Team Out For Band Will Perform For Alumni at Game Saturday

Homecoming Victory

Travel Worn Team Cheered by Showing At Santa Clara

By SHILDON MOYER

Thirty-six travel weary Spartans return to practice today as they prepare for their homecoming rival, Indiana. The State squad arrived from San Francisco late yesterday and held a brief work-out in the first three playing Santa Clara last Saturday.

Squad members returned to excellent physical condition except for Blackburn, who suffered a sprained ankle. Blackburn was replaced by Lew Steiner, returning sophomore from Ferris State.

ROTC Music Unit Rehearsing, Formations for Homecoming

Led by Drum Major Elton Rosegart, of Pontiac, the Michigan State college 100-piece marching band will honor alumni with special formations between halves of the Spartan Indiana football game on Macklin field Saturday, Nov. 18.

Composed entirely of students, the Michigan State band is known throughout the middle west for its precision formations and playing Leonard Fabens, of the music department, directs the organization and Major Mark Doty of the military department supervises the marching and formations.

The football game and band appearance Saturday afternoon highlight the annual homecoming program, which also includes a smoker on Friday night, Varsity club luncheon Saturday noon, open house in dormitories and fraternity and society houses, and a dance in the Union building Saturday night.

Last appearance of Michigan State college football this season will be at the Spartan-Temple game Nov. 23. The group's annual off-campus trip was to Lafayette, Ind., to compete with the football team to the Purdue game.

State's Homecoming Foe Carries Mediocre Record

Frosh Gridders Snatch Victory in Wild Finish

By Hal Schram

Thrills, glamour and spectacle were all fashioned into a 60-minute football fantasy yesterday afternoon when Michigan State's freshman football team scored a hard fought 6 to 0 victory over the varsity reserves.

All that was lacking in the afternoon's festivities was the movie cameraman who missed a swell chance to shoot what could truly be classified as a gridiron show with a story-book ending.

SNIP AND TUCK

A crowd of approximately 500 football fans was on hand to witness a conclusion to a nip and tuck battle which could only happen in fiction, but never in reality.

After battling the varsity gridders to a standstill for 30 minutes and five seconds, Coach A. Acert's second stringers saw their afternoon's efforts blazed in the final 35 seconds of play.

The ball was resting in the reserves' 17 yard line in their possession when they had a minute remaining in the third period. On second down, Center Tom Avery got his right hand on the ball and entered the line with a strong angle and the ball was snapped to the one yard line by Jack Benlin, varsity end, and passed to it.

That proved to be the break of the game.

THREE TRIES FAIL

But the varsity failed to score

Hoosiers Start Grid Relations

Bachman, McMillin to Renew Rivalry

By Bob Hatton

A band of Indiana Hoosiers with a none-too-impressive record invade Macklin field Saturday in an attempt to get back on the credit side of the football ledger.

It will mark the first time the Spartans have met the Hoosiers on the gridiron, but not the first chance that Coach Bo McMillin, of the invaders, and Charley Bachman, of the Spartans, have had to match their football wits.

In 1933 Bachman's first visit at State, the little Colonel brought a Kansas State eleven to East Lansing and the Spartans had a busy time of it in escaping with a scoreless tie.

The Hoosier mentor who gained All-American fame as a quarterback for Center college, is again set to turn loose his grid charges against a State team.

GRID STRATEGIST

Strategist of the first order, McMillin has developed his own style of play which has become famous for its tricky and deceptive formations.

The Colonel utilizes a single-wing formation as the starting point of his plays but from there on it's mainly a matter of confusion on the part of Hoosier opponents. Variations of every degree occur with the same play after being run from several various Hurling Hal Hursh, ace Indiana back, will be much in evidence Saturday as State meets the Indiana Hoosiers.

Wayne Situation Not Definite

Upon the arrival from the west with the State grid squad late yesterday, Ralph H. Young, Spartan athletic director, declined comment on any rumors concerning Wayne's situation with the Spartans.

