... Back Tracking

Contrary to rules of the State News against writing about staff members, the recent accident of sports editor Tom Riordon, Detroit junior, seems worthy of notice. The tall returned veteran was comfortably deposited in a corner of the office during a serious meeting Saturday when his tilted-back armchair collapsed. "Bernie's" dignity suffered, but his anatomy survived.

... Hot Stuff

Brooks Thomas, Dowagiac junior, finds that working over a hot stove is really all that the little woman could paint it to be. One of the few male students enrolled in home economics classes, he was brewing a batch of coffee yesterday as part of the assignment when his head got in the direct line of fire from the burner. Thomas is now going around with the blank look of newly singed eyebrows and lashes.

... On Wings of Song

Intermission time at Friday night's Union board dance found the grill turned into an impromptu song fest. Led by a party of six sitting close to the door in case it didn't work, the singing first didn't afford much competition to the perennial juke box. When they launched into the right song, however, the old timers present gave it a good send-off, and followed up with "Shadows" which the late Art Howard plugged so insistently for the Alma Mater. Popular opinion has it as the first occurrence in their memory, but see it as a fine addition to campus life.

Lecture Series Presents Editor

Waldemar Kaempffert, science editor of the New York Times, will appear on the lecture-concert series in College auditorium Jan. 15, 8:15 tonight, according to the series. Kaempffert has been an authority in the field of science and engineering for many years, both as a writer and editor. Except for the period of 1928-31, when he served as director of the Museum of Science and Industry in Chicago, he has been editing scientific publications since 1897. During the same time he contributed many articles to similar publications both here and in Europe and wrote several books.

Coed Bid Spin Tops Weekend Continuity Staff Of Station WKAR Seeks Writers

Two big dances, an open house and a radio party are listed with the social plans for this weekend. Friday night's Cinderella Spin will open the weekend. Tower Guard, Mortar Board, Town Girls, and SWL are combining their efforts in planning it. Coeds are not only sponsoring the dance but they will also take the initiative in getting dates, as it is a strictly woman bid affair. Wilma Frederick, Detroit senior, and Margo Green, East Lansing sophomore, are co-chairmen for the Spin. More tickets to the dance have been made available and will go on sale at 8 this morning at the Union desk.

scheduled for Friday night. The party will take place in Abbot's lower lounge.

Saturday night's plans include an open house which North and South Campbell women are giving, and an ASTRP Unit military ball. The Ball will serve as a farewell for the ASTRP students who will soon leave the campus. Pvt. Richard Vaelmers is in charge of this dance, which will take place in the Union ballroom.

Heavy Death Toll Rakes Indo-China

HANOI, FRENCH INDO-CHINA, Jan. 14 (AP) — French and Annamite sources in this politically tense capital said today they believed between 600,000 and 2,000,000 persons in northern Indo-China were doomed to die of starvation within the year. Cold and hunger already are taking a heavy toll, and the situation in this plagued capital was aggravated by the explosive atmosphere engendered by the bitter feeling the French and the unrecognized republic of Viet Nam.

Continuity Staff Of Station WKAR Seeks Writers

The writing staff of the college radio station, WKAR, has expanded considerably during the past four years according to J. Kenneth Richards, production and continuity supervisor. In 1942 two persons worked on the continuity staff of the station. At present seven comprise the staff, of which two paid positions are now open.

The radio station needs two men who are interested in doing original writing. Richards stated that he preferred persons with writing experience and a musical background.

The continuity staff when complete will include two music librarians, four staff writers, and the continuity supervisor.

Any veterans having previous experience in radio writing, will receive particular consideration, Richards said.

Students applying should have at least an all-college one point average. Those interested may contact Richards at Ext. 600 to make appointments for interviews.

Night Shifts Inaugurated As 49 Evening Classes Begin At State

By SYLVIA CIERNICK

To the tune of droning vacuum cleaners, and strange night noises, 49 evening classes meet to make up State's night shift. Nine buildings are being used to house these classes which represent almost every department on campus.

Along with the inauguration of State's night shift, many rumors and questions have arisen.

It is understood that investigations are underway to decide if luminous signs should be erected to guide students to their evening classes. This was suggested after it was discovered that even seniors are using that old freshman excuse that they got lost and couldn't find the building.

Traffic Jams

The increase of students on campus in the evening has caused many of them to complain that the paths aren't safe for an evening stroll. The night shift students fail to see them as they

J-Hop Committees Plan Date Change

Late Permission to be Granted For Reactivated Class Dance

Latest information revealed by the J-Hop planning committee includes a possible change of date and a full list of committees and their chairmen.

