

From President Hannah

One of the valued attributes of a democracy is freedom of speech. Certainly a college student body should permit its membership every opportunity to express their views on any and every subject. It is not unreasonable, however, to expect that college students will exhibit sufficient maturity and judgment to base their expressions on facts that are easily obtainable.

I am continually impressed by the good thinking and the fundamental soundness of the conclusions of most of our Michigan State college students on subjects that they give careful thought to.

In a community of intelligent citizens one of the obligations of each is to base his public statements on facts; and if he feels urged to make a speech or write for publication, it is not unreasonable to expect that some effort be made to ascertain the factual basis of his assumptions.

In yesterday's State News appeared a letter signed "Three of Many" which in-ers that our dormitories were paid for by state appropriations.

All of our dormitories except Wells hall and North hall were built with funds borrowed from banks, insurance companies, and other investors. There was a 45 per cent grant from PWA for Campbell and Abbot halls only.

The dormitory revenues must pay all costs of operation, pay the interest on the debt and retire a portion of the debt each year. Mayo, Williams, and Mason in total and 55 per cent of the cost of Abbot and Campbell are being paid for over a period of years by the students who live in them.

Increased costs of food and labor have upset this year's dormitory budgets so that for the first time our margin between revenues and costs will not meet expectations in spite of the larger number of students in each hall for the winter and spring terms.

During the past several days students have come to me asking verification or otherwise of a variety of wild and groundless rumors, no doubt founded on careless statements like the one here referred to.

Michigan State college is sincerely interested in helping every student to make a success of his college experience. Failures for any reason reflect discredit on the institution. Crowded housing, lack of text books, and every other condition that might contribute to inferior college work are problems that the college is more concerned with eliminating than the students are.

Free and open discussions are encouraged, but let us base our assumptions on facts whenever possible.

JOHN A. HANNAH
... college president ...

Hatch to Play Feminine Lead In Winter Term Production

*Paul Geisenhof Announces Cast

Audra Hatch, Kalamazoo sophomore, will play the leading role of Regina in the term play, "The Little Foxes," director, Paul Geisenhof, of the speech department, announced yesterday.

The play will be presented Thursday, Friday, and Saturday, Feb. 27, 28, and March 1, in Fairchild theater.

The winter term play is a drama by Lillian Hellman which ran in New York in 1939 when Tallulah Bankhead starred in the leading role.

The production is sponsored by Theta Alpha Phi, national honorary dramatics fraternity, and will be produced by the department of speech and dramatics. Prof. C. H. Nickle of the speech department will design the settings.

Leading Lady

The leading lady, Miss Hatch, has acted in studio theater plays during the past two years and is now vice president of that organization.

The role of Horace, husband of Regina, will be taken by William Butt, graduate student in speech from Yale. He was last seen at State in "High Tide" in 1941.

Regina's brother, Oscar, will be played by Ted Brink, East Grand Rapids sophomore. He appeared last year in "Kind Lady" and "Pygmalion". Her other brother, Ben, will be done by Richard Finucan, Lansing sophomore.

Oscar's Wife

The role of Oscar's wife, Birdie, has been given to Mary Randolph TePoorten, Pontiac junior. Leo, son of Birdie and Oscar will be played by Keith King, East Grand Rapids freshman.

The part of Alexandra, daughter of Regina and Horace, will be portrayed by Dorothy Ann Dye, Birmingham senior. William O'Brien, Lansing junior, See PLAY, Page 4

Bookless Vets Need Old Texts King Stresses

In an urgent plea to Michigan State students who might have books which could be used by bookless veterans, Tom King, director of the office of veterans' affairs, has asked for help in supplying the necessary equipment.

King said that any student who has one of the requested books should turn it in at the Union desk immediately. All books will be paid for at the regular rate, and arrangements will be made to make them available to veteran students at once. The books and their authors are listed as follows:

McMillian Handbook of English, Kielzak; Training for Effective Speech, Oliver; College Caravan, Nelson; College Caravan, Hudson, and Introduction of Social Science, Vol. 1 and 2, by Atterbury-Auble.

Others are Poultry Husbandry, Judd; Soil Science, Miller and Turk; First Principles of Landscape Architecture, Halligan; Dictionaries (Webster and Winston); and Study of Physical Word, Parsons and Romberg.

