National Soft Coal Stoppage Impends As Workers Strike

100,000 Miners Already on Strike as UMW Asks for Solution by Collective Bargaining with Operators in Vital Areas

WASHINGTON, April 30 (AP)—The War Labor board tonight ordered that anthracite production continue without interruption while the wage dispute between the United Mine Workers and the operators is resolved by the board.

NEW YORK, April 30 (AP)—Despite President Roosevelt's ultimatum to stay on the job, more than a half million coal miners were set tonight to strike and paralyze the industry which would imperil operation of many vital war plants.

More than 100,000 miners already are on strike.

John L. Lewis's United Mine Workers, replying to the president's order, still insisted on contracts and assailed the War Labor board but suggested one way out—a renewal of collective bargaining negotiations with mine operators in the soft coal areas. No word on the new move came immediately from the White house.

Lewis said late in the day that no mines west of the Mississippi river are affected at present, as operators and miners there have separate contracts.

Anthracite miners and operators although still negotiating, agreed the miners in the hard coal fields would join the soft coal union men in the wholesale walkout at the midnight deadline.

Agreements were reached between operators and miners in the southern bituminous and anthracite fields for maintenance crews to remain on duty in the mines after others walk out.

These crews will keep the blowers running and thus keep the air changed below ground and do other necessary jobs, but they will not mine coal.

Relationships Cut Between U.S. and French Colony

WASHINGTON, Apr. 30 (AP)—The United States has broken off relations with Martinique and our navy is watching developments in the island territory—only segment of the once-vast French colonial empire which is not under the Axis heel and yet remains aloof from the war.

Secretary of the Navy Frank Knox indicated that there is no special patrol of American warships around the island, but explained that Martinique lies amid America's Caribbean defenses, where ships and planes constantly operate.

Secretary Cordell Hull, in a blistering note to the French High Commissioner, Admiral Georges Robert, said the United States will not continue to "recognize or negotiate with any French representative in the Antilles who remains subservient or maintains contact with the Vichy regime" in France, which he denounced as "now an integral part of the Nazi system."

Two State Graduates Promoted to First Officers in WAAC

Two former students of Michigan State are proving that women can advance in the Woman's Auxiliary Army Corps. Donna Werbach '30, and Jane Piatt '30, both in the first officers training group last July, now hold higher positions.

Miss Werbach, who received her commission in August, is now acting assistant director of the WAAC for the fifth corps area, in Columbus, Mo. Receiving her commission at the same time, Miss Piatt is now inspector general at Ft. Des Moines.

Miss Werbach, who is from East Lansing, received advance training at Ft. Leavenworth while Miss Piatt, whose home is in Lansing, took additional work in Washington.

Social Is Open to Airmen

Student club will hold a folk dance in the social hall of People's church tonight at 8 p. m., according to Pres. Donald Doty, Detroit senior. The party will be open to both students and airmen, and dates are not necessary. "Lack of experience should not keep anyone away," Doty said. "One can learn to join in a square dance, reel, polka, or schottish right on the spot."

Soloist to Appear in Next Concert

CARROLL GLENN

By LEONE SEASTROM
Tabbed Mademoiselle's "Career girl of the month" is Carroll Glenn, young concert violinist, who will appear here on the concert series Tuesday at 8 p. m. in College auditorium. Miss Glenn is on a transcontinental tour of the United States and Canada. As a soloist, she is also appearing with symphony orchestras in New York, Chicago, Washington, Philadelphia, Toronto, and other large cities.

Beginning her study at the age of four, Miss Glenn's first violin was a Sears Roebuck tin fiddle, a "Stradivarius model." Intensive work has now given the young violinist a place in the limelight, that music critics believe will not soon grow dim. Along with William Kapell, brilliant 20-year-old pianist, Carroll Glenn is being watched as one of the two most important young professionals out to prove themselves this year.

