Germans Handicapped by Shortage of Artillery

LONDON, Oct. 23 (AP)—The German defense arc around 'S-Hertogensbosch, enemy shield for all western Holland, buckled dangerously tonight as Lt. Gen. Sir Miles C. Dempsey's British second army hammered within two and a half miles of the bastion from the southeast after capturing four key towns and running its two-day bag of prisoners to 800.

... It Takes All Kinds

Some people study in the Grill, some amuse themselves with the juke box glamor gal and others just gab. But there'll always be the uninhibited college kid which accounts for the four puffing coeds amusing themselves by keeping a feather afloat above their table. Climax came when George (the feather) got out of control, flying starboard of the table, and one of the uninhibited toppled over backwards in her chair.

Far be it from anyone to laugh at "Shorty" Krall's foot injury, but many an eye was turned on the injured limb and many a smile came forth, when the "cute lil' feller" that everyone was referring to turned out to be Shorty's toes taking a look around the Grill and having a wriggling good time of it.

Reds Reconquer Memel in East Prussian Land

LONDON, Oct. 23 — (AP) — The Red army in a two way smash into pre-war Germany has overrun almost all of Memel territory, reaching the Niemen river along its entire course to the Baltic sea, and penetrated 19 miles deep into east Prussia.

In a crushing offensive that for the first time carried Russian warriors into the Nazi homeland on the long road from Moscow and Stalingrad, Premier Marshal Stalin announced that the third White Russian army troops led by the brilliant young Jewish tank expert, Gen. Ivan D. Chernakovsky, had overrun 40 towns and villages, 500 of them German, in an attack from the east.

A Soviet bulletin then announced the capture of 500 towns and villages in the reconquest of Memel territory, a 1,099 square-mile area ceded to Germany by Lithuania March 22, 1939, under German pressure.

All of Memel territory, except the town of Memel itself, was recaptured in a breakthrough by Gen. Ivan C. Bagramian's first Baltic army which cleared the Niemen river's northern bank from its mouth on the Baltic to the Lithuanian town of Jurbark.

Thus a second front clear across the top of East Prussia has been formed, and Berlin said the Russians were attempting to cross the Niemen and take Tilse, a large rail city.

Blanch to Speak At Art Lecture Opening Series

Arnold Blanch, visiting professor of art at Michigan State college, will open the series of four lectures in fine arts tonight at 8 p.m. in the music auditorium. Albert Christ Janer, head of the art department, announced yesterday.

Winner of the Harris medal from the Art Institute of Chicago and other prominent awards, Blanch will discuss the "Nature of Art." Slides of various paintings will be used to illustrate the lecture.

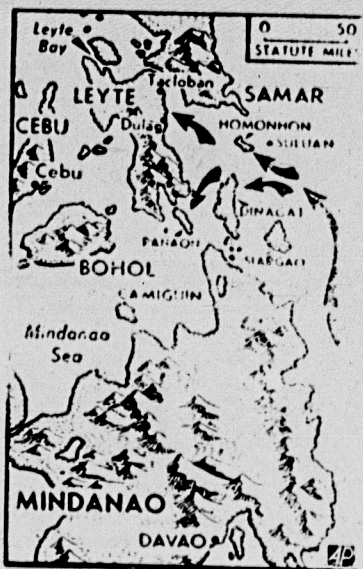

Boardman Robinson, director of the Colorado Springs Fine Arts center, will appear on January 23 for the second lecture. Robinson will join the MSC art staff on January 2. Mija Grotell, director of the department of ceramics at Cranbrook, will speak on February 27.

Last in the series will be Walter Abell, former head of the art department at Acadia university, Wolfville, Nova Scotia, now an art instructor at MSC.

Christ-Janer stated that the purpose of the lecture series is to give the Lansing community an opportunity to meet and hear persons qualified to interpret art to the public.

U. S. Ground Forces Win Hill Positions

Yanks Go Ashore

Arrows indicate landing points in the Philippine invasion. Two forces went ashore on Leyte island between Tacloban and Dulag. Others landed on Homonhon, Dinagat and Panaon.

