Baseball

Boys come, and housewives, but this time the Sigma Kappa house is running in competition with a baseball club manager who has signed up their manager Dick Meinweaser, Pontiac freshman. Meinweaser, who played baseball for Pontiac, and freshman football for MSC, will leave in April for the Boston Red Sox where he will train at Scamton, Pa., under contract with the Sox.

G. I. Cleanup

The khaki-clad students on campus aren't the only people to have "G.I. parties," because last Friday the residents of West Mary Mayo threw an affair that had all the earmarks of one. Dressed in blue-jeans, slacks and other suitable attire for work, the women gathered in their smoker to wash, clean and paint the room and furniture into a bright and shining future.

A Cappella Choir Will Sing Bach's 'B Minor Mass'

Under the direction of Dr. William Kimmel, the Michigan State choir and seven soloists will perform the major part of the Bach "B Minor Mass" tomorrow at 7:30 p. m. in Peoples church.

Sponsored jointly by the music department and Student Christian union, the concert will climax previous choral performances at the college and around Lansing because it typifies the best music written for choral purposes. The mass is set to the Catholic liturgical text, although it was used in Lutheran churches around Leipzig, for which Bach wrote the work.

Of the seven soloists, three will be sopranos; Jeanne Blandford, Grand Rapids junior; Norma Lou Gregg, Lansing sophomore and Linda Weber, Buffalo, N. Y. senior. Jacqueline Bullen, Jackson sophomore, and Shirley Shaw, Lansing sophomore, will represent the alto section. Male soloists will be sung by Robert Arentson, Holland senior, and Harold Price, bass from Lansing.

Faculty members, students, servicemen and townspeople are invited to attend.

University President to Speak at Third Community Forum

Third in the series of Sunday evening community forums at First Methodist Congregational church will feature an address on "Advances in World Order" by Dr. Philip C. Nash, president of the University of Toledo.

Dr. J. W. Sexton, superintendent of Lansing public schools, will serve as chairman of the program, which will begin at 8 p. m. A question period will follow the address.

Dr. Nash, a Harvard graduate, was a captain in the U. S. army engineers in the first world war. Before becoming president of the University of Toledo in 1933, he was dean and professor of civil engineering at Antioch college, and mayor of Yellow Springs.

United States Claims Irish Harbor Spies

DeValera Refuses Request to Expel German, Jap Diplomats from Eire

WASHINGTON, March 10 (AP)—The United States publicly accused Ireland tonight of affording a base for Axis spies endangering the approaching Allied invasion of Europe, but the Irish government replied it was taking effective anti-espionage measures and refused an appeal to expel German and Japanese diplomats from the country.

The state department announced that the request for expulsion of the enemy officials held to be leaders in the spy ring, was transmitted to Prime Minister DeValera at Dublin Feb. 21. The department made public the text of a note setting forth the spy accusations.

Simultaneously the Irish legislature here issued the text of De Valera's reply, rejecting the request and stating that "should American lives be lost it will not be through any indifference or neglect of its duty on the part of this state."

The American note had reminded the prime minister of the vast military preparations now underway in Britain and northern Ireland and declared it "vital that information, from which may be deduced their nature and direction, should not reach the enemy."

Specific evidence of enemy espionage operations within Ireland were given in the assertions that (1) the German legation in Dublin, at least until recently, had possessed a radio sending set and (2) German planes had dropped into Ireland two parachutists equipped with radio sending apparatus.

While acknowledging Ireland's good faith in its efforts to maintain strict neutrality, the United States said it actually is impossible to determine "with certainty" the extent of the enemy's Irish-based espionage against American shipping and troops.

State Women Vote for Campus Leaders at Tuesday Election

Approximately 700 women, less than half of the total number of women enrolled in college, cast their votes Wednesday naming 19 women to be listed on the ballot when final elections for AWS council members are held Tuesday, AWS Pres. Pat Stone disclosed yesterday.

Running for president next week on the final slate are the three top winners in the primary: Jane Cummins, Detroit junior; Jean Ornat, Washington, D. C. junior and Barbara Poag, Detroit junior.

The one receiving the most votes will serve as president of the council for the coming year, while the other two will be vice-president, heading the Judiciary board, and senior representative, respectively.

Six seniors running for senior representative on the primary ballot, six are in the final race. They are Ann Dearborn, Hartland; Gene Dennison, Vernon; Mary Corrine, Battle Creek; Doris May, Detroit; Audrey Stein, Wayne; and Sheila Symons, Saginaw.

Competing for junior representative next week will be Joyce Armstrong, Detroit; Sue Ayvill, Birmingham; Pat Darr, Detroit; Peggy Fox, Detroit; Janet Johnson, Detroit; and Barbara Quayle, Oxford.