Psychology of Personal Adjustment, McKenney; Business Organization and Management, Peterson and Plowman; General Chemistry, Young and Porter; Conservation in the United States, Gustofson, and Essentials of Accounting, Paton, are more of the books urgently needed, King said.

Concluding the list are College Algebra, Hart; College Algebra, Ridir; Descriptive Geometry, Mitter, and Atlas, Goode.

Council Votes To Postpone Mardi Gras

Annual Water Carnival Postponed Indefinitely; Formal Vote To Be Cast

Student council members voted last night to defer the Mardi Gras until spring term on the basis that the Feb. 22 date will be too close to the J-Hop which has been postponed until Feb. 15. Difficulties in obtaining a name band were also listed as reasons for the delay.

Plans for the annual water carnival were also deferred since the lack of help and equipment make the pageant impossible this year.

Pres. Helen Fisher, Grand Haven senior, reminded the group that the corsage ban will be rigidly enforced at all open college dances during the year.

Plan Revision

Miss Fisher asked all members to discuss the proposed revision in the Student council constitution with their respective organizations, and to get suggestions for improving the method of representation.

She mentioned the types of representation which have been used in the past — election or petition by division, class or school — and said that the council constitution committee was open to any proposed idea for fair representation on the student governing body.

The group met at a dinner meeting given in honor of the junior and senior class officers, who automatically become members of the council.

Ballot Booth

Council members will serve in the balloting booth tomorrow. See COUNCIL, Page 4

Crowe Announces All-College Mixer

The term's first all-college mixer will be held Jan. 25 in the College auditorium from 9 p.m. until 12 midnight, Dean S. E. Crowe announced yesterday.

This dance is part of the college sponsored series and students will be admitted by their activity coupons. It is being given to enable the new students and old to get acquainted.

The mixer will be an informal stag-drag affair. Rosemary Howland and her orchestra will play the music.

Guth Takes Top Place In Oratory Contest

First place in the women's oratorical contest held in the Union Tuesday night went to Doris Guth, Ovid Senior. She spoke on "The Cultural Lag."

Speaking on "Decentralization," Margaret Cline, Bay City sophomore, took second place.

Doris Guth represented State two years ago in the Pi Kappa Delta regional contest at Cleveland, O., in which she won second place.

Blett Urges Vets To Join Local Post As Problems Rise

The need for membership in the American Legion is great if veterans are to meet the problems that confront them now and problems that will continue to arise in the future, according to Robert Blett, Grand Rapids sophomore.

For the information of non-members, a membership desk will be open for the remainder of the week in the lower deck of the Union.

It is the policy of the American Legion for all members to take an active part in the post where they reside, Blett said.

To do this, veterans should write a card or letter to the adjutant of his old post and ask him to transfer membership to the Red Cedar Post No. 402, Department of Michigan, in care of Robert Blett, Adjutant, 335 East Grand River, East Lansing.

MSC Legend

Rock Marks Half-Way Rest

By MORTON SMERLING

On the walk that runs southwest from the Union there is a stone with a plaque on it bearing the inscription "The Half-Way Rock."

In his fortieth annual class reunion in the early 1900s, the late Francis Hodgman, of Climax, feeling the sentiment of a large field stone located half-way between the capital building in Lansing and the college, wrote the verse "The Half-Way Rock."

When half the toilsome way was passed

We rested by the stone,

Within whose cleft a cherry pit had Taken root and grown;

The cleft was not so very wide, just

Half an inch or so.

The little tree scarce touched its side

Some forty years ago.

The legend of the stone relates that a small bird once flew over the stone and dropped a cherry pit into a cleft of it. The pit went to seed and grew into a tree.

Resting Place

Students in the early days of the college, walking from class to Lansing, used to stop and rest in the shade of the cherry tree at the stone. Eventually the "half-way rock" became an important meeting place, and it was an essential word in the vocabulary of every student.

Between 1927 and 1930, the lot where the stone was located, now 2521 East Michigan, Lansing, became a building site, which made the removal of the stone mandatory.

Stone Removed

Dr. Frank S. Kedsie, class of '77, former president of the college and college historian at the time the stone was being removed, heard what was happening and became interested in it. To him may be accredited the plaque and stone, which is less than one-quarter of the original half-way rock, which now stands on the campus.