Feb. 1, the date which was formerly announced for the dance, may have to be changed because of difficulties incurred in getting a big name band for that evening, according to Glen O. Stewart, junior class adviser. The alternate date that has been chosen is Friday, Feb. 15. Dancing at the J-Hop will be between 9 p.m. and 3 a.m.

King Explains Plan to Ease Book Delay

"Our major concern is to get as many books as are available to the veterans as soon as possible," Prof. Tom King, director of the office of veterans affairs declared yesterday.

Speaking of what measures are being taken to remedy the book problem, King announced that Additional books and supplies for veterans arrived in Demonstration hall last night and will be available for distribution today, the office of veterans' affairs revealed.

two new procedures have been introduced. Starting this week, orders can be filled in Demonstration hall, instead of being referred to the College book store.

In addition, those who wish to obtain their books elsewhere can do so, but should bring in their receipts if they expect reimbursement. This should make accessible to veterans, books from sources other than the College book store. "But certain texts are just not available from the publishers," King said.

Commenting on the situation, he expressed his belief that the difficulty can be eliminated now so as not to arise again in the spring. "We feel sure that we will be able to cope with this difficulty from now on," King avowed.

'To Dress or Not To' Vote Slated For Men

A re-vote on the question of formal dress for men will be held Friday from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. in the lower deck of the Union, according to Student Council Co-chairmen Dale Brown, Sebewaung junior, and Bud Smith, Dearborn senior.

All men are requested to vote as the result will determine the type of dress for open dances, such as the J-Hop and Senior ball.

The polls will be open to all men on campus. Student identification cards will be required.

The junior class officers met with Stewart last week to choose the committees for the affair. John Kobs, Jr., East Lansing, will head dance committees as general chairman with James Fraser, Webberville, as chairman of the band committee. Assisting Fraser will be Betty Card, East Lansing; Jane Genebach, Battle Creek, and Mary Ellen Curtis, Flint.

Decorations

Decorations will be handled by Gayle Oviatt, Washington, D. C., committee chairman; William Gaylord, Pontiac; Ann Metzger, Toledo, O.; Vera Clee, Pontiac, Post, N. Y.; Nancy Wynne, den, East Lansing, and Charles Costa, Detroit.

Leroy Gunderson, Lapeer, will head the favors committee. He will have as his helpers, Barbara Allen, Detroit; Theodore Corson, Birmingham, and Albert Poppler, Chicago, Ill.

Finance will be in the hands of Robert Butler, Fenton, chairman. Others members of the committee are Robert Wilkins, Alpena; Irene Cumat, Buffalo, N. Y., and Jacqueline Potter, Lima, O.

Intermission Plans

Plans for the intermission will be taken care of by Richard Mosher, East Lansing, chairman; Charles Derr, and Phyllis Collins, Spring Lake.

Jackson County Court to Hear McKay Trial

MASON, Mich., Jan. 14 (AP)—The trial of Frank D. McKay, Grand Rapids politician, and four defendants accused of a liquor graft conspiracy, today was ordered transferred to Jackson county circuit court, starting at 9:30 a.m. Wednesday.

Special Judge John Simpson of Jackson ordered the change from Ingham county circuit court, where pre-trial legal skirmishes started this morning, because of what he termed "scandalous" circumstances growing out of prosecution charges of alleged tampering with prospective jurors.

Special Prosecutor Kim Sigler objected to the change. Defense attorneys accepted it immediately.

When court opened this morning defense attorneys presented an affidavit from McKay, renewing earlier contentions that it was "an impossibility to get a fair and impartial jury" in Ingham county at this time. They sought a change of venue and a continuance.

Other defendants are William H. McKeighan, former Flint mayor; Fisher L. Layton of Flint, and Charles Williams and his son, Earl J. Williams, former Detroit liquor sales agents.

March of Dimes Campaign Begins

Poliomyelitis (infantile paralysis), a devastating affliction of man, bears the attention of every mindful person. One of the most expensive diseases known to medicine, it strikes indiscriminately the rich and poor, the weak and strong, the young and old. None are immune.

In order to raise the funds needed for combatting this disease, and to provide medical treatment for all its victims, the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis sponsors annually a "March of Dimes." The campaign this year started yesterday and runs through Jan. 31.

Our late president, Franklin D. Roosevelt, himself a victim, felt deeply the sufferings of the afflicted, and endeavored much in their behalf. The establishment of the National Foundation is a result of his effort, its work a tribute to his humanitarianism.

Because this cause has been supported so generously in recent years, not one polio-casualty went untreated in 1944 when Michigan suffered one of its worst epidemics, a total of 900 cases. A long-term research program for finding means of prevention and cure has also been provided.