Between concerts and practice, to which she devotes five hours a day, Miss Glenn manages to lead quite a normal life. She finds time for riding, dancing, dates and most recreations which interest any girl. This blending of normal girlhood with outstanding talent has provided her with the antidote for the bane of all concert artists—going "stale."

LONDON, April 30 (AP)—The Polish government said today that its request for investigation into German charges that Russia had killed 10,000 Polish officers near Smolensk, had elapsed.

Women Try Thumb Route to Work

As an AFL strike tied up Cleveland's mass transportation system, this scene was common, and thousands of war workers thumbed their way to work. Woman in the middle displays a weekly car pass—good only when cars are running. War plants were affected but little, however, by the idle street car and bus systems. Motorists had difficulty filling car seats in some sections, so complete was cooperation accorded a request that workers be given rides.

Students and Army Men to Attend First Spring College Dance Tonight

Identification Cards and Passes to Be Only Admission to Hear Drennan's Band; Skating Party Listed for Sunday

By Dee Dearing

MSC will swing out socially tonight at the first college-sponsored dance of the term. For the first time, also, the airmen and STARS will attend an all-college affair, after a series of postponements and cancellations of previous plans for them.

Enemy Offensive Increases With Tank Attacks

ALLIED HDQ. IN NORTH AFRICA, April 30 (AP)—Axis defensive smashes reached the proportions of a counter-offensive today as enemy tanks and infantry were flung against recently captured Allied positions all along the front.

Before the strongest of all Axis counterattacks, against the Diebel Bou Aoukaz overlooking the open plain leading down to Tunis, the British first army was beating back strongly from generally maintained positions.

To the north the Americans made slight gains, although forced to fight off unending enemy counter-thrusts.

One of the heaviest Allied air attacks along the front was against Axis positions in the Medjerda valley.

Air Force to Pass in Review Today

The men of the 310th CTD will pass in review today at 1:30 as a part of their weekly routine parades to be held each Saturday from now on, according to the public relations office for the air forces here.

The site chosen for the parades is the old parade grounds near Dem hall, and the entire personnel of the air forces are to participate.

Photographic Exhibition Opens in Music Building

An exhibition of 124 photographs by Joe Munroe, will be shown in the college gallery, basement of the Music building, for two weeks starting today.

Included in the display will be a print of the house in Okemos designed by Frank Lloyd Wright, landscapes and Michigan faces.

The exhibit will be open from 3 to 5 p. m. weekdays and from 2 to 5 p. m. Saturdays and Sundays.

The dance, slated for 9 to 12 p. m. in College auditorium, is strictly an informal date affair.

All MSC coeds, ROTC men, civilians, STARS, and airmen are entitled to attend. Identification cards will be the only admission for civilians, but these will be carefully checked at the door to see that no outsiders attend the dance, according to Prof. Tom King, chairman of the social committee.

Passes Are Required

Admission for pre-pre flight students will be in the form of passes, and no airmen will be allowed into the dance without one. Staff officers of the 310th CTD are also entitled to attend.

STARMen and airmen may obtain dates through the dating bureau which consists of one representative from each flight squadron, and 20 women from dormitories and societies. STARMen may call the representative to the dating bureau in the dormitories co-ops or societies.

Drennan to Play

Red Drennan's 10-piece band with vocalist will furnish the music for the party.

The roller skating party for airmen and dates will be held tomorrow, at the Patomar skating rink, where they will be the guests of the management. Squadrons are divided into two groups and squadrons A, B, C, D and E will skate from 3 to 4:30 p. m. and squadrons F, G, H, I and J will skate from 4:30 to 6 p. m.

Red Army Offensive Preludes Opening of New Allied Front

LONDON, May 1 (AP)—Russian troops once more on the move in the northwest Caucasus were reported by Moscow early today to have captured "several plane-supported drive" which the Germans said was another big Red army offensive in which 150,000 men were attacking.