Slack Reveals Details Of Latest Rush Plans For Sorority Parties

Pres. Mary Slack revealed last minute PanHellenic plans for the formal rushing season last night.

The rushing party scheduled for Friday night at 7:15 has been changed to 6:30 because of the Cinderella Spin. Miss Slack announced that invitations for the preference dinners should be turned in to the PanHellenic office Friday night as soon as possible before 12.

Coeds going through rushing must pick up their invitations to the preference dinner between 9 a.m. and 12 noon on Saturday.

MSC Housing Aid Hangs In Balance

Nothing is more evident to both MSC students and their administration than the acute shortage of housing and classroom facilities that exists on this campus. Tuesday this fact was made evident to a group of Michigan legislators who can be instrumental in appropriating funds for an immediate emergency building program.

Following Pres. John A. Hannah's request to the Senate finance and House ways and means committee for $11,993,200 for an urgent construction program on the campus, the legislative committee toured the campus to get a first hand look at the building needs of the college.

They had a chance to see 387 veterans jammed into the not-so-homelike atmosphere of Jenison fieldhouse, the unsightly and uncomfortable trailer houses for married veterans and their wives, and the students packed into living quarters in the Union building and overcrowded dormitories. They learned how students were having noon and night classes because of overcrowded conditions.

Some of the legislators commented that conditions were "pitiful" and the situation "disgraceful." They haven't said yet what they will do about it.

In their hands rests the decision of whether the special session of legislature, meeting in Lansing Feb. 4, will grant the college the needed funds which President Hannah has asked.

He has requested that $300,000 be added to the funds already appropriated. Seven hundred thousand dollars has been designated for a much-needed new classroom building, $1,075,000 for veteran housing, and $10,618,200 for other instructional buildings including physics, science, civil engineering and agricultural engineering buildings, and additions to the agriculture, home economics and chemistry buildings now on campus.

State financial aid for Michigan State college is long overdue. The college has received no building appropriations from the legislature since 1926, yet as a state institution it has been invested with the responsibility of educating an enrollment predicted to reach 10,000 within a year in a building plant equipped to accommodate 2,800 students. The only new buildings built on campus since 1926 have been handed through federal funds or as self-liquidating projects.

The college is making every effort it can to accommodate students but it cannot be expected to carry on without financial assistance from the state for a sorely needed expansion of a rapidly growing institution.

Affairs of State

By TONI EBNER and SALLY CLARK

WHY do noses turn red? Just ask the guy who owns one. This cold weather is enough to stir up anybody's blood, but with a big imagination it's fun to sit back in a warm room and dream that the electric light in front of you is the Florida sun. In spite of the flurries of nature life goes on.

Wedding bells echoed this week for Amy Scoren, Detroit junior, when she went up the aisle of St. Thomas Aquinas church to become the bride of Bill Golden, of Chicago, last Saturday. Congratulations and best wishes followed the ceremony at a reception held at the Delta Zeta house.

A marriage that dates back to last November was made known recently. Kappa Delta Dorothy Johnson, June graduate in '45, was married in Hastings to Ens. Durward Stanlake, in naval air corps at Duluth.

Setting aside the more solemn for the sublime, Kappa Mary Ellen Wilkins, Haslett junior, turned out with a new engagement ring. Donor of the prize item is Jack Clifford, also from Haslett and just recently out of uniform.