It behooves every one of us to contribute what we can to sustain this noble work. We cannot afford less than an all-out offensive against polio. The health and well-being of untold thousands is in the balance. The fight against polio must not falter.

Affairs of State

By TONI EBNER and SALLY CLARK

THINGS in this office are really hopping since vacation. Must be that the men around these parts are in a romantic mood, or else they're just happy about being back on the old campus again. But whatever it is, they certainly are keeping this column from hitting the rocks.

First on a long list of marriages and engagements is that of Jean Fosdick, Alpha Ch, from Three Rivers. She and Tom Monroe were married Dec. 26 in Three Rivers. Tom is now stationed at Camp Grant.

Also on the marriage list is Rosemary Taylor of Shaw house. She and Dean Bodley, SK 3 c were married Dec. 20.

Now to leave the marriage business in favor of the ring category where things are really booming.

Candlelight and dinners were in order at the Alpha Phi house the other night. Helen Wolf is the coed sponsoring all this. She received a ring not so long ago from Lt. John Reeder of the air corps from Seattle who is about to be discharged.

Marilyn Page, Grosse Ile sophomore, is pretty excited these days. Might be that the reason is the sparkler she has from Bill Kirkland, Bill was a graduate of State back in '44 and is a member of Psi U.

News from U. of M. says that Joe Ponsetto, captain of the football team there, has presented Pettie DeBruyn, Flint sophomore, with a ring. What is it that these U. of M. men have, anyway?

Winding up a long list of engagements for this week are those of Mary Lou Darby and Joyce Brower. Mary Lou received a ring from Dick Mead, Sigma Nu from Duke, and the man in Joyce's life is Den Boer from Grand Rapids.

Fraternity pins have begun to disappear and pop up in assorted places within the past few days. Penny Nitz, Baroda sophomore, has an ATO pin passed by Sam Fortino, Alma senior.

Along the same subject Barbara Flues, Birmingham freshman, has an SAE pin from Moon Mullen, Dowagiac sophomore. Delta Sigs had reason for a celebration when their fraternity brother Gene Wolff, Detroit freshman, turned over his badge to Pat Sayles, Alliance, O., sophomore.

Snow banks and gusts of wind haven't served to dampen the spirits of Cupid. An addition to the engagement list comes in from Shirley Scorse, Rochester, N. Y., junior, who transferred to Cornell university. Shirley is a Pi Phi and her fiancee, Sheldon Smith, also from Rochester, has just returned to State after being discharged from service.

Clearing up all matters with the romantic learnings, a due list of excitement took place at the Theta house. New pledge now wearing the black and gold emblem of pledgeship is Audrey Henderson, Sturgis junior.

Argentina Feels Civil Strike

BUENOS AIRES, Jan. 14 (AP)—Argentina's industrial and commercial leaders clamped a stronghold on the nation's business activity today in an impressive show of civil resistance to the Argentine military government's labor policies.

Not a wheel turned in any factory and scarcely any store of importance opened. Small merchants, including grocers, fruit-merchants and bakers joined large industrial firms in the three-day lockout called to protest wage increases and year-end bonuses decreed by the government of Gen. Edelmiro Farrell ten days before the end of 1945.

The permanent committee of businessmen, industrialists and manufacturers who called the lockout disclosed that they first had asked the government to suspend for 90 days the execution of the government decree.

This proposal was made, a committee spokesman said, so that the issue could be discussed after the election of Feb. 24. It has been charged that the government's decree was a downright bid for total control of the economy in the name of the president's dacy of Juan Domingo Peron. Argentine strong man, former vice president, had rejected the business proposal.

Political observers said the lockout was 90 per cent effective throughout the country, 14,000,000 people. The city of Buenos Aires, usually crowded with shoppers, was deserted.

United Nations Hear Address by Byrnes

LONDON, Jan. 14 (AP)—Secretary of State James F. Byrnes asked cheering members of the United Nations assembly today for immediate action to insure that atomic energy shall be used "for human welfare and not for more deadly human warfare."

Pledging his country's "wholehearted cooperation" with the 50 other United Nations, the chief U.S. delegate also urged that the powerful new security council begin "immediately" its task of building an international armed force to put down aggression.

"Let's go to a crowded place. I want everyone to see you in your new Jonathan Logan dress."

MSC Matmen Cop Opener; Romp Over Wheaton, 33-3

By KEN CLARK

In a dual meet highlighted by an overtime match between State's Gordon Cole and Wheaton's Jim Fraser, Coach Fiddley Collins' Michigan State college matmen jumped off to a flying start as they opened the 1946 wrestling season, by trouncing Wheaton college in Jenison fieldhouse last Saturday.

