

Men Vote Down Formal Dress For Open Dances

MARCH OF DIMES
CAMPAIGN

Former Vote Invalidated, 666 to 254

The men's formal dress measure was defeated yesterday by a vote of 666 to 254, John McCaughna, St. Charles senior, has announced.

Formal dress was favored in a similar vote which Student Council sponsored last term, but the number of students voting was such a poor representation of the whole male student body that at the time the council moved that a new vote be taken this term. In the vote last term 114 favored formal dress and 96 opposed it.

The increased enrollment of men students, who entered school this term, and who would be affected by the last term's vote, also necessitated a revote. The main objection to having all-college dances strictly formal was based on the present difficulty in buying or renting formal attire.

The dances which will come under this stipulation will be the J-Hop, Mardi Gras, and the Senior Prom. Closed parties, however, will not be affected by this measure.

The last all-college formal dances were held in 1943.

Faculty Member To Give Concert

Julian Miller, tenor and voice instructor and a member of the music department at MSC, will be presented in a concert next Tuesday at 8 p.m. in Music auditorium. Roy L. Underwood, head of the department, will be at the piano, and J. Murray Barbour, associate professor of music, at the harpichord.

Miller, who holds several degrees from Central YMCA college and the Chicago Musical college, did graduate work at the University of Chicago, and served as voice instructor and instructor of music and biology at Central college and Chicago city schools.

He has been vocalist on the NBC, ABC and Mutual Broadcasting system networks, and tenor soloist for various churches and music groups. He has also been the director of four Chicago choirs and is the author of "Analysis of Contemporary Voice Teaching."

Two selections by Schumann and by Schubert, "La Parodia" by Alvarez, and compositions by Sadere and Lehmann complete this varied program.

Exiles from their native land, the members of the group have taken out U. S. naturalization papers with the intention of making their home in this country.

Don Cossack Chorus To Be Here Thursday

The General Platoff Don Cossack chorus, founded under the patronage of Thomas Masaryk and Edouard Benes in 1926, will appear in the College auditorium as a special number Thursday, Jan. 31, according to Dean S. E. Crowe, director of the lecture-concert series.

Their program includes Russian liturgical music and folk song, Cossack melodies, battle songs, and recent Soviet songs. In a tour of the world, composed of 27 Russians from the Don river region, the Don Cossacks have given more than 4,500 concerts under the direction of Nicholas Kostrunkoff.

Lionel Hampton's Orchestra To Play For J-Hop

Famous Swing Artist Signed For All-College Dance

Spiking the many rumors that have been floating around campus the last few days, the J-Hop band committee announced yesterday that Lionel Hampton and his band have been signed for the all-college dance sponsored by the junior class.

Jim Fraser, Webberville, chairman of the band committee, revealed that the colored band will play for dancing from 9 p.m. until 3 a.m. in College auditorium on Feb. 15, when the J-Hop returns as an annual affair after a two-year wartime absence.

Features Two Singers

Hampton, who is known for his artistry on the vibraphone, piano and drums, features two vocalists. Blues are handled by Dinah Washington, while Madeline Green handles the lyrics to the ballads.

Other artists featured with Hampton are Herbie Fields and Arnette Coons on sax and Joe Morris on trumpet.

Discovered by Benny Goodman

Versatile Hampton was discovered by Benny Goodman and played with his band as a member of the Goodman sextette. Since organizing his own band, he and his men have risen steadily in the public favor and are now known as one of the outstanding jazz groups of the nation.

Two of the best known of Hamp's recordings are "Hamp's Boogie" and "Flying Home."

Today's Campus

... Tired Horse

The Berries and Violets (coed basketball teams, fellows) were opposing each other last night when the ball got tired and staged an impromptu sitdown strike. When the Berry team made a shot the ball rolled nonchalantly around the rim several times, and then tiring of it all, came to rest between the rim and backboard, from where it had to be retrieved by one of the players before the game continued.

... Punishment?