At the same time Joseph Stalin in a May day order of the day declared that devastating British and American airblows on the industrial centers of Germany and Italy foreshadowed "the formation of a second front in Europe."

"The blow against the enemy in the east on the part of the Red army," he added, "for the first time since the outbreak of the war has merged with a blow from the west by the forces of our Allies into one common blow."

Liberal Travel Rules Asked

LANSING, April 30 (AP)—An eight member group, led by Governor Kelly, will present to Joseph B. Eastman, director of the Office of Defense Transportation, and to Prentiss M. Brown, OPA chief, a plea for liberalization of orders regulating war-time vacation travel.

Today's Campus

... STARry Eyed

First donations were being received in the summer school office yesterday after the plea made for used math, chemistry, and physics texts for use by STAR soldiers, when an observer commented that owners' names left in the fly pages might result in some coeds' "seeing stars."

... Home Wanted

Mix, Dean Elisabeth Conrad's dog, is looking for a new home. It's not Mix's fault, though. Stray dogs have been chasing and killing the ducks along the Red Cedar, so a ruling has been made banning all dogs from the campus. Mix has just come from the vet. clinic where he had a physical check-up and a bath and is now waiting for his mistress to find him a "very good home."

... Tables Turn

Hank Hipp, Buffalo, N. Y., senior, pulled a reversal on the old saw about the absent-minded professor yesterday. After taking his exam in petroleum technology, he picked up the blue book and walked out. Now he hopes the professor will be absent-minded enough to "forget it."

PROP WASHINGS From the 310th CTD

By PVT. E. E. HALMOS
Abbot Hall

By now, most of us in Squadrons A and B have flown a plane at Capital City airport.

We are, in our own estimation, excellent pilots. We have no doubt at all that if the need arose tomorrow, we could man a squadron of P-47s and do very creditably with them against a foe. With a bit of time for practice, no doubt we could do as well with a fleet of heavy bombers.

Maybe we could do these things, at that. Some of us have now had as much as five whole hours of instruction. You ought to listen in on our lengthy discussions on aerodynamics and other learned subjects.

But flying affects one that way. No matter how blasé a citizen of the world a man may profess to be, the moment he steps into a plane and it leaves the ground, it's a new world and a new experience. And that's true every plane-ride, not just on the first.

Because the world looks so different from up above, its familiar features becoming tiny in the midst of the growing vastness of the planet itself. And a man has an unaccountable double feeling, partly of great power and partly of great humility, as he sits above the earth in his flimsy, noisy, winged machine. We all have that feeling, whether we've never been up before or whether we have a hundred hours of flying to our credit.

It's a grand thing, though, this flying. It's what we've been pointing for since we joined up. The work we're doing here is only preliminary, simply to familiarize us with the air as a medium of travel, and the appearance and behavior of objects on the ground as seen from the air.

You would be amazed at the gyrations, maneuvers and utter disregard for all the natural laws that can be shown by an apparently respectable country road, once it has been selected by a pilot as a landmark.

But, though we may fly always with an instructor, though we may never go faster than 70 mph, though the planes be tiny and unarmed, we're flying. And we love it.

LETTERS . . . to the Editor

TO THE EDITOR:
There have been a number of articles in the last few editions of the State News, more or less slamming or running down the few remaining men civilians at MSC. The writers seem to have completely ignored the fact that a majority of the civilian students here are also a part of the armed forces.

These sailors, soldiers and marines are becoming greatly annoyed at the remarks concerning them in previous ar-

CAMPUS CHURCHES

By NANCY LONGWELL

"PYGMIES or Giants" will be the topic of Pastor Royal Woodhead's sermon at the Wesleyan Methodist church, E. Michigan and N. Magnolia streets in Lansing tomorrow. The Sunday morning services will be held at 11, and at 7:30 in the evening the subject will be "Jesus Christ, the Coming King."

