Council Considers Stoplights

News of the East Lansing city council considering the improvement in the traffic situation is well received among pedestrians who fear for their lives when they cross several East Lansing streets.

The city council took under consideration several proposals concerning the safety of the pedestrians. In recent years the great growth of the Michigan State student body has increased the dangers of traffic and then too the traffic through East Lansing has grown at an alarming rate.

Last night a car ran the red light and nearly hit a youngster who was crossing at the Abbot Road corner of Grand River. The impression of the witnesses was that the driver never saw the light.

Whether this is so is open to question but many others have complained that the traffic light is badly situated because it is in the center of the intersection and a stranger coming into East Lansing for the first time does not see the light. The fact that it is not suspended or located at the four corners of the intersection as are the majority of other traffic lights makes it increasingly difficult for the motorist.

Another dangerous factor in traffic here is the excessive speed of many motorists coming into East Lansing from the east. Additional lights between Abbot and Haslett streets would slow up the cars as they approach the crowded district of the city.

Action by the city council and strict enforcement by the police department is to be commended and are the only ways that pedestrians can cross streets in safety.

Associates Carry On

With the State News faculty adviser, graduate manager, business manager, and managing editor en route to Des Moines, Iowa, for the annual national meeting of Associated Collegiate Press, this and Saturday's issues of State News are under the direction of assistant editors.

The staff in charge will attempt to treat you courteously and efficiently with any business you may perform in the office, and will give you newspapers as good as they are able to produce.

The State delegation will return Saturday, and will attempt to improve Michigan State News with some of the suggestions they will hear at the conference.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 26.—For a long time Secretary of Agriculture Henry Wallace hopefully has preened himself as a promising presidential candidate. What Franklin Roosevelt privately thinks of him in that light was disclosed to Senator Guy Gillette when the Iowan went to the White House to discuss neutrality.

War Fever Gets Into Hobbies

New York City.—(ACP)—That the present European conflict is also affecting the hobbies and avocational activities of college freshmen has been proven by a Hunter College survey. Replying to a special questionnaire, new students indicated that their hobbies were analyzing newspaper propaganda, collecting war cartoons and letters, and oratory, building airplanes, flying, and historical research.

Illustrative of the unfair manner in which the Dies committee is used as a sounding-board to blast reputable characters was the recent attack which House leader Fritz Kahn took at Walter Winchell.

Winchell's real name, according to Kahn, is "Lapchitz."

Winchell's original name actually was "Winchel." Asked why he added the extra "l," the famous columnist, wrote, "I was cracked."

A new law in wage-hour enforcement was reported by Federal Judge Hanson S. Decker when he fined the Carolina Hosiery Mills of Carolina, N. C., for some types of Representative Time Law, leading wage-hour law, $50 for failing wage records and for failing the 24-hour maximum hour law. Decker also refused to order the company to make contribution to the underground workers.

Catholic University, venerable head of the Catholic church in Canada, will visit Washington next month for the annual meeting of the U. S. Catholic hierarchy. He will be accompanied over the north by Dr. Maurice S. Sebbs of Catholic university. It is a Dies committee secret that Army Brig. Gen. Augustus Hand, leader anti-submarine, quietly left the country for Germany a few days before the committee resumed its public hearings last month. The committee possesses documents, says Army Brig. Gen. Augustus Hand, signature of the Army Commander.

Industrial Preparation

The semi-dutational super-employment the army has devised to ease the burden in case of war will only a paper plan. Congressional action is necessary to put it into effect.

Meanwhile, the key feature of the plan already has been set in motion with full congressional approval. This is the groundwork for mobilizing the nation's industry for war production. Few, except insiders, realize the extent of the preparations.

There are more than 10,000 plants that secret control. The military production, and another 10,000 are being surveyed for the same purpose. In addition, the War Department has an index of thousands of other factories that could be used in a pinch.

To insure maximum speed and efficiency, the army has decentralized its procurement machine into twelve "concentration centers" in strategic cities—New York, Boston, Philadelphia, Hartford, Conn., Schenectady, N. Y., Cincinnati, Bethlehem, Pa., Atlanta, Birmingham, Chicago, San Francisco, and Seattle. These centers are under the command of picked army officers whose special job is to be acquainted minutely with the "war load" of every factory. To do this they maintain a close check on the inventories, financial status and equipment of each firm.

Ten Billion Dollars

An idea of the scope of military production is given by the fact that some 70,000 separate items are required to put a wartime army in the field. Of these 70,000, about 3,700 items are not normally made by private concerns, while 65 items are totally unavailable. That is, they cannot be profitably produced.