At the present time, I am unable to discuss the matter, stated the Spartan boss, but I believe that a decision will be reached within a day or two.

Coach Charley Bachman, who took over as head of the squad, is expected to start his work next week's schedule. What he'll accomplish with the present line of play with Indiana Saturday is not known.

It is expected that Wayne is about to begin a series of games with the Spartans. Details have been reported which indicate a re-organization of grid relations between Michigan State and the Spartans.

The Spartans have played Wayne in a warm-up contest on the grid last year. All of the games have been continued to date.

Lambda Chi Alpha Battles Sigma Nu In Finals

The annual games of the fraternities began played Tuesday night at Macklin field. The Lambda Chi Alpha team, coached by Fred E. Young, defeated Sigma Nu, coached by Tom Avery, in a 10-0 victory over the Sigma Nu team. The game was held at Macklin field, and the Sigma Nu team was defeated by a single first down.

Jayce Harriers Run Frigid

While the varsity is making ready to arrive in New York for Michigan State's cross-country season, the varsity Harriers are making ready to run the 100-mile relay race at Macklin field. The Harriers are coached by Coach Laurence P. Brown, and the team is expected to run the race on Saturday. The Harriers are expected to run the race in a time of 14 hours and 15 minutes.

Flint Poloists Whip State Team

By JOE SIMEK

Flint Eagles continued undefeated in the Michigan State polo league Wednesday night as they powered over State's team, 18 to 9, on the Demonstration ball field.

Flashing plenty of speed and displaying superior play near the enemy goal the Eagles built up a 8-3 lead at halftime and eased to a victory in the last two chukkers. Don Howden led the way for the Flint trio again as he racked up eight goals while Morris Grant, playing a sterling game at No. 2, racked up seven goals.

The Spartans played the ball well enough at midfield but were obviously weak on goal-line defense. Fred Gibson popped in four goals for the State team while Emil Larson counted three, and Don Robinson two.

Wednesday's opener saw the Red Wings "B" aggregation turn aside Pontiac "B" in a game which was featured by show play by Emil Larson, who scored four goals in the fourth chukker when the Lansing team switched from goal to goal. Pontiac substituted the Spinnaker team in the 11th.

Tied up at 6-6 at the end of the third period, the game turned into a real battle in the final chukker. Jack Krause collected one goal for the Red Wings and the goal as the period opened and although Curt Weaver scored two, and George Benjamin, Tom Young and a pony goal counted for the Wings in quick succession.

Wenden Smith and Krause led the Lansing aggregation with three goals apiece.

Friday's card laid the Eagle and Grays Pointe in the feature game of 7-30 p. m. while M.S.U. will tangle with the Demingites at 8 p. m.

Harriers Eye IC-4A Meet

By JOE SIMEK

Swinging into the last stages of intensive training before the all-important IC-4A title ribbon class in New York city next Monday, Michigan State's harrier section is showing "new drive" and spirit.

Coach Laurence P. Brown has annually faced each big dual meet as a matter of course, content to key his men up only for the IC-4A run. And how they have come through!

In ten years of competition in this traditional meet in which only eight complete State teams took part, the Spartans reeled off five consecutive team championships and five individual crowns.

Their reign of championships was shattered last year by powerful Manhattan, which again ranks with the favorites. Before their five-year streak the Spartans had placed second, third and fourth.

Leading the Spartan distance department is Tom Otley, who galloped away with the gold medal in 1933 and came back to repeat on the next trip. Clark Chamberlain, who led the pack in 1936, was the first Spartan winner. Eddie Beckstead was first in the 1937 grid and the following year Ken White was the fourth State man in a race to wear the coveted crown.

FREE IMPROVES

Clifton Dick Frey is the only member of the last championship team to be in the year's squad. He improved all season by the after-effects of a "trick" operation; the Buffalo veteran's goal is to lead his team to the title.

The harrier chief raged through long workouts this week, he appears to have hit the form that placed him among the leaders the last two years.

