The Readers Speak

Editor, State News:
Your editorial May 9 entitled "Will Honesty Pay?" restores our faith in humanity. It is indeed encouraging to learn that 20 men of an honorary society have taken an oath to stop cheating for a whole term. For three months these reckless pioneers will jeopardize their scholastic standings by writing on quizzes only what they themselves know. Perhaps, inspired by this sterling example, other honoraries will take up the torch and will also forgo all sense of security and stop cheating—this term.

Smoked Glasses

No White Lie. Many thanks to Dave Telf who stepped behind the curtain for me and wrote me columns Thursday.

Prosperity Will

return, according to Master Bunny Follette, if the nation will adopt his Moonlight theory. Ran into him the other day talking to Ginnie Mae Morse, his Alpha Phi gal friend of some three years. Bunny has heard about Sunspots and their relation to business cycles. Figures Follette, "If we have more moonlight, we have more marriages, more romances, more marriages, larger population, more demand, more labor, better business."

At the Governor's parade one military officer put his foot into his mouth. The cavalry were still looking for the governor. "Now don't pay any attention to the old lad," he called. "If the old lad looks at you don't pay any attention to him," etc., etc.

As Per Custom

the Theta Nu undergrads were going to throw the senior brother into the drink last week. When most of the seniors were gone, they started on Al Booth. At the dawn of the river the seniors that were some jumped out of the water. A fight followed which ended with everyone in the water.

Excellibur Men

of our Zeezalliburs all over campus on Thursday night and threatened to toss them in the river. This fact might explain why it is that Louis Patterson, Chief Z, has not spent any of the last three nites in his room.

Thru

Statistics compiled from the efforts of these pioneering experimenters will indeed be enlightening if they show that these students have not sacrificed in vain—and that their grades continue on the same high plane as before taking the oath.

Should this plan prove successful let these champions of honesty and righteousness and defenders of the faith go down into posterity with the good five-cent cigar, the two-cent stamp and the Indian-head penny. We shall give thanks, then, to those who have awakened the long dormant axiom of grade-school lore "The copy is naught, what are you to contribute."

If this noble experiment comes to naught, what are you to contribute?

1. That honorary societies are composed of those who have the best cribbing technique, or

2. That an honest man must compete with the text, or

3. That honesty does not pay, and an honest man is a sucker.

After a weekend of research in a laboratory, we devised the following constitution for the S.P.O.C., Society for the Prevention of Cribbing:

1. Gold star placed on every blue-book whose author was not caught cheating.

2. One hour after school, clipping the ears of a caught cheating first offender.

3. Second offenders must bring a note from mother or a responsible faculty.

4. Professors controlled papers and handers on third-offenders.

5. Two extra points on every quiz written by World War veterans and students.

We, the undersigned duly swear and affirm that we have neither given nor received help for this work.

Your very sincere,
THE S.P.O.C., 40 TAIL, 41

MICHIGAN STATE NEWS CAMERAMEN PRESENT HIGH POINTS OF THE CAMPUS WEEK

Shades of Robinhood in feminine garb SUE BRODY isn't pulling a sword out of the rock. It's just a feather-tipped arrow out of a cork target. But it's pretty close to the bull's-eye at that and maybe in a few days SUE will be able to pull PEACHES SCHOLEY'S trick of splitting an arrow in the target.

Chicken or Egg First?

Atop the editor's pile of complaint letters today is one from a New York City student who expressed the belief that members of the State News staff hailed from sawmill homes. He arrived at this conclusion after noticing the noise issuing from the State News office and penetrating thru walls of adjoining classrooms.

This interesting letter stated that reporters should "confine their arias to the bandshell, their oratory to the Little Theatre, their slightly adolescent, primaverbal manifestations of glandular urges to the tender, green blades of the campus and to keep the h—— out of the first floor of the Union annex."

Thus, unconsciously, this cheerful writer brought forth the aging question of which came first, the Union or the classrooms. If the Union came first, then those attending class in the building must hold their ears and endure in agony. But if the classrooms came first, exuberant journalists must conduct themselves as mice, giving classroom practices the right-of-way in the Union building.

In short, the Union is at present a tangle of conflicts. It seems that the fundamental purpose of a Union building is to house offices for student organizations, student eating places, and recreational facilities for the entire student body. The M.S.C. Union, however, departs widely from these ideal concepts.

At present an absolute minimum of space is allotted to student organizations and student recreation. In addition to the legitimate occupants of a Union building there are the following three items: 1. an entire wing devoted largely to classrooms; 2. a women's dormitory; and 3. a faculty recreation room which contains such luxuries as pool and ping pong tables.

Thus the lowly students are crowded into a few lounges and enough offices to house only a small percentage of deserving student organizations. Recreational facilities are reduced to a soda grill and small dance floor.