Voices in the Dorms

The date of Mason hall's annual amateur show has been set for Wednesday, Nov. 1, Marty Thomson, chairman of the show, announced Wednesday.

Originally planned for last night the show was postponed a week because of the Fresh-Soph games.

Abbot hall men will be guests at the Mason show and Mason residents will attend a similar contest in Abbot hall a week or so later.

The four best acts of both the Mason and Abbot shows will appear in an inter-dormitory amateur contest before the end of fall term, Thomson said.

Grace Moore Made SAI Member

Professional Music Sorority Honors Noted Soprano

By ROBERTA APPELEGATE

Grace Moore was initiated by the local chapter of Sigma Alpha Iota, professional music sorority, following her recital here Tuesday night. Miss Moore, one of the leading sopranos of the Metropolitan Opera company, opened the 1939-1940 Matinee Musicale concert series with a program of operatic arias and concert songs.

Included on the program were arias from Massenet's opera "Hedwige", Debussy's "Les Filles de Cléopâtre", and Puccini's "Madama Butterfly". These three numbers were the most outstanding numbers of the concert, both in execution and in dramatic expression.

Among other pleasing numbers on the program were Quilley's song "Spring Violets", dedicated to Miss Moore, and the Spanish song "Canto Andaluz" by Joaquin Nin, and "Sextina" by De Falla.

Other numbers included a group of French songs, four modern English numbers, and a group of Italian and Spanish compositions. Encores included Schubert's "Serenade" and Carl Bee Bin. Miss Moore's singing was handicapped by a cold but her friendly personality made the evening a pleasant one for the audience. Miss Nelson, in addition to accompanying Miss Moore, played a group of three short modern piano solos.

Grade School Jottings

The Patrol club has been organized among the fourth, fifth and sixth grade pupils in the interest of safety. Two squads of boys have charge of the streets and playgrounds, and two squads of girls take care of the inside of the building.

Dick Otto is acting president of the group, assisted by his lieutenants, John Branaman, John Myers, and Annie Laurie DeVries. The squads number 11 each and are selected along with the officers by their classmates.

A sixth grade club of which Elsie Mitchell is president, is planning a semester of activities which will vary according to the interests of the pupils.

CENTRAL SCHOOL

Fire Prevention week was observed last week throughout the school.

Miss Best's second grade made a trip to the college dairy in order to observe and to get information for a farm scene which they are preparing for their room.

Twenty tickets have been sold in the building for the Children's Theater program October 28 at Eastern high school in Lansing. Albert Simmons will speak on "Hunting Rare Birds With Color Camera." The program is sponsored by the Junior Program, Inc.

BAILEY SCHOOL

The Ingham county health division will give physical examinations to the kindergarten in October 24.

State Students Fined on Illegal Hunting Charge

Three Michigan State college students pled guilty before Justice of the Peace Whittemore of East Lansing Monday evening to a charge of hunting on college property and were fined a total of $5 each including costs.

Edward McClellan, Ralph Toles and Darwin Carlson were arrested at 5:30 p. m. on college farm 2B in possession of a pheasant which they were alleged to have shot, and were immediately charged with hunting on college property.

The property on which they were hunting is well posted with "no hunting" signs and according to police the illegal hunting appeared to be intentional.

Bailey PTA Holds Meet

Mrs. Harry Ruhl, president of Bailey school P.T.A., introduced the organization's new officers at a recent meeting.

Those introduced were: Mrs. S. D. Streeter, first vice president; Mrs. C. J. Yeager, second vice president; Putnam Robinson, third vice president; Miss Irene Holshuch, secretary; Mrs. E. F. Williams, treasurer; Miss Anna K. Stolson, adviser; and Mrs. H. Fuller, historian.

Chairman of the committees and room mothers were also introduced by Mrs. Ruhl.

Miss Anna K. Stolson, principal of the school, introduced the teachers and Miss Mildred Cardwell, public health nurse. Miss Cardwell gave a short resume of the doctors' health conference held at Bailey school last year.

Mrs. Ruhl presented by the Robins Trio composed of Mrs. Bruce Stone, violin; Mrs. John Davidson, piano; and Mrs. L. J. Herlock, flute. Tea was served by the hospitality committee headed by the chairman, Mrs. Russell Harwood, and assisted by Mrs. E. J. Rasmussen, Mrs. S. G. Whittemore, Mrs. Harold Edwards, Mrs. P. W. Sawyer, Mrs. A. B. Mitchell and Mrs. Harry Ruhl.