Drive Threatens Jap Defenders of Southern Front

GENERAL MACARTHUR'S H D Q., PHILIPPINES, Oct. 23 (Via Army Radio)—(AP) — American ground forces tonight held the main coastal approaches to Leyte valley after winning dominating hill positions and fighting through swamps.

Speartheaded by tanks, the doughboys drove stubborn Japanese from the hills blocking the northern entrances to the valley while other forces threaded the swamps at the southern anchor of the line.

Encircle Japs

These advances threatened to encircle Nipponese defending the southern end of the front, who already were in retreat northwestward. Doughboys of the seventh division were in hot pursuit.

Yanks of the 24th division, commanded by Maj. Gen. Frederick A. Irving, knifed out from Palo in the northern sector. They combined surprise and overwhelming firepower to seize an important hill southwest of a town of about 3,000 overrun earlier.

Bombardment Heavy

A heavy bombardment by American warships standing off Leyte in the gulf dislodged the Japanese from their concrete positions atop the hills. When the bombardment lifted, the enemy started to reoccupy their dugouts. American infantrymen, however, outraced them and gained the summit through sniper and machinegun fire.

The southern spearhead, hurtled strong enemy defenses in its thrust from Dulag. This operation as well as the action to the north was developing in terrain ideal for armored warfare.

Assault Hub

Palo, the hub from which the northern thrust was stemming, is about 14 miles above Dulag.

Both east coast ends of Leyte valley, which roughly parallels the eastern coast of the island, are held by Gen. Douglas MacArthur's assault forces.

The valley is about 25 miles wide at its lower end, on the gulf, tapering to a width of about 10 miles at the northern end of Carigara bay. It is about 35 miles long and is crossed by many rivers.

Registration for MSC Red Cross Activities Will Begin Tomorrow

Registration for all Red Cross activities will take place tomorrow from 9 to 11 a.m. and from 3 to 5 p.m. in the lower lounge of the Union. Booklets containing Red Cross information and activities will be available all day today in the lower lounge.

Courses offered include staff assistant training which will enable students to hold positions of telephone operators or information women at any Red Cross unit.

No Bandage Rolling

The home nursing course requires 12 hours. No examination or lecture notes are necessary, for the course is purely demonstration work.

Coeds in training for Gray Ladies will do pediatric work with crippled children in Lansing. Bandage rolling classes will not be offered because of the army-navy overestimate of the wounded. Utility bags, however, will be made for wounded servicemen.

Eligible for Lansing Work

The Red Cross will also make simple garments for French children for the French refugee relief. Students who received Red Cross certificates last year now work in Lansing Red Cross units.

Bizet's 'Carmen' to Go on Stage Tomorrow Night

An English version of the original Paris opera presentation of Bizet's opera, "Carmen," will be presented in College auditorium on Wednesday at 8:15 p.m., under the auspices of Delta Kappa Gamma, honorary teachers' sorority. Proceeds from the production will be contributed to educational post-war projects.

Contrary to a previous statement, this is not a comedy version of the original, but will be sung in English with many spoken recitations. Singers will include Donald Dixon and Regina Resnik in the leading roles, with a large cast of opera and radio stars supporting them.

A Spanish ballet, a choral ensemble, and a symphony orchestra under the direction of Herman Adler, noted Czech conductor, will complete the attraction.

Tickets may be obtained at the accounting office, the Union desk, and at Knapps book department in Lansing. This is not a number on the lecture-concert series.

International Center Formally Opened

Michigan State's new International center on faculty row entertained about 400 guests at its formal opening Sunday afternoon. Prof. and Mrs. Shao Chang Lee, who are in charge of the center, welcomed the visitors, and the members of the newly organized International club conducted them through the various rooms of the house.

Among the guests present was George Hall, assistant director of the International center at the University of Michigan, who said he was favorably impressed with Michigan State's new center and considered it a model for other colleges to follow.