Eager to give State an early lead, Cliff Fletcher, 121-pounder, led off the meet with a fall over Wheaton in two minutes.

Covey a moment later pinned Wheaton's 128 pounder, in 50 seconds from the start. Referee Pat Richter (Iowa) awarded the fall.

Does It Again
All the pre-meet hype concerning the State and Wheaton's star, Jim Fraser, held the 136-pound grapplers, who were defeated at the hands of Fraser in 1945, was out to gain revenge. For a time it looked as though Cole's dream would become a reality but Fraser rallied in the closing moments of the fight to take a 12-10 decision.

Executing a splendid figure-eight headscissor, Iggy Konrad, former army dischargee, felled Wheaton in seven minutes and 48 seconds to carry over 145-pound honors. Konrad, a letterman, made good use of his superior experience, winning a variety of holds.

Wah-Wah Got Rebounds
Ralph Beard and Wah-Wah Jones, the Wildcat frosh stars, did most of the damage, Beard getting 18 points and Jones 11, but it was the excellent backboard work of Wah-Wah that really marked the difference between the two clubs. There were

After gaining a full dozen near the Gale Mikles, NAAU champ and star of the State squad, pinned Wheaton's Willson in four minutes and 47 seconds in the 5-round encounter.

In his first start for State, John Dowell, tall Tulsa redhead, breezily won a 10-5 decision over Wheaton's Bob Elliot. Dowell's effort was a near fall early in the bout.

Back out, a letterman in 1940 and recently returned from four years' naval service, gained a fall over Boy Stevens of Wheaton and they asserted himself into the 5-round picture after such an extended absence.

Final attraction of the meet was the 147-pounder, Spartan heavyweight, and Chad Miller, Wheaton, against each other in a bout which Maldegen had little trouble in taking. Maldegen, making his first attempt at college wrestling, pinned Miller in 36 seconds short of regulation time.

The Spartan matmen copped ten of the eight matches for a score of 33-3. Illinois will provide the next test for the Colts when they meet atampaign Saturday.

Swedish Cinder Star
Lose Status
NEW YORK, Jan. 14 (AP) — Under Haegg, Swedish swiftie of his seven world records, appeared headed for the amateur ranks today following reports of an unidentified leader of Finnish athletics said in Stockholm that Haegg probably would never run as an amateur again.

Haegg, Arne Anderson and 13 other athletes have been under contract for several months on charges they accepted fees which their promoters have admitted giving certain outstanding competitors. A decision is not expected until March 1.

Haegg is ruled pro, all the records he established since the infraction of the rules may be crossed out of the book.

Matman Finds 'World Phoney'

WOMEN'S SPORTS

By GLORIA OSTER

WITH a league of 42 teams, the current WAA basketball race is in full swing and last year's championship Winsokie club is still going hot, having taken its first tilt from the Knitting Kittens, 27-7 last week.

Other outstanding teams are the Slippery Slickers, who finished second to the Winsokies in 1945 and hold a very impressive 52-15' decision over East Mayo; the Hearty Sparties with a 32-4 count over Abbot 16; and the Hot Foots, who took the Shaw house cagers, 17-6.

Gremlins Win, Too
More results from last week's action saw the Gremlins edge past Mason 10 in a one basket contest, 2-0; Abbot Spartans take Et Cetera, 6-5; Zeta Tau Alpha beat the BTOs, 18-11; and the Shooting Stars fall, 2-0, to the Colts.

Mason hall's precinct one and three handed the Berries a 2-0 whitewash, as did the Wildcats to North-hall and the PKs to a luckless Dart outfit. Taft house handed North Campbell a one basket shutout while Sanford house won a 5-4 victory from the Steam.

STILL on top in the badminton competition is Elizabeth Hammond, Block 1 leader, with Claire Neitz, Judy Williams and Nan Vandervoort. To follow in that order.

Girls holding leads in the remaining blocks are Jane Hite, Elizabeth Squires, Shalimar Brigham, Jean Long, Mary J. Phillips, Mary J. Burns and Margaret Bryce.

Saturday's games will be announced later.

Wakefield Signed By Detroit Club
DETROIT, Jan. 14 (AP) — The Detroit baseball club announced today that Dick Wakefield, recently released from the navy, had signed a 1945 contract. Salary terms were not disclosed.

The hard-hitting outfielder first starred with the Tigers in 1943, having been signed directly off the University of Michigan campus in 1942. His hitting and aggressive play also was credited with helping bring the Tigers to within a game of the pennant in 1944.