A poemfest has been planned by the sixth grade club at which "one members will give their favorite poems by memory and a committee of three judges will decide on the one given best."

A high school art class assisted the art teacher in building new models which are being used by the sixth grade.

Floriculture Research Has Many Diverse Problems

To the uninitiated the word floriculture may suggest sweet old ladies pottering over potted plants, but such is not the case, according to C. E. Willson, in charge of floriculture research. Scientific study of flower raising is important enough to rate several greenhouses, classrooms, several acres of land, as well as a teaching and extension staff.

Far-reaching experiments in the cross-breeding and culture of flowers are carried on by the floriculture department, some projects taking years to complete. Because of lack of sufficient data on cross-breeding, Willson says, these experiments are a combination of guesswork, luck and patience.

Some of the experiments being carried on at the present time include soilless culture in which plants are grown in gravel, fed by chemical solutions, cross-breeding of caryanthemum for new and better types, and testing of gas

A neat little principle of physics

CARBURETOR KAYWOODIE $4

In this Kaywoodie pipe, called the Carburetor Kaywoodie, a wonderfully sweet-smelling pipe has been improved by the application of a neat little principle of physics. When you take a puff at one of these Carburetor Kaywoodies, you automatically draw air in through a tiny inlet in the center of the bowl. That incoming air keeps the smoke cool, sweet and serene, no matter how beligerently you puff. In fact, the harder you puff, the more air comes in. That's why it's called a Carburetor Kaywoodie. Everybody knows that a Kaywoodie is the most socially conscious of pipes, yet still admired everywhere. And the Kaywoodie Flavour is famous. But don't let us urge you—shown above, No. 22.

Unbeaten Teams Clash In Bloomington Meet

Soph-Frosh Brawl Halts IML Play

Because of the annual Battle of the Underclassmen the games scheduled in the Independent Touch-Football League were postponed Wednesday night.

In the Tuesday night contests, there was one donation as the Mustangs outfit didn't appear, forfeiting the contest to the Vets.

The Wolverines handed a defeat to a gentle Wildcat team as Trapp and Wench both engaged passes to score 12 points and a conversion.

Beatdown again squeezed through for a victory at the expense of the May Mays team with a single safety. The winners scored the safety in the third quarter of play.

The postponed games on Wednesday's card will be played at the end of the season.

Trojan Elemen To Meet Marshall

East Lansing Trojans will attempt to make it two straight victories in Twin Valley competition tomorrow night when they take on Marshall on the latter's field.

Coach Shaver will probably start practically the same team that opened the game with Adrian.

Spartans Out To Break Old Jimx

Frey Will Make First Start Saturday

By JOE SIMK

Spartan cross countrymen meet their traditional jinx team Friday morning when they face Indiana university's perennial powerhouse at Bloomington.

Of 21 dual meets the Spartans have engaged in since Lauren P. Brown became coach only Indiana has succeeded in defeating the Spartans, and they have turned the trick three times.

Michigan State likewise has been the stumbling block for many a great Indiana team. Way back in 1934, the year of the inaugural of the present series, the rising Spartans shattered a long line of Crimson wins.

The Hoosiers then began another streak which was not snapped until last year when State turned the trick by the narrowest of margins, 27-28.

DOMINANT LOOP

In the meantime the two schools were dominating their respective leagues. State was the ruler of the IAA in team and individual championships, and Indiana had a monopoly on Big Ten crowns and also extended their power to rule the National AAA barrier field.

Although State will be out to even up the five-meet series, it has yet to turn out a tape breaker. For three years Don Lash, the great national champion and the Sullivan award winner, paced the teams to victory. Then came another Olympian Tommy Decker, and then colored stayer Jimmy Smith.

Last year Mel Trott took over the helm. All of these stars have passed out of the picture, but Coach Billy Hayes generally turns out a great star. Edgar Hodges, Vernon, Brewster, and Wayne Tolliver are the veterans on this year's team, but sophomores Kaye and Daniels have been in the limelight so far.

BOOST HOPES

Spartan hopes for a win received a boost with the return of Dick Frey to the team to round out a veteran aggregation. Roy Felt, George Keller, and Bill Mansfield were instrumental in last year's upset, while Ed Mills, Al Mangum and Warren Anderson have had more seasons behind them. Wilson Seales who is knocking on the threshold of a varsity night will also make the trip.

Page Wins Two-Mile Run In Handicap

Freshman Jerry Page won the two-mile run of the 19th annual track and field handicap yesterday afternoon by mudding his way through with a corrected time of 10:20 with a 3-second handicap.

Ralph Monroe, novice cross country champion, started from scratch and broke the tape with 10:24, but the revised standings put him in third place.