Frey was the freshman champion in 1936, and before that had seen considerable action on the Billy VanCortlandt course.

Four of the men also made the team last year. Roy Feby, who is a much improved runner and who will be a contender for first place, and George Keller, placed ninth and tenth last year. Bill Mansfield, who has turned in his best running in the last two starts, also placed high. Al Mangano, an eastern boy who has a liking for rugged hills, should figure much higher in this year's scoring.

MASON FIVE WINS Close Victory

Mason's 27-0 victory in his last appearance, met stiff opposition in Abbot 10 last night. The demonstrators, four from league and just managed to get out a win via the first down rule. The winners reached the 20 yard line only once during the evening, but their efforts proved enough as the Abbot side bogged down completely.

Steering through the air attack, Mason's seven-point game over Wells F in the opening game. The Mason seven-point game came on a 70 yard run from Charles Getz to Frank...

Mason's conclusion of the evening proceedings with a hard-fought decision over Abbot 10. Although both sides failed to dent the down column, the Masons counted a pair of first downs in the struggle.

FOOTBALL

Bloomington, Ind. By a score of 37-7. In the only other meeting between the two teams, Indiana triumphed, 14-6, in 1921.

Although Indiana has not been bowing over opponents with regularity, they have a strong and versatile passing attack. Mention forward passes by the Spartans and they will inadvertently diverge for aerial bombs have all but blown State off the gridiron this season.

But with the inexperienced sophomores learning their lessons the hard way after seven games, they should be ready to acquit themselves in an improved manner.

Since the Indiana contest will be the main feature of Homecoming day, State is bound to be a difficult opponent for anybody. The game always starts up the gridiron to play their best brand of football.

- 1. FOUR-WAY DRAMA. The leading story in this week's Post is recommended for (1) football fans, (2) engaged couples, (3) girls smitten with gridiron stars, and (4) fathers who have sons in love with the wrong girl. Read Yesterday's Heroes, by a new Post writer, William Brent.
- 2. INFORMATION PIECE. Are you annoyed by people who know "all about the war"? You can silence them by revealing the important secret clause in the Rome-Berlin axis agreement. You'll find it in "Marslow Boss' article, Mussolini Prepares for War. A radio dispatch from Geneva.
- 3. FUN WITH OUR FOUR-FOOTED PALS. Note to Wives: When you see papa polishing his shotgun, quick—get him Verren Bell's yarn, "Brag Dog, to read! He'll end by wanting to own a bird-dog, of course. But you can talk him out of that.
- 4. HIGH JINKS BETWEEN THE LINES. After the game is over, read Tom Means' football article, "Daze Plays for Blood. Not that the South fights the Civil War all over again, you understand, but what's a kick in the face if the referee isn't looking? Sizzling football stories retold by a sports writer who's watched the stretchers go by!

You'll recall her, definitely, when you read the story on page 18 of this week's Post, "But Love the Stranger," by Eve Bennett.

7. SHARE YOUR PLEASURE in the Post with others. Tell them how Father Divine produces thousand-dollar bills with the dexterity of a magician, to feed regiments of negro—and white—"angels." You'll learn how when you read Jack Alexander's rollicking article, "All Father's Children Got Heavens—about the half-pint messiah who admits he is God.

8. GAME OF LOVE: (Played by 4). Is an ambitious wife a spur or a knife in the back to a husband starting in business? Here's the hither-sweetest story of a husband whose wives raced for "success." Richard Sherman's "Won't You Walk a Little Faster!"

9. BE A MAN-ABOUT-TOWN WITHOUT MOVING AN INCH. You can enjoy a personally conducted tour backstage with the First Lady of the Theatre. Read about the time Helen Hayes first met George M. Cohan, the time she played to cowboys what happened in her first "grown up" part. It's in the unique story of her life, by her mother, continued in this week's Post. Third part of eight.

10. FUN IN TAHITI, WITH NORDHOFF & HALL. It may be raining or snowing when you take this week's Post home. What do you care?