The Rev. William Young of the College Lutheran church will give a sermon on "The Waiting Guest" at the usual worship service at 10:30 in the State theater.

Prof. O'Beirne to Speak

Prof. Bert O'Beirne of the college faculty will be the guest speaker for the Lutheran Student club at 6:30 in the evening in the Organization rooms of the Union.

The Christ Lutheran church at 122 S. Pennsylvania in Lansing will hold services at 10:45 a. m. Sunday, and the subject will be "What a Friend We Have in Jesus."

Will Review "The Robe"

Dr. N. A. McCune will talk about "The Peace of the Risen Christ" in Peoples church this Sunday at the 9:30 and 11 a. m. services. In the evening Mrs. McCune will review "The Robe" by Lloyd C. Douglas, during the vesper service. Virginia Tomlin, freshman, will play a trombone solo, "Morceaux Symphonique" by Guilmant.

The Rev. C. A. Bruch will officiate at the morning worship service at 11 at the Mifflin Avenue Church of the Nazarene.

Sunday morning services will be held at 11 a. m. for the First Church of Christ, Scientist, in the Masonic temple at 314 M. A. C.

Episcopalians Invite Pre-Cadets

Search for Game Warden Continues in River Area

ALMA, April 30 (AP) — Search for Carlyle B. Smith, 48, state game warden, missing for 13 days and believed a victim of foul play, continued tonight as officials played jacklights on the Maple river in southern Gratiot county where last trace of the officer was found. Authorities generally expressed belief that Smith was with violence while confronting poachers in the area. He disappeared April 17 after beaching his boat on a river bank while on patrol duty.

Weekly Letter to Men in the Service

(This open letter to men in the service is a weekly feature of the Michigan State News, describing the outstanding events on campus. Clip it out and mail it to a friend in the service.)

Saturday, May 1, 1943

HI JOHNNY:

Everything around here is being streamlined for the duration, and the Student council didn't lose out on it either. The group revised its constitution recently, making it a provisional form of government. Main changes were made in the election of members. One member will be chosen from each division such as women's dorms, and any member of each division can petition for election.

The SWAVes program is whizzing right along, with women signing up right and left for volunteer jobs. The newest idea is that the SWAVes will take over part of Buildings and Grounds work and help them out in much of its non-professional jobs.

Graduation time is close for the seniors, and plans are well under way. Dr. Clarence A. Dykstra, president of the University of Wisconsin, will speak at the commencement slated for June 12.

Tonight that long awaited dance for the aircrewmembers will be held, only finally it has boiled down into an all-college service dance sponsored by the college. It isn't exactly what the coeds and social committee planned for—that is, a strictly coed and pre-pre flight student dance, but by this time it looks as if the airmen have done all right in becoming acquainted.

Well, I guess this is all for now, but until next week.

Much love,

DEE

You must remember that most of the civilians still at school are preparing for specialized training in their respective branches. The fact that they don't wear uniforms does not mean that they should be forgotten. Their orders compel them to remain here out of uniform until ordered otherwise.

We wish to say that we don't mind being left out of plans for dances and parties, as we were at the beginning of spring term, but when it comes to ridiculing us openly in the State News, that is where we draw the line.

Thank you,
The Naval Reserve,
The Marine Reserve,
And all remaining draftees.

(Editor's note: The State News has never knowingly ridiculed any of the above-mentioned groups, or for that matter any group on campus. If the writers of this letter can point out to us any specific, real instance in which the State News has thus erred we will be glad to admit it publicly and to dismiss the reporter responsible.

Schlademan to Use Only 20 Runners Against Marquette This Afternoon

State Track Squad to Find Marquette Tough Competition; Remainder of Team to Journey to Albion

Coach Karl Schladeinan is gnashing his teeth and giving the weather man dirty looks again. For it looks as though the track squad is in for another stiff dose of winter weather as it tries for its second straight win of the outdoor season against Marquette on the local track oval this afternoon at 2.