Running with 3 second handicaps were Bill Scott, Ed Leonard and Don Merrit, who finished second, fourth and fifth in that order.

Beta Kappa Seeks Frat Victory

Determined to get back into the win column, Beta Kappa will mix with Kappa Sigma at 7 o'clock in the first Interfraternity touch football league game on tonight's card.

The Betas went down before Phi Kappa 6 to 0 in last week's play.

Other Interfraternity battles tonight will match Sigma Nu and Phi Chi Alpha at 8 o'clock, while Alpha Epsilon Pi will meet Theta Chi at 9 o'clock.

Tuesday's action saw Phi Delta and S. A. E. earn clear cut victories in games which were real thrillers from beginning to end.

The Phi Delta aggregation turned back FarmHouse, 7 to 0, on a final quarter touchdown. Already ahead 2-0 in the matter of first downs the Phi Deltas registered the clincher on a scoring pass from Fred Baker to Dick Woodfield in the fourth period.

S. A. E. chalked up its winning score in the third stanza. That one touchdown proved a bad break for the Delta Sigs inasmuch as the game ended with that crew on the long end of a 2-1 first down count. S. A. E.'s winning margin, however, was 7 to 0.

The final game on Tuesday's date saw Hesperian and Lambda Chi deadlock at 6-6 in regulation time but the Lambdas collected a technical win via their 1-0 first down pass. Hesperian rebounded its score in the first quarter when Bob Dodge ran 55 yards for a touchdown, while Lambda Chi's counter came in the third period when Dick Reeves snatched an enemy pass to score.

Sophs Carry Burdens Against Titans Makes Comeback

While Illinois Wesleyan is not regarded as a major opponent, Michigan State's grid squad is not taking anything for granted as it prepares to tackle the Titans from Bloomington, Ill., next Saturday.

Although hindered by bad weather, the Spartans have been drilling daily against Illinois Wesleyan formations. State's poor pass defense, which has resulted in three defeats this year, has been given a thorough going over by the coaching staff.

Assistant line coach Gordon Jake Dahlgren returned early this week from scouting Illinois Wesleyan's 16-7 victory over Pennsylvanian Naval Fleet with a report indicating that the Titans have something on the ball this year.

Last fall the Spartans annexed an 18-0 victory after a harder struggle than anticipated.

Coach Charles Bachman has indicated that he will give some of his injured sophomores a chance to show their ability against the Titans. He will probably start a team composed largely of first year men, drawing from the ranks of juniors and seniors as the need for their services arises.

Jack Amon, whose stock as a fullback has been rising rapidly, is a likely starter in the Sun backfield, however. Sematone, line smothering play has regained position on the varsity squad in the Grand Rapids junior after several weeks with the "B" team.

A review of the injury list reveals that a large number of the regulars will avail themselves of the opportunity for a rest by watching the contest from the sidelines. Doubtful players in action include Ed Abdo, Paul Giffeth, Eddie Pearce, Roman, Roman, Ralph Bennett, Eddie, Edgar, Harry Pound, and Blackburn. Pogor and Blackburn are out indefinitely with leg injuries.

At Simolen and Harold Miller, pair of "B" team guards, have been moved up to the varsity to fill the gaps brought about by the sudden epidemic of amnesia which have plagued this department.

Continuing a rivalry which began in 1910, the Spartan yearling will be attempting to achieve its fifth victory in seven starts against the Bears' aggregation, having won four, lost one and battled a scoreless tie in six encounters during their 29 years of football rivalry.

Hutt, Mack to Meet In Golf Finals

Len Hutt and George Mack, two freshman golfers, will vie for the college open golf championship Sunday at the Walnut Hills Country club course.

Both Hutt and Mack smashed through their second and third round matches with identical victories. Hutt defeated Busch 3-2 in the second round and Zimmerman in the semi-final, 3-2.

Mack defeated Hishop in the second round and Fuston in the semi-final by the identical score, three up and two to play.

Frosh Tackle Bearcats

By RALPH SCHRAM

Activity in the freshman football camp was momentarily slowed up yesterday afternoon as the men of 43 won't given the day off for the purpose of building up their prestige somewhere other than on the gridiron.

The annual Fresh-Soph field day was the cause of the momentary letdown as several of the yearlings exchanged their football tops for an old pair of pants and a broken down pair of shoes.

However, Coach John Kobs and his searing coaching staff expressed the hope that this one-day layoff would help the boys to relax and thus in turn give a boost to the more prominent footballers of the offensive play shown in Friday's opener against Michigan Normal.