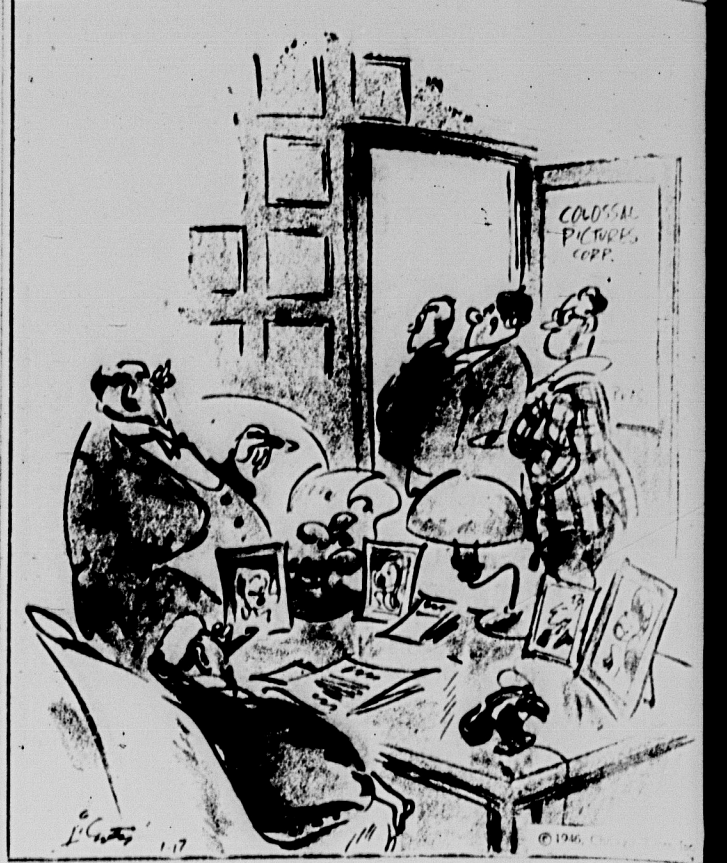

A pair of roommates are still in a mutually surprised state since they both turned up with diamonds. Jean La Bonte, Marquette sophomore, is strictly a one-man proposition from now on. Her fiancee is Morris Gilbert, back at State after his sojourn with Uncle Sam and the boys. Other ring bearer is Jet Watkins, Ann Arbor freshman, from Eric Ben, in the navy at Great Lakes.

Along with the strikes and buzz of the big city we have gotten word of other vital happenings taking shape down near Detroit. Alpha Phi Rosemary Howland, June graduate in '45, has a diamond from Walter Wikoloski, also of Detroit.

Sole pining that looms into print for today concerns Chuck Ruck, president of Lambda Chi, and Jeffersonville, Ind., junior, and Annetta Wolfe, Grand Rapids junior.

Vets at Abbot hall have gone into action, according to the latest election reports. Newly elected president is John Jordan, Hamlet, N. C., junior. Vice-president is Bob Westcott, Detroit sophomore, and secretary is Bob Glette, Detroit senior. Keeper of cash box is the job of George Rudd, Muskegon Heights junior.

Star Michigan State Tackle Back

Charley Bachman is being greeted daily by returning veterans who used to toil for him on the Spartan gridiron and with on the familiar face back on campus Charley feels more optimistic about a long-up season in 1946.

Alger Conner

Next arrival is Alger Conner, the hard-charging tackle from Pontiac, who did a great job in the State front line with the 1945 eleven. Conner was recently discharged from duty with the army. The 220-pounder fought with the 90th Infantry Division in Europe and after the war coached Europe's very successful grid team, which included at right half back Pete Fornari, another

MSC star. Conner looked in excellent shape as he talked with a News reporter yesterday, stating that '46 was the year to beat Michigan. "With so many good boys from last year's team and others coming back, this year is bound to be it," Alger grinned.

Also rumored on his way back to the Spartan campus is Russ Gilpin, whirlwind quarterback on the same club as Conner. Gilpin put in two seasons as a guard with the Second Air Force team that also had on its roster, Bulldog Turner of Chicago Bears, Frank Sinkwich, Lions, and other professional stars.

State Noses Out Wayne Five; Points for DePaul Contest

It was almost too close for comfort Tuesday evening in Detroit for the Michigan State basketball players as they slid by Wayne university 43-37, after trailing at the half 20-19. The outstanding play of Sam Fortino, Ollie White and Shorty Krall was what pulled the Spartans through in one of their poorest performances of the year.

Fortino hit for 15 points, while White popped in 11 dimes. Krall replaced Matt Mazza, who was having trouble getting started, and went nearly the entire second half, letting two baskets and four free throws along with grabbing a large share of the rebounds.

Fortino

White scored 11 points, while Krall replaced Matt Mazza, who was having trouble getting started, and went nearly the entire second half, letting two baskets and four free throws along with grabbing a large share of the rebounds.