Prof. Raymond Gonso, in his beginning philosophy class, was attempting to get the idea of causality over to his students. Looking at the workmen outside of Ag hall, he asked, "If one of those workmen was caused to fall and landed on a man below and killed him, did the workman cause the death? What would he get for it?"

... Attention

Something new has been added to ROTC. The cadet captain, Joe Dyerex, artillery man, was heard to utter to company C: "Port shoulder arms." A voice from the rear rank, meekly questioned: "What shoulder is that, Sir?"

MSC Host To High School Debate

Open House, Mixers Take Social Spot

As winter term is still in its younger stage, open houses and mixers are predominant on the social roster for the benefit of those students who would like to meet a few new faces.

Heading the list of mixers is the traditional Party-Party which Union board is giving this afternoon. It will take place in the Union ballroom from 3 to 5 and Dick Snook and his orchestra will present the latest hit tunes for dancing. Chairman Jim Graves, Muskegon sophomore, has emphasized that dates for the affair are not necessary as it will be a stag-drag affair. Even the students who claim they can't dance will be welcome, as tables will be set up for games and cards.

Spartan Varieties Cancelled

Spartan Varieties were originally scheduled to appear this afternoon, but due to a change in policy of the American Federation of Musicians, Snook and his band will be unable to broadcast.

Campbell dorm will be the scene of an open house tonight. The Campbell coeds have planned entertainment and decorations for the affair on a dream-land theme. Co-chairmen Rachel Heuck, Ypsilanti sophomore, and Pat Delahunte, Grand Rapids junior, have announced that six "Dream Girls" will highlight the program.

Open House

The doors of the open house will open at 8:30 and close at 12. The only requirement for admittance at the affair is: to be a man. Patrons will be Prof. and Mrs. A. Applegate, Prof. and Mrs. A. Scott, and Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Pingel.

"Fiddler's Folly" is the theme of tonight's student club mixer. It will take place in the social hall of Peoples church at 8 p.m. Maxine Finkbeiner, Middleville sophomore, has stressed that Student club is an interdenominational group, and that all students are invited to attend the mixer. Prof. W. I. Firey and Prof. and Mrs. R. K. Stein have been invited to act as patrons.

Famed Musical Team To Give Performance

Appearing at the Prudden auditorium in Lansing on Wednesday will be two men who have no equal, Larry Adler on the harmonica and Paul Draper dancing.

Draper is recognized as one of the outstanding dancers of the country. Dancing professionally since his teens, both here and abroad, he has built about himself routines which combine both the ballet and tap steps.

Larry Adler also started his career at an early age. His start began when he won a contest, and from that time on has been doing nothing else. Many critics have classed him as the only harmonica virtuoso. He has played command performances before many crowned heads abroad.

Twenty-Two Schools To Be Represented At Conference

Twenty-two Michigan high schools will be represented at State today in the annual invitational debate conference sponsored by MSC.

Student debaters and their coaches will attend the conference from the following high schools: Battle Creek, Bay City Central, Belleville, Bloomfield Hills, Britton, Cass City, De La Salle Collegiate, East Lansing, Flint Central, Gobles, Hudsonville, Kalamazoo, Western State and Lansing Eastern.

Other High School

Other high schools to be represented include Lansing Sexton, Ludington, Marshall, Muskegon Heights, University of Detroit High, Unionville, Wyoming Park, Trenton, and Ann Arbor.

Director of forensics, Bernard J. Knittel of the speech department, is general chairman of the affair. Gordon Thomas, speech department, is in charge of room assignments and judges.

Subject For Debate

The subject for debate is "Resolved: That every able-bodied man between the ages of 18 and 24 should have one full year of military training." Each school will be permitted to enter two teams, negative and affirmative, in the tournament division. As many teams as desired may be entered in the league division.

The meeting will open at 10 a.m. in Music auditorium, at which time Paul D. Bagwell, acting head of the speech and dramatics department, will welcome the visitors to State's campus.