True harmony in the Union building can be achieved only when such conflicts are reduced to a minimum. This will be practical only when certain of the foreign objects are removed from the Union building. Perhaps the next foreigner to leave should be the women's dormitory. Next should go some or all of the classes.

Quotable Quotes

—By Associated Collegiate Press
"Now what is a cultured man?" I would say a cultured man is one who sees things in their proper perspective, who has a sense of relative values of things and men, who is able to separate the true from the false, and who possesses those qualities that make a well-balanced mind."
Pres. William O. Hutchkiss of Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute resumes what U. S. colleges and universities should produce.

State-Irish Track Meet Draws Field Studied With Stars

Scoop Says:

By George Maskin

Michigan State's athletic council will meet today to decide whether it is okay for the Spartan baseball team to play the St. Louis Cardinals in an exhibition game.

Ed Beiner, who appears here today with the Notre Dame track team in the capacity of a shot putter, won All-American football honors at tackle in 1937 and 1938.

Although playing with a losing team, Co-Captain Chuck Gibbs of Michigan State turned in an impressive victory at Ann Arbor yesterday.

Box Badgers

State's boxing team will renew relationships with Wisconsin next winter after a one-year break.

Assistant Athletic Director L. L. Forming once was a letter-carrier.

Gene Cholek has a brother who likely will enter State in September.

Got Tourney

The State High School basketball finals for 1940 have been awarded to the college's new field house.

Gregory Rice To Bid For Top Mark

By Joe Simek

Today's track meet with the "mighty" Irish of Notre Dame on the Spartan campus may be likened to a parade of champions with the program studied with star performers.

Interest soared with the announcement the Irish great distance runner, Capt. Greg Rice will make an attempt on a new collegiate two-mile record.

Dick Frey, an All-American team mile teammate of Rice, who has been off to his usual show start may find this a good time to hit his stride and make it a real race.

Other All-American triathletes on hand will be Bill Faymonville of Notre Dame and State's Co-Captain Walter Green.

Ed DeLeon, tackle on the football team, will show his prowess in the shot-put.

The half mile run should be a thriller between Hector of the Irish and Fein of State, as both have been clocked under 1:45.

With 12 and a close dual should develop between Honnelly of the Irish and State's Ed Van Auken.

The high jump will feature Ted Lesmas and Walt Arvington with either one a possible winner.

Yearlings Have Field Day Routing Rapids, 12-1

By Hal Schram

Coach L. L. Forming's yearling baseball team continued its practice of winning lopsided ball games yesterday afternoon when the yearlings defeated Grand Rapids Junior college by a margin of 12 to 1.

Including in the very favorable practice of hitting in the clutch when hits meant runs, the boys of 42 combined nine hits with six runs on balls, four wild pitches, two passed balls, two balks, and a couple of Grand Rapids fielding blunders to dominate the afternoon's activities.

Three Do Pitching Making their initial debut as Spartan yearlings, were three freshmen hurlers who took complete charge of the pitching duties from the very outset.

The trio was headed by Billy Billings, Johnny Mach followed Billings in the fourth and in turn was relieved by Bob Teider in the seventh.

Share Hitting Honors Offensive honors for the afternoon went to Bill Morrison, State's flashy looking shortstop who collected two singles in four attempts.

Monroe Picked to Hurl Against Ohio U. Today

Spartan Bats Halted By Hoosiers

By Don Anderson

George Monroe, senior right-hander, will take the mound today against Ohio university in an attempt to repeat the Spartan baseball team's back on the victory trail from which it was so rudely shaken Thursday by Indiana's 7-0 white-washing.

Monroe will be making his first start since the opening of the regular season. He appeared briefly in the game with Michigan Normal, but has not seen any action.

He was hit rather freely in the Normal contest, but in this respect was no different from the other moundmen who worked for State that day.

Little is known of Ohio university, the only news about them at all being that they have been beaten by Ohio State.

Coach Johnny Kobs is considering lineup changes. George Stark, big catcher who tore the nail off the middle finger of his right hand in the game with Indiana will not play today.

Frosh Trackers Swamp Kalamazoo Varsity

The Spartan took the "stinger" out of the Hornet yesterday when Michigan State's promising freshman triathletes buried the Kalamazoo college varsity 94-37.

Although the yearlings scored an impressive victory they did not stop "iron man" jumping Joe Howard who piled up 22 points and competing in seven events.

The Hornet captain won both the 100 yard dash and the 200 yard dash, and the broad jump, placed second in the high jump and 100 yard dash, and wound up his 100 yard dash with a third in the pole vault.

State's freshmen won all the events with the exception of the three firsts by Howard in their rout of the Celery City team.

George Doran led the victors with a double win in the dashes.