Van Alstyne indicated that when he meets DePaul Friday evening in Chicago, he will alternate Joe Beyer with Don Waldron at one of the guard posts. Last season Beyer was regular on the famous "Iron Horse" scoring quite often with 30 shots, but this winter he hadn't seem to hit his stride and had to give up his spot to Waldron.

State Needs Punch However, with DePaul's high-scoring club the opponent, Van Alstyne will need more scoring punch in the back line to counter George Mikan and Gene Stump's high-powered efforts. Waldron has been playing excellent defensive ball, but his percentage of shots made out of those taken is low.

Van Alstyne also plans to use Seth Krause, a sophomore forward from Niagara Falls, N. Y., who has seen little action this year, as a substitute at one of the forward posts.

WOMEN'S SPORTS

By GLORIA OSTER

WHEN the Eager Beavers basketball team thoroughly thumped the cSports, 34-4, in WAA competition Tuesday evening, Joyce Alarie scored 13 of her team's 17 field goals for 26 points in one of the most outstanding individual performances this season.

In the only other scheduled game the Purple Passions won a 2-0 default victory over the KD kids. Rushing parties and the regular Tuesday evening lecture kept the evening's activities to a minimum.

I know you've been waiting for the latest badminton results, so here they are. In block 1 Nan Vandervoort moved up into the top position by winning her three recent matches, with Edna Beyer close behind as a result of her two out of three wins.

Ruth Holm is pacing the field in the second group with her perfect 5 for 5 record. Also undefeated is Marion Duncan, Block 3, who won each of her four matches to take the lead.

In the fourth block it's Andy Wilson and Mary Kay Babcock in the top places. The remaining divisions are being headed by Jean Long, Lou Coolman, Heien Nussdorfer and Sara McDonald. Doris Taubert, Dolores Isaacson, Margaret Wells and Elaine Brandt.

'S' Natators Face Illinois Saturday

Making their first home appearance of the winter swimming season, the Spartan natators will face the University of Illinois at 3 Saturday afternoon in the Jenison fieldhouse pool. Illinois is fresh from a win over Illinois Tech, while State swimmers have one victory over Northwestern.

Leading the Illinois squad will be Jim Haulenbeck, a free styler back from last year's squad. A freshman, Dick Houcek, will also aid the Illini in the distance events, while Tom Barber, former Spartan diver, will perform against his old teammates.

Coach Charles McCaffree still is undecided who to swim. Howard Patterson, star backstroke, is in the hospital with the flu, but Willard Cooley, former star, returned from service yesterday to don the togs of State. He will be a big aid in the backstroke department.

Athletic Director Ralph Young announced that all seats for the Illinois meet and also all home swimming affairs will be reserved for students.

Collins Coached Two Triple-Win Mat Champions

(This is the second in a series of two articles concerning the career of Michigan State varsity wrestling coach, Fendley Collins, by the State News staff expert, Ken Clark.)

By KEN CLARK

In the early thirties Collins took a pair of farm boys, Stanley Ball, 121-pound three-time NAAU champ, and Gordon Beavely, three-time NAAU heavyweight champ, and developed them from "green" kids into the great wrestlers that they were.

Captain of Teams

Ball and Beavely captained Spartan mat teams in 1933 and '35, respectively.

It may be truthfully said that Coach Collins is not only a builder of champion wrestlers but also a builder of character.

All freshman and sophomore men interested in winning their numerals as track managers, report at Jenison fieldhouse track between four and six Wednesday or Thursday afternoon and see Coach Karl Schlademan.

He has a unique way of being associated with his men both while they are here at State and after they leave school.

Corresponds With Matmen

The coach has corresponded with his former charges who were serving the armed forces and has kept them up to date on affairs at State. It was through this vast measure of correspondence that a memorial was suggested in honor of Spartan wrestlers who gave their lives for our side in the world conflict.

Collins is deeply endeared in the hearts of all present and past MSC wrestlers. This fact is borne out in a letter recently received from Dale Ball, a letter winner of the '37-'38 and '39 mat teams.

Ball said, "Coach Collins is one of those rare individuals. He thinks more of the individual welfare of his boys than he does of winning."

FarmHouse Returns To Win Column

The FarmHouse bowlers returned to the victory column on Tuesday night by virtue of their shutout over Alpha Epsilon Phi.