Preliminary Round

The preliminary round of debates is scheduled to begin at 11 a.m. Debates will be held in various campus buildings. Second and third rounds of the debate will be held at 1:30 p.m. and 3 p.m., respectively.

The debate conference was discontinued several years ago because of the war and was resumed this year at the request of numerous high schools.

ONLY RUMOR

'It Must Be Wrong' Housing Unchanged

"After all, there comes a point beyond which one cannot go," were the words Mrs. Maurice Gopon used in answer to a query about the current rumor that four women would occupy each dormitory room spring term.

The rumor which is now circulating around the campus is completely unfounded, she continued. The present situation with three coeds to a room will likely continue, however, she added.

Dorm Elects Officers

U.S. Steel Corp Calls Strike

WASHINGTON, Jan. 18 (AP)—A nation-wide strike in steel—key industry of the American economy—was definitely called today for Monday after the U.S. Steel Corp. rejected a White House compromise accepted by the CIO.

Philip Murray, president of the United Steel Workers, told a news conference that the walkout must take place 12:01 a.m. Jan. 21, as already tentatively scheduled.

A short time previously, President Truman had issued an urgent appeal to the steel corporation, pace-setter for the industry, to reconsider and accept his compromise plan for a wage increase of 18 1/2 cents an hour.

The union has backed down from its most recent demand of 19 1/2 cents.

Morton will meet with senior students interested in mechanical, chemical, and electrical engineering, and also in chemistry.

The Standard Oil company, in Cleveland, will have Representative T. E. Morton at the MSC placement office all day Tuesday. Director Tom King announced.

Art Exhibit Shows Post War Housing

"Lessons in War Housing", an exhibit from the Museum of Modern Art, New York city, is now on exhibit in the Music building gallery, the art department has announced.

This exhibit, which is a follow up of the housing films presented earlier this week, will be open until Thursday.

The purpose of the exhibition is to help disseminate knowledge in the interest of better and more efficient postwar building programs.

The next exhibit will follow an art lecture by Walter Kurt. His topic will be "Love and Hate in Art" and will be given Tuesday, Feb. 5.

Spartan Spotlight Review Auditions To Be Monday

The Spartan Spotlight review under the direction of Don Buell of the speech department, will hold tryouts Monday in the sun porch of the Union from 7 to 9 p.m.

For the fourth consecutive year the review will tour nearby army hospitals and service clubs with a program made up of student talent.

January 28 is the date set for the first show which will be presented at Fort Custer. All those already contacted are to attend tryouts Monday.

Any other persons who have talent are welcome, especially accordionists and specialty numbers, Buell added.

The group will present two shows at Custer, one in the afternoon and one in the evening, besides going through the wards.

LETTERS . . . . To The Editor

TO the Editor:
The letter signed "Three of Many," appearing in the editorial column of Jan. 16 seems to have aroused a variety of discussions among students and faculty.

It is possible that others, besides President Hannah have read the article and procured a different meaning from the one intended.

Our primary concern is the amount we are paying for our third of a room rather than whether or not funds were appropriated by the state or borrowed from a bank.

Foods costs do not seem to be any higher this term than they were last term, and three or four people in one room do not use any more heat or electricity.

President Hannah has stated that the college is doing its utmost to try to eliminate these trying conditions. No doubt it is true, and also, we are willing to make the best of being crowded together. A number of parents and students, however, do not think it is quite right to pay the same amount for one-third of a congested room as was paid in the past for one-half of a smooth "set-up."

THREE OF MANY.

OPEN letter to Robert Franklin:

Being in no way connected with a veterans' organization of any type, my reasons for mildly chiding your Wednesday's letter (and that is no misspelling) to the editor can in no wise be construed as evidencing any ulterior motive.