The Hilltoppers are a good deal stronger than had been anticipated earlier in the year and today's match promises to be a nip and tuck affair all the way. Marquette holds a definite edge over the Spartans in the dash and hurdle events, with the odds being about even in the field events. State, however, is definitely superior in the distance runs from the 440 on up to the two-mile.

Only Twenty to Compete

The Spartans will have about 20 varsity men competing against the 20-man squad from Marquette, while the remaining men will journey to Albion at 12:30 today to engage the Albion thin-clads.

The Hilltoppers will dominate the dash events with the combined talents of Charles Baudry, Gil Larson and Hurdler Art Egbert. Egbert should place well up in both hurdle events.

State's Bob McCarthy and Jack Steelman will be representing the Spartans in the dash. Mel Buschman, Sheldon Kaviert and Wil Bennett will be defending the hurdles. Bennett, who was well on his way to victory in the 220 lows at the Purdue meet when he tripped and fell, will be a man to watch.

State Strong in Distance

Dale Kaulitz, who has just recovered from an attack of flu suffered at the beginning of the week, will be running with Freshman Jack Von Eberstein in the 440-yard dash.

John Liggett will be up against stiff competition in the half mile when he meets Marquette's Henry Lorrish.

Capt. Bill Scott should take his specialty, the mile, without too much trouble. Freshman Wardell Lyke will be his running mate.

In the remaining distance event, the two mile, Jerry Page should also capture first place honors with Captain Scott and Lyke running with him.

Milne Must Jump

In the high jump Al Milne will have his hands full unless he breaks out of the slump he has been in lately. Omnipresent Mel Buschman will also be trying his hand in this event.

Bill Roberts should take the pole vault for the Spartans and Freshman Dick Papps will be close behind.

Marquette should take the shot put event with Veteran Al Klug as the main contender, while

LATE TENNIS SCORE

Mich. State 6, Notre Dame 3.

State's No. 1 man will be Nick Migliaccio.

Three in Discus Throw

Heaving the discus for State will be Gus Sonnen, Migliaccio and Harry Baker, while Marquette will be using Klug as its big gun in that event.

The javelin throw will be a tossup between the two squads with Len Naab heaving for State.

An extra event, the 440 yard relay, will be run at Marquette's request, which the Hilltoppers should take with their superiority in dash men. Running for the Spartans in this event will be Kaulitz, Steelman, Von Eberstein and McCarthy.

Mile Relay Squad Stronger

As for the mile relay, State is favored and "whoever is left standing" will make up the quartet.

Today's meet will be the "rubber" contest in the outdoor series between the Hilltoppers and State. Each school has won three duals since 1937 when the feud was opened.

Derby Favorite

Triangle Meet Draws Golfers

Coach Ben Van Alstyne is in South Bend today with five men to shoot in the Spartan's second triangular meet of the season. The other two squads competing will be Notre Dame and Illinois.

The Spartans handed the Irish a defeat at the triangular match held at Ann Arbor last week but suffered a drubbing at the hands of the Wolverines. They should repeat again today as far as Notre Dame is concerned, but how they will fare with Illinois remains to be seen as no pre-match dope could be found concerning them.

Five-man team competing for State is composed of number one shooter George Zimmermann, Jim Davis, Dave Hicks, Cliff Kirtland, and Bob Sicklesteel.

The squad left yesterday at 12:30 and will return tonight.

College Association Will Meet Tuesday

Michigan State will play host to about 75 persons representing most of Michigan's colleges Tuesday when the Michigan College association will meet in the Union for its annual spring conference, according to Dean L. C. Emmons, immediate past president.

Emmons, who is official representative of MSC to the organization, said problems to be taken up at the conference will concern the college in wartime. Members of the selective service and manpower commissions will meet with the educators for the discussion meetings.

The spring conference, which is a closed meeting, will be open to only accredited college representatives, Emmons said.