Speaker to Show War Pictures

MARGARET BOURKE-WHITE, front line photographer

"America's first lady of the camera," Margaret Bourke-White, will close the winter term lecture series tonight in College auditorium when she relates her experiences photographing the front lines in Italy.

Miss Bourke-White, the first woman to be accredited a war photographer by the United States army, returned from this war theater by clipper on Jan. 29 after spending three months there.

While in Italy, she flew over the front lines on many aerial reconnaissance trips in a two-seater Piper Cub plane during actual barrage.

Miss Bourke-White also made a film record of the fighting in North Africa in late 1942.

On her way to that area, her ship was torpedoed. She saved a camera, film, her iron ration and a jar of cold cream. Her complaints were not about the hardships but only on the fact that the submarine struck at night and the light was not suitable for photographing the incident.

She co-authored "You Have Seen Their Faces" with Erskine Caldwell. She also wrote "Shooting the Russian War" in which she tells her experiences in Russia.

The lecture will begin at 8:15. S. E. Crowe, director of the series, announced. Student admission will be by treasurer's receipt and servicemen will be admitted free.

Scattered Spartans Get Chatter Sheets

Don Baell, assistant professor of speech and dramatics, began corresponding in November, 1942, with 12 of his former students. His list now includes 125, making it necessary to write more general letters. The letters are shared among the fellows, he said, and many write asking to be put on the mailing list.

About 125 former music students receive a 10 or 12 page issue of news from Roy L. Underwood, head of the music department, every four or five weeks. Started about a year and a half ago, the "tissue-issue," as he likes to call it, is difficult to keep going, Underwood said, but "it seems to mean so much to the men that we have to overlook the extra work."

Prof. L. A. Smith, of the Engineering division, keeps about 145 former Kappa Sigs "in the know" with a monthly issue of local news and condensations of personal letters he has received from the men. Already he has sent out nine of these letters and is working on the tenth. Former Sigma Chi, numbering about 175, began last summer to receive quarterly letters from Prof. E. B. Hill, farm management.

These departmental letters, which are usually mimeographed and sent out airmail, reach almost every point on the globe, including India, Australia, New Guinea, Iceland, England, New Caledonia, Africa, and Guadalcanal. In fact, Smith said that he had heard from every war front.

Enthusiastic praise is received not only from the men but also their parents, according to Smith. Other departments as well have received favorable comments from parents.

Absentee Awards to Go to Men in Armed Forces

Dividing the 146 seniors of the winter term graduating class into two sections, Pres. John A. Hannah has announced that 53 servicemen and 93 civilian students will be awarded degrees or become candidates for them.

The diplomas for graduates who are in service will be given to those who completed satisfactory work in their classes before entering the service.

No commencement exercises are planned for the second 1943-44 wartime accelerated graduating class, although they may return for the annual program in June, Hannah said.

The list of Michigan seniors to be graduated includes William Adams, Detroit; Albert A. Bane, Kent City; Thomas Bell, Grand Rapids; George Bell, Detroit; Hamilton Bender, Wayne; Clifford Bennett, Milford; George Bennett, Grand Rapids; Donald Berry, Detroit; Frank and George Berkey, Farmington Hills.

Others who are getting their diplomas at the close of winter term are: Walter Bellows, Lansing; Myrtle Bingham, Flint; George Birk, Lake; Thomas Birkbeck, East Lansing; Robert Birkbeck, Grand Rapids; James Birkbeck, Detroit; Paul Birkbeck, East Lansing; William Birkbeck, East Lansing; and W. W. Birkbeck, East Lansing.

More names are Ralph Miller, Jackson; Arthur Mitchell, Muskegon; Marvin Mitchell, Detroit; John Nason, Detroit; George O'Connell, Hiramsville.

Regulations Allow Servicemen's Candidacy

WASHINGTON, March 10 (AP)—President Roosevelt today approved a joint army-navy policy agreement which would permit Gen. Douglas MacArthur, Lt. Comdr. Harold E. Stassen or other members of the armed forces to become candidates for elective office, but would bar them from campaigning.

A regular army or navy man, such as MacArthur, could become a candidate, however, only if a nomination "is tendered without direct or indirect solicitation or inducement while a member of the service on active duty, such as MacArthur could announce as a candidate without waiting on a nomination.

The new regulations, replacing previous ones and covering those of the army and navy, require for the first time, release from active duty of a military man elected to office.

Russians Open 109-Mile Hole in Nazi Lines

Death Strikes 20,000 Germans in Ukraine; Reds Take 2:500

LONDON, March 10 (AP)—Moscow announced tonight that the Red army had torn a 109-mile gap in German lines in a third great offensive in the Ukraine and "heavily defeated" 10 Nazi divisions, forcing them to abandon over 1,100 mired tanks and big guns and flee for their lives.