To be charitable, I am sure that, at the very least, you have been most indiscriminate in your choice of words in ranting about the Red Cedar post's "irresponsible outburst." While the post may numerically be small, they did speak for a majority; if you don't live in monastic seclusion, you

Military Ball
Also slated for tonight is the Military Ball, which will serve as a farewell for the 200 ASTPR students who will soon leave campus. The Union ballroom will serve as the scene for the ball, and Andy Devine and his orchestra have been contracted to play from 9 until 12. Patrons for the affair will be Col. and Mrs. G. B. Egger, Lt. Col. and Mrs. Gerald Peterson, Major and Mrs. Earl T. Houk, and Capt. and Mrs. Ford.

Tonight's only radio party will be given by the Zeta Tau Alphas. It will take place at the chapter house from 9 to 12, and Mary Elizabeth O'Brien, Dearborn sophomore, is the chairman. Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Knittel, and Prof. and Mrs. W. R. Fee will act as patrons.

have only to poll your buddies to substantiate that.

You say that "they have embarrassed not only the administration but also the entire student body by the unwholesome publicity of a witch-hunt." How utterly naive you must have been to write that! For five cents which I could have loaned you had you come to me — you might have learned from the Lansing State Journal that the college administration was prepared not only for the number of Vets who did register this term but, according to their statement, for more. Yet the administration has been embarrassed, how utterly touching.

How much more embarrassed are they who, at this very moment of writing, have not received their texts. Heaven forbid that the administration's preparedness had extended further!

Secondly, Mr. Franklin, has the publicity been unwholesome and to whom? In what respect, pray tell? Did it not result, almost immediately, in a hasty attempt to rectify the situation, that is, by allowing us to purchase our books, present the receipts and be reimbursed?

Thirdly, who, among the student body, beside yourself was embarrassed? Certainly not those of us who desire to effect public airing of someone's gross inefficiency — an airing which did bring tangible results.

I might, quite easily, go on to disapprove more of your somewhat misguided statements but the point has sufficiently been made. We'll not go "hog-wild," Mr. Franklin, nor will we "witch-hunt" but I, for one, am grateful if the situation's remedy has been due to the post's action.

After all, I can study now; remember, Robert, that's the reason we returned to school.

Sportsitorial . . . Intramural Question

Some progress was made this week in the intramural problem of button, button, who's got a basketball floor.

A State News sports reporter investigated the hardwood possibilities this past week around the East Lansing public schools. Fred Dixon, superintendent of schools, reported that although Central and Badley grade school gyms were too small, East Lansing high might be available.

If the Michigan State athletic department would pay for the light, heat, and provide a supervisor, the high school gym could probably be used, Dixon told the reporter. He added that the fee would be very slight.

This, however, brings up another problem. Assistant Director of Athletics Lyman Fridmodig states that only four games could be played each evening, whereas to maintain the usual three leagues, fraternity, dormitory and independent, there would have to be 12 ball games per night.

This would indicate that only one league could have competition this winter. The athletic department does not want to show partiality to any one group, so unless all leagues can compete, intramurals will be dropped until spring.

However, it has been suggested that the Jenison fieldhouse court might also be employed and Fridmodig has promised that all possibilities will be looked into and if there be any chance intermural basketball will be played.

Maybe it wouldn't be as classy as prewar intramural activities but it would give the male students a chance to get some exercise and play in an organized league.

Wayne Stops MSC Fencers

By MARTY HANBAHAN

Wayne University's powerful fencing aggregation overpowered an inexperienced Michigan State team in Jenison fieldhouse yesterday afternoon in the first varsity fencing meet of the current season, 15-4, 2-9, 1-2.

Wayne got off to an excellent start by taking the odd match 7-2. Tom Billing and Charles Thompson turned in the only victories for State in this match. Billing defeated Bill Howard of Wayne 4-1, and Thompson defeated Howard also 5-1.

State made a slight comeback in the even match when they tied Wayne 4-1, 2-4, 1-2. In this match Louie Marion of State defeated George Taines of Wayne. Alex Valente, State, defeated Wayne's Bob Grant in the meet's closest match.

In the concluding odd matches Wayne clinched the meet by trimming the Spartans 7-2. Gregg Dean and Jack Shiley of State defeated Wiley Sherman and Joe Kinnel to secure State's only victories in this match.