Big gun in the FarmHouse attack was Bob Amerman who bowled over enough pins for a 487 total. Following on the heels of Amerman was Herman Lung who came up with a 478.

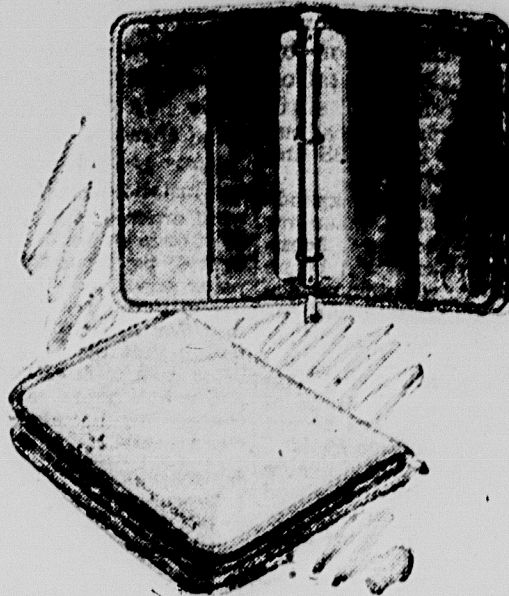

Phi Delta Theta and Alpha Gamma Rho split with two points each. Dave Schmidt and Dick Zobel were the pin toppers for the Phi Delt keggers coming up with 450 and 461, respectively. George Webb held the AGRs together with his 494.

Sigma Chi picked up three points from Psi Upsilon with George Lawley who knocked over enough maple for 515 and Bob Ballard for 504, leading the way. The Psi Us were led by Jim Graves who hit for a 475 count.

Eisenhower Plans Speech On Demobilization Snags

Johnson Proposes Draft Program

WASHINGTON, Jan. 16 (P) — Senator Johnson (D., Colo.) proposed today that single men up to 45 and "lots" of 4-Fs be drafted to provide army replacements overseas.

The War Department announced, meanwhile, that General Dwight D. Eisenhower will address the nation by radio on the demobilization problem. The chief of staff will make a 15-minute broadcast at 9 p.m. Friday over CBS and possibly other networks.

If the draft is greatly expanded until May 15 and voluntary enlistments are increased, Johnson said, "then there will be no need to continue selective service beyond May 15, when it will expire."

Army's Plan

He also expressed belief that the army's plan for a force of 1,500,000 by July 1 "can be cut down by at least 500,000 men."

Johnson, chairman of a Senate military subcommittee assigned to look into demobilization, outlined his views to reporters after its initial hearing.

The problem of huge army surpluses, scattered over many Pacific islands and in Europe and Africa, arose as Acting Secretary of War Kenneth C. Royall testified. He said many soldiers are required to handle and guard these supplies.

By next July 1 when the army plans to cut down from a present 4,200,000 to 1,500,000, Royall said, it may be necessary to abandon millions of dollars worth of surplus property to get men home.

Congress Anxious

Royall declared the War department is just as anxious as Congress to "get boys out of the army and back home as quickly as possible." He added that already 1,600,000 soldiers are home ahead of schedule.

Army ground and service forces installations in this country were ordered today to get started at once on discharging all men with 45 points or two and a half years service.

The action was in line with the War department order yesterday that by April 30 all enlisted men with 45 points or two and a half years service be discharged or be aboard ship en route home.

THAT TRIP

You've Earned...

GO SOON—AND SAVE AS YOU GO GREYHOUND

Right now is the best time of the year to give yourself a well-earned, much-needed vacation — for many reasons. It's the least crowded time of the whole year for transportation, with more room on Greyhound buses bound for almost any part of the U. S. A. or Canada. A vacation is most welcome of all in midwinter — when you really need respite from cold weather monotony and the strains of four war years! Your winter trip to the sunny South or West — to friends or family in nearby towns — to popular snow-sport resorts — will be warm and comfortable aboard a Greyhound highway coach. Fares, as always, are lowest for any type of transportation. Go soon and go Greyhound — for a pleasant, relaxing winter trip.

IT'S STILL WISE TO PLAN AHEAD:

- Get tickets and information well in advance
- Travel in midweek when possible