Benito Santos, distinguished Filipino educator, visited the center last night and met a group of students there.

Professor Lee and the members of the club hope that the International house will become one of the college's traditional institutions, and are planning actively for the future. The Lees, who live on the second floor of the house, intend to open its doors to visitors every Sunday afternoon from 4 to 5.

Weekly fireside gatherings, where club members, faculty, and interested students may meet to discuss various topics are scheduled for Friday evenings, with the first to be held this Friday, when Pres. John A. Hannah will be present. Emphasis at these firesides will be on informality, with no pre-determined subjects for discussion, Lee said.

Uncle Sam Wants You . . . To Vote

This year's presidential election will undoubtedly be a deciding factor in the future democratic nations in the world. Yet how many persons will express their opinions in the final decision? Past years show that less than 50 per cent of the voting population bothered to go to the polls.

What will the percentage show this year? When half the public can't be bothered to turn out on election day, how can Washington determine their preference? What can be done after the fanfare is over and the griper is griping loud and long because "the best man didn't get in?"

Approximately 1,000 State students and 500 faculty members are among the 81,000,000 persons in the United States eligible to vote, including service men at home and abroad. From these 1,500 Michigan State college persons should come as many intelligently decided "yes"s or "no"s for the present administration.—NS

Towne Attends Conference of Library Heads

Jackson Towne, Michigan State college librarian, returned last week from a meeting of 16 middle western research libraries held in connection with the annual conference of the council of the American Library association at the Drake hotel in Chicago.

The state universities of Illinois, Indiana, Michigan, Minnesota, and the state colleges of Iowa and Michigan were among the libraries represented by their head librarians at the meeting.

One of the important items considered was the acquisition of war issues of periodicals from Axis-controlled countries. The MSC library has recently been able to place orders for $7,000 worth of back numbers of European scientific journals and $6,000 worth of back volumes of German chemistry journals, which may be obtainable from foreign dealers' collections as soon as victory over Germany is won.

In Campus Quarters

By LEONE SEASTROM and DOROTHY LA MONT

A QUICK birdseye view of the situation on campus leads one to believe that the fellows have been holding onto those pins and rings rather tightly this week. Not to be daunted by such a state of affairs, we find that pins are still being passed, but only to replace a pledge pin.

But before referring to the happy new pin possessors, let's see what other excitement prevailed this week end.

Kappa Kappa Gamma: The Kappas had a week end busy enough to keep any calendar full. In honor of their housemother, Mrs. Godfredson, and their national field secretary, Alice Ann Roberts, a tea was given at the house Saturday.

Friday night produced a mutual good time for pledges and actives alike with a combined party. To see all the excitement and also to be in on the "doings," Marty Almdale, former chapter president, spent the week end at the house.

Kappa Alpha Theta: Nina Lou Gannon, who is now Mrs. R. E. Miller, was also back this week end to see what's doing at the alma mater. R. E. is a Hespie and is now overseas.

Chi Omega: Nine coeds seem to have had a change in appearance as a result of initiation this week end. Those wearing the active Chi, O badge are Dorothy Langley, Detroit sophomore; Ann Kendrick, Battle Creek junior; Marilyn Seabury, Detroit senior; May Ann Major, Dearborn junior, and Betty Card, Hillsdale sophomore.

Alpha Xi Delta: Pledge Gladys Beyerly of Marblehead, Mass., is responsible for a change in this apparent priority on pins this week. Gladys is now wearing a lovely new ring from Pvt. Robert Foley stationed at Fort Meade.

In the Phi Tau house seven men no longer bow to the sound of a paddle, but wield their own instead. The actives are: Don Moses, Bay City; Jim Vincent, Lake Odessa; Ellis Phillips, Sandusky; John Dean, Coldwater; Max Jarvis, Flint and Clarence Doster, Plainwell, all freshmen, and Dave Rumsey, Flushing sophomore.