Why No 'Mural Basketball

Here's the reason why you would-be intramural basketball stars probably won't get a chance at showing your stuff this winter. The gymnasium floor, which usually is a beehive of 'Mural activities winter term with the three big courts full of cagers from the fraternity, dorm and independent teams, is being used for students' living quarters.

Intramurals Fade No Courts Ready; No Basketball

There is little hope left for this year's intramural basketball program. L. Framodig, assistant director of athletics, indicated yesterday.

Although the army students' movement out of Wells hall on Jan. 26 will provide room for 200 men, this will not empty Jenison fieldhouse gym, to say nothing of the Union.

Demonstration hall's single floor would be inadequate even if a new home could be found for the veterans' affairs office. By the same token East Lansing's gym would be too small to handle the four games a night which would be necessary to complete the three league schedule.

Other intramural athletics are also at a standstill.

State '45 Captain To Swim For Illini

White House Demands Action to End Strikes

NLRB Summons General Motors to Appear On Bargaining Charges Made by UAW-CIO

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14 (AP) — Demands for quick action sounded on Capitol hill today as the lawmakers came back from vacation.

However, the prospect for action was uncertain as the proposition nearest ready for a vote — President Truman's fact-finding measure — ran into committee delay. "Extensive hearings" on it were suggested by a senator who had offered the bill at White House request.

Senator Ferguson (R., Mich.) said he had a "hunch there won't be any labor legislation."

The former judge from industrial Detroit explained to reporters: "Congress can't just pass a law saying 'you cannot strike.' It would be difficult, in a democracy, to take away this right of one group."

Rep. Hoffman (R., Mich.) introduced legislation requiring workers of "public utilities" to file 60-day notices of intention to strike or forfeit their jobs and rights under the National Labor Relations act.

Hoffman Bill

Hoffman's bill defines a utility as any concern "engaged in commerce or whose operations are such that a slow-down or stoppage thereof would burden or obstruct commerce or the free flow of commerce."

Mr. Truman called again for speedy action on the fact-finding measure in a conference today with Congressional leaders. During the recess he had appealed to the people by radio to put pressure on congress for action, and the White House reported today more than 6,500 letters and cards had been received showing a 6 to 1 ratio of approval.

DETROIT, Jan. 14 (AP) — The National Labor Relations board, today summoned General Motors corporation to a hearing on charges by the CIO united automobile workers that the company had failed to bargain in good faith in the current wage dispute that

Children's Theater Begins Rehearsals On Term Program

Children's Theater, under the direction of Jean Granville, graduate assistant in speech and dramatics, has begun rehearsals for this term's production.

This theater group, which was organized last term, is made up of 30 children in the fourth, fifth, and sixth grades of Lansing and East Lansing schools. A program of three short plays will be presented under Miss Granville's supervision in the latter part of February.

Anyone interested in working with the group should contact Miss Granville.

has idled 175,000 production workers for more than seven weeks.

At the same time the union, which announced acceptance of a government proposed 17 1/2 per cent wage increase after GM had rejected it, announced it will reinstate its original 30 per cent increase demand if the corporation does not reconsider its rejection by next Monday.

Union Threatens

The union also threatened to ask its strike strategy committee to order an estimated 10,000 union members in independent tool and die shops and parts and accessories plants to refuse to work on material being manufactured for GM.

The question of General Motor's ability to pay a wage increase may be injected into the NLRB hearing to be held here on Jan. 28. This was the issue on which GM walked out on hearings by the fact-finding commission. Throughout negotiations with the union GM has maintained its "ability to pay" was not properly a subject for collective bargaining with its worker representatives.

Detroit Sergeant Demands Hearing By Senate Group

BATANGAS, Philippines, Jan. 14 (AP) — Angry words between a United States senator and a Detroit army sergeant highlighted a two-hour hearing today by a senate subcommittee investigating charges that army surplus disposal troops were burning usable clothing to get rid of it.

The verbal clash was between Senator Tunnell (D., Del.) and Sgt. Emil Mazey, who protested that the subcommittee had not allowed him time enough to assemble witnesses to prove his contention that valuable government property was being burned.

The committee heard eight witnesses produced on short notice by Mazey, but seven of them testified they had no personal knowledge of wanton destruction of army property. One, Sgt. James E. Webb, 6313 Chamberlain avenue, Chicago, testified that last October he saw blankets in usable condition burned "by the truckload" and that salvage officers had refused to permit his men to take some blankets for themselves.

Today's hearing grew out of charges made by Mazey during the subcommittee's session at Manila.