Although Coach Charles E. Schmitter's boys were badly outclassed, he is highly optimistic over the possibilities of the team and believes the State fencing team will improve greatly with more competition.

The college all stars have won three games, but two and lost seven against the world professional football champions in Ontario's colorful Bell Telephone Lou Zito, now Spartan, who played in the 1936 game to even the score against the Detroit Lions.

The State theater's matinee hours have been changed. The matinee will open at 1:15 and the first show will start at 2:15.

Dangerous Detroit Titans Phillips to Return Next Foe for Spartan '5'

Back in East Lansing after a pair of road games, Michigan State's basketball squad will take on the ever-threatening University of Detroit quintet in Jenison fieldhouse Wednesday evening.

Last winter the Spartans had little trouble in their two contests with the Titans, winning both by wide margins, but this season it will probably be a different story. Detroit's coach, Lloyd Brazill, has dug up a nearly equal quality team and as usual the Titans will be pointing for their contests with State.

Back from the wars is Art Stolkey, who played two seasons for Brazil in 1941 and '42. Stolkey was captain of the 1942 edition and played a big role when Detroit upset the Spartans here that year after State had rolled up a string of 12 wins.

Stolkey is setting them up this year for the Titans' newest find at center, Gao Soyran, who is currently hitting the hoops for a 12 point-per-game average. Soyran transferred into the U. of D. engineering school after playing for Assarapion college in Canada, where he scored an even 1,000 points in three seasons.

Brazill's style is slow-break, featuring plays and set-shooting, which is completely contrary to the tempo set by Ben Van Alstyne's type of play, so it's going to be interesting to see if the Spartans will force the Titans to a speedy pace or the Detroit quintet will make State "blow down to its pace."

John Doe, famous tennis southerner, practically won the national championship on his serve which was almost impossible to return. It is often thought to have been the best of all time, and Doe needed the serve to offset a poor, almost a beginner's backcourt game.

U. of D. Star

Art Stolkey, who captained the Titan squad in 1942, is setting them up again this year for the University of Detroit cagers.

WOMEN'S SPORTS

By BARBIE ALLEN

MICHIGAN State has again entered the Sixth Annual National Telegraphic Bowling tournament for amateur women bowlers in which 15 major leagues are participating. Last year State took second place.

Alpha Phi won a total of 47 points to defeat Mason 3 who scored 44 points. Another close game was bowled between victorious Nora Campbell and Alpha Chi Omega, 300-256. Alpha Delta, with a total of 606 pins, defeated Mason 3, which compiled 591.

Phi Beta Phi had an easy time with South Williams with the final score being 903-439. Cathedral Black defeated Kappa Alpha Delta 34 to 322.

Spartan Coed To Compete For All Swim Titles

Donna Maddock, swimmer from California, is competing in the 400-yard freestyle, 75-yard backstroke, and 50-yard breaststroke in the Michigan AAU meet in Detroit.

Red Cross Cancels Registrations

There will be no new registration for Red Cross classes this term, according to Marian Cheney, Lansing junior and student Red Cross chairman. The term is too short to begin any new work.

The college Red Cross unit

sponsored several classes last term for students interested in obtaining home nursing certificates, Red Cross orientation certificates, and women who volunteered to assist the Grey Ladies in the downtown hospitals.

Draft Continuation Meets Senatorial Opposition

WASHINGTON, Jan. 18 (AP)—A selective service recommendation for continuation of the draft collided today with a senatorial prediction that it would "be out of the window" by May 15.

The recommendation came from Major General Lewis B. Hershey, the draft director; the prediction from Senator Johnson (D-Colo.), chairman of a military subcommittee inquiring into the army's demobilization troubles.

Johnson declared the public hearings ended today, the third day of the proceedings. The two other members of the committee, Senators Reverend (R-WVa) and Briggs (R-Mo.), objected, asserting that only army and draft leaders had been heard.