Dr. Ohlson Begins Duties As Head of Food Department

Dr. Margaret A. Ohlson, one-time winner of the Borden award, has taken up her new duties this fall as professor of foods and nutrition.

Her appointment fills the vacancy left by Dr. Theima Porter, now the head of home economics at the University of Chicago.

Dr. Ohlson received her formal education in the West, receiving her bachelor's degree from Washington State college and her master's and doctor's degrees from the University of Iowa.

Before accepting her present position she was associate professor of nutrition and hygiene at Iowa State college.

In 1942, Dr. Ohlson was one of a group working on the nutritional status of the college woman, who received the Borden award, an award given annually by the Borden Milk company for outstanding research in the line of milk, for their work.

She is also editor of the Omicron Nu Journal, a magazine published semi-annually by Omicron Nu, a national home economics honorary, originally founded at Michigan State college.

State to Resume Fight With Wayne

Spartan Footballmen To Meet Tartars With No Losses

By JOE HEAGAN
The Spartans resume hostilities with Wayne university again Friday night when they invade Detroit to take on the Tartars at U. of D. stadium. The Spartans will bring with them an unblemished slate of four wins and no losses, while Wayne won their initial start two weeks ago.

The charges of Joe Gembis' have had two weeks in which to prime for the encounter and should be in top shape for the game. The Tartars smothered Otterbein 27-0 two weeks ago, and are reported to have one of their best aggregations in many a moon.

Tartars Possess Weight
The metropolitans possess a team that is hefty and fast. Don Davison and Harold Volkger weighing in at 200 and 195 respectively at the tackles are expected to lead the forward wall. The only veteran of the team is Jack Rice, center. Rice played in 1938 and 1939.

The Spartans will enter the fray as favorites, but still will be wary of an upset that seems to be prevalent in the hectic football campaign. Coach Charlie Bachman has stressed the fact that over-confidence can easily mar the Spartan's record.

Monday's practice consisted mostly of scrimmage for the reserves. Wayne's defense was explained and illustrated. The Tartars have been employing the five man line to a great extent, and this sort of defense can easily raise havoc with a pass offense. One of the most potent weapons the Spartans possess is the forward pass. The first team took it easy but expects to get back in the swing of things tonight.

Breslin, Siler Injured

Jack Breslin and Bill Siler sustained leg injuries in the Maryland game, and it is doubtful whether or not they can put in full shifts Friday. In case they are not able Rex Moore and Bill Moskill will assume the starting roles. The rest of the team came out of the fray unscathed except for minor bruises.

Bachman will probably hold night scrimmages or signal drills this week to keep the men's eyes accustomed to the night life.

Couple to Show Idaho Pictures With Lecture

"The River of No Return," an all color motion picture with lecture will be presented in College auditorium Saturday evening at 8:15 by Frederic and Sylvia Christian, a pair who made the trip downstream at great risk to get pictures of practically unexplored territory.

Subjects of the production is the Salmon river in central Idaho, a stream having a succession of falls, whirlpools, cataracts, rapids and eddies. The stream cannot be navigated upstream, and downstream only under expert guidance and at great risk.

The Christians have brought to the screen the first pictures of this least known section of the United States. Wild animals will be shown in their natural habitat, and unusual phenomena of our country's natural scenery will be pictured.

The picture is a presentation of the adventure series, and students will be admitted upon presentation of their student receipts.

Book List Released

The monthly list of books catalogued in September has been distributed by the Michigan State college library to the heads of the departments of instruction. This list was formerly distributed to more than 600 faculty members but can only be distributed to 50 department heads because of the current paper shortage.

ROME, Oct. 23—(AP)—Despite new German reinforcements, American fifth army troops today consolidated newly-won positions in bitter fighting eight miles south of Bologna, while the British eighth army enlarged its grip on the Adriatic sector in Italy by capturing Cervia, 12 miles below Ravenna.

It was slow, difficult progress for the Allied armies striving to break into the Po valley of northern Italy.

The Americans were about one mile south of Pianora on highway 65, a main road leading into Bologna.

