last, Michigan State University has a course that will help you pick your partner wisely. It is a course that will help you pick your partner wisely.

LANSING AND GRAND LANSING

The project was first conceived early last spring when the EHA called the attention of the city and East Lansing to the need for additional housing in the Lansing and East Lansing areas. Three town lots within this area were considered as possible sites until the present one, extending west from Highland road to Ramsey park, was finally decided upon last May.

Plans for the six apartment buildings were started immediately after the chosen site was approved by EHA. The buildings will follow a colonial motif, 154 apartments, totaling 318 rooms, will be included.

HOW TO TIE A TIE. 1. Arrow makers of famed Arrow shirts now make neckties. And here tells you how to tie them. First put the wide end over and under narrow end. 2. Then form a preliminary knot by bringing wide end over narrow end and up through opening at collar. Smooth out the preliminary knot. 3. Next put the wide end through the loop—loosely—and smooth out again. Keeping the knot smooth is important. 4. Now make a groove lengthwise in the wide end by pinching the sides together. This groove—when you pull the tie tight—forms a dimple beneath knot. Arrow Ties because of their rich fabric, achieve this drape easily. 5. The finished job looks like this. Knot not too big and not so tight it scratches. Tie one of our Arrow Ties in this manner and you have the last word in necktie smartness. $1 and $1.50. That's all Arrow Ties cost. Fine fabrics. Beautiful tailoring. They hold their shape through a season's wear. Tie neatly, wear long. See your Arrow dealer. ARROW CRAVATS
