Merry-Go-Round

Two days later July 28 incident, newspapermen thought up a "new" scheme to smoke out the President's "Cim you say," queried one of the conspirators "when the country has elected a statement from you on the third term?" To which Roosevelt turned sharply, shocked and said "no."

The best third term question asked of Roosevelt came from Fred Perkins, of the Pittsburgh Press, who on August 1 uttered the prophetic statement:

"Mr. President, would you care to give a few fitting words regarding this important occasion which you mark as the 12th anniversary of your inauguration?"

Here newspaper Perkins paused dramatically, then continued, "I hope in the occasion when Calvin Coolidge made his statement, 'I do not choose to run.'"

The entire crowd laughed, including the President, who could think of nothing better of the moment than to ask if this meant he was being invited to spend the summer at the Black Hills.

A monumental occasion for the work of Coolidge, the Latin poet, has just been completed at college, the university. It weighs 125 pounds.