Kobsmen Meet Detroit With Getz to Hurl

Taking their bats in hand for the second time in three days, the Spartan baseball team will try for their second win of the year in five starts against the University of Detroit lineup on Old College field today at 3 p. m.

There will be some shake-up in the State lineup for today's game, Coach John Kobs indicated late yesterday but complete decision in two positions had not been reached. Kobs was not satisfied with the errors made in fielding made against Notre Dame Thursday and rearranged his lineup to strengthen his defense.

"Pitky" Getz, the number one hurler on the Spartan staff, will take the mound this afternoon for the second time in the past week. Getz pitched against Notre Dame in South Bend on Tuesday. If the lanky red-head can put up the pitching battle demonstrated by Dick Bernitt on Thursday, his chances of beating Detroit stand up well with hitting support.

In the outfield either Bob Proulx or Mickey Faulman may take over the left field post. Proulx made two bad errors in fielding fly balls in the last game that may result in his withdrawal from the lineup.

Another change that Coach Kobs indicated was replacing Ed Ciolek with Ed Plomer, engineering senior in college but new man to the diamond squad, in right field. Plomer has not proved too strong as a hitter in practice but covers ground fast in the outfield under long hit fly balls.

Cold, cloudy weather promises to dampen the baseball spirit for the second home appearance of the State team. The chill brought on by the recent rain and wind will not aid the hurlers in today's tilt. The strong easterly wind in Thursday's game caused several fly balls to be misjudged by members of both teams.

Women's Honoraries Will Announce Neophyte BWOCs at May Sing

By KAY BESEMER

Tower Guard and Mortar Board, sophomore and senior women's honoraries, will tap new members into their organizations Monday at the traditional morning sing, to be held at Beaumont tower.

The program, which will begin at 7 a. m., will include carillon selections by Denzil Treber, Lansing junior. These will be "Morning," Greig; "Morris Dance," 16th century; "May Day Carol," Deems Taylor and "Country Gardens," Grainger.

Carillon Theme Songs

Miss Treber will also play the official songs of the two organizations, "Thy Ideals," for Mortar Board; "High and Lofty Tower," and "Tower Guard Dream Girl," by Lenore Huddleson, East Lansing sophomore, for Tower Guard.

The Men's glee club and a cappella choir directed by Prof. William Kimmel will sing several numbers that were traditional May Day songs in 16th century England and Germany. "Furry Day carol"; "Hilariter"; "White Choral Bells"; and a round, "Come Follow."

Names Withheld

Names of the women to be honored at the tapping will be withheld until the ceremony. Only indication of their identity will be the annual serenade Sunday, in which both groups will join to sing at the residences of the incoming members. Dorms, sorority houses, and co-ops will be serenaded, but no private residences.

Tower Guard initiates will be announced by Pres. Jean Oviatt, Washington, D. C. sophomore. "Women are chosen on the basis of potential leadership and character, but the organization is primarily a service organization," Dean Elisabeth Conrad commented.

Mortar Board Choice

Mortar Board's new members will be announced by Pres. Barbara Scarlett, Owosso senior. "Mortar Board chooses its members on the basis of quality of work, generous and intelligent interest in other people, leadership in her own group, and possessing sincerity and initiative," Miss Conrad said.

The rose sale, sponsored by YWCA, which has been a part of the May Morning program in the past, will not be held this year. Pres. Jean Barnum, Williamsburg, N. Y. junior, announced. The higher cost of the roses and difficulty in getting them made the sale impractical, Miss Barnum said.

Committee Cancels Annual Conference

The annual Vocations conference has been cancelled for the duration according to Dean Fred Mitchell. The decision was made by the student committee in charge of arrangements.

Held every spring term for the last seven years, the conference featured leading speakers from various professions and industries and provided an opportunity for students to get additional information on various vocations.