More than 20,000 Nazis were killed and 2,500 captured by the powerful Russian thrust, Moscow announcements said, and 300 populated places, including the pivotal stronghold of Uman in the middle of the southern front, were captured.

Five German "Adolf Hitler tank divisions" which "were impeded to stop our offensive" were "compelled to abandon all their military and technical equipment and flee," said the Soviet daily communique, reported by the Soviet monitor.

This third offensive already has rolled forward from 25 to 44 miles in five days, Stalin announced in an order of the day, now setting ablaze the entire Russian southern front along a curving battleline more than 500 miles long. It joined offensives already under way to the east since Nikolaev and Kherson and to the west in the region of Chernopol.

The Germans were retreating in each of the three big fronts as the Red army mounted a supreme effort to throw them back.

Two Former Spartans Lose Lives in Service

Maj. Ralph B. Henning, 36, and Lt. Robert H. Henney, 32, have been reported on the list of Michigan State's war dead. Major Henning died in Long Beach, Calif., Monday as the result of a heart attack. His death came as he was preparing to go overseas with his outfit. A prominent athlete while at MSC, he served as captain of the first State football team ever to defeat Michigan.

Lieutenant Henney was killed Jan. 29 in Italy. He was a member of FarmHouse fraternity and the MSC glee club.

RAF Night Bombers Move Out Over Nazi European Fortress

LONDON, March 10 (AP)—The Paris radio clicked off the air tonight, indicating that RAF night bombers which last night blasted a Nazi airplane factory near Marseille, might have returned to deliver another blow at the German-dominated continent.

An air raid alarm sounded in Berlin today for several hours but no bombs were dropped, a Stockholm dispatch said. The alert presumably was caused by reconnaissance planes as American Flying Fortresses and Liberators took a day off after setting an endurance mark for large-scale heavy bombing by hitting the German capital four days out of six.

Travelers arriving in Malmoe, Sweden, from Germany said fires were still seen burning in Berlin today.

The heavy British Lancaster bombers winged through a bright "bombers' moon" last night.

Cadet Colonel to Crown Military Ball Queen at Intermission Ceremony

A queen and her court will crown the Military Ball tonight when AST and ROTC men hold their annual closed dance from 9 to 12 in the Union ballroom. Daniel McCarthy, honorary cadet colonel. They will lead the grand march, after the saber guard ceremony.

Patrons for the dance will be Col. and Mrs. G. B. Egger, Maj. and Mrs. Joseph Thompson, and Maj. and Mrs. Hugh Stewart, company commanders, Lt. and Mrs. James Buford from A company; Capt. and Mrs. Robert Tripp from B company; Capt. and Mrs. Clark Evans, from C; Capt. and Mrs. Leland Esh, from D; Capt. and Mrs. James Atchison, from E; Capt. and Mrs. William Gilliam, from F; and Capt. and Mrs. B. E. Smeltzer, special service officer.

The ATOC will hold the last fraternity party of the term from 9 to 12 tonight in the Forestry cabin. An informal affair, music will be furnished by records.

American Marines Capture Talasea Town, Airdrome

Cavalrymen Push Ahead on Admiralty Islands

ALLIED HDQ., S. W. PACIFIC, Saturday, March 11 (AP)—The airdrome at Talasea on the north coast of New Britain has been captured by marines who invaded Willaumez peninsula Monday, headquarters announced today.

The town of Talasea also has been captured. Marines seized the airstrip Wednesday and the town Thursday. Talasea is on the east side of the peninsula, opposite the point where the marines made a surprise landing without air or naval support.

In the invaded Admiralty islands to the north of the New Britain action, cavalrymen have pushed their steadily expanding lines three and a half miles northwest of captured Momote airdrome on Los Negros. Japanese planes strafed the sector without effect.

In still another action on the borders of the Bismarck sea, Americans moving west of Saidor toward Madang achieved steady progress. Japanese planes bombed these forces Tuesday night and early Wednesday but headquarters said the attacks were ineffectual.

In the vicinity of Dutch New Guinea, Catalina planes bombed shipping, causing one medium cargo vessel to be beached and compelling Japanese to abandon another.

Vets Probably to Live at Barracks in Spring

Housing arrangements for Vets spring term are still indefinite but the men probably will be housed under a barracks plan, Col. G. B. Egger, commandant, said yesterday.

Although it is not definite, Wells hall may be used for the men and they would be fed there also.

Orders for AST furloughs have not come through yet, and although such orders have not been received it does not mean they are cancelled.