Since capture of Livergnano was announced a week ago, the advance up highway 65 was measured less than two miles. The latest-won positions were on dominating heights, however. Despite heavy German resistance and counterattacks, Canadian troops established a bridgehead a mile wide and 1,000 yards deep across the Savio river two miles north of Cesena, 50 miles southeast of Bologna on the main Rimini-Bologna highway.

German troops were still holding the west bank of the Savio in great strength in some places.

The British also enlarged their bridgehead across the Savio west of Cesena.

Guerrilla Warfare Aims At Franco's Overthrow

Uprisings Spreading Throughout Spain, Republicans Say

LONDON, Oct. 23 (AP)—Organized guerrilla warfare aimed at overthrowing the government of Gen. Francisco Franco is spreading throughout Spain, Spanish Republicans declared here tonight.

There was no immediate confirmation from Madrid, but a dispatch from Lerida, Spain, said Spanish troops were gathered for a cleanup of Spanish guerrilla forces which had infiltrated into the Aran valley in the eastern Pyrenees west of Andorra during the past week.

Communications Reestablished

The dispatch said that during operations yesterday Spanish troops reestablished communications with Viella, the largest town in the valley, almost cut off from the rest of Spain by a spur of the Pyrenees, and with Benasque, west of Viella.

Spanish army units also recaptured the southern mouth of the tunnel on the main road leading into the valley from Lerida, which is 90 miles west of the coastal city of Barcelona.

Vilach, just north of Viella on the main valley road, remained in Republican hands last night, the dispatch added, and the whole Andorran frontier sector was reported quiet.

Republican sources in London asserted the revolt against Franco, begun some months ago on a small scale, now involves several thousand men, and additional recruits are being added daily.

It is being directed by a Spanish guerrilla high command under the political leadership of a "supreme junta of national unity," these sources said.

Overthrow by Force

The junta is dedicated to the overthrow of the Franco regime by force, the "deliverance of our country from traitors and the establishment of a government of national unity," the republicans asserted.

The current activities were described by the Spanish Republican leaders here at Hogar Espanol (Spanish house) as "the beginnings of great battles in Spain."

French Republic Reestablished

WASHINGTON, Oct. 23 (AP)—Under the leadership of aggressive Gen. Charles De Gaulle, the Republic of France emerged today from four dark years of defeat, occupation and the ravages of war.

"It took control once more of its own destinies as a sovereign nation already promised a position of power in the councils of peace.

Two actions by its allies marked the renaissance of the Republic.

Not since German invaders enveloped the shattered nation in the summer of 1940 had France attained such stature in the family of nations or such control over its own affairs.

Recognition by three great powers was accompanied by similar action of other nations, including Canada, Australia, Brazil, Peru and Venezuela.

The United States named Jefferson Caffrey as its first ambassador.

Liberators Blast Two Islands With One Plane Loss

U. S. PACIFIC FLEET HDQ., PEARL HARBOR, Oct. 23 (AP)—American heavy bombers dropped 49 tons of explosives on Iwo island in the volcano group, 750 miles south of Tokyo, last Friday, shooting down or damaging five of eight Japanese interceptors. One Liberator was lost.

Adm. Chester W. Nimitz reported the raid today, along with aerial slashes at enemy positions on Yap island, in the western Carolines, and in the central Pacific Marshall islands. One plane was lost in the Marshalls but the pilot was rescued.

Three enemy planes definitely were shot out of the skies over Iwo, one was probably destroyed and a fifth damaged.

A navy search Liberator bombed and strafed a small Japanese cargo vessel west of Iwo on Saturday.

In support of ground troops mopping up on Peleliu and Angaur islands, in the Palau group of the western Carolines, Marine planes dropped incendiaries on dug-in enemy units. They also bombed a lighthouse and gun emplacements on Bamelthaupt island, to the north.

The communique made no mention of further carrier plane attacks on the Philippines, in support of the reoccupation of the archipelago by ground forces under command of Gen. Douglas MacArthur.