Tall Stories Top Forestry Night Banquet, Dance

Foresters from Michigan State and the University of Michigan will line up on each side of the banquet table in their annual feed and lie-telling contest tonight, according to Bob Nelson, Wauwatosa, Wis., senior and chairman of the affair.

The forestry students from both institutions will hold their banquet in Hunt's Food shop at 7 p. m. with several members of each school's faculty making short remarks during the dinner.

Highlight of the evening's program will come when the unannounced representatives from each school tell off on the Paul Bunyan lie-telling contest. A replica of the famed blue Bunyan ox will be presented the winner.

After the banquet, Nelson will entertain the 11 Wolverine students at a dance to be held in Chittenden cabin. Jill Jope, Meridian, Ind., senior, who will accompany Nelson to the dance, has arranged dance-dates for all Michigan foresters.

Carillon Program

Denzil Treber, Lansing junior, will present the following program on the carillon at 3:30 p. m. tomorrow:

Hunting Song
Christ-Church Bells
Jupiter in the Clouds
Sweet and Low
Love's Old Sweet Song
In the Gloaming
Londonderry Air
Tango—Albeniz
Liebesfreud—Kreisler

WAAC Information Available for Coeds

Apparent lack of interest among Michigan State coeds in the WAAC has been explained by Mrs. Lucia Nesom, official campus representative, who says most MSC women are too young to enlist, but have been calling to secure information.

Enlistment details may be learned from headquarters in the Michigan theater arcade. Faculty committees have planned special courses for coeds which will meet WAAC requirements, she added.

Home Ecs Form 'Cater Club'

A catering club made up of 11 Home Ec students has been organized recently as a service to local housewives. The club is preparing to assist any Lansing or East Lansing housewife in entertaining by planning, preparing, and serving of meals or refreshments.

Caterers may be contacted by calling the dean of women's office or by making arrangements in advance with Jeanette Lee, of the Home Ec division.

Summer School

Women may start signing up for dorms for the summer school sessions Monday, according to Housing Director Mabel Petersen. North and South Sarah Williams will be open for the 12 weeks' session, while West Mary Mayo will be open for the 6 weeks period. Meals will be served. Announcement will be made later concerning dorm sign up for next fall term, Miss Petersen said.

Town Girls

Election of officers for Town Girls club will be held next Tuesday, Pres. Doris Harford, East Lansing senior, announced yesterday. Members may vote any time during the day in the women's lounge, but only those who have paid their winter term dues, or will do so at the polls, will be eligible to vote, Miss Harford said.

Home Ec Banquet

Ticket sales for the Home Ec banquet, which will be held Thursday, May 6, in Peoples church, will open next Monday, General Chairman Aileen Wilson, Detroit sophomore, announced yesterday.

Faculty members may purchase tickets from Mrs. Merle Byers in the 4-H office in the Home Ec building, or from Miss Jeannette Somers in the Home Ec office. Tickets for students will be sold in all of the dormitories and at the Union desk throughout the week, Miss Wilson said.

CAA Meteorology Training Courses Offered Women

The weather bureau, in operation with the Civil Aeronautics administration, is again offering advanced training in meteorology to a select number of college students, especially women. The course will begin June 21 and last eight months. G. R. Heath, men's housing director revealed yesterday.

To qualify, an applicant must be between 20 and 30 years old, a citizen and able to pass the civil aeronautics physical examination. He must have completed two years of college, have one year of differential and integral calculus and one year of college physics.

Before appointment can be made, applicants must have gained a private pilot's certificate of competency by the successful completion of the primary civilian pilot training course.

Persons who have the above requirements, except the private pilot's certificate, may qualify for a scholarship which pays only the tuition, without the $75 per month subsistence.

OPA Revises Meat Values

WASHINGTON, Apr. 30 (AP)—Round steak got a higher point value than Porterhouse and sirloin today in a revision of meat ration values. The changes, first major since the OPA has made since meat rationing was instituted, are effective Sunday.
